(d) Interest in business. Care should be taken to arrive at an accurate valuation of any business in which the decedent was interested, whether as partner or proprietor. A fair appraisal as of the applicable valuation date should be made of all the assets of the business, tangible and intangible, including good will, and the business should be given a net value equal to the amount which a willing purchaser, whether an individual or corporation, would pay therefor to a willing seller in view of the net value of the assets and the demonstrated earning capacity. Special attention should be given to fixing an adequate figure for the value of the good will of the business in all cases in which the decedent has not agreed, for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, that his interest therein shall pass at his death to his surviving partner or partners.

The factors hereinbefore stated relative to the valuation of other property, if applicable, will be considered in determining the valuation of an interest in a business held as proprietor or partner. All evidence bearing upon such valuation should be submitted with the return, including copies of reports in any case in which examinations of the business have been made by accountants, engineers, or any technical experts as of or near the applicable valuation date.

(e) Notes, secured and unsecured. The value of notes, whether secured or unsecured, will be presumed to be the amount of unpaid principal, plus interest, unless the executor establishes a lower value, or it is shown that they are worthless. However, items of interest should be separately listed on the estate tax return. Unless returned at face value, together with accrued interest, it must be shown by satisfactory evidence that the note is worth less than the unpaid amount because of the interest rate, or date of maturity, or other cause, or that it is uncollectible, either in whole or in part, by reason of the insolvency of the party or parties liable, or for other cause, and that the property, if any, pledged or mortgaged as security is insufficient to satisfy it.

(f) Cash on hand or on deposit. The amount of cash belonging to the decedent, either in his possession at the date of death or in the possession of another, or deposited with a bank, should be included. If bank checks outstanding at the time of the decedent's death, given in discharge of bona fide, legal obligations of the decedent incurred for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, and not as transfers coming within the provisions of section 811 (c) or (d) are subsequently honored by the bank and charged to the account, the balance remaining may be returned, provided the payments effected thereby are not claimed as deductions from the gross estate.

(g) Household and personal effects. All household and personal effects of the decedent should be included at the price which a willing buyer would pay to a willing seller. A room by room itemization is desirable. All the articles should be named specifically, except that a number of articles contained in the same room, none of which has a value in excess of $50, may be grouped. A separate value should be given for each article named. The executor may furnish, in lieu of an itemized list, a sworn statement, in duplicate, setting forth the aggregate value of the property as appraised by a competent appraiser, or appraisers of recognized standing and ability, or by a dealer or dealers in the class of personalty involved.

If, however, there are included among the household and personal effects articles having marked artistic or intrinsic value of a total value in excess of $2,000, such as jewelry, silverware, paintings, etchings, engravings, antiques, books, statuary, vases oriental rugs, collections of coins and stamps, the appraisal of an expert or experts, under oath, should be filed with the return, Form 706, accompanied by the affidavit, in duplicate, of the executor as to the completeness of the itemized list of such property and of the disinterested character and the qualifications of the appraiser or appraisers.

If it is desired to effect distribution or sale of any portion of the household or personal effects in advance of the investigation by an officer of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, information to that effect should be given to the internal revenue agent in charge. The statement to the internal revenue agent in charge should be accompanied by a verified appraisal of such property and an affidavit of the executor as to the completeness of the list of such property and the qualifications of the appraiser, as already referred to, but such an appraisal and affidavit need not be in duplicate. If a personal inspection by an officer of the Bureau is not deemed necessary, the executor will be so advised. This procedure is designed to facilitate disposition of such property and to obviate future expense and inconvenience to the estate by affording the Commissioner an opportunity to make an investigation should one be deemed necessary prior to sale or distribution. (For location of the offices of the internal revenue agents in charge and the territory embraced in each division, see Appendix [1].)

If expert appraisers are employed care should be taken to see that they are reputable and of recognized competency to appraise the particular class of property involved. In the appraisal, books in sets by standard authors should be listed in separate groups. In listing paintings having artistic value, the size, subject, and artist's name should be stated. In the case of oriental rugs, the size, make, and general condition should be given. Sets of silverware should be listed in separate groups. Groups or individual pieces of silverware should be weighed and the weights given in troy ounces. In arriving at the value of silverware, the appraisers should take into consideration its antiquity, utility, desirability, condition, and obsolescence.

(h) Other property. Any property not specifically treated in this section should be valued in accordance with the rule laid down in paragraph (a) of this section. Live stock, farm machinery, harvested and growing crops should be itemized and the value of each item separately returned.

(i) Annuities, life, remainder, and reversionary interests. (1) If the executor adopts the option set forth in § 81.11, any annuity, life, remainder, or reversionary interest includible in the gross estate should be valued as of the date of the decedent's death in accordance with the provisions of this section and then such value should be adjusted as explained in § 81.11 for any difference in value between the date of death and the applicable subsequent date due to causes other than mere lapse of time. If the executor does not adopt the option set forth in § 81.11, the value of any such interest should be computed as hereinafter prescribed without such further adjustment for any decrease or increase in the value of the property subsequent to the date of death.

(2) The value of an annuity contract issued by a company regularly engaged in the selling of contracts of that character is established through the sale by that company of comparable contracts.

(3) All other future payments are to be discounted upon the basis of compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent a year. If the time of payment or of payments is dependent upon the continuation of, or upon the termination of a life or of lives, the Actuaries' or Combined Experience Table of Mortality, as extended, and established actuarial principles are to be used in the computation of the present worth. For the purpose of the computation the age of a person is to be taken as the age of that person at his nearest birthday. Table A, a part of this section, gives factors applicable to a case in which only one life is involved. (See paragraphs (4) to (8), inclusive.) Table B, a part of this section, gives factors applicable to a case in which only a term-certain is involved. (See paragraphs (9) to (11), inclusive.) If the time of payment or of payments is dependent upon the continuation of, or termination of more than one life, or there is a term-certain concurrent with one or more lives, a special computation in accordance with the first two sentences of this paragraph is necessary. A case requiring a special computation may be stated to the Commissioner who will furnish the applicable factor, provided such request is made sufficiently in advance of the due date of the return. Such request must fully disclose all relevant facts. The date of birth of each person, the duration of whose life may affect the value of the interest, should be established by affidavit.

(4) If the decedent had a remainder interest in property subject to the life estate of another, the present worth of the remainder interest at the time of death should be obtained by multiplying the value of the property at the time of death by the figure in column 3 of Table A opposite the number of years nearest to the actual age of the life tenant.

Example. The decedent was entitled to receive property worth $50,000 upon the death of his elder brother, to whom the income for life had been bequeathed. The brother at the time of the decedent's death was 31 years 5 months old. By reference to Table A, it is found that the figure in column 3, opposite 31 years, is 0.31262. The present worth of the remainder interest at the date of death is, therefore, $15,631 ($50.000 multiplied by 0.31262).

(5) In case the decedent was entitled to receive an annuity of a definite amount during the lifetime of another person, payable at the end of annual periods, the present worth at the time of the decedent's death must be computed upon the basis of the value of a life annuity at the age of the other person. The amount payable annually should be multiplied by the figure in column 2 of Table A opposite the number of years in column 1 nearest to the actual age of the other person.

Example. The decedent received under the terms of his father's will an annuity of $10,000 for the life of his elder brother. The brother at the decedent's death was 40 years 8 months old. By reference to Table A, the figure in column 2 opposite 41 years, the number nearest to the brother's actual age, is found to be 14.86102. The present worth of the annuity at the date of the decedent's death is, therefore, $148,610.20.

(6) In the case of an annuity under which the decedent was entitled to receive during the life of another payments at the end of each semiannual, quarterly, or monthly period, the value of the annuity is to be determined by multiplying the aggregate amount to be paid within a year by the figure in column 2 of Table A opposite the number of years in column 1 nearest the actual age of the person whose life measures the duration of the annuity, and then multiplying the product by 1.01820 for monthly payments, by 1.01483 for quarterly payments, or by 1.00990 for semiannual payments.

Example. If, in the example given in paragraph (5), the annuity is payable in semiannual installments of $5,000 at the end of each semiannual period, the aggregate annual amount, $10,000, should be multiplied by the factor 14.86102, and the product should be multiplied by 1.00990. The present worth of the annuity at the date of death is, therefore, $150,081.44 ($10,000×14.86102×1.00990).

(7) If the first payment of an annuity for the life of an individual is to be paid at once, the value of the annuity is the sum of the first payment plus the present worth of a similar annuity, the first payment of which is not to be made until the end of the first period.

Example. The decedent was entitled to receive an annuity of $50 a month payable during the life of another. The decedent died on the day a payment was due. At the date of the decedent's death the person whose life measures the duration of the annuity was 50 years of age. The value of the annuity at the date of decedent's death is $50 plus the product of $50×12×12.47032 (see Table A)×1.01820 (see preceding paragraph (6)), or $7,668.38 [$50 plus ($50×12×12.47032×1.01820)].

(8) If the decedent was entitled to receive the entire income of certain property during the life of another person, or was entitled to the use of nonincome-producing property during the life of another person, a hypothetical annuity at a rate of 4 per cent of the value of the property should be made the basis of the calculation. A provision for the payment of income in semiannual, quarterly, or monthly installments does not affect the value to be assigned to the life interest.

Example. The decedent was entitled to receive the income from a fund of $100,000 during the life of a person 41 years old. The value of a hypothetical annuity of $4,000, dependent upon the life of such a person, is indicated by the table to be $59,444.08 ($4,000 multiplied by 14.86102).

(9) If the decedent was entitled to receive property at the end of a specified number of years, Table B or an extension thereof should be used.

Example. The decedent, who was entitled to receive $100,000 at a certain date, died 30 years prior to such date. The value of his right is the product of $100,000 multiplied by 0.308319, the factor in column 3, Table B, opposite 30 years in column 1.

(10) In the case of an annuity under which the decedent was entitled during a term-certain to receive payments at the end of each semiannual, quarterly or monthly period, the value of the annuity is to be determined by multiplying the aggregate amount to be paid within a year by the applicable factor in column 2 of Table B and the product is to be multiplied by 1.01820 for monthly payments, by 1.01483 for quarterly payments, or by 1.00990 for semiannual payments.

Example. The decedent was an annuitant for a term-certain, being entitled to $1,000 annually payable in installments of $500 at the end of each semiannual period. A semiannual payment of $500 had been made just before the death of the decedent and there remained 20 payments to be made over a period of 10 years. The value of the annuity as of the date of the decedent's death is the product of $500×2×8.11089 (see Table B)×1.00990, or $8,191.19.

(11) If the first payment of an annuity for a definite number of years is to be paid at once, the applicable factor is the product of the factor shown in Table B multiplied by 1.02154 for monthly payments, by 1.02488 for quarterly payments, by 1.02990 for semiannual payments, or by 1.04 for annual payments.

Example. The decedent was the beneficiary of an annuity of $50 a month. On the day a payment was due, the decedent died. There were 300 payments to be made, including the payment due. The value of the annuity as of the date of decedent's death is the product of $50×12×15.62208 (see Table B)×1.02154, or $9,575.15 ($50×12×15.62208×1.02154).

§ 81.11 Optional valuation date. In general, the object of subsection (j) of section 811 is to make provision whereby the amount of tax otherwise payable may be lessened when, within the year following the decedent's death, the gross estate has suffered a shrinkage in its aggregate value.

The executor may, by an election upon his return, Form 706, if filed within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioner in pursuance of law, have the property which was included in the gross estate on the date of the decedent's death valued as of the applicable dates, as follows:

(a) Any property distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of within one year after the decedent's death, valued as of the date of such distribution, sale, exchange, or other disposition, whichever first occurs;

(b) Any property not distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of within such 1-year period, valued as of the date one year after the date of decedent's death;

(c) Any property, interest, or estate which is affected by mere lapse of time, valued as of the date of decedent's death; except that an adjustment is to be made for any difference in its value, not due to such lapse of time, as of the date one year after the date of decedent's death, or as of the date of its distribution, sale, exchange, or other disposition, whichever date first occurs.

Property "distributed" is limited to distributions thereof by the executor, or by the trustee in the case of property included in the gross estate under subsection (c), (d), or (f) of section 811. Distribution may be effected by the entry of the order or decree of distribution, or, if there is no such order or decree, by the segregation or separation of the property from the estate or the trust, or by the actual paying over or delivery of the property to the person entitled thereto by the will, or under the law, or by the terms of the trust.

The sale, exchange, or other disposition, to which subsection (j) refers, may be one made by the executor, or by the trustee of property included in the gross estate under subsection (c), (d), or (f) of section 811, or by any other person to whom the property had not been distributed by the executor or by such a trustee, or to whom it had not passed from the gross estate as the result of a sale, exchange, or other disposition, as, for example, a sale, exchange, or other disposition by an heir, devisee, donee, or grantee to whom the decedent in his lifetime transferred the property, or by the survivor of the decedent if the property had been held by them subject to the right of survivorship.

Property, in the case of a sale, exchange, or other disposition within the 1-year period, is to be valued as of the date when it ceases to form a part of the gross estate, that is, the date when the title passes as the result of a sale, exchange, or other disposition. The terms "distributed," "sold," "exchanged," and "otherwise disposed of" comprehend all possible ways by which property may be separated or passed from the gross estate. Thus, money on hand at decedent's death which is thereafter used in the payment of the funeral expenses, or in settlement of claims against the estate, or is invested, falls within the term "otherwise disposed of."

In valuing the gross estate under the optional valuation method, all of the property interests existing at the date of death which are a part of the gross estate as determined under the subsections of section 811 constitute the property to be valued as of one year after the date of the decedent's death, or as of the date of the decedent's death, or as of some intermediate date. Such property is hereinafter referred to as "included property." "Included property" as of the date of the decedent's death remains "included property" for the purpose of valuing the gross estate under the optional valuation method even though it is changed in form during the optional valuation period by being actually received, or disposed of, in whole or in part, by the estate. However, property earned or accrued (whether received or not) after the decedent's death and during the optional valuation period with respect to any property interest existing at the date of death, which does not represent a form of "included property" itself or the receipt thereof, is to be excluded in valuing the gross estate at the subsequent valuation date and is hereinafter referred to as "excluded property." Among the items of "included property" to be valued in accordance with these principles are the following:

(1) Interest-bearing obligations. Interest-bearing obligations, such as bonds and notes, may, at the date of death, comprise two elements of "included property," the principal of the obligation itself and interest accrued to the date of death, and each is to be separately valued as of the applicable valuation date. The bond or note is to be valued as of the applicable valuation date without regard to accrued interest. Interest accrued after the date of death and prior to the subsequent valuation date constitutes "excluded property." However, any part payment of principal made between the date of death and the subsequent valuation date, or any advance payment of interest for a period after the subsequent valuation date made during the optional valuation period which has the effect of reducing the value of the principal obligation as of the subsequent valuation date, will be included in the gross estate, and valued as of the date of such payment.

(2) Leased property. The principles applicable with respect to interest-bearing obligations also apply to leased realty or personality included in the gross estate with the obligation to pay rent reserved. Both the realty or personalty itself and the rents accrued to the date of death constitute "included property," and each is to be separately valued as of the applicable valuation date. Any rent accrued after the date of death and prior to the subsequent valuation date is "excluded property." The principle applicable with respect to interest paid in advance also applies to advance payments of rent.

(3) Noninterest-bearing obligations. In the case of noninterest-bearing obligations sold at a discount, such as Treasury bills, the principal obligation and the discount amortized to the date of death are property interests existing at the date of death and constitute "included property." The obligation itself is to be valued thereafter at the subsequent valuation date without regard to any further increase in value due to amortized discount. The additional discount amortized after death and during the optional valuation period is the equivalent of interest accruing during that period and is, therefore, not to be included in the gross estate under the optional valuation method.

(4) Stock of a corporation. Shares of stock in a corporation and dividends declared to stockholders of record on or before the date of the decedent's death and not collected at the date of death constitute "included property" of the estate. Ordinary dividends out of earnings and profits, whether in cash or in shares of the corporation or in other property, declared to stockholders of record after the date of the decedent's death are "excluded property" and are not to be valued under the optional valuation method. If, however, dividends are declared to stockholders of record after the date of the decedent's death with the effect that the shares of stock at the subsequent valuation date do not reasonably represent the same "included property" of the gross estate as existed at the date of the decedent's death, such dividends are "included property" except to the extent that such dividends are out of earnings of the corporation after the date of the decedent's death. For example, if a corporation makes a distribution in complete or partial liquidation to stockholders of record during the optional valuation period, the amount of such distribution received on stock included in the gross estate is itself "included property," except to the extent that the distribution was out of earnings and profits since the date of the decedent's death. Another example is where a corporation, in which the decedent owned 50 percent of the shares and which possessed at the date of the decedent's death accumulated earnings and profits equal to its paid-in capital, distributed all of its accumulated earnings and profits as a cash dividend to shareholders of record during the optional valuation period. In such a case the amount of the dividends received on stock includible in the gross estate will be included in the gross estate under the optional valuation method.

The operation of this section may be further illustrated by the following example in which the death of the decedent will be taken to have occurred on January 1, 1940:

Description		Subsequent valuation date	Value under option	Value at date of death
Bond, par value $1,000, bearing interest at 4 percent payable quarterly on Feb. 1, May 1, Aug. 1, and Nov. 1. Bond to legatee on Mar. 1, 1940	ble quarterly; distributed	Mar. 1, 1940	$1,000.00	$1,000.00

Properties, interests, or estates which are affected by mere lapse of time include patents, estates for the life of a person other than the decedent, remainders, reversions, and other like properties, interests, or estates. The phrase "affected by mere lapse of time" has no reference to obligations for the payment of money, whether or not interest-bearing, the value of which changes with the passing of time. However, such an obligation, like any other property, may become affected by lapse of time when made the subject of a bequest or transfer which itself is creative of an interest or estate so affected.

The date of valuation of any property, interest, or estate so affected is, as prescribed in subsection (j), the date of decedent's death, but with an adjustment to be made of the value then obtaining, which adjustment, while disregarding any later increase or decrease in value due solely to lapse of time, adds to or subtracts from the value at death any difference between that value and the value as of the date one year after decedent's death, or the applicable intermediate date, if, and to the extent that, such difference was due to a cause or causes other than lapse of time. Accordingly, in the valuation of any property, interest, or estate affected by lapse of time, the difference between its value at decedent's death and its value as of the later date must be analyzed to determine the portion of such difference attributable to other cause or causes, and that portion only is to be applied in adjusting the value as of the date of the decedent's death. If, for example, the decedent owned a patent which on the date of his death had an unexpired term of 10 years and a value of $100,000, and if the patent was sold 6 months after the decedent's death, at which time, because of the lapse of time and other causes, only $65,000 was realized therefor, the value would be determined as follows:

Value of patent on date of decedent's death	$100,000
Difference between value on date of death and date of sale ($100,000 minus $65,000)	35,000
Portion of such difference due to the 6 months elapsing between date of death and date of sale (one-half of 10 percent of $100,000)	$5,000
Portion of difference due to causes other than lapse of time	30,000
Adjusted value of patent	70,000

Or, to give another example, it may supposed that the decedent was entitled to receive property (which at the time of his death was worth $50,000) upon the death of another person who was entitled to the income therefrom for life and who was 31 years old at the time of the decedent's death. The value at decedent's death of his remainder interest would, as explained in § 81.10 (l) of these regulations, be $15,631, and if, due to economic conditions, the property declined in value and became worth $40,000 one year after the date of decedent's death, the value of the remainder interest would be determinable in the following manner:

Value of remainder interest at decedent's death ($50,000 times factor (0.31262) shown opposite age 31 in column 3 of Table A, section 81.10)	$15,631.00
Value of remainder interest one year after decedent's death ($40,000 times factor (0.31929) shown in Table A, for age 32)	12,771.60
Net difference due in part to decline in value of the property and in part to increase in the value of the remainder interest due to lapse of time	2,859.40
Elimination of the increase due to lapse of time ($50,000 times the difference between the factor for age 32 and the factor for age 31, or 0.00667)	333.50
Portion of the difference in value due to the decline in value of the property	3,192.90
Value of remainder interest at decedent's death	15,631.00
Less portion of difference not due to lapse of time	3,192.90
Adjusted value of remainder interest	12,438.10

(The amount of the adjustment may be computed more readily by multiplying the decline in the value of the property ($10,000) by the factor (0.31929) applicable to the later date.)

Deductions authorized under sections 812 and 861 are limited to the extent that allowance thereof is not, in effect, given in the valuing of the gross estate. Property passing by decedent's will, or passing by a transfer made by the decedent in his lifetime (if the transfer was such as to require the property transferred to be included in the gross estate) to or for any such public, charitable, or religious uses as are described in section 812 (d) or in section 861 (a) (3), is deductible at its value as of the date of the decedent's death, subject, however, to adjustment for any difference in value one year after such death, or at the date of the sale or exchange in the case of property sold or exchanged during such 1-year period. But no such adjustment may take into account any difference in value due to lapse of time or to the occurrence or nonoccurrence of a contingency.

The election of the executor to have the gross estate valued in accordance with the method authorized by section 811 (j), in order to be effective, must be made on the return filed within 15 months from the decedent's death or within the period of any extension of time granted under the provisions of §§ 81.69 or 81.70 of these regulations. Unless the executor makes such election, all property included in the gross estate must be valued as of the date of the decedent's death. In no case may the election be exercised, or a previous election changed, after the expiration of the time for the filing of the return. The election applies to all the property included in the gross estate on the date of the decedent's death. It cannot be applied only to a portion of such property.

In every case where the election is exercised, the return, Form 706, must set forth (1) an itemized description of all property included in the gross estate on the date of the decedent's death, together with the value of each item as of that date, (2) an itemized disclosure of all distributions, sales, exchanges, and other dispositions of any of the property during the 1-year period after the decedent's death, together with the dates thereof, and (3) the value of each item of property determined in accordance with the provisions of subsection (j). Interest and rents accrued at the date of the decedent's death and dividends declared to stockholders of record on or before the date of the decedent's death and not collected at such date shall be separately shown. All the information indicated by Form 706 must be supplied. Statements as to distributions, sales, exchanges, and other dispositions of the property within the 1-year period must be supported by evidence. If the court makes an order or decree of distribution during that period, a certified copy thereof must be submitted as part of the evidence. The Commissioner may require the submission of such additional evidence as is deemed necessary.*

§ 81.12 Description of property listed on return. In listing upon the return the property constituting the gross estate (other than household and personal effects, as to which see § 81.10 (g)), the description thereof should be such that the property may be readily identified. Thus, a legal description should be given of each parcel of real estate, and, if located in a city, the name of street and number, its area, and, if improved, a short statement of the character of the improvements. Description of bonds should include number held, principal amount, name of obligor, date of maturity, rate of interest, date or dates on which interest is payable, series number if there is more than one issue, the exchange upon which listed, or the principal business office of the corporation, if unlisted. Description of stocks should include number of shares, whether common or preferred, and, if preferred, what issue thereof, par value, quotation at which returned, exact name of corporation, and, if the stock is unlisted, the location of the principal business office and State in which incorporated and the date of incorporation. If a listed security, state principal exchange upon which sold. Description of notes should include name of maker, date on which given, date of maturity, amount of principal, amount of principal unpaid, rate of interest and whether simple or compound, date to which interest has been paid and amount of unpaid interest. Description of land contracts received should include name of vendee, date of contract, description of property, sale price, initial payment, amounts of installment payments, unpaid balance of principal and accrued interest, interest rate and date prior to decedent's death to which interest had been paid.

Description of bank accounts should disclose name and address of depository, amount on deposit, whether a checking, savings, or a time-deposit account, rate of interest, if any payable, amount of interest accrued and payable, and serial number. Description of life insurance should give the name of the insurer, number of policy, name of the beneficiary, and the amount of the proceeds. For every policy of life insurance listed on the return, the executor must procure a statement by the company on Form 712 and file it with the collector. (See § 81.28.) In describing an annuity, the name and address of the grantor of the annuity should be given, or, if the annuity is payable out of a trust or other funds, such a description as will fully identify it. If the annuity is payable for a term of years, the duration of the term and the date on which it began should be given, and if payable for the life of a person other than the decedent, the date of birth of such person should be stated. Judgments should be described by giving the title of the cause and the name of the court in which rendered, date of judgment, name and address of judgment debtor, amount of judgment, and rate of interest to which subject, and by stating whether any payments have been made thereon, and, if so, when and in what amounts.*

GROSS ESTATE—GENERAL

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A.] GROSS ESTATE.

The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, except real property situated outside of the United States—

(a) Decedent's interest. To the extent of the interest therein of the decedent at the time of his death;

• • • • • •

SEC. 802. [Part II, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. • • •

§ 81.13 Property of decedent at time of death. It is designed by the foregoing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that there shall be included in the gross estate all property of the decedent, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, the beneficial ownership of which was in the decedent at the time of his death, except real property situated outside the United States.

All real property situated in the United States and owned by the decedent at the date of his death is included in the gross estate, whether the decedent was a resident or a nonresident, a citizen or not a citizen, and whether the property came into the possession and control of the executor or administrator or passed directly to heirs or devisees. All personal property owned by the decedent at the date of his death is included in the gross estate, regardless of its situs. However, in the case of a decedent who was a nonresident not a citizen, only the property situated in the United States is included in the net estate and property situated outside the United States need not be disclosed unless deductions are claimed or such information is specifically requested. (See §§ 81.52, 81.53, 81.54, and 81.66.) As to the situs of the personal property of decedents who were nonresidents not citizens, see § 81.50.

A cemetery lot owned by the decedent is part of his gross estate, but its value is limited to the salable value of such part of it as is not designed for the interment of the decedent or members of his family. Property subject to homestead or other exemptions under local law must be included in the gross estate. Notes or other claims held by the decedent should be included, though they are canceled by his will. As to the valuation of notes and claims, see § 81.10 (e).

Interest and rents accrued at the date of the decedent's death and dividends declared to stockholders of record on or before the date of the decedent's death and not collected at such date constitute part of the gross estate.

Various statutory provisions, which exempt bonds, notes, bills, and certificates of indebtedness of the Federal Government or its agencies and the interest thereon from taxation, are not applicable to the estate tax, since this tax is an excise tax on the transfer, and is not a tax on the property transferred. In case the decedent was a nonresident who was not a citizen and not engaged in business in the United States, bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States, beneficially owned by such decedent should not be included; however, bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States, issued on or after March 1, 1941, which such decedent beneficially owned, should be included in the gross estate.*

GROSS ESTATE—DOWER AND CURTESY

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A.] GROSS ESTATE.

The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, except real property situated outside of the United States—

• • • • • •

(b) Dower or curtesy interests. To the extent of any interest therein of the surviving spouse, existing at the time of the decedent's death as dower, curtesy, or by virtue of a statute creating an estate in lieu of dower or curtesy;

• • • • • •

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. • • •

§ 81.14 Dower and curtesy. The above provisions of the Internal Revenue Code include in the gross estate dower and curtesy and all interests created by statute in lieu thereof, although the estate or interest so created may differ in character from dower or curtesy. The effect of the provision is to require the inclusion of the full value of the property, without deduction of the value of the interest of the surviving husband or wife, and without regard to the time when the right to such an interest arose.*

GROSS ESTATE—TRANSFERS BY DECEDENT DURING LIFETIME

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A.] GROSS ESTATE.

The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, except real property situated outside of the United States—

• • • • • •

(c) Transfers in contemplation of, or taking effect at death. To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or of which he has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, under which he has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom; except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Any transfer of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, made by the decedent within two years prior to his death without such consideration, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this subchapter;

(d) Revocable transfers.—(1) Transfers after June 22, 1936. To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer (except in case of a bona-fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth), by trust or otherwise, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power (in whatever capacity exercisable) by the decedent alone or by the decedent in conjunction with any other person (without regard to when or from what source the decedent acquired such power), to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate, or where any such power is relinquished in contemplation of decedent's death;

(2) Transfers on or prior to June 22, 1936. To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power, either by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any person, to alter, amend, or revoke, or where the decedent relinquished any such power in contemplation of his death, except in case of a bona-fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Except in the case of transfers made after June 22, 1936, no interest of the decedent of which he has made a transfer shall be included in the gross estate under paragraph (1) unless it is includible under this paragraph;

(3) Date of existence of power. For the purposes of this subsection the power to alter, amend, or revoke shall be considered to exist on the date of the decedent's death even though the exercise of the power is subject to a precedent giving of notice or even though the alteration, amendment, or revocation takes effect only on the expiration of a stated period after the exercise of the power, whether or not on or before the date of the decedent's death notice has been given or the power has been exercised. In such cases proper adjustment shall be made representing the interests which would have been excluded from the power if the decedent had lived, and for such purpose if the notice has not been given or the power has not been exercised on or before the date of his death such notice shall be considered to have been given, or the power exercised, on the date of his death.

(4) Relinquishment of power in contemplation of death. The relinquishment of any such power, not admitted or shown to have been in contemplation of the decedent's death, made within two years prior to his death without such a consideration and affecting the interest or interests (whether arising from one or more transfers or the creation of one or more trusts) of any one beneficiary of a value or aggregate value, at the time of such death, in excess of $5,000, then, to the extent of such excess, such relinquishment or relinquishments shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this subchapter.

(i) Transfers for insufficient consideration. If any one of the transfers, trusts, interests, rights, or powers, enumerated and described in subsections (c), (d), and (f) is made, created, exercised, or relinquished for a consideration in money or money's worth, but is not a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, there shall be included in the gross estate only the excess of the fair market value at the time of death of the property otherwise to be included on account of such transaction, over the value of the consideration received therefor by the decedent.

(b) (5) • • • For the purposes of this subchapter, a relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in the decedent's property or estate, shall not be considered to any extent a consideration "in money or money's worth."

SEC. 302. (c) Revenue Act of 1926 (as originally enacted) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Where within two years prior to his death but after the enactment of this Act and without such a consideration the decedent has made a transfer or transfers, by trust or otherwise, of any of his property, or an interest therein, not admitted or shown to have been made in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, and the value or aggregate value, at the time of such death, of the property or interest so transferred to any one person is in excess of $5,000, then, to the extent of such excess, such transfer or transfers shall be deemed and held to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title. Any transfer of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, made by the decedent within two years prior to his death but prior to the enactment of this Act, without such consideration, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title;

Joint Resolution of March 3, 1931 (Public, No. 131, Seventy-first Congress):

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the first sentence of subdivision (c) of section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1926 is amended to read as follows:

To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, including a transfer under which the transferor has retained for his life or any period not ending before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the income from, the property or (2) the right to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom; except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

(c) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or of which he has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, under which he has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom; except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Any transfer of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, made by the decedent within two years prior to his death without such consideration, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title.

SEC. 302. (d) Revenue Act of 1926 (as originally enacted). To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power, either by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any person, to alter, amend, or revoke, or where the decedent relinquished any such power in contemplation of his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. The relinquishment of any such power, not admitted or shown to have been in contemplation of the decedent's death, made within two years prior to his death but after the enactment of this Act without such a consideration and affecting the interest or interests (whether arising from one or more transfers or the creation of one or more trusts) of any one beneficiary of a value or aggregate value, at the time of such death, in excess of $5,000, then, to the extent of such excess, such relinquishments shall be deemed and held to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title;

SEC. 401. REVENUE ACT OF 1934.

Section 302 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1926 is amended to read as follows:

(d) (1) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power, either by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any person, to alter, amend, or revoke, or where the decedent relinquished any such power in contemplation of his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision the power to alter, amend, or revoke shall be considered to exist on the date of the decedent's death even though the exercise of the power is subject to a precedent giving of notice or even though the alteration, amendment, or revocation takes effect only on the expiration of a stated period after the exercise of the power, whether or not on or before the date of the decedent's death notice has been given or the power has been exercised. In such cases proper adjustment shall be made representing the interests which would have been excluded from the power if the decedent had lived, and for such purpose if the notice has not been given or the power has not been exercised on or before the date of his death, such notice shall be considered to have been given, or the power exercised, on the date of his death.

(3) The relinquishment of any such power, not admitted or shown to have been in contemplation of the decedent's death, made within two years prior to his death without such a consideration and affecting the interest or interests (whether arising from one or more transfers or the creation of one or more trusts) of any one beneficiary of a value or aggregate value, at the time of such death, in excess of $5,000, then, to the extent of such excess, such relinquishment or relinquishments shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title;

SEC. 805. REVENUE ACT of 1936.

(a) Section 302 (d) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

(d) (1) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer (except in case of a bona-fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth), by trust or otherwise, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power (in whatever capacity exercisable) by the decedent alone or by the decedent in conjunction with any other person (without regard to when or from what source the decedent acquired such power), to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate, or where any such power is relinquished in contemplation of decedent's death.

(b) Except in the case of transfers made after the date of the enactment of this Act, no interest of the decedent of which he has made a transfer shall be included in the gross estate under such section 302 (d) (1) unless it was includible under such section before its amendment by this section.

§ 81.15 Transfers during life. The following classes of transfers made by the decedent prior to his death, whether in trust or otherwise, if not constituting bona fide sales for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, are subject to the tax: (1) transfers in contemplation of death (see § 81.16); (2) transfers conditioned upon the decedent's death (see § 81.17); (3) transfers under which the decedent reserved or retained (in whole or in part) the use, possession, rents, or other income or enjoyment of the transferred property, for his life, or for a period not ascertainable without reference to his death, or for a period of such duration as to evidence an intention that it should extend to his death; including also the reservation or retention of the use, possession, rents, or other income, the actual enjoyment of which was to await the termination of a transferred precedent interest or estate (see § 81.18); (4) transfers under which the decedent retained the right, either alone or in conjunction with another person or persons, to designate who should possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom (see § 81.19); and (5) transfers under which the enjoyment of the transferred property was subject at decedent's death to a change through the exercise, either by the decedent alone or in conjunction with another person or persons, of a power to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate, or where such a power was relinquished in contemplation of decedent's death (see §§ 81.20 and 81.21).

The value of transferred property includible in the gross estate is the value thereof at the date of decedent's death, or if the executor has duly elected pursuant to the provisions of section 811 (j) to have the value of the gross estate determined as of the dates therein prescribed, then the value will be that as of the applicable date or dates so prescribed (see § 81.11). If a portion only of the property was so transferred as to come within the terms of the statute, only a corresponding proportion of the value of the property should be included in ascertaining the value of the gross estate. If the transferee has made additions to the property, or betterments, the enhanced value of the property due thereto should not be included.

To constitute a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth the transfer must have been made in good faith, and the price must have been an adequate and full equivalent reducible to a money value. If the price was less than such a consideration, only the excess of the fair market value of the property (as of the date of decedent's death, or as of the applicable date under such an election as is mentioned in the last preceding paragraph) over the price received by the decedent should be included in ascertaining the value of the gross estate. For the purposes of the tax a relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in decedent's property or estate, is not to any extent a consideration in money or money's worth.

In case a transfer, by trust or otherwise, was made by a written instrument, duplicate copies thereof should be filed with the return. If of public record, one of the copies should be certified; if not of record, one copy should be verified. If the decedent was a nonresident, only one copy, certified or verified, need be filed.

All transfers made by the decedent during his life of an amount of $5,000 or more, except bona fide sales for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, must be disclosed in the return, whether the executor regards such transfers as subject to the tax or not. If the executor believes that such a transfer is not subject to the tax, a brief statement of the pertinent facts should be made.*

§ 81.16 Transfers in contemplation of death. Transfers in contemplation of death made by the decedent after September 8, 1916, other than bona fide sales for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, must be included in the gross estate. A transfer in contemplation of death is subject to the tax although the decedent parted absolutely and immediately with his title to, and possession and enjoyment of, the property.

The phrase "contemplation of death," as used in the statute, does not mean, on the one hand, that general expectation of death such as all persons entertain, nor, on the other, is its meaning restricted to an apprehension that death is imminent or near. A transfer in contemplation of death is a disposition of property prompted by the thought of death (though it need not be solely so prompted). A transfer is prompted by the thought of death if it is made with the purpose of avoiding the tax, or as a substitute for a testamentary disposition of the property, or for any other motive associated with death. The bodily and mental condition of the decedent and all other attendant facts and circumstances are to be scrutinized to determine whether or not such thought prompted the disposition.

Any transfer without an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, made by the decedent within two years of his death, of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, is, unless shown to the contrary, deemed to have been made in contemplation of death.

If the executor contends that the value of a transfer of $5,000 or more made by the decedent subsequent to September 8, 1916, should not be included in the gross estate because he considers that such transfer was not made in contemplation of death, he should file sworn statements with the return, in duplicate, of all the material facts and circumstances, including those directly or indirectly indicating the decedent's motive in making the transfer and his mental and physical condition at that time, and one copy of the death certificate.

The fact that a gift was made as an advancement to be taken into account upon the final distribution of the decedent's estate is not, in and of itself, determinative of its taxability. (See § 81.15.)*

§ 81.17 Transfers conditioned upon survivorship. The statutory phrase, "a transfer • • • intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death," includes a transfer by the decedent prior to his death (other than a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) whereby and to the extent that the beneficial title to the property transferred (if the transfer was in trust), or the legal title thereto (if the transfer was otherwise than in trust), is not to pass from the decedent to the donee unless the decedent dies before the donee or another person, or its passing is otherwise conditioned upon decedent's death; or, if title passed to the donee it is to be defeated and the property is to revert to the decedent as his own should he survive the donee or another person, or the reverting of the property to the decedent is conditioned upon some other contingency terminable by his death. In such instances, it is immaterial whether the decedent's interest arose by implication of law or by the express terms of the instrument of transfer. Since in such transfers the decedent's death is requisite to a termination of his interest in the property, it is unimportant whether his interest be denominated a reversion or a possibility of reverter, and whether the interest of the donee be contingent or vested subject to be divested, and the tax will apply, unless otherwise provided in the next succeeding paragraph, without regard to the time when the transfer was made, whether before or after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1916. Thus, upon a transfer by a decedent of property in which an estate for life is given to one and an estate in remainder to another, but with a provision added that the estate in remainder shall revest in the decedent should he survive the owner of the life estate, there is to be included, in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate following his death, the value as of the date of his death of the estate in remainder, if the life estate is then outstanding. The value of the outstanding life estate is not to be included in determining the value of the gross estate, unless that estate had been transferred in contemplation of the decedent's death, or otherwise as to render it a part of the gross estate. If by reason of an election by the executor the valuation of the gross estate is governed by the provisions of § 81.11, adjustments in the values of such transferred estates may be required. (See § 81.15.)

Where the transfer was made during the period between November 11, 1935 (that being the date upon which the Supreme Court of the United States rendered its decisions in the cases of Helvering v. St. Louis Union Trust Co. (296 U. S., 39) and Becker v. St. Louis Union Trust Co. (296 U. S., 48)), and January 29, 1940 (that being the date upon which such Court rendered its decisions in Helvering v. Hallock and companion cases (309 U. S., 106)), and the Commissioner, whose determination therein shall be conclusive, determines that such transfer is classifiable with the transfers involved in such two cases decided on November 11, 1935, rather than with the transfer involved in the case of Klein v. United States (283 U. S., 231), previously decided by such Court, then the property so transferred shall not be included in the decedent's gross estate under the provisions of this section, if the following condition is also met: Such transfer shall have been finally treated for all gift tax purposes, both as to the calendar year of such transfer and subsequent calendar years, as a gift in an amount measured by the value of the property undiminished by reason of a provision in the instrument of transfer by which the property, in whole or in part, is to revert to the decedent should he survive the donee or another person, or the reverting thereof is conditioned upon some other contingency terminable by decedent's death.*

§ 81.18 Transfers with possession or enjoyment retained. Except in the case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, the gross estate embraces (section 811 (c)) all property transferred by the decedent, whether in trust or otherwise, if he retained or reserved the use, possession, right to the income, or other enjoyment of the transferred property, and if the transfer was made—

(1) At any time after 10:30 p. m., eastern standard time, March 3, 1931, and such retention or reservation is for his life, or for such a period as to evidence his intention that it should extend at least for the duration of his life and his death occurs before the expiration of such period; or

(2) At any time after 5 p. m., eastern standard time, June 6, 1932, and such retention or reservation is for any period mentioned in (1) or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death.

A reservation for a "period not ascertainable without reference to his death" may be illustrated by a reservation of the right to receive, in quarterly payments, the income of the transferred property where none of the income between the last quarterly payment and decedent's death was to be received by him or his estate; or by a reservation of a life estate following a precedent estate for life or a term of years.

The use, possession, right to the income, or other enjoyment of the property will be considered as having been retained by or reserved to the decedent to the extent that during any such period it is to be applied towards the discharge of a legal obligation of the decedent, or otherwise for his pecuniary benefit.

If such retention or reservation is of a part only of the use, possession, income, or other enjoyment of the property, then only a corresponding proportion of the value of the property should be included in determining the value of the gross estate. (See § 81.51.)*

§ 81.19 Transfers with right retained to designate who shall possess or enjoy. The Internal Revenue Code (section 811 (c) provides that, except in the case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, the gross estate shall embrace all property transferred by the decedent, whether in trust or otherwise, if there is retained by or reserved to him for his life, or for such a period as to evidence his intention that it should extend at least for the duration of his life and his death occurs before the expiration of such period, or for a period not ascertainable without reference to his death, the right either alone or in conjunction with any other person or persons to designate the person or persons who shall possess or enjoy the transferred property, or the income thereof.

This provision of the Internal Revenue Code covers, in the main, transfers to which also apply the provisions of certain other subsections of section 811. Thus, to the extent that the enjoyment of the transferred property is subject to any change through the exercise of a power by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any other person or persons to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate, the provisions of section 811 (d) and of § 81.20 will apply. Or, if the decedent reserved to himself a general power of appointment and the property passed in his lifetime or by his will pursuant to the exercise of such power, the property may be required by section 811 (f) to be included in the gross estate, and in such case the provisions of § 81.24 will apply without regard to when such power was created.

A transfer of the kind dealt with in this section, when not also falling within the provisions of some other subsection of section 811, requires the inclusion of the transferred property within the gross estate, if the transfer was made—

(1) At any time after 10:30 p. m., eastern standard time, March 3, 1931, and the right to so designate was retained by or reserved to the decedent alone for his life, or for such a period as to evidence his intention that it should extend at least for the duration of his life and his death occurs before the expiration of such period; or

(2) At any time after 5 p. m., eastern standard time, June 6, 1932, and the right to so designate was retained by or reserved to the decedent alone or in conjunction with any other person or persons for decedent's life, or for such a period as to evidence his intention that it should extend at least for the duration of his life and his death occurs before the expiration of such period, or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death.

If the retention or reservation of the right described pertains to a part only of the transferred property, or to a part only of the income therefrom, then only a corresponding proportion of the value of the transferred property is includible in determining the value of the gross estate.

The right to so designate will be treated as having been retained or reserved if at the time of the transfer there was an understanding, either expressed or implied, that such right would later be created or conferred. (See § 81.15.)*

§ 81.20 Transfers with power to change the enjoyment—(a) Transfers included. Subsection (d) of section 811 embraces a transfer by trust or otherwise (if not amounting to a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) when at the time of decedent's death the enjoyment of the transferred property, or some part thereof or interest therein, was subject to any change through a power exercisable either by the decedent alone, or by him in conjunction with some other person or persons, to alter, or amend, or revoke, or terminate. (See § 81.15.)

The addition to subdivision (d) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1926, by section 805 of the Revenue Act of 1936, of the phrase to the effect that it is not material in what capacity the power was subject to exercise by the decedent or by the other person or persons in conjunction with the decedent (which phrase is also embodied in subsection (d) (1) of section 811 of the Internal Revenue Code), is considered merely declaratory of the meaning of the subdivision prior to the addition of the phrase.

The second phrase added to this subdivision of the Revenue Act of 1926 by amendment in 1936 (also embodied in section 811 (d) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code), namely, "without regard to when or from what source the decedent acquired such power," is not considered declaratory of the meaning of the subdivision prior to the amendment in a case in which no one of the powers enumerated in the subdivision was reserved at the time of the making of the transfer, but one or more thereof were conferred subsequent thereto (whatever the source from which conferred) without any understanding, expressed or implied, had in connection with the making of the transfer that such power or powers should be later conferred.

The third change made in the subdivision by the Revenue Act of 1936 (which is also embodied in subsection (d) (1) of section 811 of the Internal Revenue Code) consists of the addition of the words "or terminate" following the words "to alter, amend, revoke." Such addition is considered but declaratory of the meaning of the subdivision prior to the amendment. A power to terminate capable of being so exercised as to revest in the decedent the ownership of the transferred property or an interest therein, or as otherwise to inure to his benefit or the benefit of his estate, is, to that extent, the equivalent of a power to "revoke," and when otherwise so exercisable as to effect a change in the enjoyment, is the equivalent of a power to "alter."

(b) Taxability. The property or any interest therein transferred as described in paragraph (a) shall be included in the gross estate if it comes within any one of the following paragraphs:

(1) If the transfer was made prior to the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924 (4:01 p. m., eastern standard time, June 2, 1924), and the power was reserved at the time of the transfer and was exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with a person or persons having no substantial adverse interest or interests in the transferred property, or if exercisable in conjunction with a person having a substantial adverse interest or with several persons some or all of whom held such an adverse interest, then to the extent of any interest or interests held by a person or persons not required to join in the exercise of the power and to the extent of any adverse interest which was not substantial.

(2) If the transfer was made after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924 (4:01 p. m., eastern standard time, June 2, 1924) and before the amendment of the subdivision by the Revenue Act of 1936 became effective (June 23, 1936), and the power was reserved at the time of the transfer and was exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with a person or persons either having or not having a substantial adverse interest or interests in the transferred property, or in conjunction with persons one or more of whom had and one or more of whom had not such an adverse interest.

(3) If the transfer was made after June 22, 1936 (the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1936), and the power was either reserved at the time of the transfer or later created or conferred, without regard to the source from which the power was acquired, and whether exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with a person or persons either having or not having a substantial adverse interest or interests in the transferred property, or in conjunction with persons one or more of whom had and one or more of whom had not such an adverse interest.

As used in this and in the next succeeding section, the expression "reserved at the time of the transfer" refers to a power to which the transfer was subject when made, whether the power arose by implication of law or by the express terms of the instrument of transfer, and which continued to the date of decedent's death (see the paragraph next following as to the conditions under which the power will be considered as existent at decedent's death) to be exercisable by decedent alone or by him in conjunction with some other person or persons, and includes any understanding, expressed or implied, had in connection with the making of the transfer that the power should later be created or conferred.

The power to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate will be considered to have existed on the date of the decedent's death, though the exercise of the power was subject to a precedent giving of notice, or though the alteration, amendment, revocation, or termination would take effect only on the expiration of a stated period after the exercise of the power, whether or not on or before the date of the decedent's death notice had been given or the power had been exercised, or though the exercise of the power was restricted to a particular time which had not arrived, or the happening of a particular event which had not occurred, at decedent's death. In determining the value of the gross estate in such cases the full value of the property transferred subject to the power should be discounted for the period required to elapse between the date of decedent's death and the date upon which the alteration, amendment, revocation, or termination could take effect. (See § 81.10 (j) (3).)

The provisions of this section do not apply to a transfer if the power may be exercised only with the consent of all parties having an interest, vested or contingent, in the transferred property, and if the power adds nothing to the rights of the parties as conferred by the applicable local law.*

§ 81.21 Power relinquished in contemplation of death. If the decedent had previously held, either alone or in conjunction with another person or persons, a power to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate a transfer made by him, and the power was subsequently relinquished in contemplation of the decedent's death (the relinquishment not amounting to a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth), then to the extent that the transferred property or any interest therein had been subject to such relinquished power it is to be included in the gross estate if coming within any one of the following paragraphs:

(a) If the transfer was made prior to the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924 (4:01 p. m., eastern standard time, June 2, 1924), and the power was reserved at the time of the transfer and was relinquished after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1916 (September 8, 1916), and the power was exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with a person or persons having no substantial adverse interest or interests in the transferred property, or if exercisable in conjunction with a person having a substantial adverse interest or with several persons some or all of whom held such an adverse interest, then to the extent of any interest or interests held by a person or persons not required to join in the exercise of the power and to the extent of any adverse interest which was not substantial.

(b) If the transfer was made after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924 (4:01 p. m., eastern standard time, June 2, 1924) and before the amendment of the subdivision by the Revenue Act of 1936 became effective (June 23, 1936), and the power was reserved at the time of the transfer and was exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with a person or persons either having or not having a substantial adverse interest or interests in the transferred property, or in conjunction with persons one or more of whom had and one or more of whom had not such an adverse interest.

(c) If the transfer was made after June 22, 1936 (the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1936), and the power was either reserved at the time of the transfer or later created or conferred without regard to the source from which the power was acquired, and whether exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with a person or persons either having or not having a substantial adverse interest or interests in the transferred property, or in conjunction with persons one or more of whom had and one or more of whom had not such an adverse interest. If the transfer was made after June 22, 1936, and the person or persons, in conjunction with whom the decedent could exercise the power, relinquished the power in contemplation of the decedent's death and thereby extinguished the power, the transfer is includible in the decedent's gross estate.

If the relinquishment be not admitted or shown to have been in contemplation of decedent's death, but occurred within two years prior to such death, and affected the interest or interests (whether arising from one or more transfers or the creation of one or more trusts) of any one beneficiary of a value or aggregate value in excess of $5,000 (as of the date of decedent's death, or as of the applicable date under such an election as is referred to in the second paragraph of § 81.15) then, to the extent of such excess, the relinquishment will be deemed, unless shown to the contrary, to have been in contemplation of decedent's death. (See § 81.15.)*

GROSS ESTATE—PROPERTY HELD JOINTLY

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A] GROSS ESTATE.

The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, except real property situated outside of the United States—

(e) Joint interests. To the extent of the interest therein held as joint tenants by the decedent and any other person, or as tenants by the entirety by the decedent and spouse, or deposited, with any person carrying on the banking business, in their joint names and payable to either or the survivor, except such part thereof as may be shown to have originally belonged to such other person and never to have been received or acquired by the latter from the decedent for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth: Provided, That where such property or any part thereof, or part of the consideration with which such property was acquired, is shown to have been at any time acquired by such other person from the decedent for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, there shall be excepted only such part of the value of such property as is proportionate to the consideration furnished by such other person: Provided further, That where any property has been acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, as a tenancy by the entirety by the decedent and spouse, then to the extent of one-half of the value thereof, or, where so acquired by the decedent and any other person as joint tenants and their interests are not otherwise specified or fixed by law, then to the extent of the value of a fractional part to be determined by dividing the value of the property by the number of joint tenants.

• • • • •

(b) (5) • • • For the purposes of this subchapter, a relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in the decedent's property or estate, shall not be considered to any extent a consideration "in money or money's worth."

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. • • •

§ 81.22 Property held jointly or by the entirety. The foregoing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code extend to joint ownerships wherein the right of survivorship exists, regardless of when such ownerships were created. They specifically reach property held jointly by the decedent and any other person or persons, or by the decedent and spouse as tenants by the entirety, or deposited with any person or institution carrying on a banking business in the name of the decedent and any other person and payable to either or the survivor, provided the decedent contributed toward the acquisition of the property so held or deposited, or acquired it by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance. Section 811 (e) applies to all classes of property, whether real or personal, in case the survivor takes the entire interest therein by right of survivorship and no interest therein forms a part of the decedent's estate for purposes of administration. It has no reference to property held by the decedent and any other person or persons as tenants in common.*

§ 81.23 Taxable portion. The entire property is prima facie a part of the decedent's gross estate. But it is not the intent of the statute that there should be so included a greater part or proportion thereof than is represented by an outlay of funds, which, in the first instance, were decedent's own, or more than a fractional part equal to that of the other joint owner should neither have parted with any consideration in its acquirement. Facts which in a given case bring it within any one of the exceptions enumerated in the statute may be submitted by the executor.

Whether the entire property, or only a part, or none of it, enters into the make-up of the gross estate depends upon the following considerations: (1) So much of the property (whether the whole, or a part thereof) as originally belonged to the other joint owner, and which at no time in the past had been received or acquired by the latter from the decedent for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, forms no part of the decedent's gross estate. (2) If the facts are otherwise the same as in (1), but the decedent paid to such other joint owner a consideration for the interest by him (the decedent) acquired in the property, then such portion of the property, proportionate to the consideration so paid, constitutes a part of the gross estate. (3) If the property, or a part thereof, or a part of the consideration wherewith it was acquired, had at any time been acquired by the other joint owner from the decedent as a gift, or for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, then such portion of the entire property, proportionate to the consideration, if any, which in the first instance was paid from such other joint owner's own funds, forms no part of the gross estate. (4) If the property was acquired by the decedent and his or her surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, then only one-half of the property becomes a part of the gross estate. (5) If the property was acquired by the decedent and the other joint owner as joint tenants by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, and their interests are not otherwise specified or fixed by law, then only one-half of the property is a part of the gross estate; or, if so acquired by the decedent and two or more persons, and the interests of the several joint tenants are not otherwise determinable, then the decedent and the other joint tenants surviving him shall be deemed the owners of equal fractional parts, and only one of such fractional parts is to be included in the gross estate.

The following are given as illustrative: (a) If the decedent furnished the entire purchase price, the entire property should be included in the gross estate; (b) if the decedent furnished a part only of the purchase price, only a corresponding portion of the property should be so included; (c) if the decedent, prior to the acquisition of the property by himself and the other joint owner, gave the latter a sum of money which later constituted such other joint owner's entire contribution to the purchase price of the property, the entire property should be included; (d) if the other joint owner, prior to the acquirement of the property, received from the decedent, for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, property which thereafter became, as such, or in a converted form, part of the purchase price of the property, the value of the property to be included is to be reduced proportionately to the consideration furnished by the other joint owner in the original transaction; (e) if the decedent furnished no part of the purchase price, no part of the property should be included; (f) if the decedent and spouse acquired the property by will as tenants by the entirety, one-half of the property should be included.

For the purposes of the estate tax, a relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other martial rights in the decedent's property or estate, is not to any extent a consideration in money or money's worth.*

GROSS ESTATE—PROPERTY PASSING UNDER POWER OF APPOINTMENT

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A.] GROSS ESTATE.

The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, except real property situated outside of the United States—

• • • • •

(f) Property passing under general power of appointment. To the extent of any property passing under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent (1) by will, or (2) by deed executed in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or (3) by deed under which he has retained for his life or any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (A) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (B) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom; except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth; and

• • • • •

(i) Transfers for insufficient consideration. If any one of the transfers, trusts, interests, rights, or powers, enumerated and described in subsections (c), (d), and (f) is made, created, exercised, or relinquished for a consideration in money or money's worth, but is not a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, there shall be included in the gross estate only the excess of the fair market value at the time of death of the property otherwise to be included on account of such transaction, over the value of the consideration received therefor by the decedent.

SEC. 812. [Part II, Subchapter A.] NET ESTATE.

(b) (5) • • • For the purposes of this subchapter, a relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in the decedent's property or estate, shall not be considered to any extent a consideration "in money or money's worth".

• • • • •

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of non-residents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. • • •

SEC. 302. (f) Revenue Act of 1926 (as originally enacted). To the extent of any property passing under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent (1) by will, or (2) by deed executed in contemplation of, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after, his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth; and • • •

SEC. 302. (f) Revenue Act of 1926 (as amended by section 803 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1932). To the extent of any property passing under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent (1) by will, or (2) by deed executed in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or (3) by deed under which he has retained for his life or any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (A) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (B) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom; except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth; and • • • § 81.24 Property passing under general power of appointment. Property passing under a general power of appointment must be included in the gross estate of the person exercising the power (known as the donee, or appointor), if the power is exercised by will. It should also be so included if the power is exercised by deed or other instrument either (1) in contemplation of death, (2) with the intent that the transfer shall take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the death of the donee of the power, (3) with the retention or reservation by the decedent of the use, possession, right to the income, or other enjoyment of the transferred property, or (4) with the retention or reservation by the decedent of the right to designate the person or persons who shall possess or enjoy the transferred property or the income thereof. (For description of such transfers and the taxability thereof with reference to when made and when the death occurred, see §§ 81.16, 81.17, 81.18, and 81.19.) The statute, however, does not require inclusion in the gross estate of the appointed property in the case of a bona fide sale thereof by the donee of the power for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

Only property passing under a general power should be included. Ordinarily a general power is one to appoint to any person or persons in the discretion of the donee of the power, or, however limited as to the persons or objects in whose favor the appointment may be made, is exercisable in favor of the donee, his estate, or his creditors. Duplicate copies of the instrument granting the power and of the instrument by which the power was exercised, one of each to be certified or verified, must be filed with Form 706 in all cases, unless the decedent was a nonresident, in which case only one copy of each instrument, certified or verified, is required. The copies must be filed even though it is contended that the power was a limited one and the property passing thereunder is not returned for tax.*

GROSS ESTATE—INSURANCE

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A.] GROSS ESTATE.

The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, except real property situated outside of the United States—

• • • • •

(g) Proceeds of life insurance. To the extent of the amount receivable by the executor as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life; and to the extent of the excess over $40,000 of the amount receivable by all other beneficiaries as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life.

• • • • •

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. • • •

§ 81.25 Taxable insurance. Section 811 (g) of the Internal Revenue Code provides for the inclusion in the gross estate of insurance taken out by the decedent upon his own life, as follows: (a) All insurance receivable by, or for the benefit of, the estate; (b) all other insurance to the extent that it exceeds in the aggregate $40,000.

The term "insurance" refers to life insurance of every description, including death benefits paid by fraternal beneficial societies operating under the lodge system. Insurance receivable by beneficiaries other than the estate is considered to have been taken out by the decedent where he paid, either directly or indirectly, all the premiums or other consideration wherewith the insurance was acquired, whether or not he made the application. Such insurance is not considered to have been so taken out, even though the application was made by the decedent, if no part of the premiums or other consideration was paid either directly or indirectly by him. Where a portion of the premiums or other consideration was actually paid by another and the remaining portion by the decedent, either directly or indirectly, such insurance is considered to have been taken out by the latter in the proportion that the payments therefor made by him bear to the total amount paid for the insurance.

Life insurance not includible in the gross estate under the provisions of subsection (g) of section 811 and §§ 81.26, 81.27, or this section of these regulations may, depending upon the facts of the particular case, be includible under some other subsection of section 811 and the sections of these regulations pertaining thereto, such as subsection (c) in the case of insurance taken out by the decedent prior to January 10, 1941, the date of Treasury Decision 5032, and also transferred by him prior to such date in contemplation of death.*

§ 81.26 Insurance in favor of the estate. The Internal Revenue Code requires the inclusion in the gross estate of all insurance receivable by the executor or administrator or payable to the decedent's estate, and all insurance which is in fact receivable by, or for the benefit of, the estate. It includes insurance effected to provide funds to meet the estate tax, and any other taxes, debts, or charges which are enforceable against the estate. The manner in which the policy is drawn is immaterial so long as there is an obligation, legally binding upon the beneficiary, to use the proceeds in payment of such taxes, debts, or charges. The full amount of the proceeds so receivable, without the benefit of any exemption, forms a part of the gross estate, though all the premiums or other consideration wherewith the insurance was acquired may have been paid by a person other than the decedent. If the decedent procured insurance in favor of another person or corporation as collateral security for a loan or other accommodation, the insurance is considered to be receivable for the benefit of the estate. The amount of the loan outstanding at decedent's death will be deductible in determining the net estate, and the interest thereon will be deductible in accordance with the provisions of § 81.36.*

§ 81.27 Insurance receivable by other beneficiaries. The amount in excess of $40,000 of the aggregate proceeds of all insurance on the decedent's life not receivable by or for the benefit of his estate must be included in his gross estate, as follows:

(a) To the extent to which such insurance was taken out by the decedent upon his own life (see § 81.25) after January 10, 1941, the date of Treasury Decision 5032, and

(b) To the extent to which such insurance was taken out by the decedent upon his own life (see § 81.25) on or before January 10, 1941, and with respect to which the decedent possessed any of the legal incidents of ownership at any time after such date or, in the case of a decedent dying on or before such date, at the time of his death.

Legal incidents of ownership in the policy include, for example, the right of the insured or his estate to its economic benefits, the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign it, to revoke an assignment, to pledge it for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy, etc. The insured possesses a legal incident of ownership if his death is necessary to terminate his interest in the insurance, as, for example, if the proceeds would become payable to his estate, or payable as he might direct, should the beneficiary predecease him.

The estate is entitled to only one exemption of $40,000 upon insurance receivable by beneficiaries other than the estate. For instance, if the decedent left life insurance otherwise includible under the provisions of this section and payable to three such beneficiaries in amounts of $10,000, $40,000, and $50,000 (total, $100,000), the full amount should be listed on the return and therefrom subtracted the $40,000 exemption as provided in the appropriate schedule of Form 706. The word "beneficiaries," as used in reference to this $40,000 exemption, means persons entitled to the actual enjoyment of the insurance money.

Example. Insurance on the life of the decedent who died after the date of Treasury Decision 5032 totaled $200,000. It was payable to his son as beneficiary and the decedent never possessed any of the legal incidents of ownership therein. Premiums aggregating $100,000 were paid for the insurance, of which the decedent paid $50,000 before the date of Treasury Decision 5032 and $30,000 after that date. The remaining premiums of $20,000 were paid by the son. The extent to which the insurance was taken out by the decedent after the date of the Treasury decision is the proportion of $200,000 that the amount of the premiums paid by him after such date, $30,000, bears to the total amount of the premiums paid for the insurance, $100,000. Such proportion is three-tenths of $200,000, or $60,000. As the decedent possessed none of the legal incidents of ownership in the insurance at any time after the date of the Treasury decision, $100,000 of the insurance, the extent to which it was taken out by the decedent before such date is excluded from the gross estate. The amount of $40,000, the extent to which the insurance was not taken out by the decedent is also excluded from the gross estate. The amount of the insurance taken out by the decedent after the date of the Treasury decision, $60,000, is reduced by $40,000, the special insurance exemption, and the amount of the insurance included in the gross estate is $20,000.*

§ 81.28 Valuation of insurance. The amount to be returned if the policy is payable to or for the benefit of the estate is the amount receivable. If the proceeds of a policy are payable to a beneficiary other than the estate, and not to or for the benefit of the estate, the amount to be listed in the appropriate schedule of the return is the full amount receivable. (For taxable portion see § 81.27.) In case the proceeds of a policy are made payable to the beneficiary in the form of an annuity for life or for a term of years, there should be listed in the appropriate schedule of the return the one sum payable at death under an option which could have been exercised either by the insured or by the beneficiary, or if no option was granted, the sum used by the insurance company in determining the amount of the annuity.

With respect to each policy there should be filed a certificate, Form 712, from the insurance company showing the following:

(a) The face amount of the policy.
(b) The amount of any indebtedness to the company which reduced the amount otherwise payable.
(c) The amount of accumulated dividends.
(d) The amount of postmortem dividends.
(e) Any other facts affecting the value. (See next paragraph.)
(f) The value as of the date of death of the insured of the benefits payable under the policy.

In the case of any policy providing for deferred payments (other than payments measured by the facts disclosed under (a), (b), (c), and (d) above), the certificate should include the following information:

(g) The provisions with respect to the deferred payments or to the installments.
(h) The amounts of the deferred payments or installments.
(i) If the number of installments to be paid may be measured by the life of any individual, the date of birth of such individual.
(j) The amount applied by the insurance company as a single premium representing the purchase of the installment benefits.
(k) The basis (Mortality Table and rate of interest) employed by the insurance company in valuing the installment benefits.*

GROSS ESTATE—RETROACTIVE PROVISIONS

SEC. 811. [Part II, Subchapter A.] GROSS ESTATE.

* * * * *

(h) Prior interests. Except as otherwise specifically provided therein, subsections (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) shall apply to the transfers, trusts, estates, interests, rights, powers, and relinquishment of powers, as severally enumerated and described therein, whether made, created, arising, existing, exercised, or relinquished before or after February 26, 1926.

* * * * *

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. * * *

DEDUCTIONS—ESTATES OF CITIZENS OR RESIDENTS ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES, CLAIMS, ETC.

SEC. 812. [Part II, Subchapter A.] NET ESTATE.

For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined, in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States by deducting from the value of the gross estate—

* * * * *

(b) Expenses, losses, indebtedness, and taxes. Such amounts—

(1) for funeral expenses,
(2) for administration expenses,
(3) for claims against the estate,
(4) for unpaid mortgages upon, or any indebtedness in respect to, property where the value of decedent's interest therein, undiminished by such mortgage or indebtedness, is included in the value of the gross estate, and as are allowed by the laws of the jurisdiction, whether within or without the United States, under which the estate is being administered, but not including any income taxes upon income received after the death of the decedent, or property taxes not accrued before his death, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes. The deduction herein allowed in the case of claims against the estate, unpaid mortgages, or any indebtedness shall, when founded upon a promise or agreement, be limited to the extent that they were contracted bona fide and for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. There shall also be deducted losses incurred during the settlement of estates arising from fires, storms, shipwrecks, or other casualties, or from theft, when such losses are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, and if at the time of the filing of the return such losses have not been claimed as a deduction for income tax purposes in an income tax return.

For the purposes of this subchapter, a relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in the decedent's property or estate, shall not be considered to any extent a consideration "in money or money's worth."

SEC. 935. [Subchapter B.] RATE OF TAX.

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A, except that in lieu of the exemption of $100,000 provided in section 812 (a), the exemption shall be $40,000.

§ 81.29 Deduction of administration expenses, claims, etc. In order to be deductible under the foregoing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, the item must fall within one of the several classes of deductions specifically enumerated therein, and must also, except in the case of deductible losses during the administration of the estate, be one the payment of which out of the estate is authorized by the laws of the jurisdiction under which the estate is being administered. Unless both of these conditions exist the item is not deductible. If the item is not one of those described it is not deductible merely because payment is allowed by the local law. If the amount which may be expended for the particular purpose is limited by the local law no deduction in excess of such limitation is permissible. If a claim against the estate, an unpaid mortgage, or an indebtedness is founded upon a promise or agreement, the deduction therefor is limited to the extent that the liability was contracted bona fide and for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. A relinquishment of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in the decedent's property or estate, is not to any extent a consideration in money or money's worth.

An item may be entered on the return for deduction though the exact amount thereof is not then known, provided it is ascertainable with reasonable certainty, and will be paid. No deduction may be taken upon the basis of a vague or uncertain estimate. In the event the amount of the liability was unascertainable at the time of final audit of the return by the Commissioner, and, as a consequence, deduction was not allowed therefor in such audit, and subsequently the amount of the liability is ascertained, relief may be sought as provided by §§ 81.73 and 81.96.*

§ 81.30 Effect of court decree. The decision of a local court as to the amount of a claim or administration expense will ordinarily be accepted if the court passes upon the facts upon which deductibility depends. If the court does not pass upon such facts, its decree will, of course, not be followed. For example, if the question before the court is whether a claim should be allowed, the decree allowing it will ordinarily be accepted as establishing the validity and amount of the claim. The decree will not necessarily be accepted even though it purports to decide the facts upon which deductibility depends. It must appear that the court actually passed upon the merits of the case. This will be presumed in all cases of an active and genuine contest. If the result reached appears to be unreasonable, this is some evidence that there was not such a contest, but it may be rebutted by proof to the contrary. If the decree was rendered by consent, it will be accepted, provided the consent was a bona fide recognition of the validity of the claim—not a mere cloak for a gift—and was accepted by the court as satisfactory evidence upon the merits. It will be presumed that the consent was of this character, and was so accepted, if given by all parties having an interest adverse to the claimant. The decree will not be accepted if it is at variance with the law of the State; as, for example, an allowance made to an executor in excess of that prescribed by statute.*

§ 81.31 Funeral expenses. An executor may deduct such amounts for funeral expenses as are actually expended by him and, under the laws of the local jurisdiction, are payable out of the decedent's estate. A reasonable expenditure by the executor for a tombstone, monument, or mausoleum, or for a burial lot, either for the decedent or his family, may be deducted under this heading, provided such an expenditure is allowable by the local law. Included in funeral expenses is the cost of transportation of the person bringing the body to the place of burial.*

§ 81.32 Administration expenses. The amounts deductible from the gross estate as "administration expenses" are such expenses as are actually and necessarily incurred in the administration of the estate; that is, in the collection of assets, payment of debts, and distribution among the persons entitled. The expenses contemplated in the law are such only as attend the settlement of an estate by the legal representative preliminary to the transfer of the property to individual beneficiaries or to a trustee, whether such trustee is the executor or some other person. Expenditures not essential to the proper settlement of the estate, but incurred for the individual benefit of the heirs, legatees, or devisees, may not be taken as deductions. Administration expenses include (1) executor's commissions; (2) attorney's fees; and (3) miscellaneous expenses. Each of these classes is considered separately in §§ 81.33 to 81.35, inclusive.*

§ 81.33 Executor's commissions. The executor or administrator, in filing the return, may deduct his commissions in such an amount as has actually been paid, or in an amount which at the time of such filing it is reasonably expected will be paid, but no deduction may be taken if no commissions are to be collected. In case the amount of the commissions has not been fixed by decree of the proper court, the deduction will be allowed on the final audit of the return, provided: (1) That the Commissioner is reasonably satisfied that the commissions claimed will be paid; (2) that the amount entered as a deduction is within the amount allowable by the laws of the jurisdiction wherein the estate is being administered; and (3) that it is in accordance with the usually accepted practice in said jurisdiction to allow such an amount in estates of similar size and character. If the deduction is disallowed in whole or in part on final audit, the disallowance will be subject to modification as the facts may later require. If the deduction is allowed in advance of payment and payment is thereafter waived, it shall be the duty of the executor to notify the Commissioner and to pay the resulting tax, together with interest. Executors should note that the commissions received as compensation for their services constitute taxable income and that the amounts received or receivable by them as such compensation are cross-referenced for income-tax purposes.

A bequest or devise to the executor in lieu of commissions is not deductible. If, however, the decedent fixed by his will the compensation payable to the executor for services to be rendered in the administration of the estate, deduction may be taken to the extent that the amount so fixed does not exceed the compensation allowable by the local law or practice.

Amounts paid as trustees' commissions do not constitute expenses of administration and are not deductible, whether received by the executor acting in the capacity of a trustee or by a separate trustee as such.*

§ 81.34 Attorney's fees. The executor or administrator, in filing the return, may deduct such an amount of attorney's fees as has actually been paid, or in an amount which at the time of such filing it is reasonably expected will be paid. If on the final audit of a return the fees claimed have not been awarded by the proper court and paid, the deduction will, nevertheless, be allowed, provided the Commissioner is reasonably satisfied that the amount claimed will be paid and that it does not exceed a reasonable remuneration for the services rendered, taking into account the size and character of the estate and the local law and practice. If the deduction is disallowed in whole or in part on final audit, the disallowance will be subject to modification as the facts may later require.

Attorney's fees incurred by beneficiaries incident to litigation as to their respective interests do not constitute a proper deduction, inasmuch as expenses of this character are properly charged against the beneficiaries personally and are not administration expenses.*

§ 81.35 Miscellaneous administration expenses. This includes such expenses as court costs, surrogates' fees, accountants' fees, appraisers' fees, clerk hire, etc. Expenses necessarily incurred in preserving and distributing the estate are deductible, including the cost of storing or maintaining property of the estate, if it is impossible to effect immediate distribution to the beneficiaries. Expenses for preserving and caring for the property may not include outlays for additions or improvements; nor will such expenses be allowed for a longer period than the executor is required to retain the property. A brokerage fee for selling property of the estate is deductible if the sale is necessary in order to pay the decedent's debts, the expenses of administration, or to effect distribution. Other expenses attending the sale are deductible, such as the fees of an auctioneer, if it is reasonably necessary to employ one.*

§ 81.36 Claims against the estate. The amounts that may be deducted under this heading are such only as represent personal obligations of the decedent existing at the time of his death, whether or not then matured, and interest thereon which had accrued at the time of death. Only interest accrued at the date of the decedent's death is allowable even though the executor, in accordance with the provisions of section 811 (j) of the Internal Revenue Code, elects to have the gross estate valued as of a date or dates subsequent to the decedent's death. Only claims enforceable against the decedent's estate may be deducted. If the claim is founded upon a promise or agreement, the deduction therefor is limited to the extent that the liability was contracted bona fide and for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Thus, a pledge or a subscription, evidenced by a promissory note or otherwise, even though enforceable against the estate, is deductible only to the extent that liability therefor was contracted bona fide and for an adequate and full consideration in cash or its equivalent. Liabilities imposed by law or arising out of torts are deductible. See § 81.29 as to the relinquishment or promised relinquishment of dower and other marital interests.*

§ 81.37 Taxes. The deduction for property taxes is limited to such taxes as accrued prior to the decedent's death. Property taxes must, in order to be deductible, constitute enforceable obligations of the decedent existing at the time of death.

Unpaid taxes upon income received during the decedent's lifetime are deductible but taxes upon income received after death are not deductible. No estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax is deductible.*

§ 81.38 Unpaid mortgages. Deduction is allowed of the full unpaid amount of a mortgage upon, or of an indebtedness in respect of, any property of the gross estate, including interest which had accrued thereon at the time of death, provided the value of the property, undiminished by the amount of the mortgage or indebtedness, is returned as part of the value of the gross estate. If decedent's estate is liable for the amount of the mortgage or indebtedness, the full value of the property subject to the mortgage or indebtedness must be included as part of the value of the gross estate; the amount of the mortgage or indebtedness being in such case allowed as a deduction. But if decedent's estate is not so liable, only the value of the equity of redemption (or value of the property, less the indebtedness) need be returned as part of the value of the gross estate. In no case may the deduction on account of the mortgage or indebtedness exceed the liability therefor contracted bona fide and for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Only interest accrued at the date of the decedent's death is allowable even though the executor, in accordance with the provisions of section 811(j) of the Internal Revenue Code, elects to have the gross estate valued as of a date or dates subsequent to the decedent's death. Inasmuch as real property situated outside of the United States does not form a part of the gross estate, no deduction may be taken of any mortgage thereon or any indebtedness in respect thereof.*

§ 81.39 Losses from casualties or theft. There may be deducted under this heading losses incurred during the settlement of the estate arising from fires, storms, shipwrecks, or other casualties, or from theft, if such losses are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. Such losses are not deductible if, at the time of the filing of the estate tax return, they have been claimed as a deduction for income tax purposes in an income tax return. If the loss is partly compensated for, the excess of the loss over such compensation may be deducted. Losses not of the nature described are not deductible. In order to be deductible a loss must occur during the settlement of the estate. If a loss with respect to an asset occurs after distribution thereof to the distributee it may not be deducted.*

§ 81.40 Support of dependents. The support of dependents of the decedent during the settlement of the estate is deductible pursuant to the following rules:

(a) In order to be deductible, the allowance must be authorized by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the estate is being administered, and not in excess of what is reasonably required.

(b) The allowance for which deduction may be made is limited to support during the settlement of the estate. Any allowance for a more extended period is not deductible.

(c) There must be an actual disbursement from the estate to the dependents, but after payment has been made the right of deduction is not affected by the fact that the dependents do not expend the entire amount for their support during the settlement of the estate.*

DEDUCTIONS—PROPERTY PREVIOUSLY TAXED

SEC. 812. [Part II, Subchapter A.] NET ESTATE.

For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined, in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States by deducting from the value of the gross estate—

(c) (as amended by Joint Resolution, approved March 17, 1941, Public Law 18, Seventy-seventh Congress, effective as of February 11, 1939) Property previously taxed. An amount equal to the value of any property (A) forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States of any person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or (B) transferred to the decedent by gift within five years prior to his death, where such property can be identified as having been received by the decedent from the donor by gift, or from such prior decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or which can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax imposed under chapter 4, or under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1932, 47 Stat. 245, or an estate tax imposed under this subchapter, the Revenue Act of 1926, 44 Stat. 69, or any prior Act of Congress, was finally determined and paid by or on behalf of such donor, or the estate of such prior decedent, as the case may be, and only in the amount finally determined as the value of such property in determining the value of the gift, or the gross estate of such prior decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in the decedent's gross estate, and only if in determining the value of the net estate of the prior decedent no deduction was allowable under this paragraph in respect of the property or property given in exchange therefor.

Where a deduction was allowed of any mortgage or other lien in determining the gift tax, or the estate tax of the prior decedent, which was paid in whole or in part prior to the decedent's death, then the deduction allowable under this paragraph shall be reduced by the amount so paid. The deduction allowable under this subsection shall be reduced by an amount which bears the same ratio to the amounts allowed as deductions under subsections (a), (b) and (d) as the amount otherwise deductible under this subsection bears to the value of the decedent's gross estate. Where the property referred to in this subsection consists of two or more items the aggregate value of such items shall be used for the purpose of computing the deduction.

SEC. 935. [Subchapter B.] RATE OF TAX.

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A, except that in lieu of the exemption of $100,000 provided in section 812 (a), the exemption shall be $40,000.

§ 81.41 Deduction of the value of transfers previously taxed. If there is included in the decedent's gross estate property received by him by gift from any person within five years prior to his death, or received by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance from any person who died within five years prior to his death, or property acquired in exchange for property so received, the Internal Revenue Code authorizes a deduction in respect thereof, subject to the following conditions and limitations, namely:

(a) Conditions. (1) The property respecting which the deduction is sought must have been received by the decedent as a gift within five years prior to his death, or received by him by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance from a prior decedent who died within five years of the decedent's death.

(2) The property must be identified either as the same property which the decedent so received or as property acquired in exchange therefor.

(3) The property must have formed a part of the gross estate, situated in the United States, of such prior decedent, or have been included in the total amount of the donor's gifts made within five years prior to the decedent's death.

(4) An estate tax by or on behalf of the estate of such prior decedent, or a gift tax by or on behalf of the donor, must have actually been paid (the mere filing of a return for such estate or donor not being sufficient).

(5) No such deduction, in respect of the property or property given in exchange therefor, must have been allowable in determining the value of the net estate of the prior decedent.

(b) Limitations. (1) The deduction is limited to the value of the property, or the aggregate value of such property if more than one item, as finally determined for the purpose of the gift tax or for the purpose of the prior estate tax, or to the value of such property or aggregate items thereof (or property acquired in exchange therefor) included in the decedent's gross estate, whichever is the lower.

(2) The deduction, as limited in (1), is reduced by the total amount paid prior to the decedent's death on any mortgage or other lien on the property previously taxed, provided such mortgage or other lien was deducted in determining the estate tax of the prior decedent or the gift tax of the donor.

(3) The deduction is further reduced on account of the deductions allowed under subsections (a), (b), and (d) of section 812. The amount of this further reduction is that proportion of such deductions which the amount otherwise deductible for property previously taxed bears to the value of the decedent's gross estate.

Property included in the total amount of gifts of a donor for the purpose of the gift tax and also included in the donee's gross estate does not embrace any portion of the gifts excluded under the provisions of section 1003 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of prior gift tax statutes, and due allowance must be made for any such exclusions when computing the deduction for property previously taxed.

For example: A donor gave his daughter a house and lot valued at $24,000, of which only $20,000 was included in the total amount of his gifts for the purpose of the gift tax. This property is included in the daughter's gross estate at a value of $18,000. As only 20,000/24,000 of the property was included for the purpose of the gift tax, in accordance with the third condition previously set forth in this section, the amount of the property previously taxed which is also included in the daughter's gross estate is 20,000/24,000×$18,000 or $15,000.

The application of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The decedent died June 15, 1940. The value of his gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax is $1,000,000, of which $200,000 is the value of insurance in excess of $40,000 payable to beneficiaries other than the estate, $600,000 is the value of property previously taxed, and $200,000 is the value of stocks and bonds not so taxed. The property previously taxed was inherited from the decedent's father, who died on June 1, 1939. The tax on the father's estate was paid. The property previously taxed may be set forth as follows:

	Decedent's estate	Prior estate
Item 1	$150,000	$100,000
Item 2	40,000	85,000
Item 3	110,000	125,000
Item 4	130,000	120,000
Item 5	90,000	115,000
Item 6	80,000	50,000
Total	600,000	595,000

Item 1, $150,000, is specifically bequeathed to a charitable organization free of estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes. Administration expenses and debts of the decedent amount to $150,000. At the time of the father's death there was an unpaid mortgage of $60,000 on item 5 which was deducted in determining the estate tax liability of the father's estate. This mortgage was entirely paid before the son's death.

The deduction for property previously taxed is limited to the aggregate value of the items constituting such property as finally determined in the case of the prior decedent or donor, or to the aggregate value of such property included in the decedent's gross estate, whichever is the lower. Accordingly, the amount of the deduction for property previously taxed thus ascertained is $595,000. In accordance with (b) (2) of this section this deduction is reduced by $60,000, the amount paid in the discharge of the mortgage on item 5. The deduction thus reduced is $535,000.

The deduction is further reduced by a proportionate amount computed under the provisions of (b) (3) of this section. As the amount of the specific exemption authorized by subchapter A is greater than the amount of the specific exemption authorized by subchapter B, the amount so computed in determining the deduction for the purpose of the basic tax imposed by subchapter A differs from the amount so computed in determining the deduction for the purpose of the additional tax imposed by subchapter B.

In this example the deductions, except for property previously taxed, amount to $400,000, as follows: $150,000 for the charitable bequest, $150,000 for administration expenses and debts, and $100,000 for the specific exemption authorized by subchapter A. The proportionate amount by which the deduction for property previously taxed is further reduced for the purpose of the basic tax imposed by subchapter A is ascertained by multiplying the above mentioned $400,000 by 0.535, the ratio which the said $535,000 bears to the value of the gross estate, $1,000,000, and amounts to $214,000. The difference between $535,000 and $214,000 is $321,000, the amount in which the deduction for property previously taxed is allowable in determining the tax imposed by subchapter A. The total amount of the deductions, $721,000, subtracted from the value of the gross estate, $1,000,000, leaves a net estate of $279,000, the transfer of which is subject to the tax imposed by subchapter A.

Subchapter B provides for a specific exemption of $40,000. Accordingly, the deductions, other than the deduction for property previously taxed, allowable under that subchapter, amount to $340,000, and 0.535 of that amount is $181,900, the proportionate amount by which the deduction for property previously taxed is further reduced for the purpose of the additional tax. The difference between $533,000 and $181,900 is $353,100, the amount in which the deduction for property previously taxed is allowable in determining the additional tax. The total amount of the deductions, $693,100, subtracted from the value of the gross estate, $1,000,000, leaves a net estate of $306,900, the transfer of which is subject to the additional tax imposed by subchapter B.*

§ 81.42 Property originally received. If the property originally received from a donor or prior decedent is included in the decedent's gross estate, the executor must describe it fully and prove its identity.*

§ 81.43 Property acquired in exchange. The deduction for substituted property is not limited to property acquired by a single exchange of property received from the donor or the prior decedent, but extends to substituted property acquired by the process of exchange, whether through the medium of money or otherwise, irrespective of the number of conversions involved, including the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of property so received or acquired, as well as property acquired by purchase with the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of such property so long as such proceeds can be conclusively identified as such and clearly traced to the property originally so received.

The executor must describe and fully identify both the property originally received from the donor or the prior decedent and the substituted property for which deduction is claimed, giving the date and stating the nature of the transaction by which the substituted property was acquired, together with the name and address of the transferee. If the transaction was evidenced by written instrument of public record, precise reference to such record must be made, and if by instrument not of record, a verified copy thereof must be supplied. If there was no written instrument, there must be furnished the affidavit of one or more persons having personal knowledge of the matter, setting forth the facts in connection therewith.

The burden of identifying property as acquired in exchange for property included in the gross estate of the prior decedent for Federal estate tax purposes rests upon the executor.*

DEDUCTIONS—TRANSFERS FOR PUBLIC, CHARITABLE, RELIGIOUS, ETC., USES

SEC. 812. [Part II, Subchapter A.] NET ESTATE.

For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined, in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States by deducting from the value of the gross estate—

* * * * *

(d) Transfers for public, charitable, and religious uses. The amount of all bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, or to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used by such trustee or trustees, or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. If the tax imposed by section 810, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes, are, either by the terms of the will, by the law, of the jurisdiction under which the estate is administered, or by the law of the jurisdiction imposing the particular tax, payable in whole or in part out of the bequests, legacies, or devises otherwise deductible under this paragraph, then the amount deductible under this paragraph shall be the amount of such bequests, legacies, or devises reduced by the amount of such taxes. The amount of the deduction under this subsection for any transfer shall not exceed the value of the transferred property required to be included in the gross estate.

* * * * *

SEC. 935. [Subchapter B.] RATE OF TAX.

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A, except that in lieu of the exemption of $100,000 provided in section 812 (a), the exemption shall be $40,000.

§ 81.44 Transfers for public, charitable, religious, etc., uses. Deduction may be taken of the value of all property transferred by will or by the decedent in his lifetime not to exceed the value of the transferred property required to be included in the gross estate if in either case the property was transferred (1) to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes; or (2) to or for the use of any corporation or association organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes (including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals), if no part of the net earnings of the corporation or association inures to or is payable to or for the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; or (3) to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, if such transfers, legacies, bequests, or devises are to be used by such trustee, trustees, fraternal society, order, or association exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

If a trust is created for both a charitable and a private purpose, deduction may be taken of the value of the beneficial interest in favor of the former only insofar as such interest is presently ascertainable, and hence severable from the interest in favor of the private use. § 81.10 indicates the principles to be applied in the computation of the present worth of deferred uses, but such computation will not be made by the Commissioner on behalf of the executor. Thus, if money or property is placed in trust to pay the income to an individual during his life, or for a term of years, and then to pay or deliver the principal to the charitable corporation, or to apply it to a charitable purpose, the present value of the remainder is deductible. To determine the present value of such remainder, use the appropriate factor in column 3 of Table A or B of § 81.10. If the present worth of a remainder bequeathed for a charitable use is dependent upon the termination of more than one life, or in any other manner rendering inapplicable Table A or B of § 81.10, the claim for the deduction must be supported by a full statement, in duplicate, of the computation of the present worth made, in accordance with the principle set forth in § 81.10, by one skilled in actuarial computations.

The deduction is not limited, in the estates of citizens or residents, to transfers to domestic corporations or associations, or to trustees for use within the United States.

If under the terms of the will, or the law of the jurisdiction wherein the estate is administered, or the law of the jurisdiction imposing the particular tax, the Federal estate tax, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax is payable in whole or in part out of any bequest, legacy, or devise deductible under section 812 (d), the sum deductible is the amount of such bequest, legacy, or devise so reduced. Thus, if $50,000 is bequeathed for a charitable purpose and is subjected to a State inheritance tax of $5,000, the amount deductible is $45,000; or if a life estate is bequeathed to an individual with remainder over to a charitable corporation, and by the local law the legacy tax upon the life estate is taken out of the corpus with the result that the charitable corporation will be entitled to receive only the amount of the fund less the tax, the deduction is limited to the present worth, as of the date of the testator's death, of the remainder of the fund so reduced; or if the testator bequeaths his residuary estate, or a portion thereof, to charity, and his will contains a direction that certain inheritance taxes, otherwise payable from legacies in respect of which they were laid, shall be payable out of such residuary estate, the deduction may not exceed the bequest to charity thus reduced pursuant to the direction of the will; or if a residuary estate, or a portion thereof, be bequeathed to charity, and by the local law the Federal estate tax is payable out of the residuary estate, the deduction may not exceed that portion of the residuary estate bequeathed to charity as reduced by the Federal estate tax. The statute in effect provides that the deduction shall be based on the amount actually available for charitable uses, that is, the amount of the fund remaining after the payment of all death taxes. The return should fully disclose the computation of the amount to be deducted. If such amount is dependent upon the amount of any death tax which has not been paid before the filing of the return, Form 706, there should be submitted with the return a computation of such tax.

If as the result of a controversy involving a charitable bequest or devise, the charitable organization assigns or surrenders a part thereof pursuant to a compromise agreement in settlement of such controversy, the amount so assigned or surrendered is not deductible as a bequest or devise to such charitable organization.*

§ 81.45 Religious, charitable, scientific, and educational corporations. A corporation or association to which a transfer for a religious, charitable, scientific, or educational purpose was made must meet four tests: (1) It must be organized and operated for one or more of the specified purposes; (2) it must be organized and operated exclusively for such purposes; (3) no part of its net earnings shall inure to or be paid to or for the benefit of private stockholders or individuals; and (4) no substantial part of its activities shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation.

The estate is not deprived of the right to deduct the value of property so transferred by reason of the fact that private individuals are the recipients of the benefits which the corporation or association dispenses. Such right is, however, lost if any part of the net earnings of the corporation or association inures to or is payable to or for the benefit of a private stockholder or individual.*

§ 81.46 Conditional bequests. If as of the date of decedent's death the transfer to charity is dependent upon the performance of some act or the happening of a precedent event in order that it might become effective, no deduction is allowable unless the possibilty that charity will not take is so remote as to be negligible. If an estate or interest has passed to or is vested in charity at the time of decedent's death and such right or interest woud be defeated by the performance of some act or the happening of some event which appeared to have been highly improbable at the time of decedent's death, the deduction is allowable.

If the legatee, devisee, donee, or trustee is empowered to divert the property or fund, in whole or in part, to a use or purpose which would have rendered it, to the extent that it is subject to such power, not deductible had it been directly so bequeathed, devised, or given by the decedent, deduction will be limited to that portion, if any, of the property or fund which is exempt from an exercise of such power.*

§ 81.47 Proof required. In establishing the right of the estate to this deduction, the executor must submit:

(a) Duplicate copies of the will of the decedent, and of the order admitting the will to probate, one copy of each of which should be certified, if the deduction is claimed of property transferred by such will. Duplicate copies of any instrument in writing by which the decedent made a transfer of property in his lifetime the value of which is required by the statute to be included in his gross estate, if the deduction is claimed of property so transferred. If the instrument is of record one copy thereof should be certified, and if not of record, one copy should be verified. The certified or verified copy should be forwarded by the collector to the Commissioner.

(b) An affidavit by the executor stating whether any action has been instituted to have interpreted or to contest the will or any provision thereof affecting the charitable deduction claimed and whether, according to his information and belief, any such action is designed or contemplated.

(c) Such other documents or evidence as may be requested by the Bureau.*

SPECIFIC EXEMPTION

SEC. 812. [Part II, Subchapter A.] NET ESTATE.

For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined, in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States by deducting from the value of the gross estate—

(a) Exemption. An exemption of $100,000;

SEC. 935. [Subchapter B.] RATE OF TAX.

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A, except that in lieu of the exemption of $100,000 provided in section 812 (a), the exemption shall be $40,000.

§ 81.48 Specific exemption. A specific exemption should be deducted in determining the net estate of a citizen or resident of the United States. The specific exemption deductible in determining the net estate upon which the basic tax is imposed by section 810 of the Internal Revenue Code (subchapter A) is $100,000. The specific exemption deductible in determining the net estate of a citizen or resident upon which the additional tax is imposed by section 935 of the Internal Revenue Code (subchapter B) is $40,000. No specific exemption is authorized in the case of the estate of a nonresident not a citizen.*

ESTATES OF NONRESIDENTS NOT CITIZENS

SEC. 862. [Part III, Subchapter A.] PROPERTY WITHIN THE UNITED STATES.

For the purpose of this subchapter—

(a) Stock in domestic corporation. Stock in a domestic corporation owned and held by a nonresident not a citizen of the United States shall be deemed property within the United States; and

(b) Revocable transfers and transfers in contemplation of death. Any property of which the decedent has made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, within the meaning of section 811 (c) or (d), shall be deemed to be situated in the United States, if so situated either at the time of the transfer, or at the time of the decedent's death.

SEC. 863. [Part III, Subchapter A.] PROPERTY WITHOUT THE UNITED STATES.

The following items shall not, for the purpose of this subchapter, be deemed property within the United States:

(a) Proceeds of life insurance. The amount receivable as insurance upon the life of a nonresident not a citizen of the United States; and

(b) Bank deposits. Any moneys deposited with any person carrying on the banking business, by or for a nonresident not a citizen of the United States who was not engaged in business in the United States at the time of this death.

SEC. 850. [Part II, Subchapter A.] MISSIONARIES IN FOREIGN SERVICE.

Missionaries duly commissioned and serving under boards of foreign missions of the various religious denominations in the United States, dying while in the foreign missionary service of such boards, shall not, by reason merely of their intention to permanently remain in such foreign service, be deemed nonresidents of the United States, but shall be presumed to be residents of the State, the District of Columbia, or the Territories of Alaska or Hawaii wherein they respectively resided at the time of their commission and their departure for such foreign service.

SEC. 851. [Part II, Subchapter A.] CITIZENS WITH ESTATES IN CHINA.

The term "resident" as used in this subchapter includes a citizen of the United States with respect to whose property any probate or administration proceedings are had in the United States Court for China.

§ 81.49 Gross estate. The gross estate of a nonresident not a citizen is made up in the same way as that of a citizen or resident of the United States. For computation of the net estate of a nonresident not a citizen, see § 81.51. For meaning of the terms "residents" and "nonresidents," and of the presumption applying as to the residence of missionaries, see § 81.5.*

§ 81.50 Situs of property. Real estate, tangible personal property, and the written evidence of intangible personal property which is treated as being the property itself are within the United States if physically situated therein. For example, a bond for the payment of money is not within the United States unless physically situated therein. Stock of a domestic corporation, however, constitutes property within the United States, irrespective of where the certificates thereof are physically located.

Intangible personal property the written evidence of which is not treated as being the property itself constitutes property within the United States if consisting of a property right issuing from or enforceable against a resident of the United States or a domestic corporation (public or private), if not subject to the exceptions prescribed in section 863 (a) and (b). Under the provisions of that section the amount receivable as insurance upon the life of a decedent who was a nonresident not a citizen, and moneys deposited by or for such a decedent, who was not engaged in business in the United States at the time of his death, with any person carrying on the banking business, shall not be deemed property within the United States.

Property of which the decedent has made a transfer taxable under the provisions of § 81.15 is deemed to be situated in the United States if so situated either at the time of the transfer or at the time of the decedent's death. (See §§ 81.15 to 81.21, inclusive.)*

DEDUCTIONS—ESTATES OF NONRESIDENTS NOT CITIZENS

SEC. 861. [Part III, Subchapter A.] NET ESTATE.

(a) Deductions allowed. For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined, in the case of a nonresident not a citzen of the United States, by deducting from the value of that part of his gross estate (determined as provided in section 811), which at the time of his death is situated in the United States.—

(1) Expenses, losses, indebtedness, and taxes. That proportion of the deductions specified in subsection (b) of section 812 which the value of such part bears to the value of his entire gross estate, wherever situated.

(2) (as amended by Joint Resolution, approved March 17, 1941, Public Law 18, Seventy-seventh Congress, effective as of February 11, 1939) Property previously taxed. An amount equal to the value of any property (A) forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States of any person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or (B) transferred to the decedent by gift within five years prior to his death, where such property can be identified as having been received by the decedent from the donor by gift, or from such prior decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or which can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax imposed under chapter 4, or under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1932, 47 Stat. 245, or an estate tax imposed under this subchapter, the Revenue Act of 1926, 44 Stat. 69, or any prior Act of Congress, was finally determined and paid by or on behalf of such donor, or the estate of such prior decedent, as the case may be, and only in the amount finally determined as the value of such property in determining the value of the gift, or the gross estate of such prior decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in that part of the decedent's gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States, and only if in determining the value of the net estate of the prior decedent no deduction was allowable under this paragraph in respect of the property or property given in exchange therefor. Where a deduction was allowed of any mortgage or other lien in determining the gift tax, or the estate tax of the prior decedent, which was paid in whole or in part prior to the decedent's death, then the deduction allowable under this paragraph shall be reduced by the amount so paid. The deduction allowable under this paragraph shall be reduced by an amount which bears the same ratio to the amounts allowed as deductions under paragraphs (1) and (3) of this subsection as the amount otherwise deductible under this paragraph bears to the value of that part of the decedent's gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States. Where the property referred to in this paragraph consists of two or more items the aggregate value of such items shall be used for the purpose of computing the deduction.

(3) Transfers for public, charitable, and religious uses. The amount of all bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any domestic corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, or to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used within the United States by such trustee or trustees, or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. If the tax imposed by section 860, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes, are, either by the terms of the will, by the law of the jurisdiction under which the estate is administered, or by the law of the jurisdiction imposing the particular tax, payable in whole or in part out of the bequests, legacies, or devises otherwise deductible under this paragraph, then the amount deductible under this paragraph shall be the amount of such bequests, legacies, or devises reduced by the amount of such taxes. The amount of the deduction under this paragraph for any transfer shall not exceed the value of the transferred property required to be included in the gross estate.

(b) Condition of allowance of deductions. No deduction shall be allowed in the case of a nonresident not a citizen of the United States unless the executor includes in the return required to be filed under section 864 the value at the time of his death of that part of the gross estate of such nonresident not situated in the United States.

SEC. 935. [Subchaper B.] RATE OF TAX.

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A. * * *.

§ 81.51 Net estate. The Internal Revenue Code imposes the tax upon the transfer of only the portion of the estate of a nonresident not a citizen that was situated in the United States. In determining the net estate, the deductions specifically authorized for this class of cases may be taken from the portion of the gross estate situated in the United States.*

§ 81.52 Deductions of administration expenses, claims, etc. In estates of non-residents not citizens, deductions from the gross estate may be taken, subject to the limitations set forth in §§ 81.29 to 81.40, inclusive, and to the limitations hereinafter stated, for the following: Funeral expenses; administration expenses; claims against the estate; unpaid mortgages; losses incurred during the settlement of the estate arising from fires, storms, shipwrecks, or other casualties, or from theft, if such losses are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise; and amounts reasonably required and actually expended for the support during the settlement of the estate of those dependent upon the decedent. It is immaterial whether the amounts to be deducted were incurred or expended within or without the United States, but certain limitations are imposed which do not apply to estates of residents or citizens, namely:

(a) Only that proportion of the aggregate thereof is deductible which the value of that part of the gross estate situated (within the meaning of the statute) in the United States, bears to the value of the entire gross estate, wherever situated. (See § 81.55.)

(b) No deduction whatever may be taken unless the executor includes in the return the value of that part of the gross estate not situated in the United States. Such part of the gross estate must be valued as of the date of the decedent's death; or, if the option authorized by section 811 (j) is exercised, such part must be valued in accordance with the provisions of § 81.11.

In order that the Bureau may properly pass upon the items claimed as deductions, the executor should submit a certified copy of the schedule of liabilities, claims against the estate, and expenses of administration filed under the foreign death-duty act; or, if no such schedule was filed, a certified copy of the schedule of such liabilities, claims, and expenses filed with the foreign court in which administration was had; or, if items of deduction allowable under section 861 (a) (1) were not included in either such schedule, or if no such schedules were filed, then the affidavit of the foreign executor setting forth the facts relied upon as entitling the estate to the benefit of the particular deduction or deductions.*

§ 81.53 Deduction of the value of property previously taxed. The right to deduct the value of property received by a decedent who was a nonresident not a citizen by gift from any person within five years prior to his death, or by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance from any person who died within five years prior to his death, or the value of property acquired in exchange for property so received, is governed by the same rules as those applying to estates of citizens or residents (§§ 81.41 to 81.43, inclusive), subject to the three following exceptions:

(1) The deduction is not available to any extent unless the executor includes in the return the value of that part of the gross estate not situated in the United States. Such part of the gross estate must be valued as of the date of the decedent's death; or, if the option authorized by section 811 (j) is exercised, such part must be valued in accordance with the provisions of § 81.11.

(2) The property for which the deduction is claimed must be included in that part of the gross estate situated in the United States at the time of the decedent's death.

(3) Instead of the amount of the deduction being reduced in accordance with the third limitation set forth under § 81.41 (b), the amount of the deduction is reduced by the proportion of the total other deductions, allowed under paragraphs (1) and (3) of subsection (a) of section 861, which the amount otherwise deductible for property previously taxed bears to the value of the part of the gross estate situated in the United States at the time of the decedent's death.*

§ 81.54 Deduction of value of transfers for public, charitable, religious, etc., uses. The right to deduct the value of property transferred by nonresidents not citizens for public, religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes is governed by the same rules as those applying to estates of citizens or residents (§§ 81.44 to 81.47, inclusive), subject, however, to the two following exceptions:

(a) The right is limited to transfers to corporations and associations created or organized in the United States, or to trustees for use within the United States.

(b) The right is available only if the executor includes in the return the value of that part of the gross estate not situated in the United States. Such part of the gross estate must be valued as of the date of the decedent's death; or, if the option authorized by section 811 (j) is exercised, such part must be valued in accordance with the provisions of § 81.11.

Instead of duplicate copies of the documents specified in § 81.47, only one copy is required to be filed.*

§ 81.55 Determination of net estate. The following example will show the manner of determining the net estate of a nonresident not a citizen. The gross estate, wherever situated, amounts to $1,000,000, of which $200,000 represents the value of the property having its situs within the United States (the term "United States" including not only the several States, but also the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia). The funeral expenses, administration expenses, and claims against the estate aggregate $150,000, and there are charitable bequests, for use within the United States, amounting to $25,000. Hence the property situated within the United States constitutes 20 per cent of the entire gross estate wherever situated, and a like percentage of the $150,000 is $30,000. The following result is accordingly obtained:

Gross estate within the United States	$200,000
20 percent of $150,000	30,000
Charitable bequests for use within the United States	25,000
	55,000
Net estate	145,000

For the manner of computing the tax on the net estate, see § 81.7.*

§ 81.56 Payment of tax. The provisions relating to credits (see §§ 81.8 and 81.9) and to rates and payment of the tax are the same in estates of nonresidents not citizens and of residents or citizens. The Internal Revenue Code provides that the executor shall pay the tax. If there is no executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States, every person in either the actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent is constituted by the Internal Revenue Code as executor for the purpose of tax payment, and is liable for the tax to the extent of the property so in his possession. (See §§ 81.75 to 81.82, inclusive.) All checks, drafts, or money orders should be made payable to the order of the collector of internal revenue.*

PRELIMINARY NOTICE—ESTATES OF CITIZENS OR RESIDENTS

SEC. 820. [Part II, Subchapter A.] EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

The executor, within two months after the decedent's death, or within a like period after qualifying as such, shall give written notice thereof to the collector.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 926, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A, except that in lieu of the exemption of $100,000 provided in section 812 (a), the exemption shall be $40,000.

§ 81.57 When notice required. A preliminary notice is required to be filed in the case of every citizen or resident whose gross estate exceeded $40,000 in value at the date of death. The value of the gross estate at the date of death governs with respect to the filing of the notice regardless of whether the value of the gross estate is, at the executor's election, finally determined as of a date subsequent to the date of death pursuant to the provisions of section 811 (j). The notice must be filed in duplicate within two months after the decedent's death or within two months after the executor has qualified. In the case of a resident, it must be filed with the collector in whose district the decedent had his domicile at the time of death. In the case of a nonresident citizen, it must be filed with the collector in whose district the gross estate in the United States was situated; or, if the gross estate in the United States was situated in more than one district, or if no part of the gross estate was situated in the United States, it must be filed with the collector for the second district of New York, or with such collector as the Commissioner may designate. If there is doubt as to whether the gross estate exceeded $40,000, the notice should be filed as a matter of precaution in order to avoid the possibility of penalties attaching.*

§ 81.58 Notice by executor or administrator. The duly qualified executor or administrator is required to file such preliminary notice on Form 704, copies of which may be obtained from the collector, within two months after qualifying as such, if notice has not already been filed. The primary purpose of the notice is to advise the Government of the existence of taxable estates, and filing should not be delayed beyond the two months' period because of uncertainty as to the exact value of the assets. The filing of the notice within the prescribed period is mandatory, and the estimate of the gross estate called for by the notice should be the best approximation of value which can be made within the time allowed. The instructions upon the back of the form should be read carefully before executing the notice. The signature of one executor or administrator upon Form 704 is sufficient. For penalties for delinquency in filing notice, or for filing a false or fraudulent notice, see §§ 81.88, 81.89, and 81.91.*

§ 81.59 Notice by others than duly qualified executor or administrator. The term "executor" embraces any person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent at or after the time of the latter's death, if within two months after the decedent's death no executor or administrator qualifies. The notice on Form 704 must be filed by such persons in every case in which an executor or administrator has not duly qualified within such period. If, within the period mentioned, an executor or administrator qualifies, the duty of filing the notice devolves upon him, and all other persons are relieved therefrom.*

PRELIMINARY NOTICE—ESTATES OF NONRESIDENTS NOT CITIZENS

SEC. 820. [Part II, Subchapter A.] EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

The executor, within two months after the decedent's death, or within a like period after qualifying as such, shall give written notice thereof to the collector.

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. * * *

§ 81.60 Estates of nonresidents not citizens; preliminary notice. In estates of nonresidents not citizens, notice on Form 705, copies of which may be obtained from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., or from any collector of internal revenue, is required if any part of the gross estate was situated (see § 81.50) in the United States. The notice must be filed, in duplicate, by every appointed, qualified, and acting executor or administrator within the United States with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which such part of the gross estate was situated, or, if such part of the gross estate was situated in more than one district, it must be filed with the collector for the second district of New York or with such collector as the Commissioner may designate. The notice is necessary if any part of the decedent's gross estate was situated, within the meaning of the statute, in the United States, regardless of the value of that part of the entire gross estate. If no executor or administrator has qualified, notice must be filed within two months after the date of death by every person in either the actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent so within the United States at or after the time of his death. If such person has no knowledge of the decedent's death within two months following its occurrence, he should file the notice immediately upon obtaining such knowledge. The term "person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent" (section 930) includes, among others, the decedent's agents and representatives; safe-deposit companies, warehouse companies, and other custodians of property in this country; brokers holding, as collateral, securities belonging to the decedent or investment funds owned by the decedent, and debtors of the decedent in this country. As to any moneys deposited by or for a decedent of this class with any person, corporation, or association carrying on the banking business, no notice is required, unless, however, the decedent was engaged in business in the United States at the time of his death.*

§ 81.61 Information return by corporation or transfer agent. Upon notification from the Bureau of Internal Revenue a corporation (organized or created in the United States), or its transfer agent will be required to file a return disclosing the following information pertaining to stocks or bonds registered in the name of a nonresident decedent (regardless of citizenship): (1) Name of decedent as registered; (2) date of death, residence, place of death, and names and addresses of executors, attorneys, or other representatives, within and without the United States, if known; and (3) a description of the securities and the number of shares or bonds and the par values. Treasury Department Form 714, which will be supplied by the Bureau upon request, may be used for the return.*

§ 81.62 Transfer certificates. Certificates permitting the transfer of property of nonresident decedents (regardless of citizenship) without liability will be issued by the Commissioner when he is satisfied that the tax imposed upon the estate, if any, has been fully discharged or provided for. The tax will be considered fully discharged for the purpose of the issuance of a transfer certificate only when investigation has been completed and payment of the tax, including any deficiency finally determined, has been made. If the tax liability has not been fully discharged transfer certificates may be issued permitting the transfer of particular items of property without liability upon the filing with the Commissioner of such security as he may require. No domestic corporation or its transfer agent should transfer stock registered in the name of a nonresident decedent without first requiring a transfer certificate covering all of the decedent's stock of the corporation and showing that such transfer may be made without liability. Banks, trust companies, and others in actual or constructive possession of property of nonresident decedents should require transfer certificates before transferring such property. However, a transfer certificate need not be required for bonds owned by a decedent who was a nonresident not a citizen if it is known that such bonds were not physically situated in the United States at the time of death. Corporations, transfer agents, banks, trust companies, or other custodians can insure avoidance of liability for tax and penalties only by demanding and receiving transfer certificates, as herein provided, prior to transfer of property of nonresident decedents.

The requirements of this and the preceding section do not apply if there is an executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States.*

THE RETURN—ESTATES OF CITIZENS OR RESIDENTS

SEC. 821. [Part II, Subchapter A.] RETURNS.

(a) Requirement—(1) Returns by executor. In all cases where the gross estate at the death of a citizen or resident exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 812 (a), the executor shall make a return under oath in duplicate, setting forth (1) the value of the gross estate of the decedent at the time of his death; (2) the deductions allowed under section 812; (3) the value of the net estate of the decedent as defined in section 812; and (4) the tax paid or payable thereon; or such part of such information as may at the time be ascertainable and such supplemental data as may be necessary to establish the correct tax.

(2) Returns by beneficiaries. If the executor is unable to make a complete return as to any part of the gross estate of the decedent, he shall include in his return a description of such part and the name of every person holding a legal or beneficial interest therein, and upon notice from the collector such person shall in like manner make a return as to such part of the gross estate.

(3) Cross reference. For provision requiring a return where the gross estate exceeds $40,000, see section 937.

(b) Time for filing. The return required of the executor under subsection (a) shall be filed at such times and in such manner as may be required by regulations made pursuant to law.

(c) Place for filing. The return required of the executor under subsection (a) shall be filed with the collector of the district in which was the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death, or, if there was no such domicile in the United States, then the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate of the decedent in the United States, or, if such part of the gross estate is situated in more than one district, then the collector of internal revenue of such district as may be designated by the Commissioner.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

SEC. 935. [Subchapter B.] RATE OF TAX.

(c) For the purposes of this section the value of the net estate shall be determined as provided in subchapter A, except that in lieu of the exemption of $100,000 provided in section 812 (a), the exemption shall be $40,000.

§ 81.64 Persons liable for return. The Internal Revenue Code provides that the duly qualified executor or administrator shall file the return. If there is more than one executor or administrator, the return must be made jointly by all. If no executor or administrator has been appointed, every person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent is constituted by the Internal Revenue Code an executor for the purposes of the tax (section 930), and is required to make and file a return as provided by section 821. If, in any case, the executor is unable to make a complete return as to any part of the gross estate, he is required to give all the information he has as to such property, including a full description, and the name of every person holding a legal or beneficial interest in the property. If the executor is unable to make a return as to any property, the Internal Revenue Code requires that every person holding a legal or beneficial interest therein shall, upon notice from the collector, make return as to such part of the gross estate. For penalties for delinquency in filing return, or for filing a false or fraudulent return, see §§ 81.88, 81.89, and 81.91.*

§ 81.65 Preparation of return. The return must be made on Form 706, copies of which will be supplied by the collector upon application. It must be filed in duplicate under oath and contain an itemized inventory by schedule of the property constituting the gross estate and lists of the deductions under the appropriate schedules. The return must set forth (1) the value of the gross estate (see §§ 81.10–81.28), (2) the deductions allowed (see §§ 81.29–81.48), (3) the value of the net estate, and (4) the tax paid or payable thereon. The return must set forth (1) both the net estate determined in accordance with the provisions of subchapter A imposing the basic tax and the net estate for the purposes of the additional estate tax imposed by subchapter B and (2) the basic tax, the additional tax, and, when applicable, the defense tax. The amount payable upon the return is the total of the net basic and net additional taxes, unless the decedent died after June 25, 1940 and before September 21, 1941. If the decedent died within such period, the total tax payable is the total of such net taxes plus the defense tax. The instructions printed on the form should be carefully followed. All documents and vouchers used in preparing the return should be retained by the executor so as to be available for inspection whenever required. Duplicate copies of the will, if the decedent died testate, one of which should be certified, must be submitted with the return, together with copies of such other documents as are required in Form 706 and in the applicable sections of these regulations. There may also be filed in duplicate copies of any documents which the executor may desire to submit with the return in explanation thereof.

In every case of an estate of a nonresident citizen, the executor should file the following documents with the return: (1) A copy of the inventory of property and the schedule of liabilities, claims against the estate and expenses of administration filed with the foreign court of probate jurisdiction, certified by a proper official of such court; and (2) a copy of the return filed under the foreign inheritance, estate, legacy, or succession tax act, certified by a proper official of the foreign tax department, if the estate is subject to such a foreign tax.*

§ 81.66 Supplemental data. The Internal Revenue Code provides that the executor, in addition to filing notice and return, shall furnish such supplemental data as may be necessary to establish the correct tax (section 821). It is therefore the duty of the executor to furnish upon request copies of any documents in his possession relating to the estate, or on file in any court having jurisdiction over the estate, appraisal lists of any items included in the gross estate, copies of balance sheets or other financial statements relating to the value of stock, and any other information obtainable by him that may be found necessary in the determination of the tax. Failure to comply with such a request will render the executor liable to penalties (§ 81.90), and proceedings may be instituted in the proper court of the United States to secure compliance therewith (section 3633 (a)).

Persons having possession or control of any records or documents containing or supposed to contain any information concerning the estate, or having knowledge or information of any fact or facts of a material bearing upon the liability, or the extent of liability, of the estate to the tax, shall, upon request of the Commissioner or any revenue agent or inspector designated by him for that purpose, make disclosure thereof. Failure on the part of any person to comply with such request will render him liable to penalties (§ 81.90), and compliance with the request may be enforced in the proper court of the United States (section 3633 (a)).*

THE RETURN—ESTATES OF NONRESIDENTS NOT CITIZENS

SEC. 864. [Part III, Subchapter A.] RETURNS.

(a) Requirement—(1) Returns by executor. In the case of the estate of every nonresident not a citizen of the United States any part of whose gross estate is situated in the United States, the executor shall make a return under oath in duplicate, setting forth (1) the value of that part of the gross estate of the decedent situated in the United States at the time of his death; (2) the deductions allowed under section 861; (3) the value of the net estate of the decedent as defined in section 861; (4) the tax paid or payable thereon; or such part of such information as may at the time be ascertainable and such supplemental data as may be necessary to establish the correct tax.

(2) Returns by beneficiaries. If the executor is unable to make a complete return as to any part of the gross estate of the decedent, he shall include in his return a description of such part and the name of every person holding a legal or beneficial interest therein, and upon notice from the collector such person shall in like manner make a return as to such part of the gross estate.

(b) Time for filing. The return required of the executor under subsection (a) shall be filed at such times and in such manner as may be required by regulations made pursuant to law.

(c) Place for filing. The return required of the executor under subsection (a) shall be filed with the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate of the decedent in the United States, or, if such part of the gross estate is situated in more than one district, then the collector of such district as may be designated by the Commissioner.

SEC. 865. CROSS REFERENCE.

For missionaries in foreign service, see section 850.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, * * *.

§ 81.67 Return of estates of nonresidents not citizens. A return on Form 706, copies of which may be obtained from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., or from any collector of internal revenue, is required in the case of every nonresident not a citizen any part of whose gross estate was situated (see § 81.50) in the United States. The return must set forth an itemized list of that part of the gross estate situated in the United States and the total value thereof (see § 81.51), the deductions claimed, if any (see §§ 81.52–81.54), the value of the net estate (see § 81.55), and the tax paid or payable thereon. The return must set forth the basic tax imposed by subchapter A (section 860), the additional tax imposed by subchapter B (section 935), and, if the decedent died after June 25, 1940, and before September 21, 1941, the defense tax imposed by subchapter C, as added by the Revenue Act of 1940. The return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which such part of the gross estate was situated, or, if such part of the gross estate was situated in more than one district, it must be filed with the collector for the second district of New York, or with such collector as the Commissioner may designate. The return must be filed in duplicate and under oath within 15 months from the date of death, unless an extension is obtained pursuant to §§ 81.69 or 81.70. If the due date for filing the return falls on a Sunday or on a legal holiday, the due date for filing will be the day following such Sunday or legal holiday. If placed in the mails the return should be posted in ample time to reach the collector's office, under ordinary handling of the mails, on or before the date on which the return is required to be filed. If a return is made and placed in the mails in due course, properly addressed, and postage paid, in ample time to reach the office of the collector on or before the due date, the filing will not be regarded as delinquent should the return not be actually received by such officer until subsequent to that date. As to penalty for failure to file the return within the time prescribed, see § 81.89. As to loss of the option to have the property valued as of a date or dates subsequent to the decedent's death by failing to file the return within the time prescribed, see § 81.11. The return should be made and filed by the executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States, or, if none, then by any person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent situated in the United States, whatever its value. If the qualified executor or administrator is unable to make a complete return as to any part of the gross estate, he is required to give all the information available to him as to such part, including a description thereof and the name of every person holding a legal or beneficial interest therein. As to the meaning of the term "person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent," see § 81.60.*

§ 81.68 Supplemental data. Pursuant to the provisions of section 864 (a) (1), with respect to furnishing supplemental data, if the decedent is a nonresident not a citizen, the executor is required to file with the return:

(a) A certified copy of the will, if decedent died testate, or, if the decedent left several wills to govern in different jurisdictions, a certified copy of each will.

(b) If any deductions are claimed, a copy of the inventory of property filed under the foreign death-duty act; or, if no such inventory was filed, a certified copy of the inventory filed with the foreign court of probate jurisdiction.

The Commissioner may require the documents specified in paragraph (b) regardless of whether deductions are claimed. For requirements dealing with the duty to furnish other documents or information relating to the tax liability of the estate, and penalties in connection therewith, see § 81.66.*

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING RETURN

SEC. 3634. [Chapter 34.] EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING RETURNS.

If the failure to file a return (other than a return of income tax) or list at the time prescribed by law or by regulation made under authority of law is due to sickness or absence, the collector may allow such further time, not exceeding thirty days, for making and filing the return or list as he deems proper.

§ 81.69 Extension of time by collector. In case of sickness or absence, collectors are authorized to grant an extension of time for filing the return for a period not in excess of 30 days from the due date. No such extension of time may be granted unless the application therefor is received by the collector prior to the expiration of the period for which the extension is requested and authorized. An extension of time for filing the return does not in itself operate to extend the time for the payment of the tax, which is due and payable 15 months after the date of death. For extension of time of payment, see § 81.79.*

§ 81.70 Extension of time by Commissioner. In case it is impossible for the executor to file a reasonably complete return within 15 months from the date of death, the Commissioner may, upon written application submitted on or prior to the due date showing good and sufficient cause, grant an extension of time not to exceed 3 months from the due date. Before the expiration of the extension period granted a return as complete as possible must be filed. The return thus filed will be the return required by section 821 (a) (1) or 864 (a) (1) and any tax shown thereon will be the "amount determined by the executor as the tax" referred to in section 822 (a) (2), or the "amount shown as the tax by the executor upon his return" referred to in section 870 (1). Such return cannot thereafter be amended, although supplemental information may subsequently be filed that may result in a finally determined tax different from the amount shown as the tax by the executor upon his return. An extension of time for filing the return does not operate to extend the time for payment of the tax, which is due 15 months after the date of death. An extension of time in which to make payment of the tax may be secured as provided in § 81.79.*

DETERMINATION OF TAX BY COMMISSIONER

SEC. 824. [Part II, Subchapter A.] EXAMINATION OF RETURN AND DETERMINATION OF TAX.

As soon as practicable after the return is filed the Commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax.

SEC. 525. [Part II, Subchapter A.] DISCHARGE OF EXECUTOR FROM PERSONAL LIABILITY.

(a) Application for discharge. If the executor makes written application to the Commissioner for determination of the amount of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the Commissioner (as soon as possible, and in any event within one year after the making of such application, or, if the application is made before the return is filed, then within one year after the return is filed, but not after the expiration of the period prescribed for the assessment of the tax in sections 874 and 875) shall notify the executor of the amount of the tax. The executor, upon payment of the amount of which he is notified, shall be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in tax thereafter found to be due and shall be entitled to a receipt or writing showing such discharge.

(b) Cross reference. For continuance of lien upon the gross estate after discharge of executor, see section 827 (c).

SEC. 802. [Part I, Subchapter A.] APPLICATION OF PARTS.

Part II shall apply to the estates of citizens or residents of the United States and, except as otherwise provided, to the estates of nonresidents not citizens of the United States, subject to the exceptions and additional provisions contained in Part III. * * *

§ 81.71 Examination of return and determination of tax by the Commissioner. As soon as practicable after returns are filed, they will be examined and the amount of the tax determined by the Commissioner under such procedure as he may from time to time prescribe.

If the executor makes written application to the Commissioner for a determination of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the Commissioner will, within one year after receipt of such application, or if the application is made before the return is filed then within one year after the return is filed, notify the executor of the amount of the tax, and upon payment thereof, the executor will be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in the tax thereafter found to be due.*

§ 81.72 Authorization of attorneys and others required. If an attorney or other person asks a ruling on a question of law arising in a specific case, the Commissioner will require satisfactory evidence of the right to obtain such ruling. Hypothetical questions cannot be answered.

In all cases in which information is sought regarding an estate, or an interview is asked, by an attorney or by an agent of the executor or administrator, the information or interview will be denied unless the attorney or agent presents a duly executed power of attorney from the executor or administrator authorizing the attorney or agent to act in his behalf. Powers of attorney should be filed in the office of the internal revenue agent in charge in which the case is under consideration.

No attorney or agent will be recognized as representing an estate or executor unless such attorney or agent is enrolled to represent claimants or others before the Treasury Department. For regulations governing enrollment, reference should be made to Treasury Department Circular No. 230, as revised, copies of which may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Committee on Practice, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.*

DEFICIENCY TAX

SEC. 870. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] DEFINITION OF DEFICIENCY.

As used in this subchapter in respect of the tax imposed by this subchapter the term "deficiency" means—

(1) The amount by which the tax imposed by this subchapter exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the executor upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) If no amount is shown as the tax by the executor upon his return, or if no return is made by the executor, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or credited without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax.

SEC. 871. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PROCEDURE IN GENERAL.

(a) (1) Petition to Board of Tax Appeals. If the Commissioner determines that there is a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this subchapter, the Commissioner is authorized to send notice of such deficiency to the executor by registered mail. Within 90 days after such notice is mailed (not counting Sunday or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia as the ninetieth day) the executor may file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals for a redetermination of the deficiency. No assessment of a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this subchapter and no distraint or proceeding in court for its collection shall be made, begun, or prosecuted until such notice has been mailed to the executor, nor until the expiration of such 90-day period, nor, if a petition has been filed with the Board, until the decision of the Board has become final. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3653 (a) the making of such assessment or the beginning of such proceeding or distraint during the time such prohibition is in force may be enjoined by a proceeding in the proper court.

(e) Increase of deficiency after notice mailed. The Board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the correct amount of the deficiency even if the amount so redetermined is greater than the amount of the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, and to determine whether any additional amount or addition to the tax should be assessed, if claim therefor is asserted by the Commissioner at or before the hearing or a rehearing.

(f) Further deficiency letters restricted. If the Commissioner has mailed to the executor notice of a deficiency as provided in subsection (a), and the executor files a petition with the Board within the time prescribed in such subsection, the Commissioner shall have no right to determine any additional deficiency, except in the case of fraud, and except as provided in subsection (e) or section 872 (c). If the executor is notified that, on account of a mathematical error appearing upon the face of the return, an amount of tax in excess of that shown upon the return is due, and that an assessment of the tax has been or will be made on the basis of what would have been the correct amount of tax but for the mathematical error, such notice shall not be considered, for the purposes of this subsection or of subsection (a), or of section 911, as a notice of a deficiency, and the executor shall have no right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by the provisions of subsection (a).

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

SEC. 3760. [Chapter 36.] CLOSING AGREEMENTS.

(a) Authorization. The Commissioner (or any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, authorized in writing by the Commissioner) is authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any internal revenue tax for any taxable period.

(b) Finality. If such agreement is approved by the Secretary, the Under Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary, within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive, and, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—

(1) The case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified, by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States, and

(2) In any suit, action, or proceeding, such agreement, or any determination, assessment, collection, payment, abatement, refund, or credit made in accordance therewith, shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded.

§ 81.73 Deficiency, petitions, and closing agreements. Section 870 by its definition of the word "deficiency" provides a term which will apply to any amount of tax determined to be due in excess of the amount of tax reported by the executor, or in excess of the amount reported by the executor as adjusted by way of prior assessments, abatements, refunds, or collections without assessment. In defining the term "deficiency" section 870 recognizes two classes of cases—one, in which the executor makes a return showing some tax liability; the other, in which the executor makes a return showing no tax liability, or in which the executor fails to make a return. Additional tax, resulting from supplemental information filed after the return has been filed, is a deficiency within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code.

When a case is considered for the first time, the deficiency is the excess of the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax over the amount shown as the tax by the executor on his return, or, if it is a case in which no tax was reported by the executor, the deficiency is the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax. Subsequent information sometimes discloses that the amount previously determined to be the correct amount of the tax is less than the correct amount, and that a redetermination of the tax is necessary. In such a case the deficiency on redetermination is the excess of the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax over the sum of the amount of tax reported by the executor and the deficiency assessed in connection with the previous determination. If it is a case in which no tax was reported by the executor, the deficiency is the excess of the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax over the amount of the deficiency disclosed by the previous determination. If the previous determination resulted in a refund to the executor, the deficiency upon the second determination is the excess of the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax over the amount of tax reported by the executor decreased by the amount of the tax refunded.

In all cases in which a deficiency in respect of a tax (including penalties or other additions to the tax provided by law) is determined by the Commissioner, a notice thereof will be sent to the executor by registered mail in accordance with the provisions of section 871 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code even though a jeopardy assessment (see § 81.74) is made. If, subsequent to the mailing of such notice, a jeopardy assessment is made in respect of the deficiency to which such notice relates no subsequent notice will be sent to the executor by the Commissioner, but if such jeopardy assessment is made, and the amount thereof is in excess of the deficiency to which the notice relates, the Commissioner will mail a notice to the executor as required by section 871 (a) of the determination of such additional deficiency provided no petition has theretofore been filed with the Board of Tax Appeals. If a deficiency is determined in respect of the basic tax imposed by subchapter A, the additional tax imposed by subchapter B, and the defense tax imposed by subchapter C (effective between June 25, 1940, and September 21, 1941), notice of all such deficiencies may be incorporated in the same communication.

Within 90 days (not counting Sunday or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia as the ninetieth day) after the mailing of the registered letter notifying him of the final determination of a deficiency by the Commissioner, the executor may file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals for a redetermination of the deficiency, other than a deficiency resulting from the correction of a mathematical error appearing upon the return.

The executor and the Commissioner (or any officer or employee authorized by the Commissioner), subject to approval by the Secretary, the Under Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, may, under the provisions of section 3760, enter into a closing agreement in writing relating to the tax liability of the estate which will be final and conclusive except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact.*

ASSESSMENT OF TAX

SEC. 3640. [Chapter 35.] ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY.

The Commissioner is authorized and required to make the inquiries, determinations, and assessments of all taxes and penalties imposed by this title, or accruing under any former internal revenue law, where such taxes have not been duly paid by stamp at the time and in the manner provided by law.

SEC. 822. [Part II, Subchapter A.] PAYMENT OF TAX.

(2) Extension of time. Where the Commissioner finds that the payment on the due date of any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the Commissioner may extend the time for payment of any such part not to exceed ten years from the due date. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension, and the running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension. If an extension is granted, the Commissioner may, if he deems it necessary, require the executor to furnish security for the payment of the amount in respect of which the extension is granted in accordance with the terms of the extension.

* * * * *

SEC. 871 [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PROCEDURE IN GENERAL.

(b) Collection of deficiency found by Board. If the executor files a petition with the Board, the entire amount redetermined as the deficiency by the decision of the Board which has become final shall be assessed and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. No part of the amount determined as a deficiency by the Commissioner but disallowed as such by the decision of the Board which has become final shall be assessed or be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court with or without assessment.

(c) Failure to file petition. If the executor does not file a petition with the Board within the time prescribed in subsection (a) the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, shall be assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector.

(d) Waiver of restrictions. The executor shall at any time have the right, by a signed notice in writing filed with the Commissioner, to waive the restrictions provided in subsection (a) on the assessment and collection of the whole or any part of the deficiency.

(e) Increase of deficiency after notice mailed. The Board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the correct amount of the deficiency even if the amount so redetermined is greater than the amount of the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, and to determine whether any additional amount or addition to the tax should be assessed, if claim therefor is asserted by the Commissioner at or before the hearing or a rehearing.

(f) Further deficiency letters restricted. If the Commissioner has mailed to the executor notice of a deficiency as provided in subsection (a), and the executor files a petition with the Board within the time prescribed in such subsection, the Commissioner shall have no right to determine any additional deficiency, except in the case of fraud, and except as provided in subsection (e) or section 872 (c). If the executor is notified that, on account of a mathematical error appearing upon the face of the return, an amount of tax in excess of that shown upon the return is due, and that an assessment of the tax has been or will be made on the basis of what would have been the correct amount of tax but for the mathematical error, such notice shall not be considered, for the purposes of this subsection or of subsection (a), or of section 911, as a notice of a deficiency, and the executor shall have no right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by the provisions of subsection (a).

(g) Final decisions of board. For the purposes of this subchapter the date on which a decision of the Board becomes final shall be determined according to the provisions of section 1140.

(h) Extension of time for payment of deficiency. Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the estate, the Commissioner, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax), may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency or any part thereof for a period not in excess of four years. If an extension is granted, the Commissioner may require the executor to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, and with such sureties as the Commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency in accordance with the terms of the extension. In such case the running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension.

SEC. 872. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] JEOPARDY ASSESSMENTS.

(a) Authority for making. If the Commissioner believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he shall immediately assess such deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof.

(b) Deficiency letters. If the jeopardy assessment is made before any notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment relates has been mailed under section 871 (a), then the Commissioner shall mail a notice under such subsection within 60 days after the making of the assessment.

(c) Amount assessable before decision of board. The jeopardy assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or less than that notice of which has been mailed to the executor, despite the provisions of section 871 (f) and whether or not the executor has theretofore filed a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals. The Commissioner may, at any time before the decision of the board is rendered abate such assessment, or any unpaid portion thereof, to the extent that he believes the assessment to be excessive in amount. The Commissioner shall notify the board of the amount of such assessment, or abatement, if the petition is filed with the board before the making of the assessment or is subsequently filed, and the board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the entire amount of the deficiency and of all amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

(d) Amount assessable after decision of board. If the jeopardy assessment is made after the decision of the board is rendered such assessment may be made only in respect of the deficiency determined by the board in its decision.

(e) Expiration of right to assess. A jeopardy assessment may not be made after the decision of the board has become final or after the executor has filed a petition for review of the decision of the board.

(f) Bond to stay collection. When a jeopardy assessment has been made the executor, within 30 days after notice and demand from the collector for the payment of the amount of the assessment, may obtain a stay of collection of the whole or any part of the amount of the assessment by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a decision of the Board which has become final, together with interest thereon as provided in section 892 or 893 (b) (4). If any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated by the Commissioner before the decision of the Board is rendered, the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(g) Same—Further conditions. If the bond is given before the executor has filed his petition with the Board under subsection (a) of section 871, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the period provided in such subsection, then the amount the collection of which is stayed by the bond will be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under this subsection.

(i) Collection of unpaid amounts. When the petition has been filed with the Board and when the amount which should have been assessed has been determined by a decision of the Board which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed by the bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall be refunded. If the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector.

SEC. 874. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PERIOD OF LIMITATION UPON ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION.

(a) General rule. Except as provided in subsection (b) the amount of estate taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be assessed within three years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of three years after the return was filed.

(b) Exceptions—(1) False return or no return. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(2) Collection after assessment. Where the assessment of any tax imposed by this subchapter has been made within the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, but only if begun (1) within six years after the assessment of the tax, or (2) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the Commissioner and the executor.

SEC. 875. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] SUSPENSION OF RUNNING OF STATUTE.

The running of the statute of limitations provided in section 874 on the making of assessments and the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of any deficiency, shall (after the mailing of a notice under section 871 (a)) be suspended for the period during which the Commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment or beginning distraint or a proceeding in court (and in any event, if a proceeding in respect of the deficiency is placed on the docket of the Board, until the decision of the Board becomes final), and for 60 days thereafter.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

§ 81.74 Assessments. In any case in which the Commissioner believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency tax will be jeopardized by delay, he will make an immediate assessment thereof. In such case the assessment may be made before the mailing of the notice provided by section 871 (a), or at any time thereafter prior to the filing of a petition for a review by the court of a decision rendered by the Board. If the jeopardy assessment is made subsequent to a decision of the Board, then the assessment is limited to the amount of the deficiency determined by the Board. If the jeopardy assessment is made before any notice in respect of the deficiency to which the jeopardy assessment relates has been mailed under subsection (a) of section 871, the Commissioner will mail a notice as provided by such subsection within 60 days after the making of such jeopardy assessment. The Commissioner may, at any time before the decision of the Board is rendered, abate such an assessment or any portion thereof, to the extent that he believes it to be excessive in amount.

If an amount of tax in excess of that shown upon the return is determined to be due as a result of the correction of a mathematical error appearing upon the face of the return, the executor will be duly notified and an assessment made of the tax which would have been the correct tax but for the mathematical error. The notice that the correct amount of the tax has been assessed will not be a notice within the meaning of subsection (a) of section 871 or section 911 and the executor has no right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals based upon such notice.

If a petition is filed with the Board, the entire amount redetermined as the deficiency by the decision of the Board which has become final will be assessed, except such portion as may have been assessed as a jeopardy assessment and not abated. If no petition is filed with the Board within the time prescribed in section 871 (a), the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, will be assessed. If the executor by a signed notice in writing filed with the Commissioner waives the restrictions on the assessment and collection of the whole or any part of the deficiency, assessment of such whole or part will be made immediately. (As to payment, see §§ 81.75 to 81.82, inclusive.)

All assessments against executors (as to assessments against transferees and fiduciaries, see § 81.102), except in the case of a false or fraudulent return, or of a failure to file a return within the time required by law, must be made within three years after the return was filed. If notice of a deficiency is mailed in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of section 871, then the running of the statute of limitations on assessment of any deficiency shall be suspended for the period during which the Commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment (and in any event, if a proceeding in respect of the deficiency is placed on the docket of the Board, until the decision of the Board becomes final), and for 60 days thereafter. If an extension of time for payment of tax is granted in accordance with section 822 (a) (2) or section 871 (h), then the running of the statute of limitations on assessment shall be suspended for the time covered by such extension.

In case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, or of a failure to file a required return, the tax may be assessed, or proceedings in court for collection may be begun without assessment, at any time.*

PAYMENT OF AND RECEIPTS FOR TAXES

SEC. 822. [Part II, Subchapter A.] PAYMENT OF TAX.

(a) Time of payment—(1) General rule. The tax imposed by this subchapter shall be due and payable fifteen months after the decedent's death.

• • • • •

(b) Liability for payment. The tax imposed by this subchapter shall be paid by the executor to the collector.

SEC. 871. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PROCEDURE IN GENERAL.

(b) Collection of deficiency found by board. If the executor files a petition with the Board, the entire amount redetermined as the deficiency by the decision of the Board which has become final shall be assessed and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. • • •

(c) Failure to file petition. If the executor does not file a petition with the Board within the time prescribed in subsection (a) the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, shall be assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector.

SEC. 823. [Part II, Subchapter A.] DUPLICATE RECEIPTS.

The collector shall grant to the person paying the tax duplicate receipts, either of which shall be sufficient evidence of such payment, and shall entitle the executor to be credited and allowed the amount thereof by any court having jurisdiction to audit or settle his accounts.

SEC. 3656. [Chapter 36] PAYMENT BY CHECK.

(a) Certified checks—

(1) Authority to receive. It shall be lawful for collectors to receive for internal revenue taxes certified checks drawn on national and state banks and trust companies during such time and under such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe.

(2) Discharge of liability—(A) Check duly paid. No person who may be indebted to the United States on account of internal revenue taxes who shall have tendered a certified check or checks as provisional payment for such taxes, in accordance with the terms of this subsection, shall be released from the obligation to make ultimate payment thereof until such certified check so received has been duly paid.

(B) Check unpaid. If any such check so received is not duly paid by the bank on which it is drawn, and so certifying, the United States shall, in addition to its right to exact payment from the party originally indebted therefor, have a lien for the amount of such check upon all the assets of such bank; and such amount shall be paid out of its assets in preference to any or all other claims whatsoever against said bank, except the necessary costs and expenses of administration and the reimbursement of the United States for the amount expended in the redemption of the circulating notes of such bank.

(b) Uncertified checks—(1) Authority to receive. Collectors may receive uncertified checks in payment of income, war profits, and excess profits taxes, and any other taxes payable other than by stamp, during such time and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe.

(2) Ultimate liability. If a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn the person by whom such check has been tendered shall remain liable for the payment of the tax and for all legal penalties and additions to the same extent as if such check had not been tendered.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

§ 81.75 Payment of tax; general. The tax is due and must be paid within 15 months from the date of death unless an extension of time for payment thereof has been granted by the Commissioner. (See also § 81.79.) If the tax is due 15 months after the decedent's death, the due date is the day of the fifteenth calendar month after his death numerically coresponding to the day of the calendar month on which death occurred, except that, if there is no numerically corresponding day in such fifteenth month, the last day of such fifteenth month is the due date. For example, if the decedent died on August 31, 1939, the due date is November 30, 1940. No discount will be allowed for payment in advance of the due date. The collector will grant to the person paying the tax duplicate receipts, either of which will be sufficient evidence of such payment and entitle the executor to be credited with the amount by any court having jurisdiction to audit or settle his accounts.

Following an investigation of the return, the tax liability will be determined by the Commissioner. If the amount of tax shown on the return has been paid and exceeds the amount of tax as determined, a certificate of overassessment will be prepared and issued, regardless of whether or not a claim for refund of such excess payment is filed unless refundment of such excess is barred by the statute of limitations, or such excess is otherwise not refundable, as in the case of a compromise (see § 81.98), a closing agreement (see § 81.73) conclusively fixing the amount of tax liability, or an estoppel. If the amount of tax as determined exceeds the amount of tax already paid but is less than the amount shown on the return, the executor will be notified of the amount of the unpaid tax and payment thereof should be made to the collector. If the audit of the return does not disclose a deficiency tax or overpayment the executor will be notified to that effect. If, as a result of the audit of the return, a deficiency in respect of the tax is finally determined and such deficiency is in whole or in part assessed (see § 81.74), the executor should pay the amount of the deficiency assessed upon notice and demand from the collector, except in the case a stay of the collection of a jeopardy assessment is obtained by the filing of a bond (see § 81.93), or an extension of time for payment is granted (see § 81.80). Until the tax, including any deficiency, is finally determined, the executor should reserve a sufficient portion of the estate to satisfy the liability.*

§ 81.76 The executor shall pay the tax. The Internal Revenue Code provides that the executor shall pay the tax. This duty applies to the entire tax, regardless of the fact that the gross estate consists in part of property which will not come into his possession. If there is no duly qualified executor or administrator, all persons in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent are liable for and required to pay the tax to the extent of the value of such property. (See section 930 (a).) As to the personal liability of the executor, see § 81.99.*

§ 81.77 Payment by check. Collectors may accept uncertified checks in payment of the tax, provided such checks are collectible at par, that is, for the full amount, without any deduction for exchange or other charges. The collector will stamp upon the face of each check before deposit thereof the words "This check is in payment of an obligation to the United States and must be paid at par. No protest." This should be followed by his name and title. The day on which the check is received will be considered the date of payment so far as the taxpayer is concerned, unless the check is returned dishonored. If the bank on which a check is drawn should refuse to pay it at par, the check should be returned through the depositary bank.

All expenses incident to the attempt to collect such a check and the return of it through the depositary bank must be paid by the drawer of the check to the bank on which it is drawn. (See section 3971 of the Internal Revenue Code.) In case a check has been returned uncollected by the depositary bank, the collector should proceed to collect the tax as though no check had been given, and the taxpayer will remain liable for payment of the tax and for all interest, legal penalties, and additions, if any attach, to the same extent as though such check had not been tendered. A taxpayer who tenders a certified check in payment of the tax is not released from his obligation until the check has been paid.

Treasury Department Circular No. 176, as amended, prescribes detailed regulations governing the deposit and collection of checks. Collectors are referred to paragraphs 13–16 and paragraph 26 thereof as to the deposit of taxpayers' checks and the handling of uncollected or lost items.*

§ 81.78 Payment with bonds or notes of the United States. Payment of the tax may be made with certain bonds of the United States in accordance with section 14 of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended (U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 31, section 765), and Department Circular 225, as amended and supplemented, issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds must bear interest at a higher rate than 4 per cent per annum, and are receivable at par value, together with interest accrued at the time of payment, provided they were owned by the decedent continuously for at least six months prior to the date of his death, and upon such date constituted a part of his gross estate.

With respect to payment of tax with United States Treasury notes, the latest Treasury decision pertaining thereto should be consulted. (See Appendix.)*

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PAYMENT OF TAX

SEC. 822. [Part II, Subchapter A.] PAYMENT OF TAX.

(2) Extension of time. Where the Commissioner finds that the payment on the due date of any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the Commissioner may extend the time for payment of any such part not to exceed ten years from the due date. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension, and the running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension. If an extension is granted, the Commissioner may, if he deems it necessary, require the executor to furnish security for the payment of the amount in respect of which the extension is granted in accordance with the terms of the extension.

• • • • •

SEC. 925. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PERIOD OF EXTENSION.

Where there is included in the value of the gross estate the value of a reversionary or remainder interest in property, the payment of the part of the tax imposed by this subchapter attributable to such interest may, at the election of the executor, be postponed until six months after the termination of the precedent interest or interests in the property, and the amount the payment of which is so postponed shall then be payable, together with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from eighteen months after the date of the decedent's death until such amount is paid.

SEC. 926. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTENSION.

The postponement of payment of such amount shall be under such regulations as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary may prescribe, and shall be upon condition that the executor, or any other person liable for the tax, shall furnish a bond in such an amount, and with such sureties, as the Commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment within six months after the termination of such precedent interest or interests of the amount the payment of which is so postponed, together with interest thereon, as provided in section 925.

SEC. 927. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] CREDIT FOR STATE DEATH TAXES.

Such part of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes allowable as a credit against the tax imposed by this subchapter as is attributable to such reversionary or remainder interest may be allowed as a credit against the tax attributable to such interest, subject to the percentage limitation contained in section 813 (b), if such part is paid, and credit therefor claimed, at any time prior to the expiration of 60 days after the termination of the precedent interest or interests in the property.

SEC. 871. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PROCEDURE IN GENERAL.

• • • • • •

(h) Extension of time for payment of deficiency. Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the estate, the Commissioner, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax), may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency or any part thereof for a period not in excess of four years. If an extension is granted, the Commissioner may require the executor to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, and with such sureties as the Commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency in accordance with the terms of the extension. In such case the running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

§ 81.79 Extension of time—(a) For payment of tax shown on return. In any case in which the Commissioner finds that payment, on the due date, of any part of the tax shown on the return would impose undue hardship upon the estate, he may extend the time for payment thereof for a period or periods not to exceed in all 10 years from the due date.

The extension will not be granted upon a general statement of hardship. The term "undue hardship" means more than an inconvenience to the estate. It must appear that substantial financial loss, for example, due to the sale of property at a sacrifice price, will result to the estate from making payment of the tax at the due date. If a market exists, a sale of property at the current market price is not ordinarily considered as resulting in an undue hardship.

An application for such an extension must be in writing and must contain, or be supported by, information under oath showing the undue hardship that would result to the estate if the requested extension were refused. The application, with the supporting information, must be filed with the collector, who will transmit it to the Commissioner with his recommendations as to the extension. When it is received by the Commissioner, it will be examined, and, if possible, within 30 days will be denied, granted, or tentatively granted subject to certain conditions of which the executor will be notified. The Commissioner will not consider an application for such an extension unless request therefor is made to the collector on or before the due date. If the executor desires to obtain an additional extension, the request therefor must be made to the collector on or before the date of the expiration of the previous extension. No single extension for more than one year will be granted. The granting of an extension of time for paying the tax is discretionary with the Commissioner, and such authority will be exercised under such conditions as he may deem advisable.

If an extension is granted, the Commissioner may, if he deems it necessary, require the executor to furnish security for the payment of the amount in respect of which the extension is granted in accordance with the terms of the extension.

The amount of the tax for which an extension is granted, with the additions thereto, shall be paid on or before the expiration of the period of the extension without the necessity of notice and demand from the collector. Payment of the amount for which the extension was granted and the additions thereto before the expiration of the extension will not relieve the executor from paying the entire amount of interest provided for in the extension.

The granting of such an extension will not relieve the executor from the duty of filing the return on or before the date fixed by the regulations, nor will it operate to prevent the running of interest. (See § 81.81.) An extension of time to pay the tax may extend the period within which taxes allowed as a credit by section 813 (b) are required to be paid and the credit therefor claimed. (See § 81.9.) The running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, is suspended for the period of the extension. (See §§ 81.74 and 81.102.)

(b) For payment of tax attributable to a reversionary or remainder interest. In case there is included in the gross estate a reversionary or remainder interest in property, the payment of the part of the tax attributable to such interest may at the election of the executor, be postponed until six months after the termination of the precedent interest or interests in the property. This provision is limited to cases in which the reversionary or remainder interest is included in the decedent's gross estate as such and does not extend to cases in which the decedent creates future estates by his own testamentary act.

Notice of the exercise of the election to postpone the payment of the tax attributable to a reversionary or remainder interest should be filed with the Commissioner before the date prescribed for payment of the tax. There should be filed with the notice of election a certified copy of the will or other instrument under which the reversionary or remainder interest was created. The Commissioner may require the submission of such additional proof as is deemed necessary to disclose the complete facts. If the duration of the precedent interest is dependent upon the life of any person, the application must show the date of birth of such person.

As a prerequisite to the postponement of the payment of the tax attributable to a reversionary or remainder interest, a bond must be furnished in such an amount (at least double the amount of the tax and interest for the estimated duration of the precedent interest), and with such sureties as the Commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the tax and interest accrued thereon within six months after the termination of the precedent interest. In case the duration of the precedent interest is dependent upon the life or lives of any person or persons, or is otherwise indefinite, the bond must be further conditioned upon the principal or surety promptly notifying the Commissioner when such precedent interest terminates and upon the principal or surety notifying the Commissioner during the month of September of each year as to the continuance of the precedent interest. If after the acceptance of a bond it is determined that the amount of the tax attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest was understated in the bond, a new bond or a supplemental bond may be required, or such tax to the extent of the understatement may be collected.

If the decedent's gross estate consists of both a reversionary or remainder interest in property and other property, the tax attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest, within the meaning of section 925 and this section, is an amount which bears the same ratio to the total tax which the value of the reversionary or remainder interests bears to the entire gross estate, subject to the following qualification: In determining the ratio, the value of the reversionary or remainder interest should be reduced by (1) the amount of claims, mortgages, and indebtedness which is a lien upon such interest; (2) losses in respect of such interest during the settlement of the estate which are deductible under the provisions of sections 812 (b) (5) and 861 (a) (1); (3) any amount in respect of such interest identified as previously taxed property under the provisions of sections 812 (c) and 861 (a) (2); (4) any amount deductible on account of devises or bequests of such interests to charitable, etc., uses as described in sections 812 (d) and 861 (a) (3). In determining the ratio, the gross estate should likewise be reduced by such deductions having similar relationship to items in the gross estate other than the remainder or reversionary interest.

If the time for payment of the Federal estate tax attributable to a reversionary or remainder interest in property is postponed, all estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes allowable as a credit under the provisions of section 813 (b), as amended, which are paid and for which credit is claimed within the period provided in such section, will be allowed not to exceed 80 percent respectively, of that portion of the Federal basic tax attributable to such interest and to that portion attributable to the other property, and will be applied first to the respective portion of the Federal basic tax which is attributable to the same interests in property to which the estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes are attributable. Estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes, as described in section 813 (b), as amended, which are attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest and which are paid and for which credit is claimed after the expiration of the period provided in that section will also be allowed as a credit against the Federal basic tax attributable to such interest (limited by the requirement that the total credit may not exceed 80 percent of the total Federal basic tax) if such taxes are paid and credit therefor is claimed prior to the expiration of 60 days after the termination of the preceding interest or interests in the property.

Example. The Federal basic tax attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest is $5,000, and that attributable to all other property is $10,000. The estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes paid to the State within the 4-year period are $9,000, all attributable to property other than the reversionary or remainder interest. Of this $9,000, the maximum of $8,000 is credited against the Federal basic tax of $10,000 attributable to property other than the reversionary or remainder interest, and the balance of $1,000 is credited to the Federal basic tax attributable to the reversionary interest. Accordingly, the estate will be required to pay $2,000 (Federal basic tax of $10,000 attributable to property other than the reversionary or remainder interest, minus the credit of $8,000) at once, and an extension will be allowed for payment of $4,000 (Federal basic tax of $5,000 attributable to the reversionary interest, minus credit of $1,000). After expiration of the 4-year period, but before expiration of 60 days after termination of the life estate or precedent interest, the estate pays additional State estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes of $5,000 attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest. As the maximum credit is $12,000 (80 percent of $15,000, the total Federal basic tax) and $9,000 has already been allowed, there will be an additional allowance of $3,000, and the estate will be required to pay $1,000 at the end of the extension period.

If any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes are imposed by any of the several States, Territories, or possessions of the United States, or the District of Columbia upon a reversionary or a remainder interest in property and other property, without definitely apportioning the tax between such classes of property, for the purposes of this section the amount of such estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes which will be deemed to be attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest will be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total of such taxes as the value of such property bears to the value of the decedent's entire estate upon which the estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession tax was imposed. In determining the ratio, reduction will be made in the value of the reversionary or remainder interest and the value of the gross estate as previously provided in this section for determining the Federal estate tax attributable to the reversionary or remainder interest.

The amount of tax the payment of which is postponed under the provisions of section 925 bears interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum from the expiration of 18 months after the date of the decedent's death until such amount is paid. (See § 81.81 (b).)*

§ 81.80 Extension of time for payment of deficiency tax. If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the payment of the deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the estate, the Commissioner may grant an extension of time for the payment of the deficiency or any part thereof for a period not to exceed in all four years from the date prescribed for the payment of the deficiency.

The extension will not be granted upon a general statement of hardship. The term "undue hardship" means more than an inconvenience to the estate. It must appear that substantial financial loss, for example, due to the sale of property at a sacrifice price, will result to the estate from making payment of the deficiency at the due date. If a market exists, the sale of property at the current market price is not ordinarily considered as resulting in an undue hardship. No extension will be granted where the deficiency is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade the tax.

An application for such an extension must be in writing and must contain, or be supported by, information under oath showing the undue hardship that would result to the estate were the requested extension refused. The application, with the supporting information, must be filed with the collector, who will transmit it to the Commissioner with his recommendations as to the extension. When it is received by the Commissioner, it will be examined, and, if possible, within 30 days will be denied, granted, or tentatively granted subject to certain conditions of which the executor will be notified. The Commissioner will not consider an application for an extension of time for the payment of a deficiency unless request therefor is made to the collector on or before the date prescribed for payment thereof, as shown by the notice and demand from the collector. If the executor desires to obtain an additional extension, the request therefor must be made to the collector on or before the date of the expiration of the previous extension. No single extension for more than one year will be granted. The granting of an extension of time for paying the deficiency is discretionary, and such authority will be exercised under such conditions as may be deemed advisable.

As a condition to the granting of such an extension, the Commissioner will usually require the executor to furnish a bond in an amount not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, or to furnish other security satisfactory to the Commissioner for the payment of the liability on or before the date prescribed for payment in the extension, so that the risk of loss to the Government will not be more at the end of the extension period than it was at the beginning of the period. If a bond is required it shall be conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency, interest, and any additional amounts assessed in connection therewith in accordance with the terms of the extension granted, and shall be executed by a surety company holding a certificate of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury as an acceptable surety on Federal bonds, and shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner. In lieu of such a bond, the executor may file a bond secured by the deposit of bonds or notes of the United States, any public debt obligations of the United States, or any bonds, notes, or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States, equal in their total par value to the amount of such bond. (See section 1126 of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended by section 7 of the Act of February 4, 1935, 49 Stat. 22, U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 6, section 15.)

The amount of the deficiency for which an extension is granted, with any additions thereto, shall be paid on or before the expiration of the period of the extension without the necessity of notice and demand from the collector. Payment of the amount for which the extension was granted and any additions thereto before the expiration of the extension will not relieve the executor from paying the entire amount of interest provided for in the extension.

The granting of such an extension will not operate to prevent the running of interest. (See § 81.82.) An extension of time to pay the deficiency may extend the period within which taxes allowed as a credit by section 813 (b) are required to be paid and the credit therefor claimed. (See § 81.9.) The running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, is suspended for the period of the extension. (See §§ 81.74 and 81.102.)*

INTEREST ON TAX

SEC. 890. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] INTEREST ON EXTENDED PAYMENTS.

(a) Tax shown on return. If the time for the payment is extended as provided in section 822 (a) (2) there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon from the expiration of three months after the due date of the tax to the expiration of the period of the extension. In the case of any such extension, the rate of interest shall be 4 per centum per annum.

(b) Deficiency. In case an extension for the payment of a deficiency is granted, as provided in section 871 (h), there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period of the extension, and no other interest shall be collected on such part of the deficiency for such period.

SEC. 925. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PERIOD OF EXTENSION.

Where there is included in the value of the gross estate the value of a reversionary or remainder interest in property, the payment of the part of the tax imposed by this subchapter attributable to such interest may, at the election of the executor, be postponed until six months after the termination of the precedent interest or interests in the property, and the amount the payment of which is so postponed shall then be payable, together with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from eighteen months after the date of the decedent's death until such amount is paid.

SEC. 891. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] INTEREST ON DEFICIENCIES.

Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the due date of the tax to the date the deficiency is assessed, or, in the case of a waiver under section 871 (d), to the thirtieth day after the filing of such waiver or to the date the deficiency is assessed whichever is the earlier.

SEC. 871. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PROCEDURE IN GENERAL.

* * * * *

(i) 50 per cent addition treated as deficiency. The 50 per centum addition to the tax provided by section 3612 (d) (2) shall, when assessed in connection with an estate tax, be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency, except that the provisions of section 891 shall not be applicable.

SEC. 892. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] INTEREST ON JEOPARDY ASSESSMENTS.

In the case of the amount collected under section 872 (i) there shall be collected at the same time as such amount, and as a part of the tax, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon such amount from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under section 872 (i), or, in the case of the amount collected in excess of the amount of the jeopardy assessment, interest as provided in section 891.

SEC. 893. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] ADDITIONS TO THE TAX IN CASE OF NONPAYMENT.

(a) Tax shown on return—(1) Payment not extended. Where the amount determined by the executor as the tax imposed by this subchapter, or any part of such amount, is not paid on the due date of the tax, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the due date until it is paid.

(2) Payment extended. Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the executor has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under section 890 (a), is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Deficiency—(1) Payment not extended. Where a deficiency, or any interest assessed in connection therewith under section 891, or any addition to the tax provided for in section 3612 (d), is not paid in full within 30 days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(2) Filing of jeopardy bond. If a bond is filed, as provided in section 872, the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply to the amount covered by the bond.

(3) Payment extended. If the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is extended as provided in section 871 (h) is not paid in accordance with the terms of the extension, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on such unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period from the time fixed by the terms of the extension for its payment until it is paid, and no other interest shall be collected on such unpaid amount for such period.

(4) Jeopardy assessment—Payment stayed by bond. If the amount included in the notice and demand from the collector under section 872 (i) is not paid in full within 30 days after such notice and demand, then there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

SEC. 872. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] JEOPARDY ASSESSMENTS.

(g) Same—Further conditions. If the bond is given before the executor has filed his petition with the Board under subsection (a) of section 871, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the period provided in such subsection, then the amount the collection of which is stayed by the bond will be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under this subsection.

(i) Collection of unpaid amounts. When the petition has been filed with the Board and when the amount which should have been assessed has been determined by a decision of the Board which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed by the bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall be refunded. If the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

§ 81.81 Interest on tax—(a) Shown on return. If any portion of the tax shown on the executor's return is not paid on or before the due date, and no extension of time for payment thereof has been granted, such unpaid portion bears interest from the due date until payment is received by the collector at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

If an extension of time has been granted for paying any portion of the tax shown on the executor's return, in accordance with § 81.79 (a), interest accrues thereon at the rate of 4 per cent per annum from the expiration of 18 months after the decedent's death to the expiration of the period of the extension. If the amount of the tax, the time for payment of which has been extended, together with any interest accrued thereon, is not paid in full on or before the date of the expiration of the extension, the total unpaid amount (tax and any accrued interest) bears interest from the expiration of the extension until payment is received by the collector at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

Interest at 4 or 6 per cent per annum is computed on the basis of 365 days to the year, or 366 days in a leap year.

(b) Attributable to a reversionary or remainder interest. If the time for the payment of the tax attributable to a reversionary or remainder interest is postponed in accordance with the provisions of section 925, the amount the payment of which is so postponed will bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum from the expiration of 18 months after the date of the decedent's death until such amount is paid. However, if the amount of the tax, the time for payment of which is so postponed, together with interest accrued thereon, is not paid in full on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the postponement (six months after the termination of the precedent interest or interests in the property), the unpaid amount bears interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the expiration of the period of the postponement until payment is received by the collector.*

§ 81.82 Interest on deficiency tax. The Internal Revenue Code provides that any deficiency shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the due date for payment of the tax (15 months after the date of death) to the date the deficiency is assessed, except in the case of a waiver of the restrictions against the assessment and collection of the deficiency, and that such interest shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency of which it becomes an integral part. The deficiency in respect of which the restrictions against the assessment and collection are waived under section 871 (d) bears interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the due date of the tax to the thirtieth day after the filing of such waiver or to the date the deficiency is assessed, whichever is the earlier. The term "deficiency" includes any tax resulting from the correction of a mathematical error appearing upon the face of a return. (See second paragraph of § 81.74.)

If any portion of the deficiency assessed is not paid within 30 days from the date of the notice and demand issued by the collector (except a deficiency or any part thereof with respect to which a jeopardy assessment is made and collection is stayed by the filing of a bond) and no extension of time for payment thereof has been granted, such unpaid portion bears interest from the date of the notice and demand until payment is received by the collector at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

If an extension of time is granted for paying any portion of the deficiency assessed, in accordance with section 81.80, interest accrues thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum for the period of the extension, i. e., from the date prescribed for the payment (30 days after the date of the notice and demand) to the expiration of the period of the extension. If the amount of the deficiency, the time for payment of which has been extended, together with interest accrued thereon, is not paid in full on or before the date of the expiration of the extension, the total unpaid amount) tax, interest and any addition thereto) bears interest from the expiration of the extension until payment is received by the collector at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

Any addition to the tax resulting from the imposition of an ad valorem penalty under the provisions of section 3612 (d) is not subject to any interest between the due date for payment of the tax (15 months after the date of death) and the date of the assessment of the penalty.

If a stay of the collection of a jeopardy assessment of a deficiency tax, or any addition to the tax resulting from the imposition of an ad valorem penalty, is obtained and a petition for a redetermination of the deficiency is filed with the Board of Tax Appeals, interest accrues on such unpaid portion of the deficiency or penalty, if any, determined by a decision of the Board which is made final, at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the notice and demand from the collector following the jeopardy assessment to the date of the notice and demand by the collector subsequent to the final action taken on the petition filed with the Board. If the amount which the Board determines should have been assessed is not paid in full within 30 days from the date of such notice and demand issued subsequent to the decision of the Board which has become final, interest accrues upon the unpaid amount from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid at the rate of 6 per cent per annum. If the amount (exclusive of any ad valorem penalty) determined by the Board as the amount which should be assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed the difference bears interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the due date of the tax until assessment of such difference. If the collection of the jeopardy assessment is stayed, and no petition is filed with the Board for a redetermination of the deficiency, interest accrues upon the deficiency so assessed at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of the notice and demand made by the collector after the expiration of the 90 days from the mailing by the Commissioner of the notice of the deficiency. If such amount is not paid within 30 days from the date of such further notice and demand, interest accrues upon the unpaid amount from the date of such further notice and demand until it is paid at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

Interest at 6 per cent per annum is computed on the basis of 365 days to the year, or 366 days in a leap year.*

COLLECTION OF TAX

SEC. 826. [Part II, Subchapter A.] COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAX.

(a) Sale of property. If the tax herein imposed is not paid on or before the due date thereof the collector shall, upon instruction from the Commissioner, proceed to collect the tax under the provisions of general law; or appropriate proceedings may be commenced in any court of the United States having jurisdiction, in the name of the United States, to subject the property of the decedent to be sold under the judgment or decree of the court. From the proceeds of such sale the amount of the tax, together with the costs and expenses of every description to be allowed by the court, shall be first paid, and the balance shall be deposited according to the order of the court, to be paid under its direction to the person entitled thereto. This subsection in so far as it applies to the collection of a deficiency shall be subject to the provisions of sections 871 and 891.

(b) Reimbursement out of estate. If the tax or any part thereof is paid by, or collected out of that part of the estate passing to or in the possession of, any person other than the executor in his capacity as such, such person shall be entitled to reimbursement out of any part of the estate still undistributed or by a just and equitable contribution by the persons whose interest in the estate of the decedent would have been reduced if the tax had been paid before the distribution of the estate or whose interest is subject to equal or prior liability for the payment of taxes, debts, or other charges against the estate, it being the purpose and intent of this subchapter that so far as is practicable and unless otherwise directed by the will of the decedent the tax shall be paid out of the estate before its distribution.

(c) Liability of life insurance beneficiaries. If any part of the gross estate consists of proceeds of policies of insurance upon the life of the decedent receivable by a beneficiary other than the executor, the executor shall be entitled to recover from such beneficiary such portion of the total tax paid as the proceeds, in excess of $40,000, of such policies bear to the net estate. If there is more than one such beneficiary the executor shall be entitled to recover from such beneficiaries in the same ratio.

§ 81.83 Sale of property. The remedy by action provided in section 826 (a) is not exclusive. For other available remedies for the collection of the tax, see § 81.102.*

§ 81.84 Right to reimbursement. If any portion of the tax is paid by or collected out of that part of the estate passing to, or in the possession of, any person other than the duly qualified executor or administrator, such person may be entitled to reimbursement, either out of the undistributed estate or by contribution from other beneficiaries whose shares or interests in the estate would have been reduced had the tax been paid before distribution of the estate, or whose shares or interests are subject either to an equal or prior liability for the payment of taxes, debts, or other charges against the estate. The executor is entitled to require beneficiaries under insurance policies to bear their proportion of the tax. These provisions, however, are not designed to curtail the right of the Commissioner to collect the tax from any person, or out of any property, liable therefor. The Commissioner cannot be required to apportion the tax among the persons liable, nor to enforce any right to reimbursement or contribution.*

LIEN FOR TAX

SEC. 827. [Part II, Subchapter A.] LIEN FOR TAX.

(a) Upon gross estate. Unless the tax is sooner paid in full, it shall be a lien for ten years upon the gross estate of the decedent, except that such part of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration, allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be divested of such lien. If the Commissioner is satisfied that the tax liability of an estate has been fully discharged or provided for, he may, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, issue his certificate, releasing any or all property of such estate from the lien herein imposed.

(b) Upon property of transferee. If (1) except in the case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, the decedent makes a transfer, by trust or otherwise, of any property in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or makes a transfer, by trust or otherwise, under which he has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (A) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (B) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom, or (2) if insurance passes under a contract executed by the decedent in favor of a specific beneficiary, and if in either case the tax in respect thereto is not paid when due, then the transferee, trustee, or beneficiary shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of such transfer, or to the extent of such beneficiary's interest under such contract of insurance, shall be subject to a like lien equal to the amount of such tax. Any part of such property sold by such transferee or trustee to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of the lien and a like lien shall then attach to all the property of such transferee or trustee, except any part sold to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

(c) Continuance after discharge of executor. The provisions of section 825 shall not operate as a release of any part of the gross estate from the lien for any deficiency that may thereafter be determined to be due, unless the title to such part of the gross estate has passed to a bona fide purchaser for value, in which case such part shall not be subject to a lien or to any claim or demand for any such deficiency, but the lien shall attach to the consideration received from such purchaser by the heirs, legatees, devisees, or distributees.

SEC. 825. [Part II, Subchapter A.] DISCHARGE OF EXECUTOR FROM PERSONAL LIABILITY.

(a) Application for discharge. If the executor makes written application to the Commissioner for determination of the amount of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the Commissioner (as soon as possible, and in any event within one year after the making of such application, or, if the application is made before the return is filed, then within one year after the return is filed, but not after the expiration of the period prescribed for the assessment of the tax in sections 874 and 875) shall notify the executor of the amount of the tax. The executor, upon payment of the amount of which he is notified, shall be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in tax thereafter found to be due and shall be entitled to a receipt or writing showing such discharge.

§ 81.85 Property subject to lien. The lien imposed by section 827 attaches at the date of the decedent's death to every part of the gross estate, whether or not the property comes into the possession of the duly qualified executor or administrator. It attaches to the extent of the tax shown to be due by the return and of any deficiency tax found to be due upon review and audit.

The lien upon the entire property constituting the gross estate continues for a period of 10 years after the decedent's death, except—

(a) If the tax is paid in full before the expiration of such period.

(b) Such portion of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(c) Such portion of the gross estate as has passed to a bona fide purchaser for value if payment is made of the full amount of tax determined by the Commissioner pursuant to a request of the executor for discharge from personal liability, as authorized by sections 825 (a) and 827 (c) (see § 81.71), but there is substituted a like lien upon the consideration received from such purchaser by the heirs, legatees, devisees, or distributees.

(d) Such property as was received from the decedent as a transfer by trust or otherwise in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or under which he has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom (except in case the transfer was a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth), and was sold by the transferee or trustee to a bona fide purchaser for such a consideration. In such case the lien attaches to all the property of the transferee or trustee except such thereof as may be sold to a bona fide purchaser for such a consideration.

(e) If a certificate releasing such lien is issued. (See § 81.86.)*

§ 81.86 Release of lien. The statute provides that if the Commissioner is satisfied that the tax liability of an estate has been fully discharged or provided for, he may issue his certificate releasing any or all property of the estate from the lien. The issuance of certificates releasing such lien is a matter resting within the discretion of the Commissioner, and certificates will be issued only in case there is actual need therefor. The primary purpose of such release is not to evidence payment or satisfaction of the tax, but to permit the transfer of property free from the lien in case it is necessary to clear title. Receipts for payment of the tax are issued by the collector.

If the tax liability has been fully discharged a certificate may be issued releasing the lien as to any or all property of the estate. If the tax liability has not been fully discharged, no general release of all property of the estate will be granted but certificates releasing the lien upon particular items of property may be issued by the Commissioner, who may require as a prerequisite, in such an amount as he may designate, a partial payment of tax or the furnishing of an indemnity bond with such surety or sureties as he deems necessary. In lieu of such surety or sureties, the bond may be secured by the deposit of bonds or notes of the United States, any public debt obligations of the United States, or any bonds, notes, or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States, equal in their total par value to the amount of such bond. (See section 1126 of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended by section 7 of the Act of February 4, 1935, 49 Stat. 22, U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 6, section 15.) The tax will be considered fully discharged only when investigation has been completed and payment of the tax, including any deficiency finally determined, has been made.

The application for a release should be filed with the Commissioner and should explain the circumstances that require the release, fully describe the particular items for which the release is desired, and show the applicant's relationship to the estate, such as executor, heir, devisee, legatee, beneficiary, transferee, or purchaser. If the return, Form 706, has not been filed, an affidavit may be required showing the value of the property to be released, the basis for such valuation, the approximate value of the gross estate, the approximate value of the total real property included in the gross estate, and in case the property is to be sold or transferred, the name and address of the purchaser or transferee and the consideration to be received.*

PENALTIES

SEC. 894. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PENALTIES.

(b) Specific—(1) Civil. Whoever fails to comply with any duty imposed upon him by section 820, 821, or 864, or, having in his possession or control any record, file, or paper, containing or supposed to contain any information concerning the estate of the decedent, or, having in his possession or control any property comprised in the gross estate of the decedent, fails to exhibit the same upon request to the Commissioner or any collector or law officer of the United States or his duly authorized deputy or agent, who desires to examine the same in the performance of his duties under this subchapter, shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $500, to be recovered, with costs of suit, in a civil action in the name of the United States.

(2) Criminal. (A) Whoever knowingly makes any false statement in any notice or return required to be filed under this subchapter shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

(B) Any person required under this subchapter to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this subchapter, who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(C) Any person required under this subchapter to collect, account for and pay over any tax imposed by this subchapter, who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this subchapter or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(D) The term "person" as used in paragraphs (B) and (C) includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

SEC. 3793. [Chapter 38.] PENALTIES AND FORFEITURES.

(b) Fraudulent returns, affidavits, and claims—(1) Assistance in preparation or presentation. Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the internal revenue laws, of a false or fraudulent return, affidavit, claim, or document, shall (whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document) be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(2) Person defined. The term "person" as used in this subsection includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

SEC. 3710. [Chapter 36.] SURRENDER OF PROPERTY SUBJECT TO DISTRAINT.

(a) Requirement. Any person in possession of property, or rights to property, subject to distraint, upon which a levy has been made, shall, upon demand by the collector or deputy collector making such levy, surrender such property or rights to such collector or deputy, unless such property or right is, at the time of such demand, subject to an attachment or execution under any judicial process.

(b) Penalty for violation. Any person who fails or refuses to so surrender any of such property or rights shall be liable in his own person and estate to the United States in a sum equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of the taxes (including penalties and interest) for the collection of which such levy has been made, together with costs and interest from the date of such levy.

(c) Person defined. The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

SEC. 3612. [Chapter 34.] RETURNS EXECUTED BY COMMISSIONER OR COLLECTOR.

(1) Failure to file return. In case of any failure to make and file a return or list within the time prescribed by law, or prescribed by the Commissioner or the collector in pursuance of law, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 25 per centum of its amount, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax: Provided, That in the case of a failure to make and file a return required by law, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioner in pursuance of law, if the last date so prescribed for filing the return is after August 30, 1935, then there shall be added to the tax, in lieu of such 25 per centum: 5 per centum if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per centum for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 per centum in the aggregate.

(2) Fraud. In a case a false or fraudulent return or list is willfully made, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 50 per centum of its amount.

(e) Collection of additions to tax. The amount added to any tax under paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (d) shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, falsity, or fraud, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

(f) Determination and assessment. The Commissioner shall determine and assess all taxes, other than stamp taxes, as to which returns or lists are so made under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 3762. [Chapter 36.] PENALTIES.

Any person who, in connection with any compromise under section 3761, or offer of such compromise, or in connection with any closing agreement under section 3760, or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully—

(a) Concealment of property. Conceals from any officer or employee of the United States any property belonging to the estate of a taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax, or

(b) Withholding, falsifying, and destroying records. Receives, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record, or makes under oath any false statement, relating to the estate or financial condition of the taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax—

Shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

§ 81.87 Nature of penalties. Two kinds of penalties are provided for delinquency with respect to the duties imposed by the statute:

(1) A specific penalty, to be recovered by suit, unless previously paid or adjusted by the acceptance of an offer in compromise; and

(2) A penalty of a certain percentage of the tax, to be added to and collected in the same manner as the tax.

In any case in which more than one penalty is provided the Government may assert any one or more thereof.*

§ 81.88 Penalties for false or fraudulent notice or return. In case any statement in the notice or return is knowingly false, the person making it is subject to a penalty not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or both, and for a false or fraudulent return, 50 per cent will be added to the amount of the tax. Any person required to file any notice or make a return who willfully fails to do so at the time required shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

Any person who willfully aids or assists in the preparation or presentation of a false or fraudulent notice or return, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation of such a notice or return, whether such falsity or fraud is with or without the knowledge or consent of the person required to make the notice or return, will be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.*

§ 81.89 Penalty for failure to give notice or make and file return. For failure to give the notice required by section 820 or make and file the return required by section 821, 864, or 937 within the time prescribed in § 81.63 or 81.67, the person in default is subject to a penalty not exceeding $500.

For failure to make and file such return within the time prescribed, or within an extension of time granted by the Commissioner or the collector, 5 per cent will be added to the tax if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per cent for each 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 per cent in the aggregate, except that if the return is filed after the time allowed and it is shown that the failure to file within the time so allowed was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition will be made to the tax.*

§ 81.90 Penalty for failure to pay tax, exhibit property, keep or exhibit records, etc., and for concealment of assets. Any person in possession or control of any record, file, or paper, containing or supposed to contain information relating to the estate, or having in his possession or control property comprised in the gross estate of the decedent, who fails to exhibit the same upon the request of the Commissioner or any collector or law officer of the United States, or his duly authorized deputy or agent, in the performance of his duties, or having knowledge or information of any fact or facts of a material bearing upon the liability, or the extent of liability, of the estate to the tax, who fails to make disclosure thereof upon request of the Commissioner or any revenue agent or inspector designated by him for that purpose, is liable to a penalty not to exceed $500, to be recovered by civil action. Such a request must be granted whether or not he believes that a compliance therewith is material.

Any person required to pay the tax, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purpose of the computation, assessment, or collection of the tax, who willfully fails to pay such tax, keep such records, or supply such information, as required by the law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

Any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat the tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties, be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

Any person who in connection with any compromise entered into or offer made under the provisions of section 3761, or, who in connection with any closing agreement under section 3760, or the offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully conceals from any officer or employee of the United States any property belonging to the estate or any person liable in respect of the tax, or receives, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record, or makes under oath any false statement, relating to the estate or its value or the financial condition of any person liable in respect of the tax, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.*

§ 81.91 Penalty for assisting, procuring, or advising the preparation or presentation of false or fraudulent documents. Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises, the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the internal revenue laws, of a false or fraudulent affidavit, claim, or document, shall, whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such affidavit, claim, or document, be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.*

ABATEMENT AND STAY OF COLLECTION OF JEOPARDY ASSESSMENT

SEC. 872. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] JEOPARDY ASSESSMENTS.

lection of the whole or any part of the amount of the assessment by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a decision of the Board which has become final, together with interest thereon as provided in section 892 or 893 (b) (4). If any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated by the Commissioner before the decision of the Board is rendered, the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(g) Same—Further conditions. If the bond is given before the executor has filed his petition with the Board under subsection (a) of section 871, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the period provided in such subsection, then the amount the collection of which is stayed by the bond will be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under this subsection.

(h) Waiver of stay Upon the filing of the bond the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by the bond shall be stayed. The executor shall have the right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond, and if as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall, at the request of the executor, be proportionately reduced. If the Board determines that the amount assessed is greater than the amount which should have been assessed, then when the decision of the Board is rendered the bond shall, at the request of the executor, be proportionately reduced.

(i) Collection of unpaid amounts. When the petition has been filed with the Board and when the amount which should have been assessed has been determined by a decision of the Board which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed by the bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall be refunded. If the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector.

SEC. 873. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] CLAIMS IN ABATEMENT.

No claim in abatement shall be filed in respect of the assessment of any estate tax imposed by this subchapter.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States a return shall be required if the value of the gross estate at the time of decedent's death exceeds the amount of the specific exemption provided in section 935 (c).

§ 81.92 Claim for abatement. No claim for abatement may be filed in respect of any assessment of estate tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code. The amount of any assessment directed to be abated by the statute as the result of a decision of the Board of Tax Appeals which has become final and all overassessments determined as a result of audit or examination of returns will be abated by the Commissioner without action on the part of the executor.*

§ 81.93 Collection of jeopardy assessment stayed by filing bond. If a jeopardy assessment has been made, the executor, within 30 days after notice and demand from the collector for payment of the amount of the jeopardy assessment may obtain a stay of collection of the whole, or any part, of the amount of such assessment by filing with the collector a bond in such amount not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated as a result of a decision of the Board which has become final, together with the interest thereon, as provided in the statute. (See § 81.82.) In lieu of such sureties, the bond may be secured by the deposit of bonds or notes of the United States, any public debt obligations of the United States, or any bonds, notes, or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States, equal in their total par value to the amount of such bond. (See section 1126 of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended by section 7 of the Act of February 4, 1935, 49 Stat. 22, U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 6, section 15.) The petition with the Board of Tax Appeals for redetermination of the deficiency in respect of which the jeopardy assessment was made must be filed within 90 days (not counting Sunday or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia as the ninetieth day) after the mailing by the Commissioner of the notice of deficiency. (See § 81.73.) If any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated by the Commissioner before the decision of the Board is rendered, the bond will, upon request of the executor, be proportionately reduced. If the bond is given before the petition is filed with the Board, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the 90 days, then the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, shall be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such 90-day period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand made by the collector to the date of notice and demand made after the expiration of the 90-day period.*

§ 81.94 Accrual of interest as affected by the stay of the collection of a jeopardy assessment. For rules relating to the accrual of interest where the collection of a jeopardy assessment is stayed by the filing of a bond, see § 81.82.*

§ 81.95 Limitation of time to file bond to stay collection of jeopardy assessment. If it is desired to stay the collection of the whole, or any part, of the amount in respect of which a jeopardy assessment has been made, the bond referred to in § 81.93 must be filed with the collector within 30 days after notice and demand by the collector for the payment of the amount of the jeopardy assessment.*

REFUNDS

SEC. 910. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PERIOD OF LIMITATION FOR FILING CLAIMS.

All claims for the refunding of the tax imposed by this subchapter alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected must be presented to the Commissioner within three years next after the payment of such tax. The amount of the refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim was filed, then during the three years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund.

SEC. 911. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] EFFECT OF PETITION TO BOARD.

If the Commissioner has mailed to the executor a notice of deficiency under section 871 (a) and if the executor files a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals within the time prescribed in such subsection, no refund in respect of the tax shall be allowed or made and no suit for the recovery of any part of such tax shall be instituted in any court, except—

(a) As to overpayments determined by a decision of the Board which has become final; and

(b) As to any amount collected in excess of an amount computed in accordance with the decision of the Board which has become final; and

(c) As to any amount collected after the statutory period of limitations upon the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection has expired; but in any such claim for refund or in any such suit for refund the decision of the Board which has become final, as to whether such period had expired before the notice of deficiency was mailed, shall be conclusive.

SEC. 912. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] OVERPAYMENT FOUND BY BOARD.

If the Board finds that there is no deficiency and further finds that the executor has made an overpayment of tax, the Board shall have jurisdiction to determine the amount of such overpayment, and such amount shall, when the decision of the Board has become final, be credited or refunded to the executor as provided in section 3770 (a). No such refund shall be made of any portion of the tax unless the Board determines as part of its decision that such portion was paid within three years before the filing of the claim or the filing of the petition, whichever is earlier, or that such portion was paid after the mailing of the notice of deficiency.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A. * * *.

SEC. 3746. [Chapter 36.] SUITS FOR RECOVERY OF ERRONEOUS REFUNDS.

(a) Refunds after limitation period. Any portion of an internal revenue tax (or any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to such tax) refund of which is erroneously made, within the meaning of section 3774, may be recovered by suit brought in the name of the United States, but only if such suit is begun within two years after the making of such refund.

(b) Refunds otherwise erroneous. Any portion of an internal revenue tax (or any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to such tax) which has been erroneously refunded (if such refund would not be considered as erroneous under section 3774) may be recovered by suit brought in the name of the United States, but only if such suit is begun before the expiration of two years after the making of such refund.

(c) Refunds based on fraud or misrepresentation. Despite the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) such suit may be brought at any time within five years from the making of the refund if it appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or the misrepresentation of a material fact.

(d) Interest. Erroneous refunds recoverable by suit under this section shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the payment of the refund.

SEC. 3760. [Chapter 36.] CLOSING AGREEMENTS.

(a) Authorization. The Commissioner (or any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, authorized in writing by the Commissioner) is authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any internal revenue tax for any taxable period.

(b) Finality. If such agreement is approved by the Secretary, the Under Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary, within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive, and, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—

(1) The case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified, by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States, and

(2) In any suit, action, or proceeding, such agreement, or any determination, assessment, collection, payment, abatement, refund, or credit made in accordance therewith, shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded.

SEC. 3770. [Chapter 37.] AUTHORITY TO MAKE ABATEMENTS, CREDITS, AND REFUNDS.

(a) To taxpayers—(1) Assessments and collections generally (as amended by section 508 (b) of the Second Revenue Act of 1940).—Except as otherwise provided by law in the case of income, war-profits, excess-profits, estate, and gift taxes, the Commissioner, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, is authorized to remit, refund, and pay back all taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, all penalties collected without authority, and all taxes that appear to be unjustly assessed or excessive in amount, or in any manner wrongfully collected.

(2) Assessments and collections after limitation period. Any tax (or any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to such tax) assessed or paid after the expiration of the period of limitation properly applicable thereto shall be considered an overpayment and shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer if claim therefor is filed within the period of limitation for filing such claim.

(3) Date of allowance. Where the Commissioner has signed a schedule of overassessments in respect of any internal revenue tax imposed by this title, the Revenue Act of 1932, or any prior revenue Act, the date on which he first signed such schedule (if after May 28, 1928) shall be considered as the date of allowance of refund or credit in respect of such tax.

(b) To collectors and officers. The Commissioner, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, is authorized to repay—

(1) Collections recovered. To any collector or deputy collector the full amount of such sums of money as may be recovered against him in any court, for any internal revenue taxes collected by him, with the cost and expense of suit; also

(2) Damages and costs. All damages and costs recovered against any collecter, deputy collector, agent or inspector, in any suit brought against him by reason of anything done in the due performance of his official duty.

SEC. 3772. [Chapter 37.] SUITS FOR REFUND.

(a) Limitations—(1) Claim. No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any internal revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty claimed to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected until a claim for refund or credit has been duly filed with the Commissioner, according to the provisions of law in that regard, and the regulations of the Secretary established in pursuance thereof.

(2) Time. No such suit or proceeding shall be begun before the expiration of six months from the date of filing such claim unless the Commissioner renders a decision thereon within that time, nor after the expiration of two years from the date of mailing by registered mail by the Commissioner to the taxpayer of a notice of the disallowance of the part of the claim to which such suit or proceeding relates.

(3) Reconsideration after mailing of notice. Any consideration, reconsideration, or action by the Commissioner with respect to such claim following the mailing of a notice by registered mail of disallowance shall not operate to extend the period within which suit may be begun. This paragraph shall not operated (A) to bar a suit or proceeding in respect of a claim reopened prior to June 22, 1936, if such suit or proceeding was not barred under the law in effect prior to that date, or (B) to prevent the suspension of the statute of limitations for filing suit under section 3774 (b) (2).

(b) Protest or duress. Such suit or proceeding may be maintained, whether or not such tax, penalty, or sum has been paid under protest or duress.

SEC. 177. Judicial Code (as amended by section 808 of the Revenue Act of 1936, 49 Stat. 1746 [U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 28, section 284 (b)]).

(a) In any judgment of any court rendered (whether against the United States, a collector or deputy collector of internal revenue, a former collector or deputy collector, or the personal representative in case of death) for any overpayment in respect of any internal-revenue tax, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon the amount of the overpayment, from the date of the payment or collection thereof to a date preceding the date of the refund check by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The Commissioner is hereby authorized to tender by check payment of any such judgment, with interest as herein provided, at any time after such judgment becomes final, whether or not a claim for such payment has been duly filed, and such tender shall stop the running of interest, whether or not such refund check is accepted by the judgment creditor.

SEC. 3774. [Chapter 37.] REFUNDS AFTER PERIODS OF LIMITATION. A refund of any portion of an internal revenue tax (or any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to such tax) shall be considered erroneous—

(a) Expiration of period for filing claim. If made after the expiration of the period of limitation for filing claim therefor, unless within such period claim was filed; or

(b) Disallowance of claim and expiration of period for filing suit. In the case of a claim filed within the proper time and disallowed by the Commissioner if the refund was made after the expiration of the period of limitation for filing suit, unless—

(1) within such period suit was begun by the taxpayer, or

(2) within such period, the taxpayer and the Commissioner agreed in writing to suspend the running of the statute of limitations for filing suit from the date of the agreement to the date of final decision in one or more named cases then pending before the Board of Tax Appeals or the courts. If such agreement has been entered into, the running of such statute of limitations shall be suspended in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

* * * * *

§ 81.96 Claim for refund. A claim for refund of estate tax, or for refund of interest or penalties, erroneously or illegally collected, should be made on the form prescibed by the Treasury Department (Form 843), and should be filed with the collector of internal revenue, although a claim will not be considered defective solely by reason of the fact that it is not made on the form or that it is filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The claim must set forth in detail and under oath each ground upon which a refund is claimed, and facts sufficient to apprise the Commissioner of the exact basis thereof. Any claim which does not comply with the requirements of the preceding sentence will not be considered for any purpose as a claim for refund.

Claims for the refund of estate tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code must be filed within three years next after the payment of the amount sought to be refunded.

The amount of the refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three year period immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or the filing of the petition with the Board of Tax Appeals. Upon receipt of any claim for refund, other than a claim for refund of an overpayment determined in accordance with a decision of the Board of Tax Appeals which has become final, the return of the estate will be reaudited and only the excess payment determined by the Commissioner as a result of consideration of the claim and reaudit will be refunded. If the reaudit reveals that the tax has been underpaid, the amount of such underpayment will be collected unless the collection thereof is barred.

If a petition was filed with the Board of Tax Appeals for the redetermination of a deficiency, as provided by section 871 (a), and the Board finds that the executor has made an overpayment of the tax, and further determines as part of its decision that any portion of the overpayment was made within three years before the filing of the claim or the filing of the petition, whichever is earlier, or that such portion was paid after the mailing of the notice of deficiency, the amount of such portion of the overpayment will be refunded.

Save in the case of a claim for refund of an overpayment computed in accordance with a decision of the Board of Tax Appeals which has become final, the burden of proof rests upon the claimant and all facts relied upon in support of the claim must be clearly set forth under oath. Every affidavit, argument, brief, or statement of facts, prepared or filed by an attorney or agent as argument or evidence in the matter of a protest, must have therein a statement signed by such attorney or agent showing whether or not he prepared such document and whether or not the attorney or agent knows of his own knowledge that the facts contained therein are true. In case there is a hearing, should the executor not appear in person, his representative who appears must present a properly executed power of attorney and be enrolled to practice before the Treasury Department. (See § 81.72.)

(a) If the claim is made by an executor or administrator, a certificate of the court must be furnished showing that the appointment remains in full force and effect.

(b) If the executor or administrator has been discharged and no administrator de bonis non has been appointed and qualified, there should be submitted, in lieu of the certificate above mentioned, (1) a certified copy of the court order granting the discharge, and (2) a certified copy of the order of distribution, or, if such order does not fully disclose the identity of the person or persons entitled to receive any amount that may be refunded and the percentage or proportion thereof to which each, if more than one, is entitled, there should be submitted a certified copy of the decedent's will, if any, and such further proof as may be requisite to establish both the identity of such person or persons and the percentage or proportion of the amount sought to be refunded to which each, in case there are more than one, is entitled.

If upon audit of the return filed by the executor the Commissioner determines that an overassessment has been made on account of the tax, a certificate of overassessment will be prepared and issued, even though claim for refund of such excess payment has not been filed. However, in such case the documentary evidence, as set out above, identifying the person or persons entitled to receive the refund will be required.

A refund is erroneous if made after the expiration of the period of limitation for filing claim therefor, unless within such period claim was filed. In case a claim was filed for the refund of the tax within the proper time and was disallowed by the Commissioner, and the period of limitation for filing suit by the executor had expired prior to the making of the refund, a refund based upon such claim is erroneous unless suit was begun by the executor within the period of limitation for filing suit, or unless within such period the executor and the Commissioner agreed in writing to suspend the running of the statute of limitations for filing suit from the date of the agreement to the date of final decision of one or more named cases then pending before the Board of Tax Appeals or the courts. Erroneous refunds, as above described, may be recovered by suit brought in the name of the United States within two years after the making of such refunds. An erroneous refund, though not considered as erroneous under section 3774, may be recovered in the same manner if the suit is begun within two years after the making of such refund. Erroneous refunds, whether erroneous under the provisions of section 3774 or otherwise, may be recovered by suit brought within five years of the making of the refund if it appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact.

A claim for the payment of a judgment rendered against a collector of internal revenue representing Federal estate tax, penalties, or other sums collected in connection therewith should be made on Form 843 and filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C. The claimant should state the names of all parties to the action, the date of its commencement, the date of the judgment, the court in which it was recovered, its amount, and the fact that the action related to Federal estate tax or interest or penalties in connection therewith. To the claim there should be annexed two certified copies of the final judgment, a certificate of probable cause (see section 939 of the Revised Statutes [U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 28, section 842]) and, if refund is claimed, an itemized bill of the costs paid, receipted by the clerk or other proper officer of the court.

A claim for the payment of a judgment rendered against the United States representing Federal estate tax, penalties, or other sums collected in connection therewith should be made on Form 843 in the manner prescribed in the preceding paragraph, except that—

(a) a certificate of probable cause is not required,

(b) the claims shall be executed in duplicate, and

(c) in the case of a judgment rendered by the Court of Claims there may be submitted, in place of a certified copy of the final judgment, a certificate of the judgment issued by the clerk of the court and two copies of the court's opinion, if any was rendered.*

INTEREST ON REFUNDS

* * * * * *

(b) Estate, succession, legacy, and inheritance taxes. * * * Refund based on the credit may (despite the provisions of sections 910 to 912, inclusive), be made if claim therefor is filed within the period above provided. Any such refund shall be made without interest.

SEC. 3771. [Chapter 37.] INTEREST ON OVERPAYMENTS.

(a) Rate. Interest shall be allowed and paid upon any overpayment in respect of any internal revenue tax at the rate of 6 per centum per annum.

(b) Period. Such interest shall be allowed and paid as follows:

(2) Refunds. In the case of a refund, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund check by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the Commissioner, whether or not such refund check is accepted by the taxpayer after tender of such check to the taxpayer. The acceptance of such check shall be without prejudice to any right of the taxpayer to claim any additional overpayment and interest thereon.

§ 81.97 Payment of claims and interest. Under the law, warrants in payment of claims allowed can only be drawn payable to the person or persons entitled to the proceeds, and consequently cannot be drawn payable to attorneys or agents. If the claimants are indebted to the United States for taxes, such taxes must be paid before the warrants are delivered. (U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 31, section 227.)

Upon the allowance of the claim for refund of any tax or penalty paid, unless the refund results from the allowance of a credit for payment of estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes, the statute provides for the payment of interest upon the total amount of such refund at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date such tax or penalty was paid to a date preceding the date of the refund check by not more than 30 days, such date to be determined by the Commissioner, whether or not such check is accepted by the taxpayer. Acceptance of a refund warrant or check will not prejudice the right of the claimant to have refunded to him any additional overpayment and interest thereon. If a refund is based upon the credit for payment of estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes allowed by subsection (b) of section 813 (see § 81.9), the refund will be made without interest.*

POWER TO COMPROMISE OR REMIT PENALTIES

SEC. 3761. [Chapter 36.] COMPROMISES.

(a) Authorization. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, or of the Under Secretary of the Treasury, or of an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, may compromise any civil or criminal case arising under the internal revenue laws prior to reference to the Department of Justice for prosecution or defense; and the Attorney General may compromise any such case after reference to the Department of Justice for prosecution or defense.

(b) Record. Whenever a compromise is made by the Commissioner in any case there shall be placed on file in the office of the Commissioner the opinion of the General Counsel for the Department of the Treasury or of the officer acting as such, with his reasons therefor, with a statement of—

(1) The amount of tax assessed,

(2) The amount of additional tax or penalty imposed by law in consequence of the neglect or delinquency of the person against whom the tax is assessed, and

(3) The amount actually paid in accordance with the terms of the compromise.

PERSONAL LIABILITY OF EXECUTOR, TRANSFEREE, TRUSTEE, AND BENEFICIARY

SEC. 3467. Revised Statutes (as amended by section 518 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1934 [U.S.C., 1940 edition, Title 31, section 192]). Every executor, administrator, or assignee, or other person, who pays, in whole or in part, any debt due by the person or estate for whom or for which he acts before he satisfies and pays the debts due to the United States from such person or estate, shall become answerable in his own person and estate to the extent of such payments for the debts so due to the United States, or for so much thereof as may remain due and unpaid.

SEC. 827. [Part II, Subchapter A.] LIEN FOR TAX.

(b) Upon property of transferee. If (1) except in the case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, the decedent makes a transfer, by trust or otherwise, of any property in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, or makes a transfer, by trust or otherwise, under which he has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (A) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (B) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom, or (2) if insurance passes under a contract executed by the decedent in favor of a specific beneficiary, and if in either case the tax in respect thereto is not paid when due, then the transferee, trustee, or beneficiary shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of such transfer, or to the extent of such beneficiary's interest under such contract of insurance, shall be subject to a like lien equal to the amount of such tax. Any part of such property sold by such transferee or trustee to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of the lien and a like lien shall then attach to all the property of such transferee or trustee, except any part sold to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

§ 81.99 Personal liability. If the executor, before paying all the estate tax, pays, in whole or in part, any debt due by the decedent or the decedent's estate, or distributes any portion of the estate, he is personally liable, to the extent of such payment or distribution, for so much of the estate tax as remains due and unpaid.

The term "executor" includes every person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent if there is no appointed, qualified, and acting personal representative within the United States. For provisions of the statute and regulations prescribing conditions authorizing release of the executor from his personal liability for payment of the tax, see section 825 and § 81.71.

If the tax in respect of a transfer of property includible in the gross estate under the provisions of section 811 (c), or in respect of insurance receivable by a beneficiary other than the estate and includible in the gross estate under the provisions of section 811 (g), is not paid when due, then the transferee, trustee, or beneficiary shall be personally liable for such tax.*

EXAMINATION OF RECORDS AND TAKING OF TESTIMONY

SEC. 3614. [Chapter 34.] EXAMINATION OF BOOKS AND WITNESSES.

(a) To determine liability of the taxpayer. The Commissioner, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized, by any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, designated by him for that purpose, to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or of any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons.

(b) To determine liability of a transferee. The Commissioner, for the purpose of determining the liability at law or in equity of a transferee of the property of any person with respect to any Federal taxes imposed upon such person, is hereby authorized, by any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, designated by him for that purpose, to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon such liability, and may require the attendance of the transferor or transferee, or of any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons.

SEC. 3633. [Chapter 34.] JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURTS.

(a) To enforce summons. If any person is summoned under the internal revenue laws to appear, to testify, or to produce books, papers, or other data, the district court of the United States for the district in which such person resides shall have jurisdiction by appropriate process to compel such attendance, testimony, or production of books, papers, or other data.

SEC. 3800. [Chapter 38.] JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURTS TO ISSUE ORDERS, PROCESSES, AND JUDGMENTS.

The district courts of the United States at the instance of the United States shall have such jurisdiction to make and issue, both in actions at law and suits in equity, writs and orders of injunction, and of ne exeat republica, orders appointing receivers, and such other orders and process, and to render such judgments and decrees, granting in proper cases both legal and equitable relief together, as may be necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the internal revenue laws. The remedies hereby provided are in addition to and not exclusive of any and all other remedies of the United States in such courts or otherwise to enforce such laws.

§ 81.100 Securing evidence; taking testimony. In order to ascertain the correctness of a return, or to make a return if none has been made, the Commissioner has power to require the attendance, and to take the testimony, of the person rendering the return, or any officer or employee of such person, or any other person having knowledge in the premises. Such persons may be required to produce any relevant book, paper, or other record. The Commissioner also is authorized, for the purpose of determining the liability at law or in equity of a transferee of the property of any person with respect to any Federal taxes imposed upon such person, to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon such liability and may require the attendance of the transferor or transferee, or any officer or employee of such person and take his testimony with reference to the matter. The Commissioner has the authority to administer oaths to the persons required to testify. The power and authority herein described may be exercised by any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field force, designated by the Commissioner for that purpose. (For penalties, see § 81.90.)*

§ 81.101 Power to compel compliance. If any person is summoned to appear and testify, or to produce books, papers, or other data, the District Court of the United States for the district in which such person resides has power to compel the giving of the testimony, the production of the books, papers, or data, and to issue any appropriate process, writ, or order.*

REMEDIES FOR COLLECTION AND PROCEEDINGS FOR ENFORCING LIABILITY OF A TRANSFEREE OR FIDUCIARY

SEC. 822. [Part II, Subchapter A.] PAYMENT OF TAX.

(a) TIME OF PAYMENT.

* * * * * *

(2) Extension of time. Where the Commissioner finds that the payment on the due date of any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the Commissioner may extend the time for payment of any such part * * *. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of extension, and the running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension.

* * * * * *

SEC. 871. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PROCEDURE IN GENERAL.

* * * * * *

(h) Extension of time for payment of deficiency. Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the estate, the Commissioner, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax), may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency * * *. In such case the running of the statute of limitations for assessment and collection, as provided in section 874, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension.

SEC. 874. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PERIOD OF LIMITATION UPON ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION.

(a) General rule. Except as provided in subsection (b) the amount of estate taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be assessed within three years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of three years after the return was filed.

(b) EXCEPTIONS—(1) False return or no return. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(2) Collection after assessment. Where the assessment of any tax imposed by this subchapter has been made within the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, but only if begun (1) within six years after the assessment of the tax, or (2) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the Commissioner and the executor.

SEC. 900. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] TRANSFERRED ASSETS.

(a) Method of collection. The amounts of the following liabilities shall, except as hereinafter in this section provided, be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this subchapter (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand, the provisions authorizing distraint and proceedings in court for collection, and the provisions prohibiting claims and suits for refunds):

(1) Transferees. The liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a decedent, in respect of the tax (including interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law) imposed by this subchapter.

(2) Fiduciaries. The liability of a fiduciary under section 3467 of the Revised Statutes (U.S.C., Title 31, § 192) in respect of the payment of any such tax from the estate of the decedent.

Any such liability may be either as to the amount of tax shown on the return or as to any deficiency in tax.

(b) Period of limitation. The period of limitation for assessment of any such liability of a transferee or fiduciary shall be as follows:

(1) Within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the executor.

(2) If a court proceeding against the executor for the collection of the tax has been begun within the period provided in paragraph (1)—then within one year after return of execution in such proceeding.

(c) Suspension of running of statute of limitations. The running of the statute of limitations, upon the assessment of the liability of a transferee or fiduciary shall, after the mailing of the notice under section 871 (a) to the transferee or fiduciary, be suspended for the period during which the Commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment in respect of the liability of the transferee or fiduciary (and in any event, if a proceeding in respect of the liability is placed on the docket of the Board, until the decision of the Board becomes final), and for 60 days thereafter.

(d) Prohibition of suits to restrain enforcement of liability of transferee or fiduciary. No suit shall be maintained in any court for the purpose of restraining the assessment or collection of (1) the amount of the liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer in respect of any estate tax, or (2) the amount of the liability of a fiduciary under section 3467 of the Revised Statutes (U.S.C., Title 31, § 192) in respect of any such tax.

(e) Definition of "transferee". As used in this section, the term "transferee" includes heir, legatee, devisee, and distributee.

SEC. 3653. [Chapter 36.] PROHIBITION OF SUITS TO RESTRAIN ASSESSMENT OR COLLECTION.

(a) Tax. Except as provided in sections 272 (a), 871 (a) and 1012 (a), no suit for the purpose of restraining the assessment or collection of any tax shall be maintained in any court.

(b) Liability of transferee or fiduciary. No suit shall be maintained in any court for the purpose of restraining the assessment or collection of (1) the amount of the liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer in respect of any income, war-profits, excess-profits, or estate tax, (2) the amount of the liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a donor in respect of any gift tax, or (3) the amount of the liability of a fiduciary under section 3467 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., Title 31, § 192) in respect of any such tax.

SEC. 937. [Subchapter B.] ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

Except as provided in section 936, the tax imposed by section 935 shall be assessed, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the tax imposed by subchapter A. • • •.

§ 81.102. Remedies for collection and administrative proceedings for enforcing liability of a transferee or fiduciary—(a) Remedies for collection. Three remedies are provided for the collection of the estate tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code: (1) The collector may issue warrant of distraint authorizing the seizure and sale of any or all of the assets of the estate. (See section 3690 of the Internal Revenue Code.) (2) The collector may commence in any court of the United States appropriate proceedings, in the name of the United States, to subject the property of the decedent to sale under the judgment or decree of the court. (3) The personal liability of the executor and of certain transferees, trustees, and beneficiaries, set forth in § 81.99, may be enforced by any appropriate action.

The period of limitation, except in case of fraud or in case no return was filed, for collection of the tax by distraint or suit is six years after assessment if assessment of the tax was made within the statutory period of limitation or prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the Commissioner and the executor. If an extension of time for payment of tax is granted under the provisions of section 822 (a) (2) or section 871 (h), the running of the statute of limitations on collection by distraint or suit is suspended for the period of such extension.

(b) Administrative proceedings for enforcing liability of a transferee or fiduciary. The amount for which a transferee of the property of a decedent is liable, at law or in equity, and the amount of the personal liability of a fiduciary under section 3467 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, in respect of any estate tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code, whether shown on the return of the executor or determined as a deficiency in the tax, shall be assessed against such transferee or such fiduciary, as the case may be, and collected and paid, in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of a deficiency, except as hereinafter provided.

The term "transferee" as used in section 900 includes an heir, legatee, devisee, and distributee of an estate of a deceased person.

The period of limitation for assessment of the liability of a transferee or of a fiduciary is as follows:

(1) Within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the executor. (See sections 871, 872, 874, and 875, and § 81.74.)

(2) If a court proceeding against the executor for the collection of the tax has been begun within the period of limitation for the bringing of such proceeding, then within one year after the return of execution in such proceeding.

If a notice of the liability of a transferee, or the liability of a fiduciary, has been mailed to such transferee or to such fiduciary under the provisions of section 871 (a) (see § 81.73), then the running of the statute of limitations shall be suspended for the period in which the Commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment (and in any event, if a proceeding in respect of the liability is placed on the docket of the Board, until the decision of the Board becomes final), and for 60 days thereafter.

If assessments have been made against several persons covering the same tax liability, and payment of such liability by one or more such persons has been duly certified to the Commissioner, the Commissioner, for the purpose of temporarily relieving the collector from liability under section 3950 of the Internal Revenue Code, may authorize him to take credit temporarily with respect to the assessments not specifically paid. Such action, however, shall not constitute an abatement and shall not discharge the liability of the persons concerned.*

RECORDS, STATEMENTS, AND SPECIAL RETURNS

• • • • • •

(d) Records, statements, and returns. Every person liable to any tax imposed by this subchapter, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may from time to time prescribe.

• • • • • •

SEC. 3603. [Chapter 34.] NOTICE REQUIRING RECORDS, STATEMENTS, AND SPECIAL RETURNS.

Whenever in the judgment of the Commissioner necessary he may require any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as the Commissioner deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable to tax.

SEC. 3632. [Chapter 34.] AUTHORITY TO ADMINISTER OATHS, TAKE TESTIMONY, AND CERTIFY.

(a) Internal revenue personnel—(1) Persons in charge of administration of internal revenue laws generally. Every collector, deputy collector, internal revenue agent, and internal revenue officer assigned to duty under an internal revenue agent, is authorized to administer oaths and to take evidence touching any part of the administration of the internal revenue laws with which he is charged, or where such oaths and evidence are authorized by law or regulation authorized by law to be taken.

(b) Others. Any oath or affirmation required or authorized by any internal revenue law or by any regulations made under authority thereof may be administered by any person authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by any consular officer of the United States. This subsection shall not be construed as an exclusive enumeration of the persons who may administer such oaths or affirmations.

§ 81.103 Executor's duty to keep records. It is the duty of the executor to keep such records as the Commissioner may require. Executors are required to keep such complete and detailed records of the affairs of the estate as will enable the Commissioner to determine accurately the amount of the tax liability.*

§ 81.104 Executor's duty to render statements. It is the duty of the executor not only to make the formal return, but also to render any other sworn statement which the Commissioner may require for the purpose of determining whether a tax liability exists and, if so, the extent thereof.*

ESTATES ADMINISTERED IN THE UNITED STATES COURT FOR CHINA

SEC. 851. [Part II, Subchapter A.] CITIZENS WITH ESTATES IN CHINA.

The term "resident" as used in this subchapter includes a citizen of the United States with respect to whose property any probate or administration proceedings are had in the United States Court for China.

SEC. 920 [Part IV, Subchapter A.] PAYMENT OF TAX.

In the case of a resident within the meaning of section 851—

(a) To Clerk of United States Court for China. Where no part of the gross estate of the decedent is situated in the United States at the time of his death, the total amount of tax due under this subchapter shall be paid to or collected by the clerk of the United States Court for China;

(b) To Collector. Where any part of the gross estate of the decedent is situated in the United States at the time of his death, the tax due under this subchapter shall be paid to or collected by the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate in the United States, or, if such part is situated in more than one district, then the collector of such district as may be designated by the Commissioner.

SEC. 921. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] AUTHORITY OF CLERK OF UNITED STATES COURT FOR CHINA TO ACT AS COLLECTOR.

For the purpose of section 920 the clerk of the United States Court for China shall be a collector for the territorial jurisdiction of such court, and taxes shall be collected by and paid to him in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as the taxes collected by and paid to a collector in the United States.

NOTICE OF PERSONS ACTING AS FIDUCIARY

SEC. 901. [Part IV, Subchapter A.] NOTICE OF FIDUCIARY RELATIONSHIP.

(a) Fiduciary of decedent. Upon notice to the Commissioner that any person is acting as executor, such person shall assume the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of an executor in respect of the tax imposed by this subchapter until notice is given that such person is no longer acting as executor.

(b) Fiduciary of transferee. Upon notice to the Commissioner that any person is acting in a fiduciary capacity for a person subject to the liability specified in section 900, the fiduciary shall assume on behalf of such person the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of such person under such section (except that the liability shall be collected from the estate of such person), until notice is given that the fiduciary capacity has terminated.

(c) Manner of notice. Notice under subsection (a) or (b) shall be given in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(d) Address for notice of liability. In the absence of any notice to the Commissioner under subsection (a) or (b), notice under this subchapter of a deficiency or other liability, if addressed in the name of the decedent or other person subject to liability and mailed to his last known address, shall be sufficient for the purposes of this subchapter.

§ 81.105 Notice of persons acting as fiduciary. The "notice to the Commissioner" provided for in section 901 shall be in writing signed by the fiduciary and filed with the Commissioner, setting forth the name and address of the person for whom he is acting in a fiduciary capacity and also the nature of the liability of such person, accompanied by satisfactory evidence of his authority to act for such person in the fiduciary capacity. If the fiduciary capacity exists by order of court, a certified copy of the order of the court may be regarded as such satisfactory evidence. The written notice to the Commissioner need not be accompanied by evidence of the authority of the fiduciary to act if there is already on file with the Commissioner satisfactory evidence of the authority to act. Any such written notice which has been filed with the Commissioner since the enactment of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered as sufficient notice to the Commissioner within the meaning of section 901 if and when there is or has been filed with the Commissioner the satisfactory evidence herein provided for. When the fiduciary capacity has terminated, the fiduciary, in order to be relieved of any further duty or liability as such, must file with the Commissioner written notice that the fiduciary capacity has terminated as to him, accompanied by satisfactory evidence of the termination of the fiduciary capacity. Such written notice should state the name and address of the person, if any, who has been substituted as fiduciary.

This section, made under the provisions of section 901; shall not be taken to abridge in any way the powers and duties of fiduciaries provided for in other sections of the Internal Revenue Code.*

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 840. [Part II, Subchapter A.] OTHER LAWS APPLICABLE.

All administrative, special, or stamp provisions of law, including the law relating to the assessment of taxes, so far as applicable, shall be extended to and made a part of this subchapter.

SEC. 3791. [Chapter 38.] RULES AND REGULATIONS.

(a) Authorization—(1) In general. • • • the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this title.

(2) In case of change in law. The Commissioner may make all such regulations, not otherwise provided for, as may have become necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue.

PART 30 [1]—TRAVEL AND OTHER CONDUCT OF ALIENS OF ENEMY NATIONALITIES

Section 30.15 is amended by adding to paragraph (b) thereof subparagraph (1).

[1] 7 F.R. 844, 1084.

§ 30.15 Prohibited and restricted areas. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 30.3, the presence and conduct of an alien of enemy nationality are controlled in certain areas as follows:

* * * * *

(1) The following conditions are prescribed:

(i) No alien of enemy nationality shall between the hours of 9 P. M. and 6 A. M be absent from the place of residence indicated on his Certificate of Identification.

(ii) At all other times an alien of enemy nationality shall be found only (a) at said place of residence or within a distance of five miles therefrom; (b) at the place of employment indicated on his Certificate of Identification; or (c) travelling between the said place of residence and the said place of employment.

(iii) The several United States Attorneys are hereby authorized to grant exceptions to the above prescribed conditions where, after sufficient investigation, a compelling reason for such an exception is found to exist. The alien shall make written application to the United States Attorney for the District of his residence for such an exception stating his name, Certificate of Identification number after it is obtained, residence, business address, the specific exception which he desires and the reasons therefor. During the pendency of his application the applicant must comply with the above conditions. Where granted, such exception shall be expressly limited to the needs of the particular case and may, in the discretion of the United States Attorney, be further limited and restricted in any manner and respect which he shall deem to be in the interest of national security. When granted, the exception shall be endorsed in full by the United States Attorney on the applicant's Certificate of Identification.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

S. Highway No. 99 in a southerly direction to the point where the said easterly boundary line intersects the southerly boundary line of the right-of-way of the California State Highway No. 96, projected. The line then runs in a westerly and southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of California State Highway No. 96 to the point where that Highway intersects the northerly boundary of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 299; it then follows in a southeasterly direction along U. S. Highway No. 299 to the point where the northerly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 299 intersects the eastern boundary line of Humboldt County to the north boundary line of Mendocino County, California, then west along the north boundary of Mendocino County to the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 101. The line follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary of U. S. Highway No. 101 to the point where it intersects the northerly boundary line of California State Highway No. 20 and then in an easterly direction along the California State Highway No. 20 northerly boundary line to the point where it intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 99 East at or near Marysville, California. The line then follows in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 99 East to the point where it intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 99 in or near the city of Sacramento, California, and then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 99 to the point where it intersects the southerly boundary line of California State Highway No. 120 in or near the town of Mantega, California. It follows then in a westerly direction along the southerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 120 to the point where the same intersects the southerly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 50. It follows then in a westerly direction along the southerly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 50 to the point where the same intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 33, near Tracy, California. It follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 33, near Tracy, California. It follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 33 to the point where it, if projected, intersects the southerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 152, in or near the town of Los Banos, California. It follows then in a westerly direction along the southerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 152 to the point where the same intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 156. It follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 156 to the point where the same intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 25 in or near the town of Hollister, California. It follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 25 to the point where it intersects the northerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 198 at or near the town of Priest Valley, California. It follows then in an easterly direction along the northerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 198 to the point where it intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 33, projected in or near the town of Coalinga, California. It follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 33 to the point where it intersects the northerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 166 in or near the town of Maricopa, California. It follows then in an easterly direction along the northerly boundary line of the right-of-way of California State Highway No. 166 to the point where it, projected, intersects the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 99. It follows then in a southerly direction along the easterly boundary line of the right-of-way of U. S. Highway No. 99 to the point where the same intersects the boundary between the Northern California Sector and the Southern California Sector of the Western Defense Command. The boundary between the Northern California Sector and the Southern California Sector of the Western Defense Command commences at a point on the coast line slightly below Point Sal and follows in an east, northeast direction through Schuman, just below Lake View, just above Gates, just below Pattiway and ends at a point on U. PART 30—TRAVEL AND OTHER CONDUCT OF ALIENS OF ENEMY NATIONALITIES

Part 30 [1] is amended by adding the following new sections:

Sec.
30.51 Persons required to apply.
30.52 Persons not required to apply.
30.53 Places to apply.
30.54 Time to apply.
30.55 Modifications of time to apply.
30.56 Method of making application for Certificate of Identification.
30.57 Certificates of Identification.
30.58 Disposition of application forms.
30.59 Nature of information.
30.60 Changes of name, residence, or employment.
30.61 Use of assumed name.
30.62 Compliance with all regulations of conduct of applicants.
30.63 Violation of regulations.

§ 30.51 Persons required to apply. Except as hereinafter expressly excluded by § 30.52, persons in the United States (including Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands) required to apply for Certificates of Identification, and otherwise to comply with these regulations, are as follows:

(a) All aliens who are of the age of 14 years or upward and who are German, Italian, or Japanese citizens or subjects.

(b) All aliens of the age of 14 years or upward who at present are stateless but who, at the time at which they became stateless, were German, Italian, or Japanese citizens or subjects.

*§§ 30.51 to 30.63 inclusive issued under the authority contained in Proclamation 2525, December 7, 1941, Proclamations 2526 and 2527, December 8, 1941, and 6 F.R. 6321, 6323 and 6324, December 10, 1941 and Proc. 2537, January 14, 1942, 7 F.R. 329, January 17, 1942; Rev. Stat. sec. 4067, 50 U.S.C. sec. 21.

§ 30.52 Persons not required to apply. Classes of aliens not required to apply for Certificates of Identification, or otherwise to comply with these regulations, include the following:

(a) German, Italian, or Japanese citizens or subjects who, before December 7, 1941, in the case of former Japanese subjects and before December 8, 1941, in the case of former German or Italian citizens, became citizens of any nation other than Germany, Italy, or Japan: Provided, That such persons have not, by special license or otherwise, retained their status as German, Italian, or Japanese citizens or subjects.

(b) Austrians or Austrian-Hungarians (Austro-Hungarians), who registered as such under the Alien Registration Act of

1940: Provided, That such persons have not at any time voluntarily become German, Italian, or Japanese citizens or subjects.

(c) Koreans who, under the Alien Registration Act of 1940, registered as Koreans, provided that such persons have not at any time voluntarily become German, Italian, or Japanese citizens or subjects.

(d) These regulations shall not be construed as defining or limiting the classes of "alien enemies" who are subject to apprehension, detention or internment, or to any of the other provisions of the Presidential Proclamations of December 7 and 8, 1941, and regulations heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant thereto.*

§ 30.53 Places to apply. (a) Persons required to apply for Certificates of Identification shall present themselves at the first-class, second class, or county-seat post office nearest to their places of residence, or at any other post office or other place which may hereafter be designated in accordance with instructions issued by the Post Office Department unless otherwise.

(b) Persons required to apply for Certificates of Identification who are unavoidably absent from their places of residence during the dates hereinafter designated for such places may, in order to relieve themselves from the penalties prescribed for failure to make such applications, present themselves at the place and time prescribed for applications in the district in which they temporarily are, and shall then and there file applications in the regular way, which applications, duly executed in duplicate, shall be immediately forwarded to the first-class, second-class, or county-seat post office nearest the habitual places of residence of such applicants and such post office shall deliver the Certificate of Identification to applicant as hereinafter provided.*

§ 30.54 Time to apply. Persons required to apply for Certificates of Identification shall apply at the time hereinafter set forth, as follows:

(a) Persons present within the States of Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Washington are required to apply between the dates of February 2 and February 9, 1942, both inclusive.

(b) Persons present within the continental United States elsewhere than in the above-enumerated States are required to apply between the dates of February 9, and February 28, 1942, both inclusive.

(c) Special provisions will be made as to the times and places to apply for Certificates of Identification in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.*

§ 30.55 Modifications of time to apply. Provided that a person, who is subject to the regulations in this part and who falls into one of the following-described categories, has registered in compliance with the provisions of the Alien Registration Act of 1940, as evidenced by his possession of an Alien Registration Receipt Card, he shall be entitled to the following modification of the requirements of the regulations in this part:

(a) Persons who are inmates of asylums, jails, prisons, or penitentiaries, Federal or State, shall not be obliged to make application for a Certificate of Identification so long as they remain inmates of such institutions. Immediately upon their discharge from such institutions, however, such persons shall be under obligation to apply for such Certificates. Their applications shall be made either at (1) such institutions, if facilities therefor exist, or at (2) the first-class, second-class, or county-seat post office, or (3) such other place, nearest their residence, as may then be designated for the receiving of such applications.

(b) Persons who are so aged or infirm as to be confined permanently to their places of residence or to institutions shall not be obliged to make application for a Certificate of Identification so long as they shall be physically incapable of making such application at a post office.

(c) Persons who, during the period fixed for the filing of applications for Certificates of Identification, are temporarily bedridden, in hospitals or at their residences, must within 5 days of their recovery, make application for a Certificate of Identification at the place, nearest their place of residence, at which such applications are then being received. In order, however, to qualify for such temporary modification of the time requirements for making application, such persons must give, or must cause to be given in their behalf, a written notice setting forth their name, address, Alien Registration Receipt Card Number, age, nationality, the nature of their physical incapacity and its probable duration. Such notice must be accompanied by a Doctor's certificate and must be mailed or delivered, within the period fixed for the filing of applications for Certificates of Identification to the postmaster of the nearest first- or second-class or county-seat post office.

In the event that any person, subject to these regulations and falling within one of the above-enumerated categories, has not registered in compliance with the requirements of the Alien Registration Act of 1940, he shall give notice, or shall cause notice to be given in his behalf, to the postmaster of the nearest first-class, second-class, or county-seat post office; such notice shall contain his name, address, the fact of nonregistration, and shall be given during the period fixed for the filing of applications for Certificates of Identification.*

§ 30.56 Method of making application for certificate of identification. (a) Any postmaster in a first- or second-class post office in the United States, or in the post office at the seat of government of any county, parish, or equivalent subdivision in the United States, or in any other post office or other place which may hereafter be designated, or any postal employee designated by such postmaster, shall be an identification official, authorized to receive applications for Certificates of Identification in accordance with these regulations.

(b) Any postmaster who shall designate any person as an identification official shall certify that fact to the Department of Justice.

(c) Application shall be made by each person required to apply hereunder upon Form AR–AE–22, and the application shall in all respects conform to said form.

(d) A notice to all persons subject to these regulations, including abbreviated instructions and suggestions (Form AR–AE–21) shall be printed and placed in post offices and in such other places as may be deemed appropriate for general distribution; and, together with copies of these regulations, shall be posted at prominent places in post offices at which applications for Certificates of Identification will be filed.

(e) The identification official shall deliver to the applicant two copies of the form of application for Certificate of Identification (AR–AE–22).

(f) The applicant shall fill in the application forms (AR–AE–22) in duplicate, either personally or through a representative. If the applicant is unable to write or is unable to write clearly and legibly, the identification official shall, upon request of such applicant, fill in the application forms, in duplicate, with information furnished him by the applicant.

(g) The identification official shall request the applicant to produce his alien registration receipt card, and, upon its production, shall verify the number appearing thereon with the registration number inserted on the application for Certificate of Identification (Form AR–AE–22).

(h) After the application for Certificate of Identification (Form AR–AE–22) has been completed in duplicate, the identification official shall fill in the description of the applicant as the information is called for at the bottom of the Form AR–AE–22.

(i) The applicant shall furnish to the identification official three unmounted photographs of the applicant, with light background, 2 by 2 inches in size, on thin paper. Such photographs, in order to be acceptable, must clearly show a front view of the face of the applicant without hat, and applicant must state, and such must appear to be the fact, that such photographs were taken not more than 30 days prior to the date on which the application is presented.

(j) The application forms (AR–AE–22) must be personally signed in duplicate and sworn to (or affirmed) by the applicant before an identification official.

(k) If the applicant is unable to write, he must make his mark in the signature space in the application forms, and his mark shall be witnessed by a witness other than the identification official. The witness shall sign his name and address on the application forms near the mark, and the words "witnessed by" shall precede the signature of the witness.

(l) If the applicant has conscientious scruples against taking an oath, he may make affirmation to the truth and completeness of his statements and answers in the application.

(m) All identification officials are hereby authorized to administer to applicants the oath or affirmation required herein. The oath is to be taken by the applicant's raising his right hand and swearing to the truth and completeness of the statements and answers made by him in the application. Affirmation may be made by applicant's raising his right hand and declaring that he solemnly affirms the truth and completeness of the statements and answers made by him in the application.

(n) The following information shall be furnished by each applicant:

(1) The applicant shall give in full his present legal name in the English alphabet.

(2) The applicant shall give the name (not including aliases) under which he registered in accordance with the provisions of the Alien Registration Act of 1940, providing that such name is different from the present legal name of applicant. If the name under which applicant registered in accordance with the provisions of the Alien Registration Act of 1940 is different from applicant's present legal name, applicant shall explain briefly the reason for the difference.

(3) The applicant shall give the location of his residence; that is, the place where the applicant habitually sleeps. If he has no such place, he shall so state. He shall give the address where his mail is regularly received or delivered. He shall also state the location of other residences since January 1, 1941, in each case stating the approximate period spent at each such residence.

(4) The applicant shall state the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations by which he has been employed since January 1, 1941, together with a statement of the capacity in which he was so employed and the approximate dates covered by each such employment. If the applicant, during said period, was himself engaged in some trade, business, or profession, he shall so indicate, stating his business address and the period covered.

(5) The applicant shall state the month, day, and year of his birth according to the American (that is, Gregorian) calendar. The applicant shall also name the country, if any, of which he is a citizen or subject, or to which he owes allegiance. If the applicant is not a citizen of any country he shall so state; he shall, in such case, state the country of which he was last a citizen or subject, or to which he last owed allegiance.

(6) The applicant shall give the names, state the relationships, and give the addresses of parents, brothers or sisters, husband or wife, or children of the applicant living in the United States on the date of making the application.

(7) The applicant shall state whether or not he has any children serving, at the time of the application, in the armed forces of the United States, including the auxiliary arms of service. If the applicant has such children he shall state their names and indicate in each case the branch of service in which such child is serving.

(8) The applicant shall give the names, state the relationship and give the last known address or country of residence of parents, brothers or sisters, husband or wife, or children of the applicant living outside the United States. If any of said relatives are, or when last known to applicant were, serving in the armed forces of a foreign nation, the applicant shall state this fact.

(9) The applicant shall state whether or not, he has, since August 27, 1940, either applied for or received first citizenship papers in the United States or petitioned for naturalization in the United States. In the event that the applicant has so applied, received, or petitioned, he shall state which and give the place and date. The applicant shall state also whether or not he has ever been refused or denied naturalization in the United States. If he has been refused or denied naturalization he shall state the court, place, and reasons or causes given, and whether said reasons or causes have since been removed.

(10) If the applicant has at any time taken any steps toward naturalization in a country other than the United States, he shall so indicate and shall state when and where and in what country.

(11) If the applicant has at any time taken an oath of allegiance to any country, state, or nation other than the United States he shall so indicate and shall state the time, place, and country.

(12) The applicant shall state whether he has read or had read to him a summary of the provisions of Presidential proclamations and regulations concerning the conduct of persons of enemy nationalities, and he shall further state whether or not he has complied with such proclamations and regulations, and further whether any exemption of any kind has been granted to him.

(13) The applicant shall indicate whether he was registered for Selective Service, and if he was, the applicant shall state the place and his local draft board order number.

(14) The applicant shall list the clubs, organizations, or societies of which he has been a member or officer, or with which he has been affiliated, at any time during the period of 5 years preceding the date of such application either in the United States or abroad. In the event that any such listed membership or affiliation has ceased prior to the date of the application, the applicant shall give the approximate date thereof. If the applicant spent any part of said 5-year period outside the United States, he shall include a statement of his foreign political party or national organization affiliation during such portion of said 5-year period as he spent outside the United States.

(15) The applicant shall be given the opportunity, and space shall be provided on the form (AR–AE–22) for the purpose, to make any additional statement concerning himself, or his status, he may wish to make. But there shall be no obligation upon the applicant to insert any additional information in such space. In the event that the applicant uses such space to give the names and addresses of persons who might vouch for the applicant's loyalty to the United States, the applicant shall write either personally or through his representative, or the identification official shall write for him, a statement substantially as follows:

I have neither given anything of value nor obligated myself in any manner whatsoever for permission to use the above names.

and applicant shall be obliged to swear to or affirm the truth of such statement.

(o) Whenever an applicant states that he is unable to supply any of the information required by Form AR–AE–22, the identification official shall ask the applicant if he has exhausted all possible sources of information. If the applicant answers that he has done so, the applicant or the identification official shall write "Don't know" in the space reserved for such information in said form.

(p) After the applicant shall have duly executed and sworn to (or affirmed) his application in duplicate, the identification official shall transfer from such form to the Certificate of Identification (Form AR–AE–23) such information as is called for in said Form AR–AE–23. The identification official shall then affix one of said photographs to each of the executed applications (AR–AE–22) and one of such photographs to the Certificate of Identification (Form AR–AE–23). The applicant, if able to write, shall sign each of said three photographs of himself in such directed manner as not to obscure the features and applicant shall affix his signature also at the place indicated in the Certificate of Identification (Form AR–AE–23).

The applicant shall place a single specified fingerprint on each of the forms of application for a Certificate of Identification (AR–AE–22) and in the Certificate of Identification (AR–AE–23). The identification official in each case shall take the applicant's fingerprint or cause the same to be taken under his supervision.*

§ 30.57 Certificates of identification. (a) At the earliest practicable date after the filing of the application there shall be delivered to the applicant, in accordance with instructions issued by the Post Office Department, a Certificate of Identification (Form AR–AE–23). The issuance of such certificate shall not relieve the applicant or holder from full compliance with any and all laws and regulations of the United States now existing or which hereafter may exist, concerning aliens of enemy nationalities; nor shall it be construed to confer on the holder immunity from any liability, pain, penalty or punishment incurred by the holder for violation of any law of the United States either before or after its issuance.

(b) All persons, required to apply for and obtain Certificates of Identification, shall carry such certificates with them at all times and present them if required to do so by any police officer or other government officer. Any such person shall promptly report his loss of Certificate of Identification to the nearest United States attorney.

(c) A Certificate of Identification shall not be issued to any person who has already received one unless he surrenders his former certificate, except in case of loss as provided below. No person shall use a Certificate of Identification relating to any other person. If any person loses his Certificate of Identification he may make affidavit under oath (or affirmation) to that effect, and, upon proof thereof, there may be issued to him a copy, which shall be plainly marked as such. If the holder dies or permanently departs from the United States, his Certificate of Identification shall be returned to the Department of Justice. If any person finds a lost Certificate of Identification he shall forward it to the United States Department of Justice.*

§ 30.58 Disposition of application forms. (a) One copy of the completely executed application for Certificate of Identification (AR–AH–22) shall be sent promptly to the Alien Registration Division of the Department of Justice in accordance with the instructions of the Post Office Department.

(b) The second copy of the completely executed application for Certificate of Identification shall be sent to the nearest field office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in accordance with the instructions of the Post Office Department.*

§ 30.59 Nature of information. All information furnished by the applicant in connection with his application shall be secret and confidential and shall be available only to such persons or agencies as may be designated by the Attorney General. It shall be unlawful for any identification official to divulge any such information to any person or agency not so designated.*

§ 30.60 Changes of name, residence, or employment. (a) Whenever the holder of a Certificate of Identification changes his (1) name, under legal authority, (2) residence address, or (3) place of employment, written notices thereof shall immediately be given to (i) the Alien Registration Division of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and (ii) the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the office shown in the holder's Certificate of Identification.

(b) Nothing herein contained shall relieve any alien or parent or guardian of any alien less than 14 years of age who is not a permanent resident of the United States, and who was or is required to register under the Alien Registration Act of 1940 from reporting to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization the alien's residence at the end of each 3 months' residence in the United States, regardless of whether or not the alien has changed his residence.*

§ 30.61 Use of assumed name. No person to whom a Certificate of Identification has been issued shall for any purpose assume or use, or purport to assume or use, or continue the assumption or use, of any name other than that given as his legal name in his application for a Certificate of Identification, except such changes as may be duly authorized by or under the law.*

§ 30.62 Compliance with all regulations of conduct of applicants. No alien of enemy nationality as hereinbefore defined shall enter or be found at any time in any area hereafter designated by the Attorney General as an area in which an alien of enemy nationality shall not be found except in accordance with such regulations and permission as may be prescribed by the Attorney General. All such aliens of enemy nationalities shall obey all regulations heretofore and hereafter issued governing travel, change of residence, occupation or employment, and possession of various articles such as cameras, radios, firearms, ammunition, explosives, signal devices, and similar articles.*

§ 30.63 Violation of regulations. (a) Any alien of enemy nationality herein defined who fails to comply with the regulations in this part or any other regulations governing the conduct of aliens of enemy nationalities, is subject to apprehenson, detention, and interment for the duration of the war.

(b) Any alien of enemy nationality herein defined who shall aid, abet, counsel, command, induce, or procure any other alien of enemy nationality to fail to comply with any of the regulations in this part or any other regulations governing the conduct of aliens of enemy nationalities, is subject to apprehension, detention, and internment for the duration of the war.*

Dated: January 22, 1942.

Section 30.61 is amended to read as follows:

§ 30.61 Use of assumed name. No person to whom a Certificate of Identification has been issued shall, for any purpose, assume or use, or purport to assume or use, or continue the assumption or use, of any name other than that given as his legal name in his application for a Certificate of Identification, except such changes as may be duly authorized in § 30.7 (c).

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

CHAPTER III—BITUMINOUS COAL DIVISION

[Docket No. A–1155]

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

ORDER AMENDING ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 1

An order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief was issued in the above-entitled matter on December 13, 1941, 6 F. R. 6754, establishing price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1, including the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Bald Eagle #1 Mine, Mine Index No. 3206, and Bald Eagle #2 Mine, Mine Index No. 3207, of John D. Walker, code member, for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments.

The original petitioner in the above-entitled matter subsequently filed an amendment to its petition alleging that the price classifications and minimum prices established for the coals of the Bald Eagle #1 Mine, Mine Index No. 3206, and the Bald Eagle #2 Mine, Mine Index No. 3207, of John D. Walker, in Size Groups 4 and 5, for truck shipments are five cents higher than the prices for comparable and analogous coals for such shipments, and requesting a five-cent reduction in the minimum prices established for the coals of the said mine index numbers in Size Groups 4 and 5 for truck shipments.

It appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth, that no pleadings in opposition to the said amendment to the original petition have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter, and that the following action is necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the said order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief dated December 13, 1941, in the above-entitled matter be, and it is hereby amended, by revoking the minimum prices established therein for the coals of Bald Eagle #1 Mine, Mine Index No. 3206 and Bald Eagle #2 Mine, Mine Index No. 3207, in Size Groups 4 and 5 for truck shipments;

It is furthered ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the said amendment to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division with forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects the said Order of December 13, 1941, be, and it hereby is, continued in full force and effect until otherwise ordered.

Dated: February 9, 1942.

Acting Director.

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

[Docket No. A–1274]

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 1

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 10, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1000, Part II]

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 3 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF THE SCOTCH HILL MINES NOS. 1 TO 35, INCLUSIVE (MINE INDEX NOS. 240, 241 AND 252 TO 284, INCLUSIVE), IN DISTRICT NO. 3

This proceeding having been instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 3 on August 6, 1941, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, praying for, inter alia, price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Scotch Hill Mines Nos. 1 to 35 (Mine Index Nos. 240, 241, and 252 to 284, inclusive) of The Henry Clay Coal Mining Company;

Temporary relief having been granted by an Order of the Director dated September 19, 1941, 6 F.R. 4849;

A petition of intervention having been filed by The Henry Clay Coal Mining Company on October 8, 1941, requesting that the Scotch Hill Mines Nos. 1 to 35 be designated as the Scotch Hill Mine No. 1 and that the same classifications and minimum prices established by the Order of September 19, 1941, for the coals of the Scotch Hill Mines Nos. 1 to 35 be established for the coals of Scotch Hill Mine No. 1;

A petition of intervention having also been filed by District Board 2;

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held on October 27, November 25 and 28, and December 1, 1941, before Floyd McGown, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C., at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard and at which District Boards 2 and 3 and The Henry Clay Coal Mining Company appeared;

The parties having waived the preparation and submission of a report by the Examiner, and the record in the proceeding having therefore been submitted to the undersigned;

The undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter, which are filed herewith;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members), § 323.8 (Special prices—(b) Railroad fuel prices for all movements except via lakes) and § 323.8 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel prices for movement via all lakes—all ports) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 3 for All Shipments Except Truck and § 323.23 (General prices) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 3 for Truck Shipments be and they hereby are amended to include therein the price classifications and mine, freight origin group, and other designations contained in Supplements R–I, R–II, R–III, and T attached hereto and made a part hereof, as the price classifications and designations of Scotch Hill Mines Nos. 1–13, 15–19, 21, 23–26, 28–30, and 32–35 of The Henry Clay Coal Mining Company.

It is further ordered, That the prayers for relief contained in the several petitions filed herein are granted to the extent set forth above and in all other respects denied.

Dated: February 5, 1942.

PART 327—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 7

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 7, FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 7

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 7; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 327.11 (Low volatile coals: Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 327.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is furthered ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is furthered ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 6, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 8 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 8

An original petition as amended, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for all shipments of this mine for all shipments except truck. Prices have been established for Mine Index No. 1533 as belonging to T. H. Mayers, however, for the reason that the name on the code acceptance of this member is spelled "Mayers" and in § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) and § 328.42 (General prices for low volatile coals) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

The original petition lists Mine Index No. 1533 as belonging to T. H. Moyers and prays for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of this mine for all shipments except truck. Prices have been established for Mine Index No. 1533 as belonging to T. H. Mayers, however, for the reason that the name on the code acceptance of this member is spelled "Mayers" and in § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) and § 328.42 (General prices for low volatile coals) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

PART 331—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT No. 11

ORDER AMENDING MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER APPROVING AND ADOPTING, WITH MODIFICATIONS, THE PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW OF THE EXAMINER AND GRANTING, IN PART, PERMANENT RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF MAUMEE COLLIERIES COMPANY FOR REVISION OF THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR MINE INDEX 68, DISTRICT 11, BY PROVIDING DEDUCTIONS IN MINE PRICES BASED UPON DIFFERENCES IN FREIGHT RATES AMONG DISTRICT 11 MINES FOR SHIPMENT TO MARKET AREAS 32, 33, AND 35–38, INCLUSIVE, AND IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS BOARD FOR DISTRICT 11 FOR REVISION OF THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR DISTRICT 11, BY PROVIDING DEDUCTIONS IN MINE PRICES BASED UPON DIFFERENCES IN FREIGHT RATES AMONG DISTRICT 11 MINES FOR SHIPMENT TO MARKET AREAS 20, 21, AND 30–38, INCLUSIVE

The above-entitled proceedings were instituted by original petitions filed with this Division pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. A final Order granting in part the relief sought was entered in this proceeding on November 15, 1941. On December 7, 1941, District Board No. 11, the original petitioner in Docket No. A–195, filed a petition praying a modification of the relief granted in the Order dated November 15, 1941, 6 F.R. 6500, and as grounds therefor alleged that the adjustments in the effective minimum prices made by that Order for deliveries to Charlestown, Indiana, were predicated upon freight rates effective prior to February 28, 1941, that on February 28, 1941, however, the freight rates for shipments from all subdistricts of District No. 11, except the Evansville Subdistrict, were reduced 22¢ per net ton for delivery to Charlestown, Indiana; and that the adjustments in the effective minimum prices made by the Order of November 15, 1941, for deliveries to Speeds, Indiana, were predicated upon freight rates effective prior to June 23, 1941, that on June 23, 1941, however, the freight rates applicable on shipments from all except the Evansville and Boonville Subdistricts and those mines in the Princeton-Ayrshire Subdistrict located on the AW&W Railroad and the Southern Railway were reduced 22¢ per net ton for delivery to Speeds, Indiana.

It appears, therefore, that in order to effectuate the Order of the Director dated November 15, 1941, in the above-entitled proceedings, that Order should be modified so as to reflect the presently effective freight rates to Charlestown and Speeds, Indiana, from the various producing subdistricts in District No. 11. Moreover, no petitions in opposition to the prayer of District Board No. 11 have been filed and it appears that no parties will be injured by the requested modifications.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the part of the Order, Supplement R–II, § 331.9 (Adjustments in f. o. b. mine prices), herein dated November 15, 1941, relating to permissible freight absorptions to Charlestown and Speeds, Indiana, is deleted, and Supplement R, § 331.9 (Adjustments in f. o. b. mine prices), attached hereto and hereby made a part hereof, is effective in its stead.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to, and applications to stay, terminate or modify, the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 10, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Acting Director.

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD 13 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 1261 AND 1293 IN DISTRICT 13, FOR RAIL SHIPMENT

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 13, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The Board, in its petition, proposed price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District 13, including, among others, the coals of the Riverside Mine (Mine Index No. 1261) of the Pratt-American Coal Company and the Winn-Pratt No. 1 Mine (Mine Index No. 1293) of D. F. Winn, both code members in District 13. The petition requested temporary and final relief.

In accordance with this prayer for relief, the Director, in an Order dated November 4, 1941, 6 F. R. 6512, granted temporary relief and conditionally provided for final relief for the coals of the Winn-Pratt No. 1 Mine for rail shipment, for all use except steamship bunker fuel, railroad locomotive fuel and blacksmithing. However, no price classifications and minimum prices were established for the coals of the Riverside Mine for rail shipment and for the coals of the Riverside Mine and the Winn-Pratt No. 1 Mine for steamship vessel use.

Thereafter, by an Order of the Director dated November 4, 1941, the requests for rail prices for the Riverside Mine and prices for the coals of the Riverside and Winn-Pratt No. 1 Mines for steamship vessel use were severed from Docket No. A-1089 and designated as Docket No. A-1089 Part II. At the same time, temporary relief, pending final disposition of these matters, was granted.

Pursuant to Order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in the matter was held on December 10, 1941, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Petitioner, District Board 13, appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived and the matter was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

Two matters are up for consideration in this proceeding. The first is the establishment of permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Riverside Mine for rail shipment. No objection has been raised against the prices temporarily established in the Order of November 4, 1941, and I find that they are proper and should be made permanent.

Secondly, there is the matter of the establishment of permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Riverside Mine and the Winn-Pratt No. 1 Mine for steamship vessel fuel use. District Board 13 in its petition proposed the price of $2.65 per ton for Size Group 13 coals for both of these mines for vessel fuel. The Director, in his Order of November 4, 1941, established a temporary price of $2.70 per ton. At the hearing, witness N. E. Cross, Secretary to District Board 13, contended on behalf of District Board 13 that the proper price should be $2.65 per ton. Witness Cross explained that both of these mines operate in the Pratt Seam in Walker County, Alabama, and were not to be confused with the mines operating in the Pratt Seam in Jefferson County, Alabama, for the reason that the all-rail prices, including vessel fuel, are generally higher for Pratt seam mines operating in Jefferson County than for those operating in the same seam in Walker County. It appears that there is a material difference in the quality of coal mined from this seam in the two counties. Furthermore, the witness stated that a price of $2.65 per ton would relate these mines to other Walker County, Pratt Seam mines, such as Mine Index No. 70, whereas $2.70 per ton would relate these mines to other Pratt Seam mines located in Jefferson County. In view of the nature of the coals produced at the Riverside and the Winn-Pratt No. 1 Mines, it appears that this 5-cent differential is necessary in order to permit the Pratt Seam coals produced by Walker County mines to maintain their existing fair competitive opportunities. Therefore, I find that $2.65 per ton is proper and should be permanently established.

Upon the basis of the uncontroverted testimony in this proceeding, I find and conclude that the establishment of such price classifications and effective minimum prices as set forth in Supplements R-I and R-II, annexed hereto, effectuates the purposes of sections 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and complies in all respects with the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That commencing fifteen (15) days from the date hereof, § 333.6 (General prices), and § 333.7 (Special prices—Prices for shipment by railroad, applicable to all coal sold for steamship vessel fuel) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 13 For All Shipments Except Truck be and it is hereby amended in accordance with the classifications and minimum prices set forth in Supplements R-I and R-II, annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

PART 339—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 19

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 19 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 19 FOR TRUCK SHIPMENT

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 19 for truck shipment; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 339.4 (Code member price index) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 339.21 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 7, 1942.

FEBRUARY 23, 1942.

General License No. 42 [1] is amended to read as follows:

§ 131.42 General License No. 42. (a) A general license is hereby granted:

(1) Licensing as a generally licensed national any individual residing in the United States on February 23, 1942, and

(2) Licensing as a generally licensed national any partnership, association, corporation or other organization which is a national of a foreign country designated in the Order solely by reason of the interest therein of a person or persons licensed as generally licensed nationals pursuant to this general license.

(b) The following provisions shall govern the filing of reports under this general license:

(1) Before effecting any transaction pursuant to this general license, the following persons licensed herein as generally licensed nationals shall file a report in triplicate on Form TFR–42 with the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank:

(i) Every individual who was not residing in the United States on June 17, 1940; and

(ii) Every partnership, association, corporation or other organization which prior to February 23, 1942, was not a generally licensed national solely by reason of the interest of an individual or individuals referred to in (i) above.

Any person failing to comply with this reporting requirement is not authorized to engage in any transaction pursuant to this general license.

(2) Individuals and other persons licensed herein as generally licensed nationals and not falling within classes referred to in 2 (a) need not file reports on Form TFR–42.

(3) This general license shall not be deemed to suspend, cancel, or otherwise modify in any way the requirements of the Order and regulations relating to reports on Form TFR–300 with respect to the property interests of certain persons licensed herein as generally licensed nationals: Provided, however, That if reports on TFR–300 were not, prior to February 23, 1942, required to be filed in any case or class of cases, such reports are not required to be filed pursuant to this general license.

(c) This general license shall not be deemed to license as a generally licensed national:

(1) Any individual who on or since the effective date of the Order has acted or purported to act directly or indirectly for the benefit or on behalf of any blocked country, including the government thereof;

(2) Any individual who is a national of a blocked country by reason of any fact other than that such individual has been domiciled in, or a subject, citizen, or resident of a blocked country at any time on or since the effective date of the Order;

(3) Any individual who enters a blocked country after February 23, 1942; or

(4) Any national of Japan. Nationals of Japan shall continue to be governed by the provisions of General License No. 68A in so far as General License No. 68A may be applicable. CHAPTER IX—WAR PRODUCTION BOARD

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

PART 903—DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

Paragraph (b) of Supplementary Directive No. 1A (§ 903.2),[1] issued February 2, 1942, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) As used in this Supplementary Directive, the term "new passenger automobiles" means any 1942 model passenger automobile having a seating capacity of not more than 10 persons, irrespective of the number of miles it has been driven, or any other passenger automobile which has been driven less than 1,000 miles, including other body types such as ambulances, hearses, station wagons and taxis, built upon a standard or lengthened passenger car chassis. (E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329, E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 567; Sec. 2(a), Pub. No. 671, 76th Cong. 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. No. 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.; W.P.B. Dir. No. 1, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 562)

Issued this 21st day of February 1942.

SUBCHAPTER B—DIVISION OF INDUSTRY OPERATIONS

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

Interpretation No. 1 of § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 [2] as Amended

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the Director of Industry Operations with respect to § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended December 23, 1941.

Any inventory of any grade of wood pulp in excess of sixty days' supply of that grade, on the basis of current method and rate of operation during any ninety continuous working days of the previous six months, stored either at a plant or in separate warehouses, shall be deemed to be in excess of a "practicable minimum working inventory": Provided, however, That this interpretation shall not apply to pulp held for the manufacture of products for Ordnance purposes or to pulp held for delivery under the Lend-Lease Act of March 11, 1941.

Issued this 20th day of February 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

PART 989—DOMESTIC MECHANICAL REFRIGERATORS

Interpretation No. 2 of Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–b

The following interpretation is hereby issued by the Director of Industry Operations with respect to § 989.3, Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–b,[1] dated February 14, 1942.

New Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators which were sold, leased and traded, but not delivered, shipped or transferred prior to 10:00 A. M., Eastern War Time, February 14, 1942, may not be delivered, shipped or transferred unless such delivery, shipment or transfer is made pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (a) (1), or unless such refrigerators were actually in transit at 10:00 A. M., Eastern War Time, February 14, 1942.

Issued this 23rd day of February, 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

February 14, 1942 to April 30, 1942, inclusive:

(1) No Manufacturer shall produce more Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators than three times the number of such Refrigerators which he could produce under the provisions of paragraph (a) of Supplementary Limitation Order L–5–a during either month of January or February, 1942.

(2) The ratio of Deluxe Models to all other models of Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators produced by any Manufacturer shall not exceed the ratio of Deluxe Models to all other models of Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators produced by him during the period from August 1, 1941 to January 31, 1942, inclusive.

(3) From its effective date the provisions of this Order shall supersede the provisions of Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–a.

(c) Governmental orders included in the foregoing restrictions. The restrictions of paragraphs (a) and (b) above, shall apply to the production of all Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators, including those required to fulfill contracts or orders coming under the provisions of Paragraph (c) of Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–a, as amended January 6, 1942.

(d) Replacement parts. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to prohibit or limit the production of replacement parts for Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators.

(e) Definition. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Deluxe Model" means any Domestic Mechanical Refrigerator of the type customarily known as a "Deluxe," "Semi-Deluxe," or "High-Humidity" model.

(f) Effective date. This Order shall take effect on the date of its issuance and shall continue in effect until revoked.

Issued this 23d day of February 1942.

PART 1013—CHLORINATED RUBBER

Amendment No. 1 to General Preference Order No. M–46 To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Chlorinated Rubber

Section 1013.1 (General Preference Order No. M–46[1]) is hereby amended in the following particulars:

Paragraph (f) is hereby relettered and made paragraph (i).

A new paragraph (f) is hereby added to read as follows:

§ 1013.1 General Preference Order M–46.

• • • • •

(f) Restrictions on use. Except as may be otherwise directed by the Director of Industry Operations, on and after the effective date hereof,

(1) No person shall use Chlorinated Rubber for a use not specified below:

(i) As a paint, for interior use (not including floor coating) in industrial plants where resistance to chemical corrosion is required. As a paint, for interior use in arsenals. For marine use in ship-bottom and submarine paints.

(ii) For flame-proofing fabric for military tents, tarpaulins and other fabric for military use.

(iii) For tracer bullets.

(iv) For adhering natural and synthetic rubber articles to metal.

(v) For electrical insulation.

(2) No person shall knowingly deliver Chlorinated Rubber for a use not specified in paragraph (f) (1) above.

(3) The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall apply with respect to stocks of Chlorinated Rubber on hand on the effective date of this Order. Persons who have stocks of Chlorinated Rubber on hand on said date, the use of which said stocks is prohibited by provisions of this paragraph (f), shall forthwith report such fact and the details thereof to the Chemicals Branch, War Production Board, and shall hold such Chlorinated Rubber for disposition by the Director of Industry Operations.

A new paragraph (g) is hereby added to read as follows:

(g) Notification of consumers. Producers shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular consumers of the requirements and restrictions contained in this Order, but the failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person for the obligation of complying with the terms of this Order.

A new paragraph (h) is hereby added to read as follows:

(h) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Chlorinated Rubber conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference: M–46, attention Chemicals Branch, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942; 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527, sec. 2(a), Pub. No. 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. PART 1116—SHOTGUNS

Limitation Order No. L–55 to Restrict the Manufacture and Sale of Shotguns

Whereas national defense requirements have created a shortage of shotguns for plant patrol and other local guard duties, and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof; and

Whereas it is expected that Government orders for large numbers of 12-gauge shotguns will be placed, and it is desired that all manufacturers thereof convert to and utilize for the manufacture of such shotguns all facilities which can be so converted or used;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1116.1 Limitation Order L–55—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Shotgun" means single barrel, double barrel, repeating, riot, pump and any other type of Shotgun of any gauge whatsoever.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of Shotguns.

(b) Prohibition of sales. From and after the effective date of this Order no manufacturer shall sell, deliver, ship, transfer or otherwise dispose of any 12-gauge shotgun (whether produced before or after the effective date of this Order) except:

(i) For Government use only to any Agency, Department, Office, or Officer of the Federal Government or of any state or local government; or pursuant to orders placed by the government of the United Kingdom, Canada, and other Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates of the British Empire, Belgium, China, Greece, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia and Yugoslavia; or for the account of any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act);

(ii) That any such shotguns actually in transit on the effective date of this Order may be delivered to their immediate destination;

(iii) Pursuant to a specific order to the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Prohibition of manufacture. From and after the effective date of this order no person shall, except pursuant to specific order of the Director of Industry Operations:

(1) Use any machinery, machine tools, dies, jigs, fixtures or other equipment which could be used to assemble or manufacture a 12-gauge shotgun or any part thereof, or any part which could be used therein, for the purpose of assembling or manufacturing any shotgun other than a 12-gauge shotgun or any part thereof, or any part to be used therein.

(2) Manufacture during the period February 23 to February 28 inclusive, more shotguns other than 12-gauge shotguns than 50% of 5/365 of the aggregate number of such guns manufactured by such person during the calendar year 1940.

(3) Manufacture during the month of March 1942 or in any calendar month thereafter more shotguns other than 12-gauge shotguns than 50% of one-twelfth of the aggregate number of such guns manufactured by such person during the calendar year 1940.

(d) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this Order shall keep and preserve for not less than 2 years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

(f) Reports. All persons affected by this Order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this Order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representative of the War Production Board.

(h) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this Order or who willfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this Order, or otherwise willfully furnishes false information to the War Production Board may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the War Production Board from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The War Production Board may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80).

(i) Appeal. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action, if any, as it deems appropriate by the amendment of this Order or otherwise.

(j) Communications. All communications concerning this Order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–55.

(k) Effective date. This Order shall take effect at 9:00 A. M. Eastern War Time of the date of its issuance. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 1041—PRODUCTION, REFINING, TRANSPORTATION, AND MARKETING OF PETROLEUM

Amendment No. 1 to Preference Rating Order No. P–98[1]

1. Section 1041.1 (Preference Rating Order No. P–98, paragraph (e) (2)) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(2) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (e) (1), the Operator (but not a Supplier) in order to apply any of the preference ratings of A–2 or higher assigned by paragraph (b) of this Order, other than ratings assigned by paragraphs (b) (1) (ii) and (b) (2) (iv) hereof, must communicate with the Office of Petroleum Coordinator, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–98, supplying in detail the following information:

(i) date of actual breakdown or suspension of operations (if applicable);

(ii) the equipment to be repaired and its operating importance (if applicable);

(iii) the Material and quantity thereof necessary to effectuate the Repair or to initiate or maintain operations;

(iv) the supply of the necessary Material which the Operator has on hand or available; and

(v) the names and addresses of Suppliers from whom the Material is to be obtained and the earliest delivery dates assured by any such Supplier for delivery of the minimum necessary quantity of Material.

The Director of Industry Operations will notify the Operator whether, and to what extent, the application is approved. A copy of such notification shall be furnished by the Operator to any Supplier to evidence the proper rating granted pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

2. Section 1041.1 (Preference Rating Order No. P–98, paragraph (e) (3)) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(3) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (e) (1), the Operator (but not a Supplier) in order to apply any preference ratings, other than those of A–2 or higher assigned by paragraph (b) of this Order, must obtain the countersignature of the Director in Charge of the nearest District Office of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator upon the purchase order which such Supplier has endorsed and signed pursuant to paragraphs (e) (1); unless,

PART 1110—GOOSE AND DUCK FEATHERS

Conservation Order M–102—To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Goose and Duck Feathers

Whereas the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of goose and duck feathers for the combined needs of defense, private account, and export, rendering it necessary that all goose and duck feathers be used in the manufacture of products for the armed forces of the United States; and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the National Defense to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of goose and duck feathers in the manner hereafter in this Order provided:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1110.1 General conservation order M–102—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Goose Feathers" means goose feathers and goose down, both domestic and imported, which have been plucked.

(2) "Duck Feathers" means duck feathers and duck down, both domestic and imported, which have been plucked.

(3) "Dealer" means any person who purchases, sorts, grades, and resells goose feathers or duck feathers.

(c) Restrictions on sales and deliveries of goose and duck feathers. No person except Defense Supplies Corporation shall hereafter sell or deliver any goose or duck feathers as such except to a Dealer, Defense Supplies Corporation or a manufacturer for use by such manufacturer in filling Defense Orders having a preference rating of A–1–j or better.

(d) Restrictions on use of goose and duck feathers. No person shall hereafter use any goose or duck feathers in the

(i) any completely fabricated, individual item to which a preference rating is to be applied has a cost to the Operator of $500 or less; and

(ii) the rating which is to be applied in obtaining delivery of such an item is assigned by paragraphs (b) (1) (iv); (b) (2) (v), (vi) or (vii); (b) (3) (ii), (iii), (iv); or (b) (4) (i) or (ii).

3. This amendment shall take effect immediately.

Issued this 20th day of February 1942.

CHAPTER XI—OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

PART 1343—FATS AND OILS AND THEIR PRODUCTS

ORDER REVOKING SCHEDULE NO. 25—ELIMINATION OF SPECULATIVE AND INFLATIONARY PRICE PRACTICES WITH RESPECT TO FATS AND OILS AND THEIR PRODUCTS

Schedule 25 [1] was issued on August 28, 1941, by the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply for the purpose of preventing speculation, hoarding, and undue price rises through the elimination and regulation of certain trade practices. On February 3, 1942, Amendment No. 2 to Price Schedule No. 53 [2] was issued by the Office of Price Administration, establishing maximum prices upon fats and oils and their products. Schedule No. 25 is no longer necessary to effectuate the above purposes. Therefore, under the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, it is hereby directed that:

Sections 1343.1 to 1343.11, inclusive, Schedule No. 25, is hereby revoked. (Pub., No. 421, 77th Cong. 2d Sess.)

This Order of Revocation is effective February 23, 1942. Issued this 23d day of February 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

PART 1367—FERTILIZERS

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 1—MIXED FERTILIZER, SUPERPHOSPHATES AND POTASH

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to issue a temporary regulation establishing as a maximum price or maximum prices for mixed fertilizer, superphosphate and potash, the price or prices prevailing with respect thereto within five (5) days prior to the date of issuance of such temporary regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration, this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 is hereby issued.

§ 1367.1 Maximum prices for mixed fertilizer, superphosphate and potash. (a) On and after February 27, 1942, to and including April 27, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer at prices higher than the maximum prices established herein.

(b) (1) The maximum price shall be the price as set forth in either (i) (a) the written or printed price schedule or list last issued, prior to February 21, 1942, and effective for any portion of the period from and including February 16, 1942, to and including February 20, 1942, by the manufacturer of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash being sold, or (b) the written or printed schedule or list last issued, circulated or displayed, prior to February 16, 1942, and effective for any portion of the period from and including February 16, 1942, to and including February 20, 1942, by the person making the sale (including a dealer, agent or other person). This price shall be the price stated in such schedule or list for a sale (ii) (a) to a consumer in the locality, (b) of the same quantity, grade and kind of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, (c) delivered in the same type of container or bag, (d) under the same terms of payment (time, cash, etc.), and (e) by the same methods and under the same conditions of delivery.

(2) Instead of the maximum price set forth in subparagraph (1) above, the maximum price may be the "average price" charged either by the manufacturer of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash being sold, or by the person making the sale (including a dealer, agent or other person), upon "sales of the same type" for the period from and including February 16, 1942 to and including February 20, 1942, minus any customary allowances for transportation or otherwise. The "average price" shall be the price obtained by dividing the total of the prices charged during that five-day period upon "sales of the same type" (before deduction of any transportation or other allowances) by the amount of goods so sold. "Sales of the same type" means sales (i) to a consumer in the same locality, (ii) of the same quantity, grade and kind of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, (iii) delivered in the same type of container or bag, (iv) under the same terms of payment (time, cash, etc.), and (v) by the same methods and under the same conditions of delivery.

The manufacturer or other person making the sale (including a dealer or an agent) may use either the maximum price established by this subparagraph (2) or the maximum price established by subparagraph (1) above.

(3) If there is no applicable maximum price under either subparagraph (1) or (2) above, then the maximum price shall be the price as set forth in the written or printed price schedule last issued, prior to February 21, 1942, and effective for any portion of the period from and including February 16, 1942, to and including February 20, 1942, by any manufacturer of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash. This price shall be the price stated in such schedule or list for a sale (i) to a consumer in the same locality, (ii) of the same quantity, grade and kind of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, (iii) delivered in the same type of container or bag, (iv) under the same terms of payment (time, cash, etc.), and (v) by the same methods and under the same conditions of delivery.

(c) On and after February 27, 1942, to and including April 27, 1942, no person shall sell or contract to sell mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer for delivery after April 27, 1942, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in paragraph (b) above, or accomplish such result by postponing until after such date the acceptance or fulfillment of any order received prior thereto. No person shall establish terms of payment or conditions of delivery in connection with the sale of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer, more onerous than those in effect or available to such consumer for the period from and including February 16, 1942, to and including February 20, 1942. No person shall offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing, or offer or attempt to sell or deliver mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in paragraph (b) above.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries to consumers of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, received prior to February 27, 1942, by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the person making the sale (including a dealer, agent or other person) for shipment to a consumer.*

§ 1367.3 Conditional agreements. On and after February 27, to and including April 27, 1942, no person shall agree to sell or deliver mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer at a price higher than the maximum price set forth in § 1367.1 (b) above, nor shall any person make an agreement which would provide for adjustment of the price to a price higher than such maximum price in the event that this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 is hereafter amended or invalidated by a Court, or provide for such adjustment upon any other condition.*

§ 1367.4 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding: Provided, however, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the granting of any customary allowances or discounts for transportation, quantity or otherwise, or the charging of prices lower than the maximum prices established by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1.*

§ 1367.5 Records and reports. (a) Every person (including an agent) making a sale of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer during the period from and including February 16, 1942, to and including April 27, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than two years, complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing the date thereof; the name and address of the buyer, of the person (including an agent) making the sale, and of the manufacturer of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash; the quantity, grade and kind of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash sold; the bags or containers in which delivered; the price charged or received therefor; the terms of payment (time, cash, etc.); and the method and conditions of delivery.

(b) Not later than March 5, 1942, every manufacturer of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, who is engaged in the business of selling the same to consumers, whether by or through any agent or other person, shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., one copy of each and every written or printed price schedule, whether temporary or permanent, issued by him in connection with the sale thereof to consumers from and after November 1, 1940, until February 27, 1942, together with all written or printed amendments and supplements to any of such schedules; and from and after February 27, 1942, each such person shall continue, until further notice, to file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., one copy of any and all such price schedules, and supplements and amendments thereto, whose issuance is thereafter contemplated, at least five (5) business days prior to the contemplated effective date thereof. Neither such filing, nor the failure to object to the contents thereof, shall constitute authorization therefor, or approval thereof, by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Not later than March 5, 1942, every manufacturer of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, who is engaged in the business of selling the same to consumers, shall mail or cause to be mailed, to his agents, written notice of the issuance and terms of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 and a direction to comply therewith. Such manufacturer shall also, not later than March 10, 1942, notify the Office of Price Administration in writing that he has mailed or caused to be mailed such written notice and direction.

Persons affected by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1367.6 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 will be subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 or of any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest Field or Regional Office or the principal office of the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1367.7 Export sales. The maximum prices established by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 shall not apply to sales of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash for delivery to persons in a foreign country or in a territory or possession of the United States.*

§ 1367.8 Import sales. The maximum prices established by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 shall not apply to sales of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in a foreign country for delivery to the United States or to a territory or possession of the United States, or to the resale thereof, after such importation, to persons in the United States, or a territory or possession of the United States.*

§ 1367.10 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 1, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, farmers' or consumers' cooperative or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person who produces, mixes, or processes, or who markets for his own account and under his own brand or trade name, mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, potash or nitrogenous material for use as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(3) "Consumer" means a person purchasing mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash for use in aiding the growth of crops or plants (and not for resale).

(4) "Mixed fertilizer" means any substance containing any two, or more, of potash, superphosphate, and nitrogenous material, when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(5) "Superphosphate" means any product which is obtained by mixing rock phosphate with either sulphuric acid or phosphoric acid or with both acids, when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(6) "Potash" means muriate, chloride, or sulphate of potash, manure salts and any other substance containing potassium oxide (K_2O), when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(7) "Nitrogenous material" means any organic or inorganic substance containing nitrogen, when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants, except when so marketed or sold without the admixture of any potash or superphosphate.

(8) "Grade" means the minimum guarantee of the plant food content of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, or potash, expressed in terms of nitrogen, available phosphoric acid, and water soluble potash, e. g. 4-8-4, 3-8-5, etc.

[2] 7 F.R. 756.

(9) "Kind" as distinguished from the term "grade" refers only to mixed fertilizer and means the substances, and the proportions thereof, containing the guaranteed plant food content of mixed fertilizer, as, for example, in the case of nitrogenous material, 80% inorganic and 20% insoluble organic nitrogen; or in the case of potash, 75% sulphate of potash and 25% muriate of potash.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

Issued this 21st day of February 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Price Administrator.

PART 1377—WOODEN CONTAINERS

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 2—USED EGG CASES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 to establish temporarily as the maximum prices for used egg cases the prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the issuance of this Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 is hereby issued.

§ 1377.1 Maximum prices for used egg cases. (a) On and after February 23, 1942, to and including April 22, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no egg case emptier, or used egg case dealer, trucker, peddler, or retailer shall sell or deliver used egg cases, and no person shall buy or receive used egg cases in the course of trade or business from such sellers at prices higher than the maximum prices established in this Section; and no such person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of used egg cases to a purchaser if prior to February 23, 1942, such cases had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(b) The maximum price for used egg cases sold by an egg case emptier, or a used egg case dealer, trucker, or peddler shall be as follows:

(1) For a No. 1 used egg case, which is hereby defined as a case (i) ready to be used by an egg producer, (ii) sound and firm throughout, with no broken parts, (iii) clean or reasonably clean on the outside, (iv) clean and free of all stains on the inside, (v) free of all odors, (vi) having a one or two piece full cover, and (vii) with a full complement of clean, sound (unbroken), unstained, standard flats and fillers, the maximum price f. o. b. the point from which the case is transported to the purchaser shall be 22¢ if the case is transported to the purchaser from within the Eastern area and 26¢ if the case is transported to the purchaser from within the Mid-continent area.

(2) For a No. 2 used egg case, which is hereby defined as a case (i) ready to be used by an egg producer, (ii) sound and reasonably firm, (iii) free from odor and reasonably clean on the inside, (iv) having a one or two piece full cover, and (v) with a full complement of reasonably clean, sound, standard flats and fillers, the maximum price f. o. b. the point from which the case is transported to the purchaser shall be 17¢ if the case is transported to the purchaser from within the Eastern area and 21¢ if the case is transported to the purchaser from within the Mid-continent area.

(3) For a No. 3 used egg case, which is hereby defined as a case which does not meet the requirements (as herein provided) of a No. 1 or No. 2 case, the maximum price f. o. b. the point from which the case is transported to the purchaser shall be 12¢ if the case is transported to the purchaser from within the Eastern area and 16¢ if the case is transported to the purchaser from within the Mid-continent area.

(c) A delivered price in excess of the maximum price established in paragraph (b) hereof may be charged by an egg case emptier, or a used egg case dealer, trucker, or peddler, consisting of such maximum price plus transportation charges to the extent that transportation costs are paid or incurred by the seller in delivering the case to the purchaser; such transportation costs must be shown as a separate item in the billing or invoice.

(d) The maximum price for used egg cases sold by a retailer who purchases such cases from an egg case emptier or a used egg case dealer, trucker, or peddler, and who distributes such cases to egg producers or egg gatherers, shall be the total price paid for the case by the retailer plus 3¢.*

* §§ 1377.1 to 1377.8, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub., No. 421, 77th Cong. 2d Sess.

§ 1377.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1377.1 hereof may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1377.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of used egg cases, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.*

§ 1377.4 Records and reports. Every person making purchases or sales subject to this Regulation of used egg cases after February 23, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of two years complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale showing the date thereof, the name and the address of the buyer or seller, the price paid or received, and the quantity of each grade of used egg case purchased or sold.

Persons affected by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1377.5 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 will be subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 or any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1377.6 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

(1) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) The term "egg case emptier" means any person who unpacks a case of eggs.

(3) The term "used egg case dealer" means any person who purchases used egg cases and (i) resells such cases after such warehousing and/or re-conditioning as may be necessary to meet trade requirements, or (2) acts as a broker of used egg cases and resells such cases without further handling.

(4) The term "trucker" of used egg cases means any person who transports by motor carrier used egg cases from egg case emptiers, or used egg case dealers or peddlers, to egg producers or retailers of used egg cases.

(5) The term "peddler" of used egg cases means any person who collects used egg cases and sells such cases without reconditioning or warehousing.

(6) The term "retailer" of used egg cases means any person other than an egg case emptier or used egg case dealer, trucker, or peddler, as herein defined, who operates in a rural egg producing area an establishment which renders the service of supplying used egg cases to egg producers in that area.

(7) The term "used egg cases" means standard wooden containers designed to pack 30 dozen average size eggs.

(8) The term "Eastern area" means the states of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and the District of Columbia.

(9) The term "Mid-continent area" means the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, and Kansas.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

§ 1377.8 Effective date. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 (§§ 1377.1 to 1377.8, inclusive) shall become effective on February 23, 1942 and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire April 22, 1942.

Issued this 21st day of February 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Price Administrator.

CHAPTER XVI—OFFICE OF CENSORSHIP

PART 1801—CABLE AND RADIO CENSORSHIP REGULATIONS

U. S. CABLE AND RADIO CENSORSHIP REGULATIONS[1]

Sec.
1801.1 Discretion of censor.
1801.2 Transmission to enemy-occupied territory.
1801.3 Information regarding delivery.
1801.4 Proper address.
1801.5 Cable addresses.
1801.6 Supplementary address information.
1801.7 Signature.
1801.8 Text.
1801.9 Languages permitted.
1801.10 Commercial codes.
1801.11 Test words.
1801.12 Information required from sender.
1801.13 Unrelated numbers in text.
1801.14 Serial numbers.
1801.15 Delivery of radiograms to ships.
1801.16 Stock market daily reports.
1801.17 Financial transactions.
1801.18 Subjects excluded.
1801.19 Messages to naval and military personnel.

§ 1801.1 Discretion of censor. All messages will be accepted for transmission at the sender's risk, and may be stopped, delayed, or otherwise dealt with at the discretion of the censor, without notice to the sender.*

§ 1801.2 Transmission to enemy-occupied territory. No message will be accepted for transmission to territory under enemy occupation, unless the communication is a government message to or from one of the other American Republics, or unless special license has been granted by the Office of Censorship to send the message.*

§ 1801.3 Information regarding delivery. Service involving notification by the company to the sender as to the fact or time of delivery of any international message is suspended except for international press dispatches. Inquiries at Censorship Stations regarding messages can not be handled by telephone.

Patrons filing "reply prepaid" messages, and communication companies which accept "collect" messages, must do so at their own risk, since no information regarding deliveries can be given and thus no refunds made.*

§ 1801.4 Proper address. On every message there must be an address which will clearly identify the addressee for whom the message is intended.

Except where a cable address is permitted under these regulations, the address must be in plain language. The use of an abbreviation of the entire postal address, provided such abbreviation is sufficient in itself to insure the identification of the addressee by the censors through whose hands the message will pass, is not prohibited; but all abbreviations of address are used at the risk of the senders, and Censorship can give no assurance that any specific abbreviation will suffice in all cases to insure identification of the addressee or ready delivery of the message.

The names of large or well-known buildings such as banks, hotels, etc., are sufficient without street addresses.*

§ 1801.6 Supplementary address information. Full name and full address as used in this section, in either (a) or (b) below, shall be understood to mean given name, middle initials, and surname; street and number, or name of office building; and town or city, with name of State or country where necessary to avoid ambiguity.

The following supplementary information will not be transmitted as a part of the message, but may, by direction of the sender and on payment by him of the landline toll, be transmitted as far as the station of the first cable censor to act on the message:

(a) Addressee. When any cable address or any abbreviation of a plain language address is used in a message, the full name and full address of the addressee must also be recorded on the manuscript form on which such message is filed with the communication company.

If the message is addressed to an individual acting on behalf of a firm or other organization, the name and address of such firm or organization, and the addressee's connection with it, must appear on the form as well as the name and address of the addressee.

(b) Sender. In addition to the signature required on the message, the full name and full address of the sender must be recorded, as supplementary information, on the manuscript form on which each message is filed with the communication company.

When a frequent patron of the cables or radio changes his address, it will expedite his traffic to give both the old and the new address on two or three of his first dispatches sent from the new address.

If the message is signed by an individual acting in behalf of a firm or organization, or by an abbreviated form of the name of that organization, the full name and full address of that organization must also be given on the form.

(c) The name of the commodity, if any, involved in the message, must be stated on the form, and should be stated in the text of the message.*

§ 1801.7 Signature. All messages must be signed.

The signature transmitted should, when considered in connection with the text and the addressee, be such as to identify the sender clearly, and distinguish him from any other individual, firm or organization with a similar name.

The transmitted signature of an individual must consist of the surname at least. Such signatures as "Father", "Aunt Bess", or a nickname, will not be accepted.

The transmitted signature of a firm or organization must be sufficiently complete to identify it clearly. The name of a responsible member of the firm or officer of the organization may be used, provided satisfactory information regarding him is made available to the censor.

A cable address as signature is not permitted, but where a surname or the name of an organization is also registered, the fact that it is so registered will not preclude its use as a signature.*

§ 1801.8 Text. Messages will not be passed unless the meaning of the text is clear to the censor.

Single-word texts satisfy this requirement only in rare instances, and then only with appreciable delay necessary for inquiry or investigation.

Messages consisting of address and signature only, with no text, are not permitted.*

§ 1801.9 Language permitted. All plain language messages must be in English, French, Portuguese, or Spanish. However, all press dispatches should be

[1] 7 F.R. 971.

[1] Strict compliance with the regulations in this part, while required, will not insure the passage of any message either by the United States or foreign censorships. Senders of messages should keep themselves informed as to foreign censorship rules through the operating companies.

filed in English; otherwise they may be subject to delay. Transit traffic may be in any plain language which is acceptable at destination.

Legitimate terms or words common in any profession or trade may be used if intelligible to the censor and not susceptible to double meaning as used.*

§ 1801.10 Commercial codes. The use of the following commercial codes is permitted in terminal traffic:

Name of code	Indicating symbol
ABC Sixth Edition	ABC.
ACME Code and Supplement	ACME.
Bentley's Complete Phrase Code	BENCOM.
Bentley's Second Phrase Code	BENSEC.
Lombard General Code	LOMGEN.
Lombard shipping Code and Appendix.	LOMSHIP.
New Standard Half Word Code	STANHAF.
New Standard Three Letter Code	STANTER.
Peterson's Third Edition	PET.

In every coded message the code used must be indicated by placing the appropriate indicating symbol in the heading of the message. The symbol is not a chargeable word so used.

Cable and radio patrons should ascertain from the communication companies whether the code is acceptable by the censorship, if any, at the destination of the message.

The use of private codes is not permitted except by special license granted by the Director of Censorship. Such licenses cannot be granted unless the licensee is in a position to furnish fifteen copies of the code book for the use of censors.

The use of code words from catalogues and price lists cannot be permitted since there is little likelihood that they can be made intelligible to the censor. (See § 1801.8)

It is advised that those issuing catalogues or price lists containing code words mark them with a statement as follows:

"During the continuance of the U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship, these code words are not permitted in cablegrams."*

§ 1801.11 Test words. Banks and other business institutions which have previously used test words in the conduct of their business may continue to use test words in transmitting international messages: Provided, however, That the Office of Censorship may, at any time, and without notice, withdraw such privilege: And provided further, That any user of test words shall at any time furnish such information pertinent to his international communications as may be required by the Office of Censorship.

Any bank or business institution desiring to obtain the privilege of using test words in transmitting its international messages may apply to the Office of Censorship, but before such privilege is granted, and at any time thereafter, must furnish such information as may be required by the Office of Censorship.*

Any information which the sender may consider necessary to make the meaning of his cablegram or radiogram clear to the censor may be imparted in a prepaid domestic telegram addressed to the censor having jurisdiction. This telegram ("Memorandum Message") should be filed with the cablegram or radiogram to which it refers.*

§ 1801.13 Unrelated numbers in text. Numbers that are unrelated to the text and not easily understandable to the censor are not permitted, whether expressed in plain figures or by code words translating into plain figures.*

§ 1801.14 Serial numbers. Serial numbers in messages are subject to deletion, but may, at the sender's risk, be included as the first word on the message, when they can be easily understood by the censor and plainly do not convey a hidden meaning.*

§ 1801.15 Delivery of radiograms to ships. Due to restrictions on the use of radio by ships at sea, there can be no assurance of immediate delivery of, or reply to, radiograms addressed by the public to seagoing vessels.*

§ 1801.16 Stock market daily reports. Routine stock market daily reports (including curb market, cotton, grain, and similar market reports) will be expedited by the censor the same as press dispatches when received from properly recognized and trustworthy agencies. However, reports concerning individual transactions and messages between brokers, dealers, firms, and individuals relative to bids, offers, acceptances, inquiries, quotations, etc., shall be subject to all of the regulations in this part.*

§ 1801.17 Financial transactions. In connection with any messages relating to financial transactions, the censor may require complete information relative to the identity of the payor and payee, and the ultimate purpose of the transaction.*

§ 1801.18 Subjects excluded. Except in press dispatches (for which separate regulations have been issued), no reference, either open or hidden, will be made to any of the following subjects in any international communication:

(a) The location, identity, description, movement or prospective movement of any merchant vessel, aircraft, naval or military vessel or naval or military force, including the collective or individual personnel thereof, operated by the United States or other nations opposing the Axis powers. Messages pertaining to the shipment of material or movements of vessels must be so worded as not to associate any two of the following elements: (1) The name of the vessel; (2) the nature of the cargo; and (3) the name of port or arrival or departure. The specific date of arrival or departure on any present or future voyage is not permitted, but approximate date may be used, employing such expressions as "next week", or "late next month", etc. No such expression shall be more specific than one week's time. This applies to American, anti-Axis, and Neutral ships alike.

(b) The location, identity, description, test, performance, production, movement or prospective movement, of defensive or offensive weapons, installations, supplies, material, or equipment of the United States or other anti-Axis nations.

(c) The location, description, production, capacity, or specific output of existing or proposed private or government-owned or -controlled plants, yards, docks, dams, structures, experimental or other facilities, or to contracts, plans, and rates of industrial activity in connection therewith.

This extends to any process, synthesis, or operation in the production, manufacture, or reconstruction of any article the export of which is prohibited or limited by the Government.

(d) The civil, military, industrial, financial, or economic plans of the United States or other countries opposing the Axis powers, or the personal or official plans of any official thereof.

(e) The employment of any naval, military, or civil defense unit of the United States or other anti-Axis nations.

(f) Reports on production and conditions in the mining, lumbering, fishing, livestock, and farming industries, and shortages or surpluses in connection therewith.

(g) Weather conditions (past, present, or forecast).

(h) The effect of enemy operations or casualties to personnel or material, suffered by the United States or other anti-Axis nations, until the information is officially released.

(i) The fact or effect of our military or naval operations against the enemy, until the information is officially released.

(j) The number, description, location, or identity of prisoners of war.

(k) Criticism of equipment, appearance, physical condition or morale of the collective or individual armed forces of the United States or other nations opposing the Axis powers.

(l) Any data whatever concerning military or naval communication or intelligence methods or results.

(m) Any other matter, the dissemination of which might directly or indirectly bring aid or comfort to the enemy, or which might interfere with the national effort of, or disparage the foreign relations of, the United States or other anti-Axis nations.*

§ 1801.19 Messages to military and naval personnel. Due to the necessity of avoiding disclosure of the location of military and naval units, personal messages to naval personnel afloat or military personnel in the field, may be subject to considerable delay. At times it may be necessary, due to the exigencies of the situation, not to accept radio messages to such personnel.*

PART 1802—RADIOTELEPHONE CENSORSHIP REGULATIONS

U. S. RADIOTELEPHONE CENSORSHIP REGULATIONS [1]

Sec.

1802.1 Transmission to enemy-occupied territory.
1802.2 Call requirements.
1802.3 Calls, "person to person", "station to station".
1802.4 Calls from hotels.
1802.5 Calls from public pay stations.
1802.6 Languages permitted.
1802.7 Subjects excluded.
1802.8 Application of regulations to incoming calls.

§ 1802.1 Transmission to enemy-occupied territory. No communication will be established with anyone in a locality under enemy control.*

§ 1802.2 Call requirements. Before an outgoing international radiotelephone call can be completed, the patron must furnish the telephone operator with his full name, his home or business address, the number and address of the telephone instrument from which the call is put through, and the full name and address of the person called. If other than immediate service is desired, the patron may state the time at which he desires his call to be completed. Patrons will not be permitted to "hold the 'phone" while calls are being completed. It is permissible, if the censor is notified beforehand of the names and addresses of all persons participating, for personal conversations to be shared by various persons at either end of the line.*

§ 1802.3 Calls, "person to person," "station to station." Only "person to person" calls will be completed, except in certain cases where, in order to expedite legitimate business, permission may be granted to call a certain specifically named and located office or firm. Also, where the station addressed is suitably identified as a safe station, station-to-station calls may be permitted.*

§ 1802.4 Calls from hotels. Patrons calling from hotels must be identified by the hotel management or other known authority. They may call from any instrument in the hotel.*

§ 1802.5 Calls from public pay stations. Calls will not be completed from public pay stations or from other telephone stations where the person calling can not subsequently be identified.*

§ 1802.6 Languages permitted. The English, French, Spanish, and Portuguese languages will be permitted. Use of these foreign languages will be denied only in the event that translators are not available at the Censorship point.*

§ 1802.7 Subjects excluded. No reference, either open or hidden, will be made to any of the following subjects in any international communication:

(a) The location, identity, description, movement, or prospective movement of any merchant vessel, aircraft, naval or military vessel or naval or military force, including the collective or individual personnel thereof, operated by the United States or other nations opposing the Axis powers. Messages pertaining to the shipment of material or movements of vessels must be so worded as not to associate any two of the following elements: (1) The name of the vessel; (2) the nature of the cargo; and (3) the name of port or arrival or departure. This applies to American, anti-Axis, and Neutral ships alike.

(b) The location, identity, description, test, performance, production, movement or prospective movement, of defensive or offensive weapons, installations, supplies, material, or equipment of the United States or other anti-Axis nations.

(c) The location, description, production, capacity, or specific output of existing or proposed private or government-owned or controlled plants, yards, docks, dams, structures, experimental or other facilities, or to contracts, plans, and rates of industrial activity in connection therewith. This extends to any process, synthesis, or operation in the production, manufacture, or reconstruction of any article the export of which is prohibited or limited by the Government.

(d) The civil, military, industrial, financial, or economic plans of the United States or other countries opposing the Axis powers, or the personal or official plans of any official thereof.

(e) The employment of any naval, military, or civil defense unit of the United States or other anti-Axis nations.

(f) Reports on production and conditions in the mining, lumbering, fishing, livestock, and farming industries, and shortages or surpluses in connection therewith.

(g) Weather conditions (past, present, or forecast).

1803.24 Press dispatches.
1803.25 Statements to patrons by telephone operators.

The following instructions and rules for companies operating overseas cable and radio circuits and affiliated landwire companies concern the handling of international traffic, and are known as "Rules for Operating Companies". These rules affect only the relationship between the carriers and Censorship. It should be clearly understood that the rules are not intended to, nor do they have the effect of, authorizing action by the carriers which is in violation of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the rules, regulations and orders of the Federal Communications Commission promulgated thereunder, or the tariffs filed by the carriers with the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 1803.1 General provisions. Such landwire traffic as is involved in the handling of international cable or radio traffic between the point of entry to or departure from the country and the cable user is subject to control of Cable and Radio Censorship.

Throughout the rules in this part, the word "cable" or "cablegram" includes also "radio" or "radiogram".

Cable and Radio Censorship desires to interfere as little as possible with legitimate business, including the business and regular operations of the communication companies and their affiliates.*

§ 1803.2 Employees. All employees in contact with cable patrons, and all operating personnel at the sending and receiving apparatus must be thoroughly familiar with "U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship Regulations", and "U. S. Radiotelephone Censorship Regulations". They must be furnished also with such data on foreign censorship regulations as will best serve the interests of their patrons.*

§ 1803.3 Continental censorship stations and jurisdiction. Cable Censorship Stations have been established in New York, Miami, New Orleans, San Antonio, San Francisco, and Seattle, and will be established at Los Angeles and such other places as experience shall from time to time indicate to be necessary. The jurisdiction of each of these Cable Censorship Stations extends to all international traffic by cable, radio, ship-shore, radio, or other means, over the seaboard areas specified below:

(a) New York. The Atlantic seaboard north of the State of Georgia. Traffic to Mexico over the Galveston-Tampico-Vera Cruz cable of the Western Union Company shall be routed via New York for censoring.

(b) Miami. The seaboard of the States of Florida and Georgia.

(c) New Orleans. The seaboard of the States of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas.

(d) San Antonio. The Mexican Border of the State of Texas.

(e) San Francisco. The Pacific seaboard of the State of California.

(f) Seattle. The Pacific seaboard of the States of Washington and Oregon, and traffic to or from Alaska.*

NOTE: The jurisdiction of the Los Angeles station when established will include the Pacific Seaboard of the State of California south of and including Santa Barbara, the Mexican Borders of the States of California, Arizona, and New Mexico.

§ 1803.4 Overseas censors. Overseas Censors have been established in the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Guantanamo, Panama, Honolulu, Alaska, and Iceland.*

§ 1803.5 Field censors. Field Censors are established in the operating rooms of the commercial companies as a necessary contact with Censorship. Their duties are:

(a) To insure that Cable Censorship has acted upon all outgoing cable and radio traffic before transmission and upon all incoming cable and radio traffic before delivery. (See § 1803.7)

(b) To cooperate with the commercial companies to see that all readable messages comply with "U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship Regulations" before being submitted to the Censorship Stations.

(c) To cooperate with the commercial companies in preventing or mending mutilations.

(d) To pass on the commercial companies' "service" messages if communicated beyond the jurisdiction of the United States.

(e) Any other liaison required.*

§ 1803.6 Communications between censors and operating companies. (a) Censors will communicate directly with the officials of the commercial companies in their respective areas as regards:

(1) The enforcement of instructions, regulations, and rules already established.

(2) The establishment or adjustment of local routine arrangements not affecting other Censorship Stations or Censorship as a whole.

(b) All other communications between Cable Censorship and the commercial companies will be conducted by the Chief Cable Censor.*

§ 1803.7 Primary responsibility. (a) It is the primary responsibility of the commercial companies to see that all cablegrams are submitted to Cable Censorship for action either before being sent out of the country on any circuit, or before being delivered or further transmitted for delivery to the addressee after receipt in this country. Included also are abnormally routed cablegrams which might not otherwise have entered the jurisdiction of the United States.

(b) All transit traffic irrespective of code or language except traffic originating in or addressed to enemy-occupied territory will be passed by the Field Censor at the point of departure from continental United States. The Field Censor will retain "Ditto" copy. Transit traffic originating in or addressed to enemy-occupied territory shall pass through full censorship at the point of departure from the United States.*

§ 1803.8 Landlines and domestic radio circuits. Commercial companies operating landwire communication facilities within the jurisdiction of the United States will route all cable or radiograms as follows:

(a) Outgoing terminal international traffic. Outgoing terminal international traffic carried by landwire telegraph will be sent to the office of the cable or radio company where the message is to be transmitted out of the country. This company, before transmitting the message, will submit it, as provided in § 1803.7, for censoring to the Censorship Station having jurisdiction. (See §§ 1803.3 and 1803.5 (a))

(b) Incoming terminal international traffic. Incoming terminal international traffic entails no responsibility on the part of the landline companies, except that, in cases where jurisdiction is surrendered by one Continental Censor to another, passmarks, etc., must be transmitted as indicated. (See § 1803.11 (b))

(c) Marine radiograms. Marine radiograms will be sent to the office of the radio company over whose facilities the message is to be transmitted. This company, before transmitting the message, will submit it for censoring to the Censorship Station having jurisdiction. (See §§ 1803.3 and 1803.5 (a)) Companies filing such radiograms must ascertain whether messages are replies to previous cablegrams or radiograms and, if so, how and when such previous messages were routed. In order that censors may achieve a clear understanding of messages, it is sometimes necessary to consider the message to which the one being handled is a reply. Therefore, it may be necessary that a reply message be censored at the continental station which censored the original message.

(d) Shipboard radio stations. All persons filing radiograms on board ship shall register their full names and addresses and, if the radiogram is in answer to a message censored by the U. S. authorities, shall also state when and by what communication company such original message was handled. Radio companies shall furnish the censor with this information by service message. This section applies, however, only to vessels from which radio transmissions are permitted under wartime conditions. (See regulations covering the use, control, supervision, inspection or closure of radio stations on all vessels under the jurisdiction of the United States; 7 F.R. 42)

(e) Domestic point-to-point radio traffic. Point-to-point commercial radio traffic which can be heard outside the jurisdiction of the United States may be examined by censorship before being transmitted by radio, and may by this authority be suppressed or diverted to landlines for transmission. This is an exception to § 1803.8 (a) which applies to landline telegraph only.*

§ 1803.9 Copies. With respect to either incoming or outgoing international messages the operating company shall deliver to Censorship two copies of each message; namely, the original hard copy and a "Ditto" copy. The operating company may retain a carbon copy of each message for accounting purposes. If, because of physical location, it is necessary to transmit messages to Censorship by teletype, then Censorship will make the required copies.*

§ 1803.10 Files. It is of first importance to Censorship that the companies preserve, during the entire continuance of the Censorship, all messages now on file in the offices of the companies and all messages that may be received either for transmission or for delivery during the continuance of Censorship, and that such files be made available to Censorship if required.*

§ 1803.11 Methods of censoring, and action in connection therewith—(a) Types of action. Censors may: (1) Pass, (2) Delay, (3) Paraphrase, (4) Delete a part, (5) Suppress, (6) Cancel or permit cancellation of, (7) Return for correction (technical irregularity), or (8) Refer to Chief Cable Censor for his action or advice.

Every message received in Censorship will eventually receive one of the treatments listed above.

(b) Censorship marks. Censors in acting on messages may place thereon either in the preamble, or in Memorandum Messages (MM's) following, certain censorship indicators for the information of other censors. Such additions made to messages by censors will not be removed by the personnel of the operating companies, but will be transmitted by the operating companies until removed by a censor. MM's will be charged for at Government rates and billed to the Office of Censorship, Washington, D. C. Censor's "Passmarks", inserted in the preamble, will be carried free, but if lost from a message and recovered by a "service" message, will be replaced at the expense of the company.

Censorship marks, etc., will be removed from traffic by the censor who last handles the messages either before transmission beyond United States Censorship jurisdiction or before release for delivery to the addressee.

(c) Technical irregularities. Operating companies are expected to notify by service message the station of origin of any messages when a cablegram does not conform to Censorship Regulations or is badly mutilated or garbled, and for such reason is "Returned for Correction" by the censor. Operating companies should not accept messages not conforming to Censorship Regulations, and the burden of obtaining their technical readjustment is therefore on the company. Technical irregularities must be corrected either by the sender or by the operating company before a message can be released by a censor.

In case the technical irregularity is, in the censor's opinion, not capable of being readjusted, the censor, instead of returning the message for correction, may cancel the message because of technical irregularities. (See § 1803.11 (h))

(d) Inquiries to senders. Explanations required by a Censor from a cable sender in the United States as to any message filed by him may be obtained by a "collect" message from the censor to the sender, or by a free service message to the office of origin, at the discretion of the censor.

(e) Censorship requests that the operating companies report to the originating censor the inability of a company to obtain a reply to a service message or to deliver an inquiry, and the reason therefor. This cooperation will make it possible to censor immediately cablegrams that otherwise might be held in expectation of receiving either a reply from the sender, or action by the office of origin.

(f) Non-delivery. When a cablegram is refused by an addressee, no further, and no other, attempt to deliver to the same, or to any other addressee, will be made without receiving permission from the censor who passed the cablegram. However, the operating company is invited to advise the censor as to some other addressee or address where it is believed delivery is intended or will be accepted.

When an operating company is unable immediately to deliver a message, but learns later that the addressee has moved to another city, the company shall not forward the message, but shall return it to the censor, with the explanation, and the new address.

(g) When Censorship deletes or paraphrases a message, it shall be re-typed by the Censor on an operating company form which shall be identical with the form used by the operating company in the transmission of the message to Censorship, and returned to the operating company for transmission or delivery.

(h) Action not to be revealed. All operating companies, their executives or employees, are required not to reveal the action taken by a censor on commercial traffic other than press dispatches, except by written permission of, and to the extent prescribed by, the Director of Censorship. (See § 1803.24.) The one exception to this rule is that cancellation of a message for any reason carries with it the requirement that the operating company notify the sender and consider a refund.

In this connection, before making delivery of a message, operating companies will insure that the delivery copy does not reveal any action of the censor, such as deletion, paraphrase, indication of a difference between the number of words charged for and the number of words delivered, passmarks, impressions of rubber stamps, etc.

(i) Copies. The operating companies may furnish a patron, upon request, a copy of previously delivered message, provided it was passed by the censor and is in the exact censored form and does not reveal any action of or change by the censor.*

§ 1803.12 Credit. When extending credit to the sender of a cablegram, operating companies will charge for the actual number of words filed, and not merely for the actual number of words transmitted. The entire number of words filed will be charged for even if the message is not returned by the censor for transmission. Credits for words not transmitted will be allowed only if and when permission to consider refund has been granted by the Director of Censorship.

Collect messages. In the case of a deleted "Receiver to Pay" or "Collect" cablegram, with the single exception of recognized Press Cablegrams, collection is required to be made for the actual number of words delivered, and not for the actual number of words transmitted.*

§ 1803.13 Time of delivery. No information regarding the fact or time of delivery of messages will be furnished to patrons without the permission of the Director of Censorship. (See § 1803.11 (h).) For this reason, patrons filing "reply prepaid" messages and communication companies which accept "collect" messages must do so at their own risk.*

§ 1803.14 Complaints. (a) When complaints are received by the operating companies as to errors in transmission, mutilation, omission, delay, etc., the following rules shall govern:

When the company ascertains that the difficulty was due to some irregularity or error made by it, or an affiliate, as a matter of company operation, the matter may be disposed of as the company sees fit, without reference either to the local censor or to the Director of Censorship.

When the company ascertains that the error or irregularity complained of is due to some action taken by a censor, the complaint is required to be referred to the Director of Censorship without, of course, disclosing to the cable patron that this has been done and without in either case entering into explanations. (See § 1803.11 (h).)

(b) When complaints of non-delivery are received by the operating companies, the matter is required to be referred to the Director of Censorship, and no information will be given out by the company. This course may be adhered to even though the company's records may show that the cablegram in question was passed by Censorship.

There is one exception to this rule: When a cablegram is cancelled by the censor, the company is expected to notify the sender. (See § 1803.11 (h).)*

§ 1803.15 Refunds. (a) The interest of Censorship in matters of refund extends only to the control of the possible revelation of the action of Censorship by the adjustment of a refund between an operating company and a patron. Where secrecy is necessary, refunds are not permissible, since they would disclose the fact that a message has been censored. Where secrecy is not necessary, the granting of a refund is not subject to objection as far as Censorship is concerned. If carriers, however, determine to make refunds in such cases, they must assume the responsibility that such action is consistent with the Communications Act of 1934, the rules, regulations and orders of the Federal Communications Commission, and the tariffs filed by the carriers.

(b) Requests for refund must be made to the operating company and not to Censorship. When such a request is made to a censor, he will reply that such request must be made to the company with which the message was filed for transmission, but the following rules will be observed:

(1) When requests for refunds are received by an operating company, they will not be considered until permission has been given by the Director of Censorship, except in the case of cancelled cablegrams. (See § 1803.11 (h))

(2) Each application for refund must be accompanied by a copy of the cablegrams with the full name and address of the addressee and sender thereof, and a written statement from the addressee that a cablegram in question has not been delivered.

(c) The "U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship Regulations" (Regulation 4) provide that no information whatever concerning the treatment or disposition of a cablegram may be given to the public. Therefore, in forwarding to the Director of Censorship requests from cable users for refunds, it is unnecessary to inquire what explanations to make to the sender. The following procedure will be observed:

(1) In answer to a patron's request for information concerning the disposition of a message, or for a report of the service on a message, it will be understood that the company will reply stating that "U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship Regulations" forbid giving any information, calling attention to Regulation 4.

(2) The only inquiry that need then be forwarded to the Director of Censorship with refund papers will be whether or not the Director of Censorship grants permission to consider the patron's request.

(3) Letters regarding refunds are required in duplicate, and must be accompanied by supporting papers and data, including the original request from the cable user, statement of non-receipt of the message in question, and copy of the message. The reply will be simply that permission is or is not given, and no explanatory notes are required to be given by, nor expected from, the Director of Censorship.

(4) In order to avoid possible injustice, and inadvertent errors, it may be suggested to the patron that formal complaint in writing be made to the Director of Censorship, sending a copy of the message in question, a statement of the circumstances under which it was sent, explanation of the text, and full information concerning himself, his correspondent (addressee), his business, and any person or firm mentioned. Such complaints will be investigated carefully, but the Director of Censorship will rely upon the operating companies to see that care and discretion are employed in making such suggestions to patrons.*

§ 1803.16 Code. "U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship Regulations" prohibit the use of private codes. However, censors are instructed that the use of the communication company's private code may be permitted on the company's own circuit for official business, provided a copy of the code is in the possession of the censor. Field Censors may pass "service" messages themselves, if such messages are perfectly clear to them and legitimate. But nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as excepting such company messages in private code from the scrutiny and control of the censor.*

§ 1803.17 Cable addresses. (a) "U. S. Cable and Radio Censorship Regulations" prohibit the use of cable addresses until approved by the Director of Censorship. This means that all the cable addresses of all companies are no longer officially in existence.

(b) However, it may be expected that the Director of Censorship will announce a modification of that regulation.

(c) Censorship will not undertake to usurp the peacetime system of the registration of addresses, but will control it. Addresses will continue to be registered with the operating companies, and the companies will charge the proper fee for the service, but the companies will not accept new registrations, nor renew old ones, nor make any alterations, transfers, or changes of any kind, except upon the presentation by the applicant of the necessary authority from the Director of Censorship.

(d) Applicants for cable addresses, or for renewals, transfers, or changes, shall be instructed to apply in writing to the Director of Censorship for exactly what they want. The application must state:

(1) Exactly where they desire to register the address;

(2) Exactly the code word and its cable address that they desire to register; and

(3) That the substance of (2) is acceptable for registration at the place the registration is desired.

(e) When applications are granted, the Director of Censorship will so inform the applicant in writing, stating exactly what is granted. A copy of the letter of authority will be sent to the place where the registration is desired to be made. Before accomplishing the registration, the authority presented by the applicant must be checked against the copy from the Director of Censorship.

(f) If the papers are not in agreement, the registration will be rejected, and both copies of the authority will be returned to the Director of Censorship by the office rejecting the application, with an appropriate statement of the circumstances. This should be done without the knowledge of the applicant, if possible.

(g) In some cases, for well-known firms, organizations, and individuals, the Director of Censorship, in the interest of efficiency and time saving, may authorize future periodic renewals of registered addresses without further reference to him. Such cases will be handled with particular care by the registration bureaus. If periodic renewals are desired, the letter of application must cover this point in full. (See paragraph (d) of this section.)

(h) When a cable user or company submits evidence of the exclusive and continued use of an address, which has thereby become a business or personal asset, Censorship will gladly cooperate in confirming such a cable address.*

§ 1803.18 Cable address records. (a) All cable address records shall be opened and made available to censors at any time, both for their own information when required, and to enable Censorship to investigate old registrations when necessary in connection with applications for new registrations, or for any other reason.

(b) If the cable address is not available or on record with the company at the place of the Censorship Station, it must be obtained through the company's connections and affiliates.*

§ 1803.19 Abstract of traffic. The operating companies may be required by the Director of Censorship to furnish the Cable Censor at each Censorship Station a daily abstract of all international cable and radio traffic entering or leaving the country at said Censorship Stations or under the jurisdiction thereof, indicating for each message: (1) Number of words; (2) where from; (3) destination; (4) sent to (addressee); and (5) signed by.*

§ 1803.20 Reports of suspicious circumstances. The Director of Censorship and all local censors will welcome any information of suspicious circumstances in connection with the filing of messages. This may be a rare occurrence, but if it uncovers only one enemy effort it will be worth while. Agents of the operating companies may communicate such circumstances by MM on the message. It should be pointed out to said agents that they should not consider themselves as exercising the functions of Censorship, and should not alter or delay a message without the knowledge of the patron. Their action would be in the nature of that of any citizen rendering patriotic assistance to his government, which is the natural obligation of all citizens.*

§ 1803.21 Fixed holiday greetings. Hereafter no fixed greeting ("canned") messages or "XLT" messages will be accepted without the permission of the Director of Censorship, whose decision will be based upon existing circumstances and published in sufficient time prior to holidays.*

§ 1803.22 Transmission of call letters, etc., to enemy-occupied territory. No communication company will permit the transmission of any call letters, signals, service messages or any communication whatever intended for reception in enemy-occupied territory without the specific authority of the Censor in each case.*

§ 1803.23 Diversion or rerouting of traffic. Censors may divert traffic from one carrier to another, or reroute traffic, at their discretion, when such action is necessary in the public interest.*

§ 1803.24 Press dispatches. The following action is authorized in connection with the handling of press dispatches:

(a) Communications companies handling press dispatches are authorized to inform any recognized news agency and correspondent of the fact and the time of transmission of any bona fide news dispatch, including news service dispatch, filed by that agency or correspondent.

(b) The communication company may also inform the news agency or correspondent of the actual number of words transmitted in any of his news dispatches and may make arrangements with the news agency to charge for the number of words transmitted rather than for the number of words filed.

(c) Communication companies which offer their facilities to the press on a time basis may keep the news agencies informed of the copy on hand in order that available transmission time may be fully utilized.*

§ 1803.25 Statements to patrons by telephone operators. In connection with international radiotelephone communications, when telephone operators are questioned by patrons as to the need for the information required, the patron may be told that the information is required under Government Regulations.*

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. B-211]

IN THE MATTER OF C. H. AMSLER AND C. W. AMSLER, INDIVIDUALLY AND AS CO-PARTNERS DOING BUSINESS AS C. H. AND C. W. AMSLER, A PARTNERSHIP, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANTS

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 5, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 10, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a District Board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendants of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 27, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 203, Post Office Building, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendants and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendants; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendants of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows: That said defendants whose address is Marble, Pennsylvania, wilfully violated section 4 Part II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code by:

(a) Selling and delivering at $2.30 per net ton to the White Swan Laundry Company, Oil City, Pennsylvania, during the period June 23 to August 7, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 62 tons of run of mine coal, Size Group 3, produced by said defendants at their Amsler Mine, Mine Index No. 3138, located in Clarion County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict 1, District No. 1, whereas the applicable minimum price for said coal is $2.20 per net ton f. o. b. said mine as contained in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments as amended by Order of the Director dated June 21, 1941, entered in Docket No. A–853, Part II;

(b) Selling and delivering at $2.30 per net ton to the White Swan Laundry Company, Oil City, Pennsylvania, during the period August 8 to August 15, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 20 tons of run of mine coal, Size Group 3, produced by said defendants at their aforesaid mine, whereas the applicable minimum price for said coal was $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. said mine as contained in said schedule as amended by Order of the Director dated August 8, 1941, in Docket No. A–356; and

(c) Selling and delivering at $3.00 per net ton to the Norwich Chemical Company, Smithport, Pennsylvania, during the period July 11 to 15, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 12 tons of run of mine coal, Size Group No. 3, produced by said defendants at said mine, whereas the applicable minimum price established for said coal was $2.20 per net ton f. o. b. said mine as contained in said schedule as amended by Order of the Director dated June 21, 1941, entered in Docket No. A–853, Part II.

The delivered price of $2.30 per net ton referred to in (a) and (b) hereof and the delivered price of $3.00 per net ton referred to in (c) hereof included haulage charges for transporting said coal by truck from said mine to said purchasers, the coal referred to in (a) and (b) hereof having been hauled approximately 20 miles and that referred to in (c) hereof, a distance of approximately 50 miles. Said defendants sold and delivered said coal contrary to the provisions of Price Instruction No. 6 as amended, in Supplement No. 1 to the Price Schedule referred to herein, by failing to add to the applicable minimum f. o. b. mine prices provided in said orders, amounts at least equal, as nearly as practicable, to the actual transportation charges, handling charges or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character from the transportation facilities at the mine to the points from which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchasers. Said transactions, therefore, constituted sales and deliveries of coal at prices below the minimums established therefor.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

[Docket No. B–219]

IN THE MATTER OF FREEBROOK CORPORATION, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 4, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 10, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a District Board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 26, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 203, Post Office Building, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That said defendant, whose address is 293 Main Street, Brookville, Pennsylvania, wilfully violated section 4 Part II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code, and Rule 1 of Section III of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, by selling, during the period October 1, 1940 to February 28, 1941, both dates inclusive, at prices ranging from $2.05 per net ton f. o. b. the McWilliams Mine to $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the Freebrook No. 7 Mine, approximately 27,249.35 tons of run of mine coal produced by said defendant at its Freebrook No. 7 Mine, Mine Index No. 664, located in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict 5 of District No. 1 and at its McWilliams Mine, Mine Index No. 583, located in Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict No. 11 of District No. 1, to the Pittsburg and Shawmut Coal Company, a Registered Distributor, Registration No. 7349, whose address is Kittanning, Pennsylvania, which coal was physically handled by said distributor and allowing said distributor unauthorized excessive distributor's discounts in the form of commissions, deductions for reject coal, amounts paid for railroad car stop-over, transfer, cleaning and sizing charges in the amount of $12,329.77 on coal purchased for resale. Said coal was classified as Size Group 3 in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For All Shipments Except Truck and priced at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the McWilliams Mine, and $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. the Freebrook No. 7 Mine.

That said defendant also wilfully violated Section 4 Part II (i) (8) of the Act, Part II (i) (8) of the Code and Rule 3 of Section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, by filing on March 31, 1941, for the period of October 1, 1940 to February 28, 1941, copies 28, 1941, copies of false and untrue invoices with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 1, in that the transactions referred to above were reported as coal "sold to various railroads by the Pittsburg & Shawmut Coal Company, Kittanning, Pennsylvania," whereas in fact said coal was purchased by said Pittsburg & Shawmut Coal Company and shipped from said mines over the Pittsburg & Shawmut Railroad Company to the Ringgold Cleaning and Preparation Plant, located at Ringgold, Pennsylvania, cleaned, prepared, otherwise physically handled, and sold by the Pittsburgh & Shawmut Coal Company to various purchasers. Said Code member thereby subjected itself to the appropriate penalties prescribed by the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code and Section XIV of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by its wilful violation of said requirements.

That said defendant also wilfully violated Order No. 14 dated July 15, 1937, and adopted as an Order of the Division by the Secretary of the Interior on July 1, 1939, Rule 3 of Section V and Rule 7 of Section VI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, in that said code member did not file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 1 during the period October 1, 1940 to February 28, 1941 (a) copies of certain contracts entered into for the sale of coal to the Pittsburg & Shawmut Coal Company, Kittanning, Pennsylvania, within 15 days after enterng into said contracts and (b) copies of certain spot orders for the sales of coal, referred to above, to the Pittsburg & Shawmut Coal Company, Kittanning, Pennsylvania, accepted by said code member, within 10 days from the date of accepting said spot orders, as is prescribed in said orders and regulations.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

PETITION OF [illegible]INOUS COAL CONSUMERS' COU[illegible]. THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SA[illegible] PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS PRODUCED AT MINES IN SUBDISTRICT 4 OF DISTRICT NO. 13 FOR SHIPMENTS BY RIVER AS ARE APPLICABLE TO SUCH COALS FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 16, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Chancery Court Room, Chattanooga, Tennessee.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 11, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter, and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel for the establishment of the same price classifications and minimum prices f. o. b. mine for the coals produced at mines in Subdistrict 4 of District No. 13 for shipments by river as are applicable to such coals for truck shipments.

IN THE MATTER OF HERMAN J. MORRISON, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated January 8, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on January 24, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a District Board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 27, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 203, Post Office Building, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston, or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That the said defendant, Herman J. Morrison, whose address is Brockway, Pennsylvania, and who operates the Morrison Mine, Mine Index No. 1803, located in Jefferson County, Pennsylvania, in District No. 1, willfully violated section 4 Part II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code by selling and delivering during the months commencing with October 1940 and including July 1941, to the Brockway Clay Products Company, Brockway, Pennsylvania, approximately 8,048 tons of run of mine coal produced by said defendant at said mine at $2.15 per net ton delivered to the said purchaser's plant at Brockway, a distance of 4 miles from said mine, whereas said coal was classified as Size Group 3 and priced at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. said mine as shown in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments, to which price there must be added an amount at least equal as nearly as practicable to the actual transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character (exclusive of customary costs of mine operations) from the transportation facilities at the said mine to the point from which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchaser, pursuant to Price Instruction No. 6 of the said schedule, as amended.

That said defendant wilfully violated Orders Nos. 296 and 297, dated September 23, 1940 and October 22, 1940, respectively, by failing to comply with the provisions of said orders during the period from October 1, 1940 to January 1, 1941, in that said defendant failed to maintain and file with the Division, records, sales slips, other memoranda and reports on all coal sold and shipped by truck or wagon within the time and in the manner prescribed in said orders.

That said defendant wilfully violated Orders Nos. 307 and 308, dated December 11, 1940, and January 14, 1941, respectively, by failing to comply with the said orders during the period from January 1, 1941, to April 1941, in that the said defendant failed to maintain and file with the Division said records and data on all coal sold and shipped by truck or wagon within the time and in the manner prescribed in said orders.

That the said defendant wilfully violated Orders Nos. 308 and 312, dated January 14, 1941 and February 24, 1941, respectively, by failing to comply with the said orders during the period from April through July 1941, in that the said defendant failed to maintain and file with the Division certain records and data on all coal sold and shipped by truck or wagon within the time and in the manner prescribed in said orders.

Dated: February 20, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF GEORGE B. REED AND J. S. WALLACE, INDIVIDUALLY AND AS CO-PARTNERS, DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE NAME AND STYLE OF THE REED COAL COMPANY, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated January 13, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on January 15, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 10, a District Board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 23, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Circuit Court Room, Peoria, Illinois.

It is further ordered, That Edward J. Hayes or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

1. That George B. Reed, 633 Custer Place, Canton, Illinois, and J. S. Wallace, 520 Harding Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, individually and as co-partners, doing business under the name and style of the Reed Coal Company, 633 Custer Place, Canton, Illinois, wilfully violated Section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code, section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act and Part II (i) 8 of the Code, Rule 8 of Section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, by selling to the Toledo, Peoria and Western Railroad during the month of July 1941, through the Ed Fox Coal Company, Pekin, Illinois, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 3133, as sales agent for said code member, approximately two cars (Car Nos., T. P. & W. Nos. 452 and 466) of run of mine coal produced at the Reed Coal Company Mine, Mine Index No. 717, located in Fulton County, Illinois, at $1.40 per net ton f. o. b. railroad cars located in Glasford, Illinois, falsely invoicing it as screenings whereas said coal was classified as Size Group 7 and priced at $2.00 per net ton f. o. b. cars, Glasford, Illinois, as set forth in the Supplement annexed to and made a part of Order dated April 7, 1941, granting temporary and conditionally final relief in Docket No. A-770, which transactions constituted (a) sales of coal at prices which were 60 cents below the minimum established therefor; and (b) an intentional misrepresentation of the size of said coal.

2. That said code member wilfully violated Rule 13 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, by paying to the said Ed Fox Coal Company, Pekin, Illinois, a commission of 10 cents per net ton for sales on said code member's behalf of approximately four cars (Car Nos. C. B. & Q. No. 78331, C. B. & Q. No. 166116, T. P. & W. No. 452 and T. P. & W. No. 466) during the period from July 5, 1941 to July 16, 1941, both dates inclusive, which commissions were and are 5 cents per net ton in excess of the maximum discounts allowable to a registered distributor on sales of on-line railroad fuel as established by Order of the Director dated June 19, 1940, in General Docket No. 12, and which commissions were paid pursuant to a sales agency agreement entered into between said code member and said Ed Fox Coal Company on or about June 1, 1941, and filed with the Division on or about June 20, 1941, and although at the time of said transactions said code member had not filed an application for permission to pay commissions in excess of the maximum discounts allowable to a registered distributor, as required by Rule 13 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

[Docket No. B-217]

IN THE MATTER OF LOUIS GODIN & CHARLES JOHNSON, INDIVIDUALLY AND AS CO-PARTNERS, DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE NAME AND STYLE OF GODIN & JOHNSON, DEFENDANTS

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 5, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 10, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 23, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 203, Post Office Building, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That the said defendants, whose addresses are Houtzdale, Pennsylvania, and whose code membership became effective as of November 8, 1939, wilfully violated sections 4 II (e) and (g) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and Parts II (e) and (g) of the Bituminous Coal Code as follows: (a) by selling and delivering to the Woodward Township School District during the period from October 22, 1940, to March 5, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 58.45 tons of run of mine coal produced by said defendants at their Atlantic No. 3 Mine, Mine Index No. 2319, located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict 14 of District No. 1, at a price of $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. the bins of said School District located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, a distance of approximately 3.5 miles from said mine, whereas said coal was classified as Size Group 3 and priced at $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. said mine as set forth in Supplement No. 2 to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments; and (b) by failing to add to the applicable f. o. b. mine price provided in said supplement an amount at least equal, as nearly as practicable, to the actual transportation charges, handling charges or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character (exclusive of customary costs of mine operation) from the transportation facilities at the mine to the above-named School District, as required by Price Instruction No. 6 as amended by Supplement No. 1 to said schedule.

IN THE MATTER OF THOMAS B. BLEAKNEY, AN INDIVIDUAL, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 5, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 10, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a District Board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 25, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 203, Post Office Building, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That said defendant, whose address is Shelocta, Pennsylvania, wilfully violated section 4, Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code

(a) By selling to various purchasers during the period from October 1, 1940, to November 25, 1940, both dates inclusive, approximately 68.9 tons of run of mine coal produced by said defendant at his Bleakney Mine, Mine Index No. 1107, located in Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict 22 of District No. 1, at $1.875, $2.00 and $2.125 per net ton, whereas said coal was classified as Size Group No. 3 and priced at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For Truck Shipments; and

(b) By selling to C. E. Coblers, whose address is Indiana, Pennsylvania, on or about November 11, 1940, approximately 1,600 pounds (.8 net tons) of slack sized coal produced by said defendant at his said mine at $1.75 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, contrary to the provisions of Price Instruction No. 4 of the Schedule referred to in (a) hereof, whereas the size of said coal falls within a size group for which no price is listed; therefore, such size should have been sold at the price and classification applicable to the size group for the next larger size for which a price is listed for the same mine; therefore, said coal should have been sold at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. said mine.

That said defendant also wilfully violated Orders Nos. 296 and 297, dated September 23, 1940, and October 22, 1940, respectively, by failing, during the month of December, 1940, to maintain and file with the Bituminous Coal Division copies of all records, sales slips, other memoranda and reports relating to sales and shipments of bituminous coal produced by said code member.

That said defendant also wilfully violated Orders Nos. 307, 308 and 312 dated December 11, 1940, January 14, 1941, and February 24, 1941, respectively, by failing, during the period from January 1, 1941, to April 1, 1941, both dates inclusive, in violation of Orders Nos. 307 and 308 and from April 2, 1941, to date, in violation of Orders Nos. 308 and 312, to maintain and file with the Statistical Bureau of the Division for District No. 1, as is prescribed in said Orders, copies of all truck tickets, sales slips, other memoranda or records relating to sales and shipments of bituminous coal produced by said code member and shipped by truck or wagon.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1256]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 18 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND THE REVISION OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES AND FOR THE REVISION OF CERTAIN SUBDISTRICT CLASSIFICATIONS IN DISTRICT NO. 18

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, has been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party. The petitioner requests relief, both temporary and permanent, in the following matters:

(1) The establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in Valencia County, New Mexico, and in Subdistrict No. 2 in District No. 18, for shipment by truck.

(2) The establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in Subdistrict No. 8 in District No. 18, for shipment by truck. The petition alleges that these mines, fifteen in number, are operated by new acceptants of the Bituminous Coal Code; that the coals of four of them possess marketing factors similar to the previously classified and priced coals in Subdistrict 8; that the coals of eleven of those mines possess marketing factors superior to and values in excess of the previously classified and priced coals in that subdistrict and, consequently, should be subject to minimum prices in excess of the prices that are applicable to the latter coals.

(3) The revision of the effective minimum prices for the coals, for shipment by truck, being produced in Subdistrict No. 8. The petition alleges that the effective minimum prices for those coals are based upon and reflect their past depressed market values which were the result of competition with the heretofore unpriced coals produced by the new code acceptants mentioned in paragraph (2) hereof; that due to the elimination of that unregulated competition by reason of the fifteen operators having joined the Code, and in order to reflect more accurately the relative market value of those coals as compared with competing coals produced in other subdistricts, the effective minimum prices for the Subdistrict No. 8 coals should be raised, in Size Group 2, from $2.50 to $3.00 per ton and in Size Group 11, from 50 cents to 75 cents per ton.

(4) The revision of the boundaries of Subdistrict No. 1—Gallup in District No. 18. The petition alleges that one of the mines referred to in paragraph (1) hereof, namely the Taylor Mine, is located in Valencia County, New Mexico, which county is not presently within any subdistrict in District No. 18; that the coals of the Taylor Mine possess marketing factors similar to those previously priced and produced generally in Subdistrict No. 1—Gallup and that, accordingly, the boundaries of that subdistrict should be extended to include Valencia County.

(5) The revision of the boundaries of Subdistrict No. 8—San Juan in District No. 18. The petition alleges that the group of eleven mines mentioned in paragraph (2) hereof, the coals of which are allegedly superior to the other coals being produced in Subdistrict No. 8, are located in the territory described as follows:

> That part of San Juan County, New Mexico, lying north of the San Juan River and west of the Hogback; and that such territory should be excluded from Subdistrict No. 8 and should be classified as Subdistrict No. 10.

(6) The revision of the effective minimum price for the coals in Size Group 9, and the establishment of a minimum price for the coals in Size Group 11 produced at the Kinney No. 1 Mine (Mine Index No. 12) in Subdistrict No. 6 in District No. 18 for all shipments.

The petition does not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the granting of any relief prior to a hearing with respect to the requested revisions of the subdistrict boundaries or the requested revisions of the presently effective minimum prices for coals being produced in Subdistricts Nos. 6 and 8. It appears, however, that an adequate showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief with respect to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals to be produced at the mines operated by the new code acceptants in Valencia County, New Mexico, and in Subdistricts Nos. 2 and 8; also, as to such Subdistrict No. 8 coals, that the minimum prices should reflect the alleged differentials, in their market values, but that the level of such prices should be based upon and correlated with the level of the presently effective minimum prices for the coals of the other mines in Subdistrict 8 rather than the higher price level requested for the latter coals.

The petition also requests the establishment of minimum prices for coals in additional size groups being produced in

[1] Harry G. Lucas and H. G. Lucas are one and the same person.

[2] Not filed with the original document.

Subdistrict No. 8. It appears that an adequate showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in this respect but that the level of such prices should be based upon and correlated with the level of the presently effective minimum prices for those coals in other size groups rather than the higher price level requested for those coals.

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 23, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Cuff or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 18, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 18 for:

(1) The establishment of price classifications and minimum prices in cents per net ton for the coals, for shipment by truck, of the Mount Taylor Mine of T. J. Coghill in Valencia County, New Mexico, as follows:

Size groups	1	2	4	6	7	8	9	11	12	13	15
Prices	450	425	400	350	325	300	240	190	170	130	325

(2) The establishment of price classifications and minimum prices in cents per net ton for the coals, for shipment by truck, of the Omero Mine of Antonio Simoni in Subdistrict No. 2 in District No. 18, as follows:

Size groups	1	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	11	12	13	14	15

(3) The establishment of a minimum price of $2.50 per net ton for the coals in Size Group 11 and an increase from $2.15 to $2.50 per net ton in the effective minimum prices for the coals in Size Group 9 produced at the Kinney Mine No. 1 (Mine Index No. 12) in Subdisirict No. 6 in District No. 18, for all shipments:

(4) The establishment of price classifications and minimum prices in cents per net ton for the coals of Mine No. 6 of the Clah Chee Begay, of Mine No. 5 of Juan Begay, of Mine No. 3 of Thomas Dan and of Mine No. 4 of Warner Watson, those mines being located in Subdistrict No. 8 in District No. 18, for shipment by truck, as follows:

Size groups	1	2	8	9	10	11	15

(5) The establishment of price classifications and minimum prices in cents per net ton for the coals of Mine No. 10 of Ben Begay, of Mine No. 11 of Fred Begay, of Mine No. 1 of Cuyler Benally, of Mine No. 8 of Daniel Benally, of Mine No. 9 of Mark Dan, of Mine No. 5 of Shorty Duncan, of Mine No. 7 of Tom Foster, of Mine No. 3 of Richard Hobson, of Mine No. 2 of Tom Lee, of Mine No. 4 of H. B. Lewis and of Mine No. 6 of Jim Smart in Subdistrict 10 of District No. 18, for shipment by truck, as follows:

Size groups	1	2	8	9	10	11	15

(6) Revision of the effective minimum prices for the coals in certain size groups produced at all mines in Subdistrict No. 8 in District No. 18, and, more particularly, for an increase from $2.50 to $3.00 and from 50 cents to 75 cents per net ton for those coals in Size Groups 2 and 11, respectively:

(7) Revision of the boundaries of Subdistrict No. 1—Gallup in District No. 18 to include therein Valencia County, New Mexico;

(8) Revision of the boundaries of Subdistrict No. 8—San Juan in District No. 18 to exclude therefrom and to place within a new subdistrict that part of San Juan County, New Mexico, lying north of the San Juan River and west of the Hogback and to designate that territory as Subdistrict No. 10—Hogback.

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter and, as indicated above, a reasonable showing of necessity having been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth and the following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, the temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 18 For All Shipments is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the Schedule marked "Supplement R and T" annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief granted herein, may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: February 23, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF SAHARA COAL COMPANY, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO FILE APPLICATION BASED UPON ADMISSIONS FOR DISPOSITION OF COMPLIANCE PROCEEDING WITHOUT FORMAL HEARING, EXTENDING TIME TO FILE ANSWER, AND POSTPONING HEARING

The above-entitled matter having been scheduled for hearing on February 27, 1942, at 10 o'clock a. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 705, United States Customs Court, Chicago, Illinois, pursuant to a Notice of and Order for Hearing entered herein on January 14, 1942, and said Notice of and Order for Hearing having been served upon defendant on January 23, 1942; and

A motion having been filed by said defendant on February 14, 1942 requesting an extension of time within which to file its answer to the complaint herein from February 12 to February 21, 1942; and

The defendant having filed with the Division on February 16, 1942 a request for an extension of time within which to file its application for disposition of the above-entitled proceeding without formal hearing, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules and Regulations of the Division, and having submitted therewith such application; and

The Acting Director deeming it advisable that said motion and request of the defendant, respectively, be granted and that under such circumstances the hearing herein be postponed;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the time within which defendant must file its verified application pursuant to said § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Division, be and the same hereby is extended to and including February 16, 1942, the date on which said application was submitted;

It is further ordered, That the time within which defendant shall file its answer herein be and it hereby is extended to a date ten days after the date of final determination on said verified application pursuant to § 301.132 (f) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Division; and

It is further ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be postponed from 10 a. m. on February 27, 1942 to a date and place to be hereafter designated by an appropriate order of the Division.

Dated: February 23, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF CARL NYMAN, DEFENDANT

ORDER REVOKING AND CANCELLING CODE MEMBERSHIP

A complaint having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 16, 1941, by District Board 20, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 alleging wilful violation by Carl Nyman (National Coal Mine), a code member in District 20, the defendant, of the Bituminous Coal Code and rules and regulations thereunder, as follows:

That on various dates since January 9, 1941, the defendant sold and delivered various amounts of 1⅝" lump and slack coal produced at defendant's mine (Mine Index No. 179) to various purchasers, at prices below the effective minimum price established for such coal;

Pursuant to an Order of the Acting Director and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held before D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, in Price, Utah, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard, and the complainant and the defendant having appeared at the hearing;

The preparation of a report by the Examiner having been waived and the record in the proceedings having thereupon been submitted to the undersigned;

The undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter, which are filed herewith;[1]

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, effective fifteen (15) days from the date of this Order, the code membership of the defendant, Carl Nyman (National Coal Mine), operating in Carbon County, Utah, District 20, be, and it hereby is, revoked and cancelled.

It is further ordered, That prior to any reinstatement of the defendant, Carl Nyman (National Coal Mine), to membership in the Code, the defendant shall pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $114.60, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATIONS OF WHEELING VALLEY COAL CORPORATION FOR PERMISSION TO PAY, UNDER CERTAIN SALES AGENCY CONTRACTS, SALES AGENTS' COMMISSIONS IN EXCESS OF THE AMOUNTS PRESCRIBED AS MAXIMUM DISTRIBUTORS' DISCOUNTS, AS PROVIDED BY RULE 13, SECTION II OF THE MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR DISMISSAL OF HEARING AND DENYING PERMISSION TO PAY SALES AGENCY COMMISSIONS IN EXCESS OF MAXIMUM DISCOUNTS ALLOWED REGISTERED DISTRIBUTORS

An application having been filed by the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, Wheeling, West Virginia, pursuant to Rule 13 of Section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, for permission to pay agency commissions to the Pocahontas Coal Corporation, C. M. Cross Coal Sales Company, Davis Wilson Coal Company, Milnes Coal Company, Delaware Fuel Corporation, Scotch Anthracite Coal Company, and the Miller Coal Company, sales agents,[2] in excess of the maximum discounts allowed to registered distributors;

The Director having determined, pursuant to the provisions of Rule 13, Section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, that the granting of the permission requested in the application of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation to pay sales agency commissions should be deferred until further order of the undersigned and that the applicant should not be permitted to pay such sales agency commissions pending further proceedings and orders of this matter;

The said applicant, a code member in District No. 6, having requested by letter dated September 22, 1941, that it be afforded hearing on said applications; a hearing in this matter having been called for December 1, 1941, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Washington, D. C., at which time the applicant withdrew its request for a hearing.

[2] These companies are, in fact, sub-sales agents of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation. The Costanzo Coal Mining Company is the general sales agent for the applicant.

Therefore, it is ordered, That request of the applicant, Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, for the dismissal of the hearing be and is hereby granted; and

It is further ordered, That the application of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, producer, for permission to pay sales agency commissions to the above-named sub-sales agents of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation in excess of the maximum discounts allowed registered distributors be and the same hereby is denied.

[Docket No 504-FD]

THE APPLICATION OF KENTUCKY COAL AGENCY, INCORPORATED, FOR PROVISIONAL APPROVAL AS A MARKETING AGENCY: IN RE AMENDMENT OF THE CONTRACTS BETWEEN THE APPLICANT AND ITS PRODUCER MEMBERS RELATIVE TO THE RIGHT TO TERMINATE SAID CONTRACTS

ORDER PROVIDING FOR CONDITIONALLY FINAL RELIEF

Kentucky Coal Agency, Incorporated, a marketing agency, is operating under provisional approval granted by Order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission (predecessor of the Division) dated November 29, 1938, in the above-entitled matter pursuant to Section 12 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. By the said Order, the Commission provisionally approved the form of contract existing between Kentucky Coal Agency, Incorporated, and its producer members. This contract included, among others, the following provision:

This agreement shall continue in force until the 1st day of September, 1939, and after said date shall continue for periods of one year, from year to year, unless and until either party shall elect to terminate this agreement, at the end of any one year period, by giving to the other fifteen (15) days' written notice of such intention. Upon receipt of such notice the Selling Agent shall promptly notify all producers with whom it has entered into identical or similar Agency Agreements, and within five (5) days from the receipt by the producers of any such notices, the producers may serve notice of termination, to take effect on the same date.

On February 10, 1942, Kentucky Coal Agency, Incorporated, filed an application in the above-entitled matter, requesting that the provisional approval heretofore granted by the Commission be amended to permit the applicant to revise the afore-mentioned provision of its contracts between it and its producer members to read as follows:

This Agreement shall continue in force until the first day of September, 1942, and after said date shall continue for periods of one year, from year to year, unless sooner terminated, as herein provided. Either party may terminate this agreement by giving the other party thirty days written notice. The termination will take effect thirty days after the receipt of such written notice, and upon the date when same shall become effective, the selling agent shall promptly notify all producers with whom it has entered into identical or similar agency agreements, and within five days from the receipt by a producer of any such notice, the producer may serve notice of termination of his contract, to take effect at the end of the five day period. The termination of this contract, as herein provided, shall not affect the performance of contracts then in force and binding on the selling agent, for the delivery of coal.

It appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of relief in the manner hereinafter set forth, that no petitions of intervention have been filed with the Division in this matter, and that this action will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That effective twenty-five (25) days from the date hereof, the Order of November 29, 1938, granting provisional approval to Kentucky Coal Agency, Incorporated, be, and it hereby is, amended to permit Kentucky Coal Agency, Incorporated, to revise the contracts between it and its producer members as prayed for in the said application of February 10, 1942.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original application in this matter and applications to stay or modify the relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within twenty (20) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division.

It is further ordered, That this order is subject to further orders herein.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF NICK LUCIANI & SONS, A PARTNERSHIP, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

District Board No. 18 having filed a complaint with the Bituminous Coal Division on August 25, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, alleging wilful violation by Nick Luciani & Sons, a code member in District No. 18, of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder, by selling during October, November and December 1940, approximately 239 tons of 1½" lump bar screen coal (Size Group 2) produced at its mine to various purchasers for shipment by truck at a price of $3.00 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, whereas the effective minimum price established for such coal was $3.65 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 18 For All Shipments;

Pursuant to an Order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing having been held in this matter on December 1, 1941, before Scott A. Dahlquist, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Albuquerque, New Mexico, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard;

The complainant and the defendant having appeared, and all interested parties having joined in waiving the preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner; the record of the proceeding thereupon having been submitted to the undersigned for consideration; the undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion, which are filed herewith;[1]

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the defendant, Nick Luciani & Sons, a partnership composed of Nick Luciani, A. A. Luciani, U. D. Luciani, A. M. Luciani and N. R. Luciani, and each partner thereof, their representatives, servants, agents, employees, attorneys, successors or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act in their behalf or interest, cease and desist, and they are hereby permanently enjoined and restrained from selling or offering for sale coal at prices below the effective minimum prices, from violating the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act, the Bituminous Coal Code, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 18 For All Shipments, and the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

It is further ordered, That if the defendant, or any of the partners thereof, fails or neglects to comply with this Order, the Division may forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States within any circuit where such defendant carries on business for the enforcement hereof, or take any other appropriate action.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOULDER CANYON PROJECT WAGE BOARD TO THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

Pursuant to the Order of the Secretary of the Interior, dated December 6, 1941, and entitled Wage Fixing Procedures, Boulder Canyon Project, the Boulder Canyon Project Wage Board has determined prevailing wage rates for certain classes of laborers and mechanics for work of a similar nature prevailing in the vicinity of the project. Public hearings were held in Boulder City, Nevada, on December 8 and 9. Witnesses at the hearings included representatives of labor organizations, of employees' associations, and of unorganized workers on the project, officials of the Bureau of Reclamation, and other operating agencies, and the Commissioner of Labor of the State of Nevada. Representatives of the United States Department of Labor also participated in the hearings.

In addition to the testimony offered by witnesses at the hearings, the Wage Board has considered wage rate data included in collective bargaining agreements; decisions of the Secretary of Labor made pursuant to the Davis-Bacon Act, as amended; statements of wages paid to and benefits earned by employees of the Bureau of Power and Light, City of Los Angeles, and the Southern California Edison Company; and tabular analyses of wages and other compensation paid by the Bureau of Reclamation.

The Wage Board finds that the hourly wage rates listed below are prevailing for similar work in the vicinity of the project and recommends them for your adoption.

WAGE FIXING PROCEDURES, BOULDER CANYON PROJECT

DECEMBER 6, 1941.

In aid fo the administration of Section 15 of the Boulder Canyon Project Adjustment Act (54 Stat. 774) and for the purpose of determining the prevailing rate of wages to be paid certain classes of Government employees on the Boulder Canyon Project, the following procedure is established:

I. Wage Board

Wage Board, composed of two representatives of the Department, one selected from the office of the Secretary of the Interior and one selected from the Bureau of Reclamation, is hereby established to determine prevailing wages for similar work in the locality of the Project for all laborers and mechanics employed by the Government in the construction or operation and maintenance of the Project, excluding employees whose wages are fixed on an annual basis pursuant to the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, and to make recommendations with respect to such wages to the Secretary of the Interior. The representative selected from the office of the Secretary of the Interior shall act as Chairman of the Board.

II. Procedure to be followed by Board

In determining the prevailing wages of various classes of laborers and mechanics being considered by the Board in the locality of the Project, the Board shall procure evidence of the wages and compensation being paid to and perquisites received by such laborers and mechanics from local contractors, Federal agencies (including wage scales currently being paid pursuant to minima established pursuant to the Bacon-Davis Act), private industrial employers, and others employing labor in the locality, whether pursuant to union agreements or otherwise. Hearings for the purpose of adducing evidence of wages paid in the locality may be held when, in the judgment of the Board, this is required in order to determine the prevailing rates of wages.

Based on the evidence procured as to prevailing wages and the perquisites of employment in the locality in the classifications under consideration by the Wage Board, the Board shall make its recommendation as to the rates of wages to be paid to the Government employees of the classes above specified on the Boulder Canyon Project to the Secretary of the Interior. The wages recommended shall become effective upon such date as shall be recommended by the Wage Board, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may direct the Board to reconsider any recommendation in whole or in part when, in his judgment, the recommended wage does not accord with the evidence procured as to the prevailing wage in the locality or there is insufficient evidence to support the wage recommended.

III. Effective period of approved wage determinations

Any wage rate fixed in the manner above provided shall remain in effect until that rate has been supplanted by a different rate determined by the Wage Board with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Interior, and of the Secretary of Labor in cases governed by said Section 15. Unless directed by the Secretary of the Interior to do so at other intervals, the Wage Board shall review wage rates at six-month intervals beginning with the effective date of the first schedule of wages made in accordance with the procedure herein provided: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may direct a review at any other time when, in his judgment, this is desirable.

IV

For the purpose of the first hearing and determination under this procedure, the Board shall be composed of these departmental representatives: Mr. Duncan Campbell, selected from the office of the Secretary of the Interior, and Mr. Charles A. Bissell, selected from the Bureau of Reclamation.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

Surplus Marketing Administration.

NOTICE OF REPORT AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDED ORDER NO. 27 AND A PROPOSED AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA, PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE SURPLUS MARKETING ADMINISTRATION

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a), General Regulations, Surplus Marketing Administration, Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk, in the Solicitor's Office of the Department, of this report of the Administrator of the Surplus Marketing Administration of the Department with respect to a proposed amended marketing order and a proposed amended marketing agreement regulating the marketing of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0312, South Building, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

HISTORY, ISSUES, AND CONCLUSIONS

In connection with the issuance of Amendment No. 3 [1] to Federal Order No. 27, as amended, issued August 29, 1941, which became effective October 1, 1941,[2] the Secretary of Agriculture indicated that an early hearing on matters not covered in the above amendment would be held at the request of interested parties. It was also indicated that, if conditions so changed as to make it necessary, the question of fluid milk prices would be considered at an early hearing. Producer representatives submitted a petition for a hearing on revision of the Class I price on November 6, 1941. This petition was denied because it did not include consideration of other provisions of the order. On December 9, 1941, producer representatives submitted a new request for a hearing on several proposals to amend the order. A press release, dated December 17, 1941, was issued and sent to all interested parties requesting them to file with the Hearing Clerk, not later than December 22, other proposals for amending the order.

Twenty-two interested parties filed proposals for amending the order. More than 75 changes in the order were contained in the proposals. However, many of the proposed changes were interrelated.

A notice was issued over the signature of the Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture, dated December 29, 1941, of hearing to begin in the Saint George Hotel, Brooklyn, New York, January 7, 1942, at 9:30 a. m.

A similar notice of hearing was issued by Mr. Kenneth F. Fee, Director of Division of Milk Control for the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets for the State of New York. The joint hearing formally convened January 7 pursuant to the notices.

The hearing proceeded January 7, 8, and 9 at Brooklyn and was recessed to Utica, New York, January 12. The hearing proceeded during the period January 12–14 in Utica; January 15–17 in Binghampton; January 19–20 in Utica; and January 21–23 and 26–28 in Brooklyn, New York.

Time for filing briefs was set at the closing of the hearing, to expire at the close of business February 16, 1942.

The issues developed in this proceeding were as follows:

1. What shall be the level of Class I or fluid milk price for the marketing area?
2. What shall be the level of Class I or fluid milk price for milk sold outside the marketing area?
3. Shall provision be made for automatic adjustment of prices following a drought?
4. Shall the classification and pricing of "surplus" cream be separated from the present Class III provisions?
5. Shall skim milk be classified and priced according to its use?
6. Shall the pricing provision for milk used in American cheese be changed?
7. Shall the basis for payments to cooperative associations be changed, the payments increased, or all payments to cooperatives be discontinued?
8. Shall diversion payments be discontinued, limited to fewer classes, or made subject to the direction of a diversion committee?
9. Shall cooperative associations be permitted to account for milk at less than the stated class prices, if after posting milk for sale in certain classes with the market administrator, no buyer is found for the milk?
10. Shall the marketing area be expanded to include additional territory in New York and parts of New Jersey and Pennsylvania? In connection with the expansion of the marketing area, shall producer-dealers be required to equalize, shall city differentials be allowed, and shall the special cream area be changed?
11. Shall there be included in the order a definition of a "new producer"?
12. Shall nearby location differentials be changed or discontinued?
13. Shall a plan for encouraging level production of milk be included in the order?
14. Shall transportation differentials be changed?
15. Shall butterfat differentials be changed?
16. Shall the definition of producer and handler be changed?
17. Shall a provision be included in the order requiring twice-a-month payments to producers?

On these issues, it is concluded from the record as follows:

1. That the present level of Class I price, with adjustment for seasonal change, should be maintained. This can best be done by including in the present formula based on the price of butter, some factor to reflect the unusual value of milk solids-not-fat;
2. That the present provision for pricing Class I milk sold outside the marketing area be continued;
3. That although it might be desirable to include an automatic adjustment for prices following a drought, additional data on weather stations to be included, effect of the proposal, etc., are needed;
4. That "surplus cream" shall be removed from Class III classification and set up under subdivisions of Class II; that three classifications be set up, II–D (mainly Philadelphia and Pennsylvania cream); II–E (mainly Boston and New England cream); and II–F (mainly ice cream in the special cream area and cream cheese); that the price for each of these new classifications be based on the competitive price of cream in the market where sold;
5. That skim milk shall be classified into two classes: V–A (mainly skim milk for fluid consumption in the marketing area) and V–B (mainly skim milk for manufacture). That Class V–A be priced at the Class I price less the price set for butterfat in Class II–A and Class V–B be priced at the value of skim milk for making skim milk powder;
6. That milk for American cheese shall be priced on the basis of the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange quoted price for "Twins" rather than "Single Daisies";
7. That the present provisions for payments to cooperative associations be continued;
8. That diversion payments on all cream classes be discontinued to permit the pricing of cream on a competitive basis. That diversion payments be continued on Class III and Class IV–B;
9. That the provision to permit cooperative associations to account for milk at less than the stated class price, if after posting milk for sale in certain classes with the market administrator, no buyer is found for the milk, should not be included in the order;
10. That, because it was so ruled by the hearing master, after consultation with counsel in attendance at the hearing, the proposal for extending the marketing area and related matters be held over for further consideration at a new hearing;
11. That no action be taken at this time on the issues raised at the hearing and noted under paragraphs 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16 above and that these issues be considered further at a new hearing; and
12. That because most producers are now being paid twice a month on a voluntary basis, such a provision should not be included in the order.

The proposed amended marketing order and proposed amended marketing agreement are recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out.

This report filed at Washington, D. C., the 24th day of February 1942.

PROPOSED AMENDED MARKETING ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA. PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE SURPLUS MARKETING ADMINISTRATION, UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE [1]

FINDINGS

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held in Brooklyn, New York, on January 7 through 9; Utica, New York, January 12 through 14; Binghamton, New York January 15 through 17; Utica, New York, January 19 and 20; and Brooklyn, New York, January 22 through 28; said findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at all prior hearings on said order and amendments thereto (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed, save only as such findings are in conflict with findings hereinafter set forth):

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 and section 8c of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

2. That the order, as amended, as herewith amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amended order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

PROVISIONS

§ 927.1 Definitions. The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

(b) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(c) "New York metropolitan milk marketing area" means the city of New York, the counties of Nassau, Suffolk (except Fisher's Island), and Westchester, all in the State of New York, and is hereinafter called the "marketing area."

(d) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(e) "Producer" means any person who produces milk which is delivered to a handler at a plant which is approved by any health authority for the receiving of milk to be sold in the marketing area.

(f) "Handler" means any person who engages in the handling of milk or cream; or milk products therefrom, which milk was received at a plant approved by any health authority for the receiving of milk to be sold in the marketing area, which handling is in the current of interstate commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce. This definition shall be deemed to include a cooperative association of producers with respect to any milk received from producers at any plant approval for which is held by such association, or with respect to any milk which it causes to be delivered from producers to any other handler for the account of such association and for which such association receives payment.

(g) "Market administrator" means the agency, which is described in § 927.2, for the administration of this order.

(h) "Special cream area" means the territory, with the exception of the marketing area, which lies within the boundaries of the State of New York and of the following counties in the State of New Jersey:

Bergen.	Morris.
Essex.	Passaic.
Hudson.	Somerset.
Hunterdon.	Sussex.
Middlesex.	Union.
Monmouth.	Warren.

(i) "New England" means the territory which lies within the boundaries of the States of Connecticut, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

§ 927.2 Market administrator—(a) Selection, removal, and bond. The agency for the administration of this order shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected and subject to removal by the Secretary. The market administrator shall, within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary.

(b) Compensation. The market administrator shall be entitled to such reasonable compensation as shall be determined by the Secretary.

(c) Powers. The market administrator shall have power to administer the terms and provisions hereof, and to receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this order.

(d) Duties. The market administrator, in addition to the duties hereinafter described, shall:

(1) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein;

(2) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary at any and all times;

(3) Furnish such information and such verified reports as the Secretary may request;

(4) Obtain a bond with reasonable security thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(5) Publicly disclose, after reasonable notice, the name of any person who has not made reports pursuant to § 927.5 (a), or made payments required by § 927.7;

(6) Prepare and disseminate, for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers, such statistics and information concerning the operation of this order as do not reveal confidential information;

(7) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer the terms and provisions hereof;

(8) Pay out of the funds received pursuant to § 927.8 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of such of his employees as handle funds entrusted to the market administrator, his own compensation, and all other expenses which will necessarily be incurred by him for the maintenance and functioning of his office and the performance of his duties; and

(9) Maintain a main office and such branch offices as may be necessary.

(e) Announcement of prices. The market administrator shall compute and publicly announce prices as follows:

(1) Not later than the 25th day of each month, the average for 30 days immediately preceding, of the prices reported daily by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the New York market, and the average of all the hot roller process dry skim milk quotations for "other brands, animal feed, carlots, bags, or barrels," and for "other brands, human consumption, carlots, bags, or barrels" (using midpoint of any range as one quotation), published during the preceding 30 days in "The Producers' Price-Current," and the Class I, Class II–A and the Class V–A prices to be in effect for the following month, pursuant to § 927.4 (a).

(2) Not later than the 5th day of each month, the prices for all other classes pursuant to § 927.4 (a) and the differentials pursuant to § 927.4 (b) in effect for the preceding month.

[1] This proposed amended marketing order is prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the general regulations, Surplus Marketing Administration, and has not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 927.3 Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. All milk received during any month from producers by handlers shall be classified in the classes set forth in paragraph (b) of this section in accordance with the form in which it is held at or moved from, within 8 days after the end of the month, the plant where received from producers, including members of any cooperative association, except that milk which is moved to some other plant outside the marketing area, or milk the butterfat from which is moved to some other plant outside the marketing area, may be classified at the first plant subject to the following conditions:

(1) If the other plant is approved for the sale of milk in the marketing area, and all products moved from or held at such plant would classify milk in classes to which diversion payments are applicable, the allocation of the several classes to the first plant may be at the option of the handler or handlers involved, but shall be pro rata in case of failure to exercise the option, or in case there is milk or product moved from or held at such plant which would classify milk in classes to which diversion payments are not applicable.

(2) If the other plant is not approved for the sale of milk in the marketing area, allocation of classes to the first plant shall, in the absence of proof of use in a specific class, be pro rata in accordance with the form in which all milk, all cream, or all of both, as the case may be, received during the month at the other plant, was held at or moved from such plant except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(3) If the other plant is a plant the handling of milk at which is subject to another order of the Secretary for another marketing area, the allocation of classes to the first plant shall be as follows: If the milk is moved to such other plant in the form of milk, it shall be Class I milk; or if the milk is moved to such other plant in the form of cream, it shall be Class II–D or Class II–E: Provided, That the cream is not subsequently moved or shipped in the form of cream so as to classify it as Class II–A, Class II–B, or Class II–C.

(4) In establishing the classification of any milk received at a plant from producers the burden rests upon the handler who receives the milk from producers to show that it should not be classified as Class I milk; likewise, having established the manufacture of cream, the burden rests upon such handler to show that the milk the butterfat from which was manufactured into cream, should not be classified in Class II–A, and that the skim milk resulting from the manufacture of cream should not be classified as Class V–A: Provided, That the only form in which butterfat received as cream at any plant in the marketing area may leave such plant so that it may be classified other than in Classes I or II–A is in the form of frozen desserts or homogenized mixtures.

(b) Classes of utilization. Subject to all of the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the classes of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk which leaves a plant as milk, or cultured or flavored milk drinks containing 3.0 percent butterfat or more, and all milk the classification of which is not established in some other class named in this paragraph, except that loss or waste of milk in a plant where milk is received from producers, not to exceed 2 percent of the total quantity of milk received, may be prorated to each class or price subdivision of such class except Class V–A and Class V–B, in the proportion in which the milk in such class or price subdivision of such class is of the total quantity of milk received at such plant: Provided, That any loss or waste in excess of 2 percent shall be subject to the price set forth in § 927.4 (a) (1).

(2) Class II–A milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cultured or flavored milk drinks containing less than 3.0 percent butterfat or in the form of cream, sweet or sour, unless such cream is established to have been subsequently so handled or marketed as to classify such milk in some other class.

(3) Class II–B milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of plain condensed milk or, except as set forth in subparagraphs (5), (6), and (7) of this paragraph, frozen desserts or homogenized mixtures; or which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cream which is subsequently held in a licensed cold storage warehouse at an average temperature below zero degrees Fahrenheit for 7 consecutive days, and below 15 degrees Fahrenheit for at least 21 days thereafter, as shown by charts of a recording thermometer, and which is subject at all times to being inspected by a representative of the market administrator to determine the physical presence of the cream and the temperature of the room where stored. After the first 7 consecutive days such cream may be moved from one licensed cold storage warehouse to another: Provided, That the market administrator receives notice of such removal within 48 hours thereafter. Any handler whose report claimed the original classification of milk in this class shall be liable under the provisions of § 927.7 (j) for the difference between the Class II–B and Class II–A prices for the month in which the II–B classification was claimed on any such milk if the storage of the cream does not comply with all the requirements of this subparagraph.

(4) Class II–C milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cream which is delivered to a plant or a purchaser in the special cream area, is not moved as cream to a plant in the marketing area or sold in the marketing area, and the classification of which is not established in some other class.

(5) Class II–D milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cream or in the form of frozen desserts or in the form of homogenized mixtures used in frozen desserts, which is delivered to a plant or a purchaser outside the marketing area, outside the special cream area and outside New England: Provided, That the cream is not moved to a plant in the marketing area, in the special cream area, or in New England; or sold in the marketing area, in the special cream area, or in New England: And provided further, That the frozen desserts, or the homogenized mixtures used in frozen desserts are not moved to a plant in New York City, or sold in New York City.

(6) Class II–E milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cream or in the form of frozen desserts or in the form of homogenized mixtures in frozen desserts, which is delivered to a plant or a purchaser in New England: Provided, That the cream is not moved to a plant outside New England or sold outside New England: And provided further, That the frozen desserts or homogenized mixtures used in frozen desserts are not moved to a plant in New York City or sold in New York City.

(7) Class II–F milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of frozen desserts or in the form of homogenized mixtures used in frozen desserts, except as set forth in subparagraphs (5) and (6) of this paragraph, provided the frozen desserts in both instances were sold and remained outside of New York City; or all the butterfat which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of cream cheese.

(8) Class III milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of evaporated milk in hermetically sealed cans, sweetened condensed milk, milk chocolate, and other candy products, milk powder, malted milk powder, or cheeses other than those specified in subparagraphs (7) and (10) of this paragraph.

(9) Class IV–A milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of butter.

(10) Class IV–B milk shall be all milk which leaves or is on hand at a plant in the form of Cheddar cheese, American Cheddar cheese, Colby cheese, washed curd cheese, or part-skim Cheddar cheese.

(11) Class V–A milk shall be the skim milk in all milk which is classified pursuant to subparagraphs (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), and (9) of this paragraph, which skim milk enters the marketing area in the form of fluid skim milk or cultured or flavored milk drinks, and which is not utilized in some other product: Provided, That for the purposes of this subparagraph and of subparagraph (12) of this paragraph there shall be 91.25 pounds of skim milk in each 100 pounds of milk having a butterfat content of 3.5 percent, plus an additional 0.25 pounds of skim milk for each point of butterfat in such milk below 3.5 percent or minus an additional 0.25 pounds of skim milk for each point of butterfat in such milk above 3.5 percent.

(12) Class V–B milk shall be the skim milk in all milk which is classified pursuant to subparagraphs (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), and (9) of this paragraph, which skim milk is not classified pursuant to subparagraph (11) of this paragraph.

§ 927.4 Minimum prices. For milk received during each month from producers or cooperative associations of producers, each handler shall pay per hundredweight not less than the prices set forth in this section. Any handler who purchases or receives, during any month, milk from a cooperative association of producers which is also a handler shall, on or before the 15th day of the following month, pay such cooperative association in full for such milk at not less than the minimum class prices applicable pursuant to this section.

(a) Class prices. (1) For Class I milk the price per hundredweight during each month shall be, except as specified in subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph, as set forth in the table in this subparagraph:

92-score butter, wholesale at New York, average announced pursuant to §927.2 (e), plus an amount calculated as follows: deduct 4 cents from the average dry skim milk quotations announced pursuant to 927.2 (e) and multiply by 1.3	Class I price

(2) For Class I milk sold by a handler in the marketing area under a program approved by the Secretary and upon which payment is made out of Federal funds, the price shall be 57 cents per hundredweight less than the price in effect pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) For Class I milk which has not passed through the marketing area, but which is ultimately distributed in an area regulated by another order of the Secretary, the price shall be the Class I price set forth in such other order for milk sold in such marketing area subject to the butterfat and location differentials set forth in such other order.

(4) For Class I milk which has not passed through the marketing area, but including Class I milk which was received direct from producers at a plant in the marketing area, and which is ultimately distributed in an area not regulated by an order of the Secretary, the price shall be the uniform price computed by the market administrator pursuant to § 927.6 (b) plus 20 cents per hundredweight included in the net pool obligation for such milk pursuant to § 927.6 (a).

(5) For Class II–A milk, the price during each month shall be as set forth in the following table:

46 or over	2.55	2.70

(6) For Class II–B milk, the price during each month shall be 12 cents less than the Class II–A price.

(7) For Class II–C milk, the price during each month shall be 10 cents higher than the Class II–E price applicable at a plant located within the 0–250 mile zone from Boston.

(8) For Class II–D milk the price during each month shall be a price calculated by the market administrator as follows: add all weekly market quotations (using midpoint of any weekly range as one quotation) of prices reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the month during which such milk was received from producers for a 40-quart can of 40 percent sweet cream approved for Pennsylvania only, and for Pennsylvania, Newark, and Lower Merion Township, divide by the number of quotations, subtract 28 cents, divide by 33.48, multiply by 3.5, subtract 21.5 cents. Such price shall be subject to the minus differentials set forth in the following table applicable to the location of the plant at which the cream, frozen desserts, or homogenized mixtures are made with reference to its mileage distance from the City Hall in Philadelphia; and any such mileage distance shall be that recognized for rate-making purposes by the Interstate Commerce Commission:

Miles:	Cents
31–70	−3.5
231–310	−6.5
311–390	−7.5

Provided, That in no event shall the Class II–D price at any plant be lower than the Class IV–A price plus 10 cents.

(9) For Class II–E milk the price during each month shall be a price calculated by the market administrator as follows: divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the month during which such milk was received from producers, or the last such price reported for a month if no such price is reported for the month during which such milk was received, multiply by 3.5, subtract 21.5 cents. Such price shall be subject to the minus differentials set forth in the following table applicable to the location of the plant at which the cream, frozen desserts, or homogenized mixtures are made with reference to its mileage distance from the State House in Boston and any such mileage distance shall be that recognized for rate-making purposes by the Interstate Commerce Commission:

Miles:	Cents

301–350	−7.2
351–400	−8.2

Provided, That in no event shall the Class II–E price at any plant be lower than the Class IV–A price plus 10 cents.

(10) For Class II–F milk the price during each month shall be the price for Class II–E milk.

(11) For Class III milk the price during each month shall be 10 cents higher than the average, computed by the market administrator, of prices, as reported to the United States Department of Agriculture, paid during such month to farmers by each of the evaporated milk plants which purchase milk at places listed in this subparagraph and for which prices are reported: Provided, That in no event shall the Class III price be less than a price computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average price of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market for such month, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, add 30 percent, multiply by 3.5, and add 7 cents.

Greenville, Wis.	Belleville, Wis.
Manitowoc, Wis.	New London, Wis.
Black Creek, Wis.	Coldwater, Ohio.
Orfordville, Wis.	Delta, Ohio.
Chilton, Wis.	West Bend, Wis.

(12) For Class IV–A milk the price during each month shall be a price computed by the market administrator as follows: From the average of the highest prices reported daily during each month by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the New York market, deduct 4 cents, add 20 percent, and multiply by 3.5.

(13) For Class IV–B milk the price during each month shall be a price computed by the market administrator as follows: From the average of weekly quotations at Wisconsin Cheese Exchange, Plymouth, Wisconsin, for Cheddars, or in the absence of such quotations for Cheddars, the weekly quotations at Wisconsin Cheese Exchange for Twins, subtract ¾ cent and multiply the result by 9.45.

(14) For Class V–A milk the price during each month shall be the difference between the price for Class I milk set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and the price for Class II–A milk set forth in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph, and the result divided by 0.9125.

(15) For Class V–B milk the price during each month shall be a price computed by the market administrator as follows: From the average of all the hot roller process dry skim milk quotations for "other brands, animal feed, carlots, bags, or barrels" and for "other brands, human consumption, carlot, bags, or barrels" (using midpoint of any range as one quotation), published for the delivery period in "The Producers' Price-Current," subtract 4 cents, and multiply by 8.3.

(b) Butterfat differentials. The minimum prices for Class I milk specified in paragraph (a) of this section shall be plus or minus 4 cents for each one-tenth of 1 percent of butterfat therein above or below 3.5 percent. The minimum price for Class IV–B milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat shall be plus or minus, for each one-tenth of 1 percent butterfat above or below 3.5 percent, an amount equal to the price set forth in subparagraph (13) of paragraph (a) of this section, divided by 9.45 and multiplied by 0.23. The minimum prices for each of the other classes except Classes V–A and V–B containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat shall be plus or minus, for each one-tenth of 1 percent butterfat above or below 3.5 percent, an amount equal to the repective prices set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, divided by 35.

(c) Transportation differentials. The market administrator shall from time to time publicly announce for each plant outside the marketing area, operated by each handler, the freight zone set forth in the schedule below in this section according to the railway mileage distance from New York City terminals of its nearest railway shipping point, or its highway mileage distance from New York City, if the latter is less than the former by more than five miles. Any such mileage distance shall be that recognized for rate-making purposes by the Interstate Commerce Commission. For the purposes of this paragraph each plant within the marketing area shall be assigned by the market administrator to the 1–10 mile freight zone. The minimum prices set forth in paragraph (a) of this section shall be plus or minus the amounts as set forth in the following schedule:

§ 927.5 Reports of handlers—(a) Monthly reports. On or before the 10th day of each month each handler shall report to the market administrator, in the manner and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, with respect to milk received at each plant during the preceding month:

(1) The total quantity of milk, with the average butterfat content thereof, received from producers, from other plants, from such handler's own farm, and from other handlers;

(2) The total quantity of such milk and of each product of such milk moved out of, or on hand at, such plant within 5 days after the end of such month, the butterfat content of each product, and the destination of any milk which moved out of such plant;

(3) If the classification of any milk is claimed by such handler on the basis of disposition in some other plant, the disposition of such milk at such other plant covered by statement signed by the operator of the other plant if not a handler; and

(4) The computation, pursuant to § 927.6 (a), of such handler's net pool obligation.

(b) Producer pay roll reports. Each handler shall report with respect to producers as follows:

(1) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, the information required by the market administrator with respect to producer additions, producer withdrawals, and changes in names of farm operators;

(2) On or before the last day of each month, such handler's producer pay roll for the preceding month, which shall show for each producer;

(i) The total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof;

(ii) The amount of payment due such producers;

(iii) Any deductions and charges made by the handlers;

(iv) The net amount of payment to such producer made pursuant to § 927.7; and

(v) Such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may require.

(c) Verification of reports and payments. The market administrator shall promptly verify all reports and payments of each handler by audit of such handler's records, and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose disposition of milk such handler claims classification, and each such handler shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator or his representative such records and facilities, of his own or of other persons, as will enable the market administrator to:

(1) Verify the receipts and disposition of all milk required to be reported pursuant to this section, and, in case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures;

(2) Weigh, sample, and test for butterfat content the milk received from producers and any product of milk upon which classification depends;

(3) Verify the payments to producers prescribed in § 927.7; and

(4) Verify all claims for payments pursuant to § 927.7 (d), (e), and (f).

§ 927.6 Determination of uniform prices—(a) Net pool obligation of handlers. The net pool obligation of each handler for milk received from producers during each month shall be a sum of money computed for such month as follows:

(1) Determine the total quantity of milk in each class at each plant;

(2) Subtract pro rata out of each class the quantity of milk received from the handler's own farm or from a farm in Nassau or Suffolk Counties, not approved for sale of milk in New York City;

(3) Prorate in the case of each plant where milk is received from producers, to each class or price subdivision of each class, the loss or waste of milk at such plant not to exceed 2 percent of the total quantity of milk in all classes except Class V–A and Class V–B and calculate any remainder as Class I milk subject to the price set forth in § 927.4 (a) (1);

(4) Subtract from the remaining quantity of milk, or skim milk as the case may be, in each class, the quantity of such milk, or skim milk, as the case may be, received from any other plant, or received from any other handler which result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in each class at each plant;

(5) Subject to adjustment for appropriate differentials applicable pursuant to § 927.4 (b) and (c), multiply the Class I milk priced pursuant to § 927.4 (a) (4) by 20 cents per hundredweight, multiply the remaining net pooled milk, or skim milk, as the case may be, in each class, by the class price, and add together the resulting values;

(6) Deduct, in the case of each plant where the average butterfat content of all milk received from producers is in excess of 3.5 percent and add, in the case of each plant where the butterfat content of all milk received from producers is less than 3.5 percent, the total value of the butterfat differential applicable pursuant to § 927.7 (c);

(7) Deduct, in the case of each plant nearer New York City than the 201–210 mile zone, and add, in the case of each plant farther from New York City than the 201–210 mile zone, the sum obtained by multiplying the net pooled milk by the zone differential set forth in column B of the schedule in § 927.4 (c) applicable to the plant;

(8) With respect to net pooled milk in classes other than Classes V–A and V–B, deduct 30 cents per hundredweight at plants in the marketing area; and 20 cents per hundredweight at plants located at Accord, Ellenville, Gardiner, Kyserike, New Paltz, Phinney's Crossing, Wallkill, and West Coxsackie, New York, and in the following counties:

New Jersey counties. Burlington, Essex, Hunterdon, Morris, Passaic, Somerset, Sussex, Union, and Warren,

New York counties. Columbia, Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, and Rockland.

Connecticut county. Litchfield.

Massachusetts county. Berkshire.

(9) Add together the handler's net pool obligation for all plants at which milk was received from producers.

(b) Computation of the uniform price. The market administrator shall, on or before the 14th day of each month, audit for mathematical correctness and obvious errors the report submitted for the preceding month by each handler. If the unreserved cash balance in the producer-settlement fund to be included in the computation is less than 2 cents per hundredweight of net pooled milk on all reports, the report of any handler who has not made payment of the last monthly pool debit account rendered pursuant to § 927.7 (g) shall not be included in the computation of the uniform price. The report of such handler shall not be included in the computation for succeeding months until he has made full payment of outstanding monthly pool debits. Subject to the aforementioned conditions the market administrator shall compute the uniform price in the following manner:

(1) Combine into one total the net pool obligations of all handlers;

(2) Subtract the total of payments required to be made for such month by § 927.7 (d) and the total of payments claimed pursuant to § 927.7 (e);

(3) Add the amount of unreserved cash in the producer-settlement fund;

(4) Subtract an amount equal to not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of net pooled milk in classes other than Class V–A and Class V–B to provide against the contingency of errors in reports and payments or of delinquencies in payments by handlers;

(5) Subtract, from the total net pooled milk of all handlers whose reports are included in this computation, the Class I milk priced pursuant to § 927.4 (a) (6) and subtract the skim milk classified pursuant to subparagraphs (11) and (12) of § 927.3 (b); and

(6) Divide the result obtained in (4) by the result obtained in (5). The result shall be known as the uniform price for milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat received from producers at plants in 201–210 mile zone.

§ 927.7 Payment to producers—(a) Time of payment. On or before the 25th day of each month each handler shall make payment to each producer for all milk delivered by such producer during the preceding month at not less than the uniform price subject to differentials set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section: Provided, That each handler which is also a cooperative marketing association determined by the Secretary to be qualified under the Capper-Volstead Act, may, with respect to producers who are members of and under contract with such association make distribution, in accordance with the contract between the association and such members, of the net proceeds of all its sales in all markets in all use classifications.

(b) Transportation and location differentials. The uniform price at any plant shall be—

(1) Plus or minus the differential shown in column B of the schedule contained in § 927.4 (c) for the zone of the plant in effect pursuant to § 927.4 (c); and

(2) Plus the differentials, if any, applicable pursuant to § 927.6 (a) (8) plus 5 cents.

(c) Butterfat differential. The uniform price shall be plus or minus, as the case may be, 4 cents per hundredweight for each one-tenth of 1 percent above or below 3.5 percent of average butterfat content of milk delivered by any producer during any month.

(d) Cooperative payments. Any cooperative association of producers may apply to the Secretary for a determination of its qualifications to receive payments pursuant to this paragraph by reason of its having and exercising full authority in the sale of the milk of its members; arranging for and supplying, in a manner commensurate with the marketing capacity of the several types of cooperative associations designated in this paragraph, in times of short supply, Class I milk to the marketing area; securing utilization of milk, in times of long supply, in a manner to assure the greatest possible returns to all producers; having its entire activities under the control of its members; and complying with all provisions of this order applicable to it.

After the Secretary has determined any cooperative to be qualified to receive payments pursuant to this paragraph, such cooperative shall from time to time, as requested by the market administrator, make reports to the market administrator with respect to services rendered to the market and the use of the sums received under this paragraph. Whenever the market administrator has reason to believe that any cooperative qualified by the Secretary is failing to perform the obligations covered by the payments under this paragraph, he shall suspend and hold in reserve such payments, notifying the Secretary and the cooperative of his action and the reasons therefor. Such suspended payments shall be held in reserve until the Secretary has, after hearing, disqualified such cooperative or ruled upon the performance of the cooperative and either ordered the suspended payments to be paid to the cooperative in whole or in part or disqualified the cooperative, in which event the balance of payments held in reserve shall be returned to the producer-settlement fund.

The market administrator shall make the payments authorized by this paragraph, or issue credit therefor, out of the producer-settlement fund on or before the 25th day of each month, subject to verification of the reports upon which such payment is based. Such payments shall be made to each cooperative association of producers under the following conditions and at the following rates:

(1) Three-quarters of one cent per hundredweight of net pooled milk at any handler's plant which was caused to be delivered from its members by such associations and on which such handler has made the reports and payments required by this order;

(2) Except as set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, two cents per hundredweight of net pooled milk at plants of other complying handlers which was reported and collected for by such association; and

(3) Four cents per hundredweight of net pooled milk at plants operated by such association and, if, in addition to the other qualifications, such association has been determined by the Secretary to have sufficient plant capacity to receive all the milk of producers who are members and to be willing and able to receive milk from producers not members, four cents per hundredweight of any net pooled milk which was caused by it to be delivered to any other complying handler and which is reported and collected for by such association.

(e) Diversion payments. Any handler may make claims, on forms supplied by the market administrator, for payments out of the producer-settlement fund under the conditions set forth in this paragraph with respect to milk which was received from producers at a plant not having any equipment other than that needed for the receiving and shipping of milk which was moved to a second plant outside of the marketing area and there manufactured. The market administrator shall make payment to such handler, subject to audit, out of the producer-settlement fund, or issue credit against balances due by such handler to the producer-settlement fund, at the following rates and under the following conditions:

(1) Payments may be made only on milk which has been, pursuant to § 927.3, properly classified, for any month of the year in Classes III and IV–B.

(2) No claim shall be allowed if the milk on which the claim is made is manufactured at a second plant which is one-half mile or less from the first plant.

(3) Claims shall be paid at a rate for handling through the receiving plant of 17 cents per hundredweight, plus a hauling allowance at the rate of ¼ cent per hundredweight per mile for 20 miles and 1/10 cent per hundredweight per additional mile for the shortest highway distance between the two plants: Provided, however, That no claim for a hauling allowance shall be paid for a haul greater than 65 miles.

(4) The market administrator shall from time to time cause inspections to be made of the buildings, facilities, and surroundings of plants and notify handlers of his determination as to what constitutes the plant and its equipment for the purpose of this § 927.7 (e). Such determination shall be ruling for all other purposes under this order.

(5) Diversion payments shall not be paid to any handler making claim therefore if, during the month for which such claim is made, such handler has a less proportion of net pooled milk in Class I than the proportion of total net pooled milk in Class I of all other handlers, and such handler has refused to sell milk to other handlers who do not operate or control country receiving plants or has refused to sell to such handlers milk of a butterfat test nearest to that desired by the purchaser if available in the seller's country plants which are eligible for diversion payments, provided the offer of purchase met the following conditions:

(i) Cash on delivery for a quantity of not less than 200 cans per shipment; method of delivery at the option of the buyer.

(ii) Purchase price equal to the price applicable pursuant to § 927.4 (a) (1), subject to the applicable differentials pursuant to (a) § 927.4 (c); (b) the butterfat differentials set forth in § 927.4 (b); (c) plus not more than 23 cents per hundredweight for handling through the country plants; and (d) plus the payments provided by § 927.8.

(f) Storage cream payments. With respect to butterfat in frozen cream held in one or more licensed cold-storage warehouses for more than 28 days under the conditions set forth in § 927.3 (b) (3), the handler whose net pool obligations included such butterfat as Class II–B milk may make claim, on forms supplied by the market administrator, for payments out of the producer-settlement fund, if such butterfat was stored during the months of April to September, inclusive, and was used in Classes II–D, II–E, or II–F during the months of October to March, inclusive, or in Class IV–A during the months of January to March, inclusive. The market administrator shall, after investigation and audit of such claim, make payment to such handler out of the producer-settlement fund, or issue credit against balances due from such handler to the producer-settlement fund in an amount equal to the difference between the Class II–B price and the class price for such utilization in effect for the month during which the milk was received from producers.

(g) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as "the producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to paragraphs (h) and (j) of this section and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to paragraphs (e), (f), and (j) of this section, and to cooperative associations of producers pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section: Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any such payment due to any handler against payments due from such handler. Immediately after computing the uniform price for each month the market administrator shall compute the amount by which each handler's net pool obligation is greater or less than the amount obtained by multiplying the uniform price by the quantity of such handler's net pooled milk remaining after subtracting therefrom the Class I milk priced pursuant to § 927.4 (a) (4), and shall enter such amount on each handler's account as such handler's pool debit or credit as the case may be, and render such handler a transcript of his account.

(h) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 18th day of each month, each handler shall make full payment of any pool debit balance shown in the account rendered, pursuant to paragraph (g) of this section, for the preceding month.

(i) Payments out of producer-settlement fund. On or before the 20th day of each month the market administrator shall remit to each handler the pool credit of such handler, if any, for the preceding month less any unpaid obligations. If, at such time, the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make full payment due to each handler, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly the payments made to each handler and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler who, on the 25th day of the month, has not received the balance of such reduced payment from the market administrator shall be deemed to be in violation of paragraph (a) of this section if he reduces his total payments to producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund.

(j) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors made in payments to or from the producer-settlement fund, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount, and such handler shall, within 5 days, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment to any producer for milk delivered to any handler discloses payment to such producer of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payment next following such disclosure.

§ 927.8 Expense of administration—(a) Payment by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler shall, on or before the 20th day of each month, pay to the market administrator a sum not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight on the total quantity of milk which was received from producers at plants operated by such handler, directly or at the instance of a cooperative association of producers, and which was properly classified in Classes I, II–A, and II–B, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator subject to review by the Secretary. This section shall not be deemed to duplicate any similar payment by any handler under an order issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the State of New York, with respect to the marketing area.

§ 927.9 Suspension, termination, and liquidation—(a) Continuing obligations of handlers. Unless otherwise provided by the Secretary in any notice of amendment, termination, or suspension of any or all of the provisions hereof, such amendment, termination, or suspension shall not affect, waive, or terminate any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have risen or may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this order; release or waive any violation of this order occurring prior to the effective date of such amendment, termination, or suspension; or affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violations.

(b) Continuing power and duty of market administrator. The market administrator shall (1) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and (3) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator pursuant hereto.

(c) Liquidation. Upon the termination or suspension hereof, the market administrator shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possessions or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid and owing at the time of such termination or suspension. Any funds collected for expenses, pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator in liquidating the business of the market administrator's office shall be distributed by the market administrator to handlers in an equitable manner.

PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MILK MARKETING AREA PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE SURPLUS MARKETING ADMINISTRATION, UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE [1]

Whereas the parties hereto, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the said act, desired to enter into this marketing agreement.

Now, therefore, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The terms and provisions of § 927.1 through § 927.9 of Order No. 27, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area, issued -------- 1942, shall be the terms and provisions of § 927.1 through § 927.9 of the marketing agreement with the exception that wherever the word "order" is used the words "marketing agreement" shall be substituted therefor; and

2. The following sections shall also be a part of the marketing agreement in addition to § 927.1 through § 927.9 of said order:

§ 927.10 Termination. The Secretary may terminate this agreement whenever he finds that this agreement obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Any handler signatory to this agreement may withdraw as a party to it upon 30 days' written notice to the Secretary effective at midnight on the last day of the month first succeeding the expiration of such 30 days. Such notice of withdrawal may be given to the Secretary by sending it by postpaid, registered mail addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Such termination shall not release such handler from any obligations under this agreement in respect of transactions occurring prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

Such handler has signed this agreement on the express condition, and the Secretary agrees and confirms, that the execution of this agreement and compliance therewith and with the order of the Secretary for the period that the agreement remains in effect shall be without prejudice to any and all rights of the handler, and shall not constitute an admission by the handler of the validity of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 or of the order of the Secretary or any of its terms, or any obligation imposed in connection therewith, or any waiver by such handler or estoppel of his rights to question the validity of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 or the order of the Secretary or any provision thereof, on any and all grounds; all of which rights are hereby expressly reserved to any such handler upon and after withdrawal from the agreement with the same force and effect as if the handler had never become party hereto.

This agreement shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 927.11 Liability—(a) Handlers. The liability of the handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

§ 927.12 Antitrust laws. Any exemption from the antitrust laws and any validation of any acts or things, which otherwise would have been unlawful, resulting from the execution of this agreement by the Secretary, shall not extend or be construed to extend further than is absolutely necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this agreement.

§ 927.13 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue of this agreement shall cease upon its termination, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this agreement, and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement upon any parties signatory hereto shall cease upon its termination as to such party, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this agreement.

§ 927.14 Counterparts and additional parties—(a) Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute, when taken together, one and the same instrument, as if all such signatures were obtained in one original.

(b) Additional parties. After this agreement first takes effect, any handler may become a party to this agreement if a counterpart thereof is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.

§ 927.15 Authorization to correct typographical errors and record of milk handled during the month of April 1941—(a) Authorization to correct typographical errors. The undersigned hereby authorizes O. M. Reed, Chief, Dairy Division, Surplus Marketing Administration, to correct any typographical errors which may have been made in this marketing agreement, as amended.

(b) Record of milk handled during the month of ----------. The undersigned certifies that he handled during the month of ----------, ------ hundredweight of milk covered by this agreement, as amended, and disposed of within the marketing area.

§ 927.16 Signature of parties. In witness whereof, the contracting handlers, acting under the provisions of the act, for the purposes and subject to the limitations herein contained and not otherwise, have hereunto set their respective hands and seals.

[Docket Nos. G-200, G-207]

CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN, AND COUNTY OF WAYNE, MICHIGAN V. PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE COMPANY AND MICHIGAN GAS TRANSMISSION CORPORATION; AND IN THE MATTER OF PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE COMPANY AND MICHIGAN GAS TRANSMISSION CORPORATION

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR CONTINUANCE AND CHANGING PLACE OF HEARING

FEBRUARY 17, 1942.

Upon application filed February 4, 1942, by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Defendant, for a continuance of the hearing in this proceeding for a period of at least 60 days; and

It appearing that: (a) The City of Detroit, Michigan, and County of Wayne, Michigan, Complainants, on February 11, 1942, filed objections to the said petition for continuance;

(b) Subsequent to the filing of said petition for continuance, the hearing was recessed by the Commission's Examiner to reconvene on February 23, 1942;

(c) No good cause exists for a 60-day postponement of the hearing;

The Commission orders that: (A) The said petition for a continuance of 60 days be and it is hereby denied;

(B) The hearing in this proceeding be resumed on February 24, 1942, at 9:45 a. m., C. W. T., in Room 406, County Building, at Detroit, Michigan.

[Docket No. IT-5772]

IN THE MATTER OF CENTRAL ILLINOIS PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

FEBRUARY 20, 1942.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Central Illinois Public Service Company (hereinafter referred to as Company) is engaged in the transmission and sale at wholesale of electric energy in interstate commerce and may be, therefore, a public utility within the meaning of the Federal Power Act subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission;

(b) The Company has filed purported reclassification of accounts and original cost studies pursuant to Electric Plant Accounts Instruction 2-D of the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Public Utilities and Licensees and the Commission's order of May 11, 1937, pertaining thereto;

(c) The staff of the Federal Power Commission has made a field study of the Company's purported reclassification of accounts and original cost studies;

(d) The Company has failed in many respects to comply with the requirements of the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts concerning the reclassification of its plant accounts, and the Commission's order of May 11, 1937, pertaining thereto, and more particularly as follows:

(i) The Company has failed to make proper analyses of records of cost of its electric plant to permit a proper reclassification thereof to the prescribed accounts;

(ii) The Company has not made such analyses as would permit the determination of unrecorded or underpriced retirements;

(iii) The Company has made estimates of costs which appear to be arbitrary, unsupported and unnecessary because of available records;

(iv) The Company has classified as Unsegregated Plant Acquisition Adjustments the difference between the recorded cost of acquired plant, all departments, and its determination of original cost of electric and gas utility plant plus amounts transferred to other utility plant accounts, no classification being made of amounts includible in Account 100.5, Electric Plant Acquisition Adjustments;

(v) The Company has reflected in other accounts amounts properly includible in Account 107, Electric Plant Adjustments, contrary to the provisions of Electric Plant Instruction 1-F;

The Commission orders that:

(A) Central Illinois Public Service Company show cause, if any, there be, at a public hearing to be held on March 23, 1942, at 10 a. m., Central War Time, in the Offices of the Illinois Commerce Commission, Centennial Building, at Springfield, Illinois, why the Commission should not by order require the Company to prepare and submit reclassification of accounts and original cost studies in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts and its order of May 11, 1937; all in accordance with the evidence adduced at such public hearing;

(B) The Illinois Commerce Commission may participate in the hearing as provided in Part 39, Section 39.4, of this Commission's Rules of Practice and Regulations prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act.

IN THE MATTERS OF CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS COMPANY, APPLICANT; AND CENTRAL PUBLIC UTILITY CORPORATION, AND CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS COMPANY, RESPONDENTS

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING APPLICATION OF HARRISON E. FRYBERGER FOR LEAVE TO INTERVENE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Practice and Procedure—Intervention

Application by claimant for leave to intervene denied where it appeared that claim had not been reduced to judgment and that claimant was neither a stockholder nor a creditor of either of respondent companies, the Commission finding that the requirements of Rule XVII of its Rules of Practice had not been satisfied.

The Commission, on December 27, 1941, issued its Notice of and Order for Hearing on a plan filed under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company; Notice of and Order instituting proceedings against the Respondents and setting date for hearing under sections 11(b) (1) and 11(b) (2) of said Act; and Order consolidating such proceedings for purposes of hearing.

Harrison E. Fryberger has filed an application for leave to intervene in the above-entitled matters in his own behalf as a so-called claimant and on behalf of a class of persons also styled as claimants. Since it does not appear that the applicant has been authorized to represent any other persons, this will be treated solely as an application by Fryberger in his own behalf.

Fryberger presently owns no securities of either Central Public Utility Corporation or Consolidated Electric and Gas Company. He does not assert that he is a consumer of any of the public utility companies in the holding-company system here involved.

Applicant alleges that he has a claim against Consolidated Electric and Gas Company arising from a purchase of stock in Central Public Service Corporation, a predecessor holding company, substantially all of whose assets were transferred to Consolidated Electric and Gas Company in 1932, pursuant to a so-called Voluntary Plan of Reorganization, which plan was consummated in its ultimate form in 1935 in the course of proceedings under Section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

A suit in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, seeking to establish this claim as a cause of action against Consolidated Electric and Gas Company and others, resulted in a decision in favor of the defendants, which decision was affirmed by both the Appellate Division and the Court of Appeals of the State of New York. A bill in equity in the Court of Chancery of Delaware was dismissed on the grounds that the matter was res judicata. A third suit in New York has resulted in an adverse decision, although the right of appeal in this action is still available. We express no opinion with regard to the merits of Fryberger's claim; it is sufficient to state that this claim has not been established in a court of competent jurisdiction and that Fryberger has not established his status as a creditor of either of the respondent companies.

Furthermore, it does not appear that these proceedings will in any way prejudice any rights of action that Fryberger may have against either of the Respondents herein. The Commission finds that he has not established that he possesses or represents an interest which is or may be inadequately represented in the proceedings as required by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice and that his participation in the proceedings would not be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the application of Harrison E. Fryberger for leave to intervene in the above-entitled proceedings be, and the same hereby is, in all respects denied, without prejudice however to the renewal of such application at such time as the said Harrison E. Fryberger shall have established himself as a judgment creditor of either Central Public Utility Corporation or Consolidated Electric and Gas Company.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Healy and Pike), Commissioners Burke and O'Brien being absent and not participating.

IN THE MATTER OF PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF INDIANA, INC., WEST INDIANA UTILITIES COMPANY, AND BRAZIL ELECTRIC COMPANY

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1940.

The above named parties having filed a joint declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) thereof, and Rules U-42 and U-43 promulgated thereunder regarding:

(1) The surrender by West Indiana Utilities Company ("West Indiana") of all the outstanding securities of Brazil Electric Company ("Brazil"), the dissolution of Brazil and the transfer of Brazil's assets to West Indiana; and

(2) The surrender by Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc. ("Public Service") of all the outstanding securities of West Indiana, the dissolution of West Indiana and the transfer of West Indiana assets, including those received from Brazil, to Public Service.

Said declaration having been filed on January 16, 1942 and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 pursuant to said Act and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in said notice or otherwise and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and the above named persons having requested that said declaration be permitted to become effective as soon as possible; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration to become effective pursuant to section 12 (c) and 12 (f) of the Act and Rules U-42 and U-43 promulgated thereunder and being satisfied that the effective date of said declaration should be advanced;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 that the above declaration be and it hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF FORD R. JENNINGS AND GEORGE N. FLEMING, PROPOSED ORGANIZERS OF A PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE CLARION RIVER POWER COMPANY 6% NON-CUMULATIVE PARTICIPATING CAPITAL STOCK; SUCH PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE TO REPRESENT ITS DEPOSITORS IN PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THIS COMMISSION CAPTIONED: AND IN THE MATTER OF PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC COMPANY, THE CLARION RIVER POWER COMPANY, ERIE LIGHTING COMPANY, YOUGHIOGHENY HYDRO-ELECTRIC CORPORATION, ASSOCIATED MARYLAND ELECTRIC POWER CORPORATION, ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration on Form U-R-I has been filed by Ford R. Jennings and George N. Fleming pursuant to Rule U-62 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the undertakings therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Declarants propose to solicit deposits from the public holders of the 6% Non-Cumulative Participating Capital Stock $100 par value of The Clarion River Power Company. Of a total of 44,530 shares of such stock outstanding 4,267.6 shares are in the hands of the public.

The purpose of such solicitation, as set forth in the declaration, is to obtain the right to represent depositors in a proceeding before this Commission which proceeding is involved, among other things, with the sale to Pennsylvania Electric Company, parent of The Clarion River Power Company, of all of the assets of The Clarion River Power Company, it being represented that a consummation of the sale as proposed by Pennsylvania Electric Company and The Clarion River Power Company would leave no equity for the Participating Capital Stock of The Clarion River Power Company. (On February 17, 1942 this Commission allowed the declarations to become effective and approved the applications embracing, among other things, the sale above mentioned. Our order, however, expressly reserved jurisdiction "to determine whether and the extent to which the indebtedness of The Clarion River Power Company to Pennsylvania Electric Company should be subordinated to the publicly held Participating Capital Stock • • •" Holding Company Act Release No. 3332.)

The declaration discloses that declarants, Ford R. Jennings and George N. Fleming, are each engaged in the securities business and each own Participating Capital Stock of The Clarion River Power Company, the holdings of Jennings being 30 shares and Fleming's being 75 shares.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters, that said declaration shall not become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on March 17, 1942 at 10:00 o'clock A. M., at the offices of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission located in the former Penn-Athletic Club Building situated at 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named declarants and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said declarants by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declaration otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed method of charging and the amounts of expenses and compensation by such committee is consisent with the applicable standards of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and whether such solicitation material should provide that no fees and expenses will be paid except pursuant to approval by this Commission;

2. Whether and to what extent additional facts should be stated in the solicitation material with respect to the interests of said committee members in the securities of The Clarion River Power Company and concerning the interests therein of any partnership, firm, or corporation of which any of such committee members are interested;

3. Generally, whether the proposed solicitation is consistent with the applicable standards of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and whether, if such solicitation be permitted, the interests of the public or of investors or consumers require the imposition of terms and conditions with respect thereto.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF ELECTRIC BOND AND SHARE COMPANY

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE IN PART

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Electric Bond and Share Company, a registered holding company, having filed a declaration under section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-42 promulgated thereunder regarding the acquisition of shares of its $5 and $6 Preferred Stocks through the expenditure of not more than $5,000,000 of its cash, to be effected by purchases from time to time on the New York Curb Exchange; a public hearing on said declaration having been held after appropriate notice; the Commission having examined the record and having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That said declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective to the extent of $2,000,000, subject to the following conditions:

1. That all purchases shall be effected on the New York Curb Exchange and the company shall not solicit or cause to be solicited the sale of any shares to the company;

2. That the company shall furnish to the Commission, promptly after the 15th day and the last day of each month, a schedule showing for each day covered by such report the number of shares of each class purchased, the prices at which purchased and the name of the broker through whom purchased.

3. That the company shall include in its quarterly reports to stockholders information as to the total number of shares of each class purchased and the aggregate purchase price for each class;

4. That no purchases shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of this Order, subject, however, to the right of the company to apply for an extension or extensions of such period;

5. That the Commission reserves jurisdiction in its discretion, to rescind or modify this Order upon notice to the company at any time prior to the expiration of such six months' period or any extension or extensions thereof; any such rescission or modification to be applicable only to such portion of the $2,000,000 as shall not have been previously expended;

6. That the Commission reserves jurisdiction with respect to the remaining $3,000,000 covered by the declaration filed in the present proceeding, pending formulation by the company of an exchange plan or other plan or plans for distribution of assets to the preferred stockholders; and

7. That the Commission reserves jurisdiction to require that all shares of preferred stock acquired by the company pursuant to the present declaration and Order be retired and canceled.

By the Commission.

The President

EXECUTIVE ORDER

CONSOLIDATING THE HOUSING AGENCIES AND FUNCTIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT INTO THE NATIONAL HOUSING AGENCY

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941, approved December 18, 1941 (Public Law 354, 77th Congress), and as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The following agencies, functions, duties, and powers are consolidated into a National Housing Agency and shall be administered as hereinafter provided under the direction and supervision of a National Housing Administrator:

(a) The Federal Housing Administration and its functions, powers, and duties, including those of the Administrator thereof.

(b) All functions, powers, and duties of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and of its members.

(c) The Home Owners Loan Corporation and the functions, powers, and duties of its Board of Directors.

(d) The Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and the functions, powers, and duties of its Board of Trustees.

(e) The United States Housing Authority and its functions, powers, and duties, including those of the Administrator thereof.

(f) All functions, powers, and duties relating to defense housing of (1) the Federal Works Administrator under the act of October 14, 1940, entitled "An Act to expedite the provision of housing in connection with national defense, and for other purposes," as amended, and under acts making appropriations to carry out the purposes of said act, (2) the War Department and the Navy Department with respect to housing units for persons (with families) engaged in national defense activities (except housing units located on military or naval reservations, posts, or bases) under Title IV of the Naval Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1941, and (3) any agencies heretofore designated (including the Federal Works Agency and the Farm Security Administration) to provide temporary shelter in defense areas under the Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Act, 1941, and the Additional Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Act, 1941, and the Third Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942.

(g) All functions, powers, and duties of the Farm Security Administration relating to such housing projects as such Administration determines are for families not deriving their principal income from operating or working upon a farm.

(h) The Defense Homes Corporation and its functions, powers, and duties, including those of its officers and Board of Directors.

(i) All functions, powers, and duties of the Federal Loan Administrator, the Federal Works Administrator, and the head of any department or other agency relating to the administration or supervision of the agencies, functions, powers, and duties transferred hereunder.

(j) All functions, powers, and duties of the Division of Defense Housing Coordination established by Executive Order No. 8632[1] of January 11, 1941, and of the Coordinator of Defense Housing: Provided, That such Division and such Coordinator shall continue to exercise such functions, powers, and duties until the appointment or designation of the National Housing Administrator.

(k) All powers, rights, privileges, duties, and functions transferred to the Federal Works Administrator by Executive Order No. 8186[2] of June 29, 1939:

Provided, That with respect to any functions, powers, and duties enumerated in sub-paragraphs (f) and (g) above, any agency now engaged in the construction or management of any project shall continue such activities on behalf of the National Housing Agency until such time as the National Housing Administrator shall determine that it is expedient for the Federal Public Housing Authority, herein provided for, to discharge such functions, powers, and duties with respect to such project through its own facilities.

2. The National Housing Administrator shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary of $12,000 a year unless the Congress shall otherwise provide. Pending such appointment, an existing officer of the Government designated by the President shall act as National Housing Administrator.

3. There shall be three main constituent units in the National Housing Agency. Each such unit shall be administered by a commissioner acting under the direction and supervision of the National Housing Administrator. The unit administering the Federal Housing Administration and its functions, powers, and duties shall be known as the Federal Housing Administration, and the Federal Housing Administrator shall serve as Federal Housing Commissioner. The unit administering the functions, powers, and duties of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and its members shall be known as the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, and the Chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board shall serve as Federal Home Loan Bank Commissioner. The United States Housing Authority and its functions, powers, and duties shall be administered as the Federal Public Housing Authority, one of the main constituent units, and the Administrator of the United States Housing Authority shall serve as Federal Public Housing Commissioner. The agencies, functions, powers, and duties enumerated in sub-paragraphs (c), (d), and (k) of paragraph 1 shall be administered in the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, and those enumerated in sub-paragraphs (f) and (g) shall be administered in the Federal Public Housing Authority. The agency, functions, powers, and duties enumerated in sub-paragraph (h) of paragraph 1 shall also be administered by the Federal Public Housing Commissioner. The Administrator of the National Housing Agency may centralize in the office of the National Housing Administrator such budget, personnel, legal, procurement, research, planning, or other administrative services or functions common to the said constituent units as he may determine.

4. The capital stock of the Defense Homes Corporation shall be transferred from the Federal Loan Administrator to the National Housing Administrator, and the Federal Loan Administrator and the Defense Homes Corporation shall take all necessary action to effectuate such transfer and carry out the purposes hereof.

5. The Central Housing Committee is hereby abolished, and all of its assets, contracts, property (including office equipment and records), and unexpended balances of funds available for its use are hereby transferred to the National Housing Agency.

6. All assets, contracts, and property (including office equipment and records) of any agency hereby consolidated, and all assets, contracts, and property (including office equipment and records) which other agencies, including departments, have been using primarily in the administration of any function, power, or duty hereby consolidated or transferred, are hereby transferred, respectively, with such agency, function, power or duty.

7. Except as provided in paragraph 8, hereof, (1) all personnel of any agency hereby consolidated, and (2) all personnel of other agencies, including departments, who have been engaged primarily in the administration of any function, power, or duty hereby consolidated or transferred and who within thirty days after the appointment or designation of the National Housing Administrator are jointly certified for transfer by said Administrator and the head of the department or agency to which such personnel is attached, shall be transferred, respectively, with such agency, functions, power or duty; but any personnel transferred with functions, powers, or duties pursuant to this paragraph who are found by the National Housing Administrator to be in excess of the personnel necessary for the administration of such functions, powers, and duties shall be re-transferred under existing law to other positions in the Government or separated from the service.

8. The following personnel are not transferred hereunder: (1) The Directors and Officers of the Defense Homes Corporation, (2) the members of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board other than the Chairman, (3) the Directors of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, and (4) the Trustees of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The offices of the foregoing personnel excepted from transfer by this paragraph (except in the case of the Defense Homes Corporation) are hereby vacated for the duration of this order: Provided, That the offices of the members of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board shall not be vacated until sixty days from the date of this order. The personnel of the Division of Defense Housing Coordination and of the Central Housing Committee are not transferred hereunder, except that the National Housing Administrator, within 60 days after his appointment or designation, may take over such of this personnel as are needed. During such period, all personnel of such Division and of such Committee may be retained by them in connection with the winding up of their affairs.

9. So much of the unexpended balances of appropriations, authorizations, allocations, or other funds (not otherwise transferred hereunder) available for the use of any agency in the exercise of any function, power, or duty consolidated by this order, or for the use of the head of any department or agency in the exercise of any such function, power, or duty, as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine (with the approval of the President), shall be transferred, respectively, to the National Housing Agency or the main constituent unit therein concerned, for its use in connection with the exercise of the functions, powers, or duties, respectively, to be administered by it hereunder. In determining the amount to be transferred, the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may include an amount to provide for the liquidation of obligations incurred against such appropriations, authorizations, allocations, or other funds prior to transfer.

10. All housing now owned by the United States and located on a military or naval reservation, post, or base is hereby transferred to the jurisdiction of the War or Navy Department, respectively, having jurisdiction of such reservation, post or base: Provided, That with respect to all housing developed by the War or Navy Department under Title II of Public 671, approved June 28, 1940, the Federal Public Housing Authority shall take all necessary steps to transfer such jurisdiction and carry out the purpose hereof, including the transfer of title to the United States and including repayment (out of any funds available therefor) of the cost of such housing for reimbursement of the Bond Account from which funds were transferred to pay such costs.

11. The Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall allocate to the National Housing Agency, from appropriations, authorizations, allocations, or other funds available for the administrative expenses of the Federal Loan Agency and the Federal Works Agency (relating to the administration of the agencies and functions transferred therefrom hereunder) and of the agencies and functions, powers, and duties consolidated hereunder, such sums, and in such proportions, as he may find necessary for the administrative expenses of the National Housing Agency. None of the agencies established or consolidated hereunder shall incur any obligations for administrative expenses except pursuant to appropriations, allocations, or other authorizations of funds specifically available now or hereafter for administrative expenses.

12. The National Housing Administrator may appoint necessary personnel and make necessary expenditures to carry out the functions, powers, and duties of the National Housing Agency. The Administrator and the Commissioners hereunder may delegate their respective functions, powers, and duties to such agencies, officials, or personnel as they may designate, respectively. Until the appointment or designation of a National Housing Administrator, the Commissioners respectively shall exercise such of the functions, powers, and duties of the National Housing Administrator as relate to the agencies, functions, powers, and duties to be administered by such Commissioners respectively.

13. Nothing herein shall impair or affect any outstanding obligations or contracts of any agency consolidated hereunder or of the United States of America (including its pledge of faith to the payment of all annual contributions now or hereafter contracted for pursuant to the United States Housing Act, as amended), or of any Insurance Funds created under the National Housing Act.

14. All orders, rules, regulations, permits, or other privileges made, issued or granted by or in respect of any agency, function, power, or duty consolidated hereunder shall continue in effect to the same extent as if such consolidation had not occurred until modified, superseded, or repealed, except that the regulations of January 11, 1941, relating to defense housing coordination shall hereby be revoked upon the appointment or designation of the National Housing Administrator.

15. All unexpended balances of appropriations, authorizations, allocations, or other funds transferred under this order shall be used only for the respective purposes and in the administration of the respective functions for which such funds were made available.

16. Transfers of available funds under this order shall include funds available for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943.

17. This order shall become effective as of the date hereof and shall be in force and effect so long as Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941, remains in force.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

TRANSFERRING FUNCTIONS OF THE FEDERAL LOAN AGENCY TO THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Whereas by an Executive order issued this date[1] under Title I of the First War Powers Act several agencies were transferred from the Federal Loan Agency to the National Housing Agency established by such order, and it is deemed advisable that the remaining functions of the Federal Loan Agency be administered in the Department of Commerce;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941, approved December 18, 1941, it is hereby ordered as follows:

SEC. 1. Transfer of Functions. All functions, powers, and duties of the Federal Loan Agency and of the Federal Loan Administrator which relate to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Electric Home and Farm Authority, RFC Mortgage Company, Federal National Mortgage Association, Disaster Loan Corporation, Export-Import Bank of Washington, Defense Plant Corporation, Rubber Reserve Company, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, and War Insurance Corporation, together with all other functions, powers, and duties not transferred by the Executive order establishing the National Housing Agency, are transferred to the Department of Commerce and shall be administered under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of Commerce.

SEC. 2. Transfer of Records, Property, and Personnel. All records and property (including office equipment) and all personnel of the Federal Loan Agency used in the administration of the functions transferred by this order are transferred to the Department of Commerce for use in the administration of the functions transferred by this order.

SEC. 3. Transfer of Funds. So much of the unexpended balances of the appropriations, allocations, or other funds available or to be made available for the use of the Federal Loan Agency in the exercise of any function transferred by this order, as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget with the approval of the President shall determine, shall be transferred to the Department of Commerce for use in connection with the exercise of the functions so transferred. In determining the amount to be transferred the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may include an amount to provide for the liquidation of obligations incurred against such appropriations, allocations, or other funds prior to the transfer.

SEC. 4. Effective and Termination Dates. This order shall become effective as of the date hereof and shall continue in force and effect until the termination of Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941.

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS[1]

§ 81.10 Invitations for bids.

(f) Special conditions authorized or required to be included.

* * * * *

(25) Wage scales in connection with purchase of coal. In conformity with § 81.10 (a) (8) invitations for bids for coal will have included therein the following:

WAGE SCALES

Bidder's attention is directed to the fact that paragraph 3, "Wage scales," of Standard Government Purchase Conditions for Coal (Standard Form No. 43) has been deleted and the following provisions included as a part of Standard Form No. 43 shall be substituted therefor:

The contract price specified herein for the coal is based upon the wage scale in effect with mine employees on the date of opening of bids, and any changes in the said wage scale shall increase or decrease the contract price of coal by the method herein stated.

In event of a change in the wage rate for the herein specified predominant occupational class of mine employees, approved generally for the mining district in which the mine herein named is located, the contract price shall be increased or decreased on any tonnage shipped from the mine after date of such increase or decrease in the wage rate, according to whether the wage rate is increased or decreased, by an amount which is the product of the f. o. b. mine price times 0.6, times the percent change in the wage rate expressed as a decimal (the percent increase or decrease in the wage rate shall be computed to the nearest tenth percent and the increase or decrease in the contract price shall be computed to the nearest tenth of a cent). If the change is an increase in the wage rate for the stated class of employees, the right is reserved to the contracting officer to disallow any increase in the contract price if in his opinion the increase in the wage rate as reported by the contractor was not approved generally by the operators of mines in the mining district in which the mine named is located, and the contracting officer's decision shall be final and conclusive on the parties hereto subject only to appeal, within 60 days, by the contractor to the head of the department concerned, whose decision on such appeal shall be final and conclusive on the parties hereto. Such determined increase or decrease in the contract price shall be final and conclusive, and no additional claim by the contractor will be considered covering any changes in wage rates of other classes of mine labor employed on a per ton, or a monthly, or a daily, or an hourly, or in any other labor factor or factors entering into the cost of producing coal at the mine named.

In the event of a change in the wage rate for the specified predominant occupational class of mine employees there shall be furnished to the contracting officer, within 60 days from the date of the change in the wage rate, authenticated copies of the new wage scale and of the wage scale which was in effect on the date of opening of bids.

When there has been no change in the wage rate, subsequent to the date of opening of bids and during the contract period, the contractor shall so certify on each invoice or voucher submitted for payment.

[1] § 81.10 (f) (25) is added.

In connection with the changed wage scale provisions included in Standard Form No. 43, the following is the prescribed method for changing contract price in event of a change in the wage scale with mine employees during the term of this contract:

The bidder must specify on the appropriate bidding form that particular occupational class of mine employees receiving the same wage rate that has a predominant effect on the cost of producing coal at the mine named by him; i. e., that particular occupational class of employees receiving the same wage rate to which on the payroll a predominant amount is regularly paid for producing coal. The class selected shall not be for supervisory or clerical employees.

The predominant wage rate class of employees so specified must be described in such a manner that it may be clearly identified in the wage agreement between the operator of the mine and the mine employees in effect on the date of opening of bids.

In the event of a change in the wage rate for the predominant occupational class of labor specified by the bidder, the f. o. b. mine price is multiplied by a percentage factor of 60 percent, and the product thereof is multiplied by the percent change in the wage rate, and the resultant obtained is the amount that the contract price will be increased or decreased on account of an increase or decrease in the wage rate.

It is to be noted that this method is based on the f. o. b. mine price. If the invitation calls for bids for coal on any other than the f. o. b. mine basis (the bid price including freight rate and/or cost of trucking), the bidder must state also in his bid the f. o. b. price at the mine named.

Following is an example of applying the above stated method: The f. o. b. mine price stated in the contract is $2.00 per ton. The predominant occupational class of mine employees specified in the contract is "Coal drillers." (This classification is given only for information purposes, being quoted from the wage agreement of a certain district. For other districts the predominant occupational class may contain an entirely different listing of employees receiving the same wage rate. Bidder must not specify more than one occupational class.) The wage rate in effect on the date of opening of bids, for the said predominant occupational class of mine employees is $0.729 per hour. The new wage rate therefor is $0.802 per hour. The increase in such wage rate is 10.0 percent. The increase in the contract price, using the following indicated formula and by computation, is:

$2.00 by 0.6 by 0.100=12.0 cents per ton

Conversely, if there is a reduction in the wage scale, the contract price would be decreased in like manner. (R.S. 3709; 31 Stat. 905, 32 Stat. 514; 10 U.S.C. 1201, 41 U.S.C. 5) [Proc. Cir. 15, W.D., February 6, 1942]

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

CHAPTER III—BITUMINOUS COAL DIVISION

[Docket No. A–1017]

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1 FOR REVISION OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 1

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board No. 1. The petition requests that temporary and permanent relief be granted by revising the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established for coals of certain code member producers in District 1.

In accordance with an Order of the Director and after notice to all interested parties a hearing in this matter was held before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Only original petitioner appeared. At the conclusion of the hearing the preparation and filing of a Report by the Examiner was waived and the record was thereby submitted to the undersigned who has considered the same.

The petition of District Board 1 herein requested a revision in price classifications and effective minimum prices established for the coals produced at sixteen mines in District 1. The testimony of a representative of District Board 1 shows that minimum prices were originally established for the coals in question but that due to errors in designating the seam in which the coals were produced or in designating the subdistrict in which the mines were located, the classifications and minimum prices which were established do not properly reflect the relative value of the coals and they are not in proper coordination with other coals produced in District 1.

The classifications and prices sought by the board will, it appears, effect proper coordination between the coals to which said prices apply and competing coals.

Upon the basis of the uncontroverted evidence I find that the classifications and minimum prices as well as the seam and subdistrict designations shown in the schedules hereto attached for the coals specified therein are proper and should be established; that such classifications and minimum prices conform in all respects to those heretofore established for comparable coals in District 1 and will preserve fair competitive opportunities for the producers of said coals.[1]

The district board also requested permission for the White Coal Company to load and mix coal from its mines (Mines Index Nos. 651, 488, 2651, 2981, 804, and 652), in the same car. The coals from these mines are all loaded from the same siding at Hillman, Pennsylvania, and it seems appropriate to grant this request. However, the price of all the coal so mixed shall be the price which is listed for the mine in this group which has the highest price.

The witness stated that when coal is shipped by truck from the White Coal Company mines it is not first sent to the crusher. Therefore, it was testified that only a price in Size Group No. 3 for these coals for shipment by truck is required, and I so find. Prices in other size groups are to be deleted.

Now therefore it is ordered, That § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for All Shipments Except Truck and § 321.24 (General prices) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments be and they hereby are amended in accordance with the schedules marked "Supplement R" and "Supplement T" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Dated: February 2, 1942.

DAN H. WHEELER,
[SEAL] Acting Director.

[1] The initial petition herein requested a change in the prices for Mine Index No. 1687 listed under the ownership of Frank McMillan (Mack Coal Company). At the hearing the witness explained that this request was in error and asked leave to amend the petition accordingly. This request was granted by the Examiner.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD 4 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 2870, 306, 2907, 310, 4 AND 200, IN DISTRICT 4

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition dated October 9, 1941, filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on October 11, 1941, by District Board 4, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests the establishment of price classifications for shipment from more than one loading point for the coals of the following mines:

Darst Mine (Mine Index No. 2870) of Darst Bros. (Kenneth Earl Darst);

Brilliant No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 306) of C. C. Fay (Fay Collieries Company);

Lucky Mine (Mine Index No. 2907) of Luck Coal Company (E. L. Luckadoo);

Black Betsey Mine (Mine Index No. 310) of Peacock Coal Company.

District Board 4, Petitioner, requested that the price classifications and minimum prices previously established for the coals of the Allen Mine (Mine Index No. 4) of Allen Coal Co., and the Jacobs Mine (Mine Index No. 200) of Pearl Jacobs, be made applicable to shipments from additional loading points.[1]

By Order dated November 21, 1941, 6 F.R. 6278, temporary price classifications and minimum prices were established for shipment from one of the loading points for the coals of the Darst Mine (Mine Index No. 2870), Brilliant No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 306), Lucky Mine (Mine Index No. 2907), and Black Betsey Mine (Mine Index No. 310), but no relief was granted to the Allen Mine (Mine Index No. 4) or the Jacobs Mine (Mine Index No. 200).[2]

Pursuant to the Order of the Director referred to above, and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on January 5, 1942, before W. A. Shipman, a duly designated Examiner of the Bituminous Coal Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The original petitioner appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived and the matter was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

The petition of District Board 4 sought and proposed price classifications and minimum prices from more than one loading point for the coals produced by certain code members for which such price classifications had not theretofore been established and also requested the designation of additional shipping points for two mines for whom price classifications had previously been established. By Order of the Director dated November 21, 1941, temporary effective price classifications were established as requested for those mines for which such classifications had not been established except that such prices were made effective for only one of the shipping points requested and in those instances where price classifications had already been established, the request for additional shipping points was not granted.

It was testified on behalf of the Board that it knew of no reason why any of these mines should have two shipping points and that it would not urge their being granted. Under these circumstances the request for dual loading points cannot be granted.

The record shows that in the case of the Darst Mine (Mine Index No. 2870) the producer preferred, if only one loading point was designated, that such loading point be Pomeroy on the C & O instead of Hobson on the New York Central as set forth in Supplement R attached to the Order of the Director in Docket No. A-1105 dated November 21, 1941. The record also indicated that in the case of the Black Betsey Mine (Mine Index No. 310) the producer preferred Pomeroy on the C & O to Hobson on the N. Y. C. as a shipping point in the event that they were confined to one shipping point.

The classifications and prices for the mines here involved which should be established are those which are the same as those previously established for comparable coals.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That commencing fifteen (15) days from the date of this Order, § 324.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-V, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That the prayer of the original petition is granted to the extent above and in all other respects is denied.

Dated: February 13, 1942.

DAN H. WHEELER, Acting Director.

[1] The original petition herein requested the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for shipments by rail and truck for the coals of various other mines in District 4. By Order dated November 21, 1941, that portion of the petition relating to the above-mentioned mines was severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1105 and designated Docket No. A-1105, Part II.

[2] On December 27, 1941, the petitioner filed a motion to modify the Order of the Director, by changing the shipping point given the Brilliant No. 2 Mine from "Mingo Junction" on the Wheeling and Lake Erie to "Jewett" on the Pennsylvania and to change the Freight Origin Group from "18" to "15".

(Recapitulation of price classifications) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-V, and § 324.11 (Special prices—(a) Railroad fuel prices for all movements exclusive of lake cargo railroad fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-III, § 324.9 (Recapitulation of price classifications) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-V, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That the prayer of the original petition is granted to the extent above and in all other respects is denied.

Dated: February 13, 1942.

PART 327—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 7

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER AMENDING ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN DOCKET NO. A–1072 SEVERING DOCKET NO. A–1072, PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A–1072, AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A–1072 PART II, AND GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF IN DOCKET NO. A–1072 PART II IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 7 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 7; AND OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 7 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF PEERLESS NO. 4 MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 248, OF PEERLESS COAL & COKE COMPANY, IN DISTRICT NO. 7

The original petition in the above-entitled matters filed with this Division pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requests the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 7. By an Order Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief, dated October 14, 1941, 6 F.R. 5529, in Docket No. A–1072, price classifications and minimum prices were established for the coals of certain mines in District No. 7, including the establishment for the coals of the Peerless No. 4 Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal & Coke Company of Price Classification "B" in Size Groups 1, 6, and 7, and Price Classification "D" in Size Group 8, for all shipments except truck, and minimum prices of 315, 290, 215, and 185 cents per net ton in Size Groups 1, 3, 4, and 5, respectively, for truck shipments.

The original petitioner subsequently filed a motion to modify the said Order of October 14, 1941, as to the said mine by changing Price Classifications "B" to "D" in Size Group 1, Price Classification "B" to "E" in Size Group 6, Price Classification "B" to "D" in Size Group 7, Price Classification "D" to "H" in Size Group 8, and by establishing Price Classification "H" in Size Group 9 for all shipments except truck, and making corresponding changes in the minimum prices for truck shipments. It appears that an adequate showing of necessity has been made that temporary relief should be granted changing the effective price classifications and minimum prices and establishing certain additional price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the above-mentioned mine for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments, as requested in the said Motion, and that such action is necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act. The Acting Director is of the opinion, however, that the original petitioner has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishing of permanent price classifications and minimum prices, as prayed for in said motion, and without a hearing.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the price classifications and minimum prices established in the said Order of October 14, 1941 in Supplement R, § 327.11 (Low volatile coals: Alphabetical list of code members), and in Supplement T, § 327.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area), for the coals of Peerless No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal and Coke Company, be, and they hereby are, revoked, and that in all other respects the said order be, and it hereby is, continued in full force and effect until otherwise ordered.

It is further ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A–1072 relating to the coals of Peerless No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal and Coke Company be, and it hereby is, severed from Docket No. A–1072, and designated as Docket No. A–1072 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A–1072 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 11, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendations of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding, may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 4, 1942.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the establishment of permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Peerless No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal and Coke Company for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments; and, more particularly, for the establishment for the coals of the Peerless No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 248, of Peerless Coal and Coke Company, a code member in District No. 7, of price classifications "D," "E," "H," and "H" in Size Groups 1, 6, 7, 8, and 9, respectively, for all shipments except truck, and minimum prices of 290, 250, 195, 165 and 160 cents per net ton in Size Groups 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6, respectively, for truck shipments.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of Docket No. A–1072 Part II, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 7, For All Shipments Except Truck, is supplemented to include: Price Classifications "D," "E," "D," "H," and "H" in Size Groups 1, 6, 7, 8, and 9, respectively, for all shipments except truck, and minimum prices of 290, 250, 195, 165, and 160 cents per net ton in Size Groups 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6, respectively, for truck shipments, of the coals of Mine Index No. 248.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: February 12, 1942.

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

ORDER GRANTING PERMANENT RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 REQUESTING REVISION OF THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR DISTRICT NO. 9, FOR TRUCK SHIPMENT, APPLICABLE TO THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DAVIESS COUNTY, KENTUCKY

Original petitions having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on September 10 and October 1, 1941, by District Board 9, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting that temporary and permanent relief be granted by revising the minimum prices established for truck shipment of certain coals produced in Daviess and Ohio Counties, Kentucky, in District 9;

Pursuant to Orders duly issued, and after notice to interested persons, a consolidated hearing having been held in this matter on December 18 and 19, 1941, before Floyd McGown, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C., at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard;

The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner having been waived and the matter thereupon having been submitted to the undersigned;

The undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter which are filed herewith;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That effective fifteen (15) days from the date hereof § 329.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

Dated: February 12, 1942.

PART 330—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 10

ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 10 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 10 FOR RAIL SHIPMENT

A proceeding having been instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on September 27, 1941, by District Board 10, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937; the petition requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for certain coals produced in District 10 for rail shipment, these coals being those produced at 37 mines heretofore classified and priced only for truck shipment; the petition having set forth that these mines, if relief was granted, would load their coals for rail shipment from facilities at Marion, Illinois, maintained by the McLaren Fuel Company in conjunction with the preparation plant which it was erecting at that point, and that coals of these 37 mines with a top size of 2" or less would be prepared at that plant;

By Order of the Director dated October 20, 1941, temporary relief having been denied; but, upon the filing of additional statements by District Board 10 showing the necessity therefor, the Director having granted temporary price classifications and minimum prices by an Order dated November 4, 1941, 6 F.R. 6049;

Pursuant to Orders of the Director dated October 20, 1941, and November 22, 1941, and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held on December 10, 1941, before W. A. Shipman, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C.; all interested persons having been afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard; the original petitioner having appeared; the preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner having been waived and the matter having thereupon been submitted to the undersigned;

The undersigned having considered the record in this matter and having made his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter which is filed herewith;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 330.2 (Mine index numbers) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck be and it is hereby amended to provide prices for Mine Index Nos. 1171, 1183, 1176, 1178, 1179, 1305, 1184, 1216, 1185, 1239, 1188, 1190, 1232, 1192, 1221, 1193, 1195, 1199, 1200, 1201, 1412, 1203, 1367, 1204, 1205, 1212, 1227, 1218, 1222, 1223, 1202, 1226, 1233, 1414, 1234, 1238, 1241 f. o. b. the shipping point Marion, Illinois, the same as the prices provided for the mines in Price Group 5 in Price Schedule No. 1 of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck, for all size groups and for all uses and for shipment to all market areas, as is set forth in Supplement R attached hereto and made a part hereof; and

It is further ordered, That § 330.8 (b) (Price exceptions and exceptions—instructions) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck be and it is hereby is amended by the addition to the following price exception: Coals produced at Mine Index Nos. 1171, 1183, 1176, 1178, 1179, 1305, 1184, 1216, 1185, 1239, 1188, 1190, 1232, 1192, 1221, 1193, 1195, 1199, 1200, 1201, 1412, 1203, 1367, 1204, 1205, 1212, 1227, 1218, 1222, 1223, 1202, 1226, 1233, 1414, 1234, 1238, 1241 may be sold f. o. b. the McLaren Fuel Company's Preparation Plant, Marion, Illinois, at a price of 90 and 80 cents per net ton, respectively, but only when it is purchased for the purpose of storing, cleaning, sizing and otherwise preparing and loaded by the McLaren Fuel Company into railroad cars for shipment by rail: Provided, however, That McLaren Fuel Company shall resell the coal at not less than the prices provided for the mines in Price Group 5 in Price Schedule No. 1 of the District No. 10 rail schedule for the same size groups and for the same uses for shipment to all market areas: Provided further, That McLaren Fuel Company register with the Division the producers from whom it proposes to purchase coal at the prices and under the conditions established in this order: And provided further, That McLaren Fuel Company file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 10 copies of all invoices for coal loaded at the facilities of its preparation plant at Marion, Illinois: And provided further, That all invoices shall indicate a list of mines regularly contributing to the preparation plant and indicate that the shipment is comprised of commingled coals produced at more than one of the mines listed.

PART 1055—WOOL

Amendment No. 1 to Conservation Order No. M–73 Curtailing the Use of Wool

Section 1055.1 (Wool Conservation Order No. M–73)[1] is hereby amended as follows:

The word "wool", in the paragraphs (a) (1) (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v), is hereby amended to read "wool owned by such person" in each instance.

Paragraph (e) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subparagraph:

[1] 7 F.R. 120, 543.

(9) Assignment of preference rating. Any order for fabric to be used in the manufacture of the following types of uniforms is hereby assigned the preference rating of A-10 and shall, therefore, be included as a Defense Order for the purposes of paragraph (a) (1):

(i) U. S. Army Officers.
(ii) U. S. Navy Officers and Chief Petty Officers.
(iii) U. S. Marine Corps Officers.
(iv) U. S. Coast Guard Officers and Chief Petty Officers.
(v) U. S. Coast and Geodetic Officers.
(vi) U. S. Government Military and Naval Academy and Training Schools Students.
(vii) Maritime Commission Employees.

Provided, however, That such Purchase Order is accompanied by a certificate in duplicate, signed on behalf of the person placing such Purchase Order by a person duly authorized thereto which states the following: "The undersigned hereby represents that the fabric covered by this Purchase Order will be either re-sold, or used by the undersigned, for and only for the manufacture of one or more of the types of uniforms specified in paragraph (e) (9) of General Conservation Order No. M-73 and this Purchase Order is therefore entitled to a preference rating of A-10." (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. No. 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. No. 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

This amendment shall take effect immediately. Issued this 24th day of February 1942.

Definitions

§ 1360.310 Definitions. When used in this Rationing Order No. 2A, New Passenger Automobile Rationing Regulations:

(a) "Agency of the government" or "government agency" means and includes any government agency, department, bureau, commission, office, or other government unit, whether federal, state, or local, and any corporation wholly owned by any such government or government unit.

(b) "Board" means a Local Rationing Board as established by Revised Tire Rationing Regulations, issued February 11, 1942.

(c) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of offering passenger automobiles for sale at retail to the public.

(d) "Distributor" means any person, other than a manufacturer, regularly engaged in the business of selling new passenger automobiles to dealers.

(e) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures passenger automobiles.

(f) "New passenger automobile" means any 1942 model passenger automobile having a seating capacity of not more than 10 persons, irrespective of the number of miles it has been driven, or any other passenger automobile which has been driven less than 1,000 miles, including other body types such as ambulances, hearses, station wagons, and taxis, built upon a standard or lengthened passenger car chassis.

(g) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, government or government agency, or other form of enterprise.

(h) "Pool car" means any new passenger automobile which was not shipped by a manufacturer prior to January 16, 1942.

(i) "Transfer" means sell, lease, trade, lend, give, deliver, ship, or physically transfer in any other way which involves the use of the automobile, after the transfer, by a person other than the transferor, but does not include delivery to a carrier for shipment, or delivery by a carrier to a consignee, does not include a lease or loan made in good faith for a period of one week or less, and does not include a technical transfer of title for security purposes to a person financing a conditional sale or similar type of transaction, made simultaneously with a transfer of the automobile itself to the conditional-sales buyer. It also includes the change of the designation of the registered owner.*

Organization

§ 1360.321 Personnel. The new passenger automobile rationing program established in this Rationing Order No. 2A will be administered by the Local Rationing Boards, the Local Rationing Administrators and the State Rationing Administrators, established by the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations issued February 11, 1942, and by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1360.322 Duties. The Local Rationing Boards, Local Rationing Administrators and State Rationing Administrators shall have such duties and responsibilities in the administration of this Rationing Order No. 2A as the Office of Price Administration may assign.*

§ 1360.323 Jurisdiction. For purposes of this Rationing Order No. 2A, each Local Rationing Board shall have jurisdiction over every person applying for a new passenger automobile which is to be garaged or normally stationed in the area which the Board is designated to serve, except as otherwise provided in § 1360.381.*

Restriction of Transfers

§ 1360.331 Restriction of transfers. (a) Regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall transfer, or accept a transfer of, a new passenger automobile except as provided in this Rationing Order No. 2A.

(1) The word "transfer" is broadly defined by this Rationing Order No. 2A. For example, the term includes not only transfers by sale, lease, or trade of the automobile, but also by gift from one person to another. Unless specifically exempted, all physical transfers involving a change in the actual use of the car are included. Thus, if a partnership gives what has been exclusively a partnership car to one of the partners for his own use, a transfer has occurred. On the other hand, putting a car in a garage or warehouse, or letting a repairman drive it to his shop, is not a transfer within this Rationing Order No. 2A.

(2) There are certain specific exemptions from the broad definition of "transfer." Delivery to a railroad or other carrier for shipment, and delivery by such carrier to the consignee, are not included. In this situation, the transfer takes place between the consignor and the consignee.

(3) A lease or loan made in good faith for a week or less is also not included in the word "transfer." This exception allows temporary loans to friends and does not prevent the leasing of new passenger automobiles possessed on January 2, 1942, by concerns which lease automobiles to the public for short periods. The requirement of good faith means that the lease or loan must really be temporary. If a person continually lends a car to the same person for six days of the week and takes it back on Sundays, he has made a loan for less than a week but, since he is clearly attempting to evade this Rationing Order No. 2A, he has not made the loan in good faith and the transaction is a "transfer."

(4) The term "transfer" does not include a technical transfer of title for security purposes without an accompanying transfer of use. Thus, security transactions, such as conditional sales contracts, bailment leases, or chattel mortgages, do not involve "transfers."*

§ 1360.332 Exemption of automobiles purchased prior to January 2, 1942. The restriction of transfers of new passenger automobiles provided by § 1360.331 shall not apply to transfers of new passenger automobiles purchased prior to January 2, 1942, the transfer of which is governed by Rationing Order No. 2: Provided, however, That if such purchasers have not applied, on or before March 2, 1942, to their Local Rationing Boards for certificates entitling them to such automobiles, transfers of such automobiles shall be governed by this Rationing Order No. 2A.*

§ 1360.333 Rights of parties who have entered into contracts for the sale or purchase of new passenger automobiles when delivery is prohibited by law. If performance of any agreement of sale or purchase of a new passenger automobile is forbidden by Supplemental General Limitation Order L-2-f[1] of the Office of Production Management restricting sale and delivery of passenger automobiles and the amendments thereto or by Rationing Order No. 2, 2A, or amendments thereto issued by the Office of Price Administration, any person who has made any payment on account of the purchase of such new passenger automobile shall upon demand be entitled to the return of the amount of any deposit or any other consideration paid or in the event the consideration has been materially altered in condition or cannot be returned, then its fair net value. No person who agreed to sell and deliver a new passenger automobile shall be liable for failure to perform such an agreement if performance is prevented by the aforesaid orders except if a deposit or consideration has been paid to him on account of the purchase of the new passenger automobile, in which event, his liability shall be limited to the amount paid or other consideration paid.*

§ 1360.334 Prohibition of transfer of pool cars not shipped prior to January 16, 1942. This Rationing Order No. 2A shall not be construed to permit the transfer of pool cars, and the transfer of any such cars is prohibited except where they are required by the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, in which case they are governed by the provisions of § 1360.351: Provided, however, That this shall not prohibit the transfer of pool cars to dealers, distributors, manufacturers or security holders therein for purposes of resale and otherwise in accordance with this Rationing Order No. 2A.

New Passenger Automobile Quotas

§ 1360.341 Establishment of quotas. The Office of Price Administration will from time to time set quotas and reserve quotas stating the maximum number of new passenger automobiles for the transfer of which certificates may be issued, which quotas may be altered or revoked as the occasion may demand. No Board shall issue a quota certificate for the transfer of a new passenger automobile in excess of its quota.*

§ 1360.342 Allotment of quotas to Boards. The Office of Price Administration will forward to each State Rationing Administrator the quotas applicable to his state. The State Rationing Administrator shall then forward to each Board its quota, if any. If there are two or more Boards established within a single county the State Rationing Administrator shall forward to the Local Rationing Administrator, if one has been appointed, the county quota for allotment among the different Boards within the county. If no Local Rationing Administrator has been appointed, the State Rationing Administrator shall himself allot such quotas among the different Boards within the county.*

§ 1360.343 Application for adjustment of quotas to cover special situations. (a) Where a Board believes that the public interest requires that it issue a certificate for the transfer of a new passenger automobile in excess of its quota, the Board shall make application to the State Rationing Administrator for authority to issue such certificate by filing an application with the State Rationing Administrator setting forth the full facts of the case. The State Rationing Administrator at his discretion may draw upon his state reserve, if any, to augment the quota of such Board to the extent necessary to grant such a certificate.

(b) In no case shall the State Rationing Administrator grant blanket authority to exceed a quota.

(c) The State Rationing Administrator shall not issue certificates himself but may add a specific number of new passenger automobiles to the quota of a Board which may issue certificates therefor, but he shall not increase quotas in excess of his state reserve.*

§ 1360.344 Adjustment of state quotas by Office of Price Administration. A State Rationing Administrator may apply to the Office of Price Administration for an allotment from the national reserve, if any, to replenish his state reserve. Such application shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth in full the facts giving rise to such application. The Office of Price Administration may draw upon any national reserve to adjust state reserve.*

[1] These Regulations apply to all new passenger automobiles and supplement Rationing Order No. 2 and Amendment No. thereto. (7 F.R. 667, 936, 1009, 1131) In all cases of conflict between Rationing Order No. 2 and these Regulations, these Regulations shall prevail. "Pool cars" as defined in these Regulations are not within the scope of these Regulations except where specifically mentioned.

or local government may acquire a new passenger automobile to replace any agency-owned automobile which is no longer serviceable if it is necessary to assure the effective operation of the specified services by the agency and if no other automobile is available for that purpose. Within the meaning of this section, an automobile is no longer serviceable, only when it (a) has been rendered substantially unusable by accidental physical damage or theft, or (b) is a 1937 or older automobile, or (c) has been driven more than 100,00 miles.*

Persons Authorized To Acquire New Passenger Automobiles by War Production Board

§ 1360.351 Military forces and certain government agencies; exports. The following persons are eligible to acquire new passenger automobiles without certificates: Provided, however, That, until the War Production Board establishes a system of permits to cover acquisitions by such persons, they shall complete in quadruplicate Form R–203 (Revised) covering each such acquisition and such forms shall be filed in the manner provided in paragraph (b) of § 1360.363:

(a) The Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civilian Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, or the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

(b) Any person who acquires a new passenger automobile for export to and consumption or use in any foreign country.*

Transfers Without Certificates

§ 1360.361 Persons eligible to acquire for use. The following persons are eligible to acquire a new passenger automobile for use, but cannot transfer such automobile except in accordance with the provisions of this Rationing Order No. 2A.

(a) Persons acquiring new automobiles through transfer by will or intestacy, who may use such automobiles for any purpose.

(b) Trustees and receivers who acquire new passenger automobiles as part of the assets of a business, who may use such automobiles in connection with the operation of the business if they are allowed to do so by the court of their appointment.

(c) Insurers, junk dealers, or salvage companies acquiring any new passenger automobile which has been substantially destroyed by collision, fire, or otherwise: Provided, That such automobile shall be used only for scrap or salvage of its parts.*

§ 1360.362 Persons eligible to acquire only for purposes of resale. The following persons are eligible to acquire new passenger automobiles by transfer without certificate only for purposes of resale:

(a) Dealers, distributors, manufacturers, or the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

(b) Persons who in good faith have lent money on the security of or have financed the sale of the new passenger automobile being acquired.

(c) Persons distraining, levying by execution, attachment, or similar forms of judicial process, or repossessing on default.*

§ 1360.363 Procedure for transfers without certificates—(a) Documents required. Any person receiving a transfer made pursuant to this chapter shall fill out and execute in quadruplicate Form R–203 (Revised) to be issued by the Office of Price Administration, giving the information required by the form and obtaining the necessary supporting statement required on the form. The transferor, upon delivery of the automobile, shall retain for himself one copy of Form R–203 (Revised).

(b) Filing of documents of transfer for use. If a transfer is made pursuant to § 1360.361, the transferor shall file, within 5 days of the transfer, one copy of Form R–203 (Revised) with the state or local agency having jurisdiction over the registration of motor vehicles, if a change of registration is involved; and two copies with the Board designated to serve the area in which the transfer is made. This Board shall forward one copy to the Office of Price Administration, Automobile Inventory Unit, New York, N. Y.

(c) Filing of documents of transfer for resale. If a transfer is made pursuant to § 1360.362, the transferor shall file, within 5 days of the transfer, three copies of Form R–203 (Revised) with the Board designated to serve the area in which the transfer is made. This Board shall forward one copy to the Office of Price Administration, Automobile Inventory Unit, New York, N. Y., and one copy to the Local Board designated to serve the area in which the transferee or purchaser is located, if the transferor and transferee are not located in the same Board area.

(d) Duty. If the transferor is a person other than a dealer or if the transferor refuses or is unable to fill out the statement on the form, the transferee shall file the documents with the agencies listed.*

Persons Eligible to Acquire New Passenger Automobiles by Transfers With Certificates

§ 1360.371 Proof of necessity. An applicant specified in § 1360.372 may obtain a certificate only if he can establish the following facts:

(a) That use of the automobile is necessary to the efficient performance of the services specified in § 1360.372.

(1) The Board may not issue certificates under this section if the applicant can secure transportation without using such automobile. The applicant may establish that the transportation services for which he proposes to use the automobile are not otherwise available to him by showing (i) that no public transportation system reaches the areas to which he must go to carry on his business or occupation; or (ii) that public transportation services do not function at the times when it is necessary for the applicant to travel or with the speed required by the applicant; or (iii) that public transportation will not enable him to carry material or equipment necessary to his work; or (iv) that the public transportation facilities are already too heavily loaded to afford the applicant transportation service. The Board may make such additional inquiry or require the applicant to show such other facts as will establish to the satisfaction of the Board that he would be unable to secure transportation if he did not obtain the automobile. The applicant may also be required to show that he regularly transports other persons to work with him or that he has exhausted the possibilities of doubling up with persons employed at the same place or with persons who travel the same route when such doubling up is advisable, as in the case of factory workers.

(2) Unless the applicant satisfies the Board that it will be impossible for him otherwise to perform services listed in § 1360.372, he must not be granted an automobile. The proof which the applicant must present to satisfy the Board will vary with the nature of the applicant's business or occupation. If public transportation facilities will enable the applicant to carry on his affairs or if the applicant's business or occupation can be carried on by correspondence or by telephone, transportation service rendered by a passenger automobile is not essential and, therefore, a certificate for an automobile must be denied.

(b) That the applicant needs not only automobile transportation but a new automobile for such transportation, because he does not own or have the use of a passenger automobile adequate for his purpose. In addition, to prevent an applicant from selling or otherwise disposing of an automobile which would meet his needs so that he could place himself in a position to claim eligibility for a new automobile, the Board should require applicants to list, and give reasons for, all recent transfers of automobiles made by him after January 1, 1942.

(c) That such passenger automobile will render services sufficiently valuable to the community and the nation to justify its operation, in view of the shortage of new automobiles and the size of the quota from which allotments must be made to all other applicants qualified under this section.

(1) Unless the applicant can prove that the services which the automobile will enable him to render are important to the community and to the war effort, no certificate should be granted to him, regardless of whether he can be supplied under the quota.

(2) Certificates should be granted by the Board with a view to the fact that many more persons may apply than can be satisfied under the quota. The Board should, whenever possible, apportion its quota so that it will have certificates to insure continued transportation facilities for persons whose services are most vital to the war effort.

(3) In deciding among applicants for the limited quota, the Board shall be guided not only by the nature of the services which the applicant renders but also by the extent to which others who do not require automobiles can render such services and the extent to which the automobile will be confined to use for services specified in § 1360.372 and will provide transportation for more than one person performing services included in that section.*

§ 1360.372 Eligibility classification. When the conditions established in § 1360.371 and other applicable provisions of this Rationing Order No. 2A are fulfilled, certificates authorizing the transfer of new passenger automobiles may be granted to the following persons:

(a) Physicians, surgeons, visiting nurses, or farm veterinaries who will use the automobile principally for professional services.

(1) The Board shall issue certificates only to those physicians, surgeons, and farm veterinaries who are licensed as such by the appropriate government authority, whose professional practice requires regular calls outside their offices, who must use the automobile to make their professional calls, and who will use it principally for that purpose.

(2) For the purposes of this subparagraph, "visiting nurse" means a nurse who is employed by a clinic, hospital, government agency, or similar organization, or by an industrial concern to make nursing or inspection calls for such agencies. The term "visiting nurse" does not include private nurses.

(b) Regularly practicing ministers of a religious faith when the automobile will be used principally for, and is essential to, the performance of religious duties in meeting the religious needs of the congregation served.

(c) Persons requiring ambulances. A certificate may be issued for any new passenger automobile used principally as an ambulance, even though such automobile is used also but not primarily as a hearse or for other purposes.

(d) Persons engaged in fire-fighting services. The Board may grant a certificate to a person so engaged only if it is assured that the automobile will be used exclusively for the performance of such services.

(e) Persons requiring new passenger automobiles to maintain necessary police services.

(1) In issuing certificates the Board shall be governed by the necessity of enabling the uniformed and nonuniformed personnel of any federal, state, or local police force to render efficient service in the prevention and detection of crime.

(2) Certificates shall not be issued for any new passenger automobile to be used in performing police services if such services can be performed without the use of such automobile. Such automobile shall not be used for licensing or inspection duty when regular public transportation will serve.

(f) Persons requiring new passenger automobiles to enable them to enforce such laws as relate specifically to the protection of public health and safety.

(1) This paragraph provides only for law enforcement services which relate directly and specifically to the protection of the public from accident and injury to health.

(2) The inspection of buildings and the establishments of sellers and producers of food and the discharge of similar duties do not in most instances require the use of automobiles. Certificates shall under no circumstances be issued except for automobiles to be used in the performance of services which cannot be performed satisfactorily by officers using public transportation facilities.

(3) The enforcement of laws relating directly to the public health and safety shall include inspection by employees of federal, state, or local governments of food and similar commodities and establishments engaged in producing such commodities when the primary purpose of such inspection is the discovery of contamination or similar danger to the public health, but shall not include inspection where the primary purpose is to grade, standardize, prevent fraud, or establish sound business practices.

(g) Persons requiring new passenger autmobiles to maintain mail services by or on behalf of the United States.

(h) Persons furnishing licensed jitney, taxi, or similar transportation service to the general public.

(1) Certificates may be issued under this paragraph for passenger automobiles, used principally to provide jitney, taxi, or similar services, licensed by an appropriate government authority to transport the general public, but only in areas where streetcars, busses, and similar transportation services are inadequate to meet the needs of the public. Such services may be inadequate because of a shortage of suitable equipment or because they do not extend to outlying areas which use taxi service as a normal means of mass transportation and not as a luxury service.

(2) Certificates may not be granted under this paragraph for passenger automobiles which are rented, with or without chauffeurs, for the exclusive use of individuals rather than for taxi, jitney, or similar service to the general public.

(i) Persons who require automobiles for transportation between places where construction or mechanical, structural, or highway maintenance and repair services are needed. Certificates may be issued under this paragraph only to provide transportation between jobs and not to provide the applicant with transportation from his residence to his principal place of business or employment.

(j) Executives, engineers, technicians, and workers, requiring automobiles for transportation to and from, or within, factories, power plants, transportation or communication facilities, farms, lumber camps, mines, military or naval establishments, or similar places of employment when the work done at such places of employment is essential, directly or indirectly, to the prosecution of the war.

(k) Officers and employees of federal, state, or local or foreign governments engaged in the performance of government functions essential to the public health, safety, or the war effort and requiring such automobiles for transportation on official business.

(1) Certificates may be granted under this paragraph to enable government employees to perform functions essential to public health, safety, or the war effort, including such officials as fire wardens, ordnance inspectors and mine inspectors.

(2) Certificates may be granted under this paragraph only to government employees who use their cars principally for their official functions and only when such functions cannot, because of the lack of other transportation facilities, be performed without the use of such cars. Certificates may not be granted under this paragraph to make possible the transportation of government employees from their residences to their places of employment.

(3) Certificates may be granted under this paragraph to enable government employees to preserve or protect natural resources or to discover natural resources vital to the war effort.

(l) Persons requiring automobiles for the transportation of produce and supplies to and from a farm if the applicant does not own or possess a truck or other practicable means of transportation.

(m) Traveling salesmen who are engaged in the sale of machinery, or similar equipment, for farms, factories, mines, oil wells, lumber camps, and similar productive establishments, and of foods and medical supplies.

(1) Certificates may be granted under this paragraph only to salesmen of the commodities specified and only in cases where the sale of such commodities cannot be made by other means, including mail and telephone.

(n) Persons requiring automobiles to transport newspapers for wholesale delivery.*

Federal Agencies

§ 1360.381 Application; certificates. Any federal agency, other than those provided for in § 1360.351, which is eligible to acquire a new passenger automobile under §§ 1360.371 and 1360.372 shall make application on OPA Form R–216 to the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department. If the Procurement Division finds that the statements made in the application are true, it shall present the application to the Office of Price Administration. If the Office of Price Administration finds the applicant to be eligible, it may issue to the Procurement Division a certificate authorizing the purchase, subject to the quota established for this purpose.*

Applications by Persons Other Than Federal Agencies

§ 1360.391 Application for certificate to purchase new passenger automobiles by persons other than federal agencies. (a) Any person other than a federal agency who believes that he comes within one of the classifications set forth in §§ 1360.371 and 1360.372 may file with the Board an application for authority to purchase a new passenger automobile. Such application shall be filed on Form No. R–213.*

§ 1360.392 Preparation of application. (a) Copies of Form No. R–213 may be obtained from Local Rationing Boards. Form No. R–213 may be reproduced by any person provided that no change is made in the size, style, and content thereof.

(b) (1) Name of applicant. (i) An individual shall state his given name, middle name, and surname. In all cases where an individual regularly doing business under a trade name makes an application, he shall state, in addition to his name, the trade name under which he is doing business; for example, John James Doe, doing business as Doe Trucking Co.

(ii) A partnership shall state the trade name regularly used by such partnership and the fact that it is a partnership; for example, Doe & Roe Transportation Co., a partnership.

(iii) A corporation shall give its full name as it appears on its corporate charter; for example, Doe Transportation Co., Inc.

(iv) A state or any political subdivision thereof shall state its name; for example, the State of Wisconsin; Village of Winnetka, Ill.

(2) Addresses and telephone numbers of applicant. (i) An individual shall state his residence or business or office address and telephone number thereof.

(ii) A partnership shall state the address and telephone number of one place of business of the partnership within the area administered by the Board.

(iii) A corporation shall state the address and telephone number of one place of business of the corporation within the area administered by the Board.

(iv) A State or any political subdivision thereof shall state the address and telephone number of one of its offices within the area administered by the Board.

(v) If there is no place of business or office within the area administered by the Board, although the automobile applied for is to be garaged or stationed within that area, the applicant shall state the address of the place of business or office nearest the place where the automobile is to be garaged or stationed.

(3) Certification by applicant. The applicant shall certify the facts stated in the application, in the manner and form provided for such certification. In executing the certification:

(i) An individual shall sign his full name. In cases where an individual does business under a trade name, he shall set forth such trade name following his signature; for example, John Doe doing business as Doe Transportation Co.

(ii) A partnership shall set forth the name of the partnership followed by the legend, "a partnership," following which a partner or a duly authorized agent of the partnership shall sign his name, giving his position, preceded by the word "by"; for example, Doe Transportation Co., a partnership, by John James Doe, a partner; or Doe Transportation Co., a partnership, by Richard Roe, store manager, its duly authorized agent.

(iii) A corporation shall set forth the full name of the corporation as it appears on its charter, followed by the legend, "a corporation," following which an officer of the corporation, or a duly authorized agent thereof, shall sign his name, giving his position, preceded by the word "by"; for example, Doe Transportation Co., Inc., a corporation, by John James Doe, president; or Doe Transportation Co., Inc., a corporation, by Richard Roe, truck superintendent, its duly authorized agent.

(iv) A state or political subdivision thereof shall set forth its name, followed by the signature of an officer or duly authorized representative, giving his position, preceded by the word "by"; for example, State of ----------, by John James Doe, Superintendent of Highways.*

§ 1360.393 Action by the Board upon applications. Before granting an application for a certificate of permission to purchase a new passenger automobile, the Board shall satisfy itself that the applicant has properly executed his application, including all the agreements therein contained, that all the facts stated in the application are true, and that the applicant has satisfied all the applicable requirements and conditions specified by this Rationing Order No. 2A.*

§ 1360.394 Basis for Board consideration. If the Board has before it applications for new passenger automobiles which in its judgment satisfy all the requirements of this Rationing Order No. 2A, but which together call for the allotment of passenger automobiles in excess of the applicable quota of the Board, the Board shall, in determining which of the competing needs are to be satisfied, be governed by the relative importance to the war program, public safety, health and morale of the operation of a passenger automobile in the various services named in the applications.

The determination of facts shall be made upon the basis of the application and all other information which comes to the knowledge of the Board. In acting upon applications, the Board shall observe all regulations herein contained and all additional regulations from time to time hereafter issued by the Office of Price Administration. The Board shall at all times serve the objectives sought by the automobile rationing program and allocate new automobiles to the most vital civilian uses and to uses essential to the war effort. The Board may, in its discretion, request the applicant or his authorized representative to appear in person at a designated time at the office of the Board to answer pertinent questions. The Board should keep in mind and should impress upon applicants that the supply of new passenger automobiles is extremely limited and that it is not sufficient for the applicant to show that he comes within one of the eligibility classifications in order for him to receive a certificate. He must also show the relative importance of his need.*

§ 1360.395 Notation of reasons for action. When the Board determines that an application shall be granted, the reasons therefor shall be noted upon the application, together with the serial number of the certificate issued, and a notation shall be made as to whether the certificate issued is a quota or non-quota certificate. In all cases where an application is refused, the reasons for such refusal shall likewise be noted upon the application.*

Certificates for New Passenger Automobiles

§ 1360.401 Notification. After acting upon an application, the Board shall notify the applicant of its decision. In cases where the Board authorizes an applicant to purchase a new passenger automobile, the Board shall immediately issue to such applicant a nontransferable certificate for the purchase of a new passenger automobile. The certificate shall be issued on Form R–214 if the applicant is entitled to a quota certificate and on Form R–215 if the applicant is entitled to a non-quota certificate.*

§ 1360.402 Form of certificate. (a) The nontransferable certificate for the purchase of a new passenger automobile shall be serially numbered and shall be divided into five parts bearing the same serial number: (1) Part A shall be delivered to the dealer or transferor and be filed by him with the Board serving the area where the transfer was made (said Board shall forward this part to the issuing Board); (2) Part B shall be filed by the purchaser, within 5 days after delivery of the automobile, with the state or local agency having jurisdiction over registration of motor vehicles; (3) Part C shall be retained by the dealer or transferor; (4) Part D shall be mailed within 5 days after delivery of the automobile by the dealer or transferor to the Local Board designated to serve the area in which the transfer was made (this part shall be forwarded by the Board to the Office of Price Administration, Automobile Inventory Unit, New York, N. Y.); (5) Part E shall be retained by the purchaser or transferee.*

§ 1360.404 Action by purchaser. (a) Upon receiving the certificate so executed, the applicant may, within 30 days from the date of issue, purchase a new passenger automobile from any dealer or transferor at a price not in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The applicant must present to the dealer or transferor all parts of the certificate, in the form in which it was given to him by the issuing Board.*

§ 1360.405 Action by dealer or transferor. (a) Prior to delivering a new passenger automobile pursuant to a certificate surrendered to him, a dealer or transferor shall require the purchaser or the purchaser's agent to sign his name in the space provided for this purpose on Parts A and C of the certificate. If the signatures do not appear to be the signatures of the person who signed in the presence of a member or clerk of the Board on Parts A and B, the dealer or transferor shall refuse to sell or deliver an automobile to the person presenting the certificate and shall report the facts to the issuing Board.

(b) If the signatures appear to be executed by the same person, the dealer or transferor or his authorized agent shall, in the presence of the purchaser, or the purchaser's agent, fill in the remaining portions of Parts A, B, C, D, and E, which have not been completed by the issuing Board.*

Appeals

§ 1360.411 Grounds for appeal to the State Rationing Administrator. Any applicant for a new passenger automobile whose application has been denied by the Board and who believes that such action is in conflict with this Rationing Order No. 2A may file an appeal from such action with the State Rationing Administrator.*

§ 1360.412 Filing of appeals. (a) An appeal from an action taken by a Board may be filed only within 30 days after such action has been taken.

(b) The applicant shall file a statement in writing and under oath setting forth the specific section of this Rationing Order No. 2A which he believes to be inconsistent with the action taken by the Board and stating in full the facts on which he grounds his appeal.*

§ 1360.413 Action on appeals. The State Rationing Administrator may require the Board or the appellant to furnish pertinent information, in addition to that furnished before the Board, with respect to any appeal pending before him. The State Rationing Administrator may affirm the decision of the Board, or may reverse or modify such decision and remand the matter to the Board for consistent action. The State Rationing Administrator's ruling shall be in writing and shall be communicated to the appellant and to the Board. If he reverses or modifies the decision, he shall send a copy of his ruling to the Office of Price Administration. He shall act on the appeal within 30 days after its filing.*

§ 1360.414 Review by the Office of Price Administration. If an appellant feels aggrieved by the ruling of the State Rationing Administrator, he may, within 30 days thereafter, file a written petition for review with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. If the Office of Price Administration, in its discretion, elects to review the matter, it may require the furnishing of additional pertinent information. The Office of Price Administration may affirm the ruling of the State Rationing Administrator, or may reverse or modify such ruling and remand the matter to the Board for consistent action. The ruling of the Office of Price Administration shall be in writing and shall be communicated to the appellant, to the Board, and to the State Rationing Administrator.*

Records

§ 1360.421 Records to be kept by Board; posting. All applications for new passenger automobiles received by the Board shall be filed. Records shall be kept by the Board of such pertinent and material data as may be required by the Office of Price Administration. At intervals of not more than one week, a list of all certificates issued and names of recipients shall be posted at the office of the Board and shall be released to the press.*

§ 1360.422 Records to be kept by dealers. (a) Every person selling a new passenger automobile shall maintain a file containing all certificates which have been presented by applicants to whom transfers of new passenger automobiles have been made and prepare reports requested by the Board in his area and by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Any dealer who discontinues business may turn over to the Local Rationing Board in his area the records he is required to keep under paragraph (a) of this section.*

§ 1360.423 Filing of reports. All persons shall file reports to the extent required elsewhere in this Rationing Order No. 2A. In addition, all persons affected by this Rationing Order No. 2A shall make such reports as may from time to time be required by the Office of Price Administration and the War Production Board.*

Enforcement

§ 1360.431 Criminal prosecutions. Any person who violates any provision of this Rationing Order No. 2A or who by any act or omission knowingly falsifies an application, certificate or any record which he is required to keep by the terms of this Rationing Order No. 2A or who otherwise knowingly furnishes false information to a Board, State Rationing Administrator, or to the Office of Price Administration, or who conspires with another person to perform any of the foregoing acts, shall be subject to the penalties therefor, including a recommendation to the Attorney General for prosecution pursuant to section 35A of the Criminal Code (title 18, U.S.C., sec. 80) and other applicable statutes.*

§ 1360.432 Denial of materials. Any person who violates this Rationing Order No. 2A will also be denied the right to receive any new passenger automobile materials which are now or in the future may be under allocation by the Office of Price Administration, and the Office of Price Administration will recommend to the War Production Board that he be denied the right to receive any other materials which are now or in the future may be under allocation.*

§ 1360.433 Publicity. In the event of a refusal or failure to abide by the provisions of this Rationing Order No. 2A, the Office of Price Administration in addition to the foregoing penalties, will make every effort to insure that complete information is given to the public and to appropriate officials of the local, state, and federal governments.*

§ 1360.434 Other methods of enforcement. The Office of Price Administration may also take such other action for the enforcement of the provisions of this Rationing Order No. 2A as may be necessary, including application to courts and to appropriate agencies of local, state and federal governments in order to invoke such powers as may be available and appropriate in connection therewith.*

§ 1360.435 Complaint of violations. Any person may report a violation of this Rationing Order No. 2A to a Board, Local Rationing Administrator, State Rationing Administrator, Regional or Field Office of the Office of Price Administration, or to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C. An official or employee of the office to which the report is made shall fill out a complaint, secure the signature of the complainant if possible, and transmit the complaint for investigation and action in accordance with the instructions of the Office of Price Administration.*

Effective Dates

§ 1360.441 Effective date. This rationing Order No. 2A—New Passenger Automobile Rationing Regulations shall become effective March 2, 1942.*

Issued this 21st day of February 1942.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF MARINE INSPECTION AND NAVIGATION

SUBCHAPTER A—DOCUMENTATION, ENTRANCE AND CLEARANCE OF VESSELS, ETC.

[Order No. 214]

FEBRUARY 25, 1942.

Section 1.41 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.41 Issue of temporary document upon sale. (a) When a vessel entitled to be documented changes ownership and is in a port other than the home port designated by the new owner, a temporary document may be issued by the collector at that port.

(1) If application is made to the collector at the home port designated by the new owner and all requirements of law are complied with except the issuance of the document, he shall authorize the collector at the port where the vessel then is to issue a temporary document to the vessel.

(2) If application is made to the collector at the port where the vessel then is, the same proceedings shall be had as are required by law at the vessel's home port, except that the bill of sale shall not be recorded at the former port.

(i) If the bill of sale is presented to the collector at the port of issue of the temporary document, it shall be noted on his records and then forwarded to the collector at the home port designated by the new owner. The recording fees shall be collected by the issuing collector in such case and forwarded with the bill of sale to the collector at such home port.

(3) The bill of sale shall be recorded by the collector at the home port designated by the new owner, but only after there has been furnished to him by the collector at the former port of documentation a certified copy of the record of the vessel at the latter port (Commerce Form 1331) as required by subsection H (c) of section 30 of the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920 (46 U.S.C. 926 (c)).

(b) The temporary document must be surrendered within ten days after the arrival of the vessel within the district to which she belongs, or the owner and master shall severally be liable to a penalty of $100. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, R.S. 4159, R.S. 4160; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 29, 30).

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. B-215]

IN THE MATTER OF JACK SMITH, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 5, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 10, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder:

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 30, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Community Room, City Hall, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, That answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows: That said defendant, Jack Smith, whose address is R. F. D. #1, Indiana, Pennsylvania, whose code membership became effective as of June 20, 1941, operator of the Flora Dale Mine, Mine Index No. 781, located in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, Subdistrict 12 of District No. 1 wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and Part II (e) of the Bituminous Coal Code as follows:

(a) By selling through one Murray Smith, Glen Campbell, Pennsylvania, to the Arcadia Company, Arcadia, Pennsylvania, during the period June 21, 1941, to August 29, 1941, both dates inclusive, at a price of $1.97 per net ton f. o. b. the Arcadia Company's tipple at Arcadia, Pennsylvania, approximately 471.35 tons of run of mine coal produced at said mine, whereas the effective minimum price for said coal was $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments as amended by Order of the Director dated June 21, 1941, entered in Docket No. A-903.

(b) By failing to add in the transactions referred to in paragraph (a) hereof to the said applicable minimum f. o. b. mine price an amount at least equal as nearly as practicable to the actual transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character (exclusive of customary costs of mine operation) from the transportation facilities at the mine to the purchaser's tipple, from which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchaser as set forth in said schedule, and Price Instruction No. 6 as amended and contained in said schedule.

Dated: February 24, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1319]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 8 FOR AN INCREASE IN THE PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES APPLICABLE TO THE COALS OF THE WINDROCK MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 589, OF BESSEMER COAL, IRON & LAND COMPANY, A CODE MEMBER IN DISTRICT NO. 8

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 24, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 19, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 8 for a change in price classifications and minimum prices applicable to the coals of the Windrock Mine, Mine Index No. 589, of Bessemer Coal, Iron & Land Company, a code member in District No. 8, and more specifically, a change in the price classifications applicable to the coals of this Mine, for all shipments except truck.

[Docket No. B-146]

NOTICE OF FILING APPLICATION PURSUANT TO § 301.132 FOR DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDING WITHOUT FORMAL HEARING

Notice is hereby given that Zimmerman Coal Company, registered distributor, respondent in the above-entitled matter on February 12, 1942, filed an application dated February 10, 1942, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division for the Disposition Without Formal Hearing of Compliance Proceedings.

In said application the respondent

1. Admits that:

(a) During the period from November 9, 1940 to March 28, 1941, respondent acting as sales agent for the Lone Star Coal Co., Inc., a code member in District No. 11, sold and delivered by rail to Columbian Enameling and Stamping Company, Inc., at Terre Haute, Indiana, 22 cars of ¾" carbon coal produced by said code member, and prepaid the freight charges upon such shipments of coal;

(b) During the period from May 6, 1941 to May 8, 1941, respondent purchased from the F. C. Morgan Coal Company, a code member, 2 cars of 2" screennigs produced by said code member and resold and shipped said coal by rail to the Columbian Enameling and Stamping Company, Inc., at Terre Haute, Indiana, and prepaid the freight charges thereon;

(c) On or about May 14, 1941, respondent purchased from Goodman Coal Corporation of Chicago, Illinois, sales agent for Big Bend Collieries, Inc., a code member, 1 car of 2" screenings produced by said code member, and on or about the said date resold and reshipped said coal by rail to the Columbian Enameling and Stamping Company, Inc., at Terre Haute, Indiana, and prepaid the freight charges thereon; and

(d) Subsequent to September 30, 1940, respondent failed to file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 11 its invoices currently as rendered as required by Order No. 295 of the Director dated June 14, 1940 and Order No. 313 of the Director dated February 24, 1941, all as set forth in the Notice of and Order for Hearing herein dated January 21, 1942, resulting in violations of section 4 II (i) (3) of the Act, Part II (i) (3) of the Code, Rule 3 of section XIII and Rule I (J) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and paragraphs (c) and (e) of its Distributor's Agreement.

2. Consents to the entry of an order revoking or suspending its registration and agrees to restore to code members or others the amounts unlawfully accepted by the respondent as discounts or sales commissions on the transactions involved herein.

Interested parties desiring to do so may within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice file recommendations or requests for informal conferences in respect to the above described application.

Dated: February 24, 1942.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 6273]

NOTICE OF HEARING

Application of Eddie Erlbacher (KMP), dated September 6, 1941, for construction permit; class of service, public coastal; class of station, coastal harbor; location, Cape Girardeau, Missouri;

Operating assignment specified: Frequencies, 2782; 4162.5, 6455, 8840, 11090 kcs.; power, 1000 watts day; 500 watts at all other times; emission A-3; points of communication; Mississippi River and tributaries.

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the above described application and has designated the matter for hearing for the following reasons:

1. To determine the need for the proposed additional service.

2. To determine whether the interference that would result to other stations from use of the frequencies and power requested could be satisfactorily reduced or eliminated by cooperative measures.

3. To determine whether the applicant intends to operate a general public service coastal harbor station.

4. To determine applicant's financial and other qualifications to render a general public service by means of the proposed facilities.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of § 1.382 (b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Persons other than the applicant who desire to be heard must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the provisions of § 1.102 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

The applicant's address is as follows:

Eddie Erlbacher, 231 North Main Street, Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

Dated at Washington, D. C., February 23, 1942.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-504]

IN THE MATTER OF THE MILWAUKEE ELECTRIC RAILWAY & TRANSPORT COMPANY

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above named party;

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 17, 1942, at 4:45 P. M., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt the transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized below:

The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company proposes to redeem on April 1, 1942, at par plus accrued interest, $500,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage 4% Bonds; such bonds being outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $9,700,000 and being pledged under the Mortgage of Wisconsin Electric Power Company, the parent of The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company.

The application or declaration states that the parent company will obtain the release of the required amount of bonds from its Mortgage by certifying to the Trustee thereof a sufficient amount of net bondable property additions, and will re-invest the funds to be received by it from the proposed redemption in extensions and improvements to its electric utility plant; that the expenditure of $500,000 by The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company will not impair its ability to adequately meet its increasing demands for transportation service in and around the City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; that the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin has no jurisdiction over the proposed transaction, and that there are no underwriters or persons to whom fees, commissions, or other remuneration is to be paid other than a nominal fee to be paid to said Trustee by Wisconsin Electric Power Company in connection with the release from the trust estate of the bonds to be redeemed.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF THE UNITED CORPORATION

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The United Corporation. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

The United Corporation, a registered holding company, proposes, subject to the approval of its stockholders, and without changing the carrying value of its assets, to reduce the stated value of its presently outstanding 2,488,712½ shares of $3 Cumulative Preference Stock from $50 per share, as presently stated, to $5 per share. It is proposed that the amount of such reduction in the stated value of the Preference Stock, aggregating $111,992,047.50, will be maintained in a separate account designated as capital surplus which will be described as resulting from the reduction in the stated value of Preference Stock and as unavailable for Common Stock dividends, or any charge for any deficit in earned surplus, or for any other purpose which will reduce the amount thereof below $45 per share of Preference Stock outstanding. The company states that the proposed restatement will facilitate the declaration and payment of dividends accrued and to accrue on its $3 Cumulative Preference Stock. At December 31, 1941, dividend arrearages on the Preference Stock aggregated $7,406,136 or $3 per share. As at the same date, the company's capital stock, per balance sheet, was stated at: Preference Stock, $124,435,608.34, Common Stock (stated at $1 per share) $14,529,491.50. Capital Surplus was $15,223,603.83 and Earned Surplus was $6,699,097.63. The United Corporation's net income was $9,557,142.18 in 1940 and $6,811,213.48 in 1941, both figures per books.

Sections 6 (a), 7 (a) and 7 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 are designated as applicable to the proposed transactions.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters, that said declaration shall not become effective nor said application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on March 12, 1942, at 10:00 o'clock, A. M., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. On such day the hearing-room clerk will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such declaration or application (or both) shall become effective or shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named declarant and applicant and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said declarant and applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In accordance with the agreement of the applicant and declarant, it is ordered that a copy of this Notice and Order be mailed to all Preference Stockholders of record as of February 24, 1942.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declaration or application (or both) otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. The purpose and appropriateness, in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers, of the proposed restatement;

2. The appropriateness of the accounting entries proposed to be made in connection with said restatement;

3. Whether the proposed restatement is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of the Act;

4. Whether and to what extent it is appropriate, in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers, to impose terms and conditions with respect to the proposed restatement.

By the Commission.

PART 5—SAFEGUARDING MILITARY INFORMATION[1]

§ 5.25 Information on War Department contracts and site locations. The following instructions will apply to the publication of information concerning site locations of war industries and military installations, contract awards, and other matters relating to production.

(a) Construction. (1) No announcement of site locations will be made in the field.

(2) When the War Department Bureau of Public Relations deems it in the public interest to announce the selection of a site it will do so in substantially the following form:

(i) The War Department announced today the selection of Jonesville, Kentucky, as a site for a possible future cantonment. This is a pre-planning site and construction of the cantonment is contingent upon the future needs of the Army.

(ii) The War Department announced today its intention to construct a manufacturing plant in Indiana.

(3) No announcement of awards of those construction contracts which require the approval of the Under Secretary of War will be made in the field without the approval of the War Department Bureau of Public Relations.

(4) When the War Department Bureau of Public Relations deems it in the public interest to announce the award of a construction contract approved by the Under Secretary of War, it will make such announcement or authorize the Chief of Engineers to do so. Such announcement will be substantially in the following form:

(i) The War Department announced today the award of a contract to Jones and Company, Richmond, Virginia, for the construction of a cantonment in Kentucky. The award was made by the Louisville District Office of the Corps of Engineers.

(ii) The War Department announced today the award of a contract to the Smith Corporation, St. Louis, Missouri, for the construction of a manufacturing plant in Indiana. The award was made by the St. Louis District Office of the Corps of Engineers.

(5) When the Chief of Engineers deems it in the public interest to announce the award of a construction contract which does not require the approval of the Under Secretary of War, he may make such announcement. Such announcement will be substantially in the form prescribed for announcements in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(6) When, in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers, it is necessary to the proper functioning of suppliers of labor, materials, facilities, and other services, he may authorize the furnishing of necessary information to appropriate Government offices and agencies, and to properly accredited persons, who, in his opinion, have a legitimate interest in such information. The offices authorized to furnish such information should be cautioned against release of any procurement information to others than those duly identified as having a bona fide interest, and when such information is so released to responsible persons they should be cautioned against its publication.

PART 308—REPORTS AND RECORDS

ORDER REQUIRING REPORTS FROM PRODUCERS OF BITUMINOUS COAL COVERING PRODUCTION AND MINE OPERATION FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR 1941

Pursuant to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and particularly section 10 (a) thereof, it is hereby ordered that:

Part 308 is amended by adding thereto § 308.25 to read as follows:

§ 308.25 Reports from producers of bituminous coal covering production and mine operation for the calendar year 1941. (a) Each producer of bituminous coal, whether or not a code member, and whether or not engaged in commerce in coal which is subject to the provisions of section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, shall file, on the appropriate form hereinafter designated, and in the manner hereinafter set forth, a report of production and other items relating to mine operation, as more fully described in said appropriate form. Each of the hereinafter designated forms is by this reference incorporated herein and made a part of this order.[1]

(b) For each mine having rail or river connections regardless of the amount of daily average production, and for each mine having a daily average production of more than fifty (50) net tons irrespective of whether it has rail or river connections, the reports required by this order shall be filed on Form BCD No. 453 (Revised Nov. 1941) T–1.

(c) For each mine without rail or river connections, having a daily average production of less than fifty (50) net tons, the report herein required shall be made on Form BCD No. 454 (Revised Nov. 1941) T–2.

(d) The reports required to be made on Form BCD No. 453 (Revised Nov. 1941) T–1, and the reports required to be made on Form BCD No. 454 (Revised Nov. 1941) T–2, shall be filed at the office of the Statistical Bureau of the Division for the district in which the reporting mine is located, on or before the 26th day of February 1942. A separate report, either on Form BCD No. 453 (Revised Nov. 1941) T–1, or Form BCD No. 454 (Revised Nov. 1941) T–2, as the case may be, shall be filed for each mine operated by the producer during any part of the calendar year, even though said mine may have been in operation for only a very limited period. Likewise, a separate report shall be filed for each mine maintained by the producer during the calendar year 1941, even though such mine was not in actual operation during any part of such period.

(e) Each report required to be filed by this section shall be certified as being correct by the producer, if an individual, or by a member of the firm, if a partnership, or in the case of a corporation, by a responsible officer thereof who is familiar with the facts. (Sec. 10 (a), 50 Stat. 88, 15 U.S.C. Sup. 840 (a))

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1, FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 1

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows:

Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing the Rules and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 13, 1942.

[Docket Nos. A-524 and A-706]

PART 327—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 7

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING PERMANENT RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD 7 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MINIMUM PRICE FOR REFUSE FUEL PRODUCED AT MINE INDEX NOS. 21, 94, 117 AND 126 IN DISTRICT 7 AND IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD 7 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MINIMUM PRICE FOR REFUSE FUEL PRODUCED AT MINE INDEX NO. 207 IN DISTRICT 7

These are proceedings instituted upon petitions filed by District Board 7 with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition in Docket No. A-524 seeks the establishment of effective minimum prices for shipments of refuse coal to the plant of the Appalachian Electric Power Company at Glenlyn, Virginia, and to the plant of the Virginian Railway Company at Narrows, Virginia, from Mine Index Nos. 21, 94, 117, and 126. The petition in Docket No. A-706 requests the establishment of an effective minimum price for shipments of refuse coal from Mine Index No. 207 to the two above-mentioned consumers.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director, and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing was held in Docket A-524 before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. Thereafter, on March 22, 1941, the Director made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and rendered his Opinion, and on the basis thereof, issued a final Order amending the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 7 for All Shipments Except Truck to provide the following effective minimum prices for refuse coal shipped to the above-mentioned consumers only: From Mine Index Nos. 21, 94 and 117, $1.10 per ton, and from Mine Index No. 126, $1.30 per ton.

Subsequently, the petitioner, District Board 7, filed a supplemental petition requesting that the Order of the Director in Docket No. A-524, dated March 22, 1941, 6 F.R. 1593, be vacated on the ground that fair competitive opportunities could not be maintained under the prices ordered; that this proceeding be reopened to permit the introduction of certain relevant data omitted in the previous hearing; and that the Director, in the interim, issue a temporary Order permitting shipments of refuse coal to the above-mentioned consumers at the following effective minimum prices: From Mine Index Nos. 21, 94, and 117, 90 cents per ton; and from Mine Index No. 126, $1.10 per ton. The petitioner also filed a motion requesting that Docket No. A-706 be consolidated for hearing with Docket No. A-524 on the ground that the issues raised in both matters were related. The Order of March 22, 1941, was vacated and temporary relief granted in accordance with such requests.

Pursuant to Order of the Director a consolidated hearing on these two matters was held before Examiner Hayes, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. A petition of intervention was filed by District Board 1. Appearances were entered by District Board 7, and the Lillybrook Coal Company, a code member producer in District 7. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard.

The evidence indicates that the disposal of refuse coal, a necessary product of the operations of the specific mines involved, has become an expensive and difficult task. The evidence indicates further that such a problem can be obviated by the sale of such coal to the Appalachian Electric Power Company and the Virginian Railway Company; but that such sale can be effected only at a special low price of 90 cents per ton for Mine Index Nos. 21, 94, and 117, respectively; and $1.10 per ton for Mine Index No. 126. The relief granted in the Order of the Director dated March 22, 1941 in Docket No. A-524 does not appear to have been sufficient since the two above-mentioned consumers have ceased to purchase such refuse coal. The testimony shows that Mine Index No. 207, the subject of Docket No. A-706, is confronted with the same problem of disposal of refuse coal as the mines which are the subject of Docket No. A-524; and from the analyses available, it appears that refuse coals of Mine Index No. 207 are comparable to those of Mine Index Nos. 21, 94, and 117.

The record discloses that no party appeared in opposition to the requested relief. While I have concluded that the requested relief and that the prices requested should be granted and to that extent that the orders previously issued should be modified, it is well to repeat here what was said by Director Gray in his Findings in Docket No. A-524, dated March 22, 1941. Director Gray there stated "that the producers of refuse coals should not be deprived of the limited markets which they have in the past built up for such inferior coals. It appears that these markets can be retained only if lower effective minimum prices are established for refuse coals than for 'normal quality' coals. The establishment of such a price differential, however, poses new problems of policing and enforcement, for attempts may be made to evade the price provisions of the Act by shipping 'normal quality' coals, as refuse coals. Accordingly, permission to ship refuse coals at prices lower than those established for 'normal quality' coals should be granted only to those producers who show that they do produce such coals and have markets for them, and such permission must be circumscribed by requirements that the coals so shipped will approximate in analyses those represented as typical for the refuse coals involved. The exception for refuse coals can be safely continued in effect only as long as those conditions are adhered to." To all of this the undersigned subscribes.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That commencing forthwith § 327.12 (General prices for low volatile coals) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 7 for All Shipments Except Truck, be and it hereby is amended as follows:

For shipments of refuse coal to the plants of the Appalachian Electric Power Company at Glenlyn, Virginia, and the Virginian Railway at Narrows, Virginia, only the effective minimum prices shall be as follows: From the Besoco Mine of the Leconey Smokeless Fuel Company, the Killarney Mine of the Lillybrook Coal Company, the No. 2 and No. 3 Mines of the Mead Coal Company, and the Wyco Mine of the Gulf Smokeless Coal Company (Mine Index Nos. 21, 94, 117, and 207, respectively), 90 cents per ton; and from the Minter Mine of the Minter Coal Company (Mine Index No. 126), $1.10 per ton: Provided, however, That all orders, acknowledgments and invoices covering shipments of said coal shall specifically designate it as "refuse coal": And provided, further, That the analyses of all said coal shipped as refuse coal shall approximate for the respective mines, those contained in Exhibit 2 of Docket No. A-524: And provided further, That upon order, at any time, analyses of said refuse coal shall be made and filed with the Division.

Dated: February 12, 1942.

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR REDUCTION OF THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES AND PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS FOR THE COALS OF THE BROWN (K. Y. 6) MINE (MINE INDEX NOS. 97 AND/OR 235) IN DISTRICT NO 9, FOR TRUCK AND RAIL SHIPMENTS, AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MINIMUM PRICES AND PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS FOR THE COALS OF SAID MINE IN SIZE GROUPS 17 TO 25, INCLUSIVE, FOR SHIPMENT BY RAIL

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on October 20, 1941, by District Board 9, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests that temporary and permanent relief be granted by revising the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established for the coals of the Brown Mine (Mine Index No. 235)[1] of R. L. Brown for truck shipment and for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of said mine in Size Groups 17 to 25, inclusive, for rail shipment.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director dated November 12, 1941, and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on December 18 and 19, 1941, before Floyd McGown,[2] a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. The petitioner appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived and the matter was thereupon submitted to the undersigned, who has considered the record of the proceeding.

The petition of District Board 9 herein requests, in part, a revision in the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established for the coals of the Brown Mine (Mine Index No. 235) of R. L. Brown, for both truck and rail shipments.

The evidence shows that the Brown Mine, located in Christian County, Kentucky, in District 9, is producing in the No. 6 Seam. According to the testimony of the witness for the District Board, there is a considerable variance in the analytical characteristics, as well as in the color, of the coal produced in this seam. The witness stated that the Brown Mine coal is inferior in quality to other coals produced from the same seam which is similarly priced, and is similar in quality to coal produced from the No. 9 Seam, which is priced considerably lower. Thus the District Board requests that the prices established for the Brown Mine coals be reduced to conform with the prices established for the base No. 9 Seam coals, such as produced at the Beech Creek Mine (Mine Index No. 1) of the Beech Creek Coal Co. It was shown that there are other mines of the district operating in the No. 6 Seam which have the same prices as are requested for the Brown Mine coals.

The District Board also requests the establishment of classifications and corresponding minimum prices for the coals of the Brown Mine in Size Groups 17 to 25, inclusive, for rail shipment, for which minimum prices have not heretofore been established. The classifications and prices proposed for these sizes are the same as those established for No. 9 Seam coals, as produced at the Beech Creek Mine.

The witness for the District Board stated that the operator of the Brown Mine was unable to dispose of his coal at the present prices and that all the members of the District Board were of the opinion that those prices should be reduced as requested. He expressed the belief that the requested prices would reflect the relative market value of the coals and would enable them to compete on a fair basis with other coals of District 9.

The evidence adduced by the District Board was uncontroverted and upon the basis of that evidence I find and conclude: (1) that the price classifications and minimum prices herein requested for the coals of the Brown Mine are proper and should be established, and that the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9, For Truck Shipments and For All Shipments Except Truck, should be amended accordingly;

[1] It was shown that the Brown Mine, formerly operated by the K. Y. 6 Coal Mines, was listed in Docket No. A-562 as Mine Index No. 97, but that it should properly be designated Mine Index No. 235.

[2] By Order of the Acting Director dated November 28, 1941, Floyd McGown was designated Examiner vice Scott A. Dahlquist who had previously been designated to preside at the hearing.

(2) that such amendments of the Price Schedules for District No. 9 are required in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act and to comply with the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That commencing fifteen (15) days from the date hereof § 329.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) and § 329.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) in the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 For All Shipments Except Truck and For Truck Shipments, be, and they hereby are, amended to provide price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Brown Mine (Mine Index No. 235) of R. L. Brown for rail and truck shipments as set forth in Supplements R and T hereto attached and made a part hereof, in lieu of the classifications and minimum prices presently effective therefor.

Dated: February 11, 1942.

Acting Director.

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 9, FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9, for truck shipments; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 329.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 12, 1942.

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, MEMORANDUM OPINION, AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 13 REQUESTING AN INCREASE IN THE MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COAL PRODUCED AT THE WILSON MINE OF THE RIVER VALLEY CAHABA COAL COMPANY (MINE INDEX NO. 509), IN DISTRICT NO. 13 FOR TRUCK AND RAIL SHIPMENTS AND REQUESTING ADDITIONAL RAIL SHIPPING POINTS FOR THE AFORESAID MINE AND FOR THE M'CARTY COAL COMPANY MINE OF DAVID M'CARTY, MINE INDEX NO. 115, IN DISTRICT NO. 13

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 13, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests that relief be granted by revising the price classifications and minimum prices for the coals produced at the Wilson Mine (Mine Index No. 509) of the River Valley Cahaba Coal Company, a code member in District 13, by establishing an additional loading point for said mine, and by changing the rail shipping point for the McCarty Coal Company Mine (Mine Index No. 115) of David McCarty, also a code member in District 13.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on November 25, 1941, before D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. District Board 13 appeared. At the conclusion of the hearing the preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived and the record in the proceeding was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

The petition of District Board 13 requests relief in three respects and is supported by the testimony of N. E. Cross, Secretary of District Board 13, the sole witness at the hearing. The requests for relief will be discussed seriatim.

The petition alleges that the Wilson Mine (Mine Index No. 509) of the River Valley Cahaba Coal Company was originally classified and priced as being on the Nunnally Seam. The District Board contends that this mine is on the Wadsworth Seam and, accordingly, proposes an increase in its prices for rail and truck shipments upon the basis of properly relating them to prices already established for another mine on the Wadsworth Seam. The record reveals that the District Board concluded that the Wilson Mine was on the Wadsworth Seam upon the basis of analyses submitted by the producer and of discussions with the owner of the mine, other mine operators in the same area, and two geologists familiar with the coals in that area. The prices that have been proposed are similar to those that have been established for other mines on the Wadsworth Seam, such as Pen's Wadsworth, Mine Index No. 514, and the owner of the Wilson Mine has agreed to the proposed increased prices. Accordingly, it would appear that these proposed revised prices should be established so as to keep the coals of this mine in a fair competitive position with other coals in District 13.

The petition further alleges that the shipping point designated for the Wilson Mine for rail shipments at Chelsea, Alabama, on the A. B. and C. Railroad is of little value to the mine at the present time and that an additional shipping point should be established at Birmingham, Alabama, Avenue A and 15th Street, on the team tracks of the L. & N. Railroad and Southern Railroad. It appears that the producer has been able to have freight rates established by the A. B. and C. Railroad only from Chelsea to the Birmingham district and that no freight rates have been established to any destinations on other railroads. Consequently, the mine does not have an adequate shipping point. It further appears that the length of the haul from the mine to Chelsea is about the same as it is to Birmingham, and that the coals of the Wilson Mine are usually hauled by truck to Birmingham. In the circumstances, the proposal to establish an additional shipping point for the Wilson Mine appears reasonable. Such additional shipping point should be established, however, subject to the restriction that prices established for this mine are not applicable for shipment from the Birmingham shipping point to destinations within the switching limits of Birmingham, Alabama. Also, the shipping point at Chelsea should be kept, for the record discloses that there are possibilities of the sale of locomotive fuel to the A. B. and C. Railroad.

The petition further requests that the shipping point for the coals of the McCarty Coal Company Mine (Mine Index No. 115) of David McCarty be changed from Morris, Alabama, on the L. & N. Railroad, to Coalburg, Alabama, on the Southern Railroad. The record reveals that McCarty has never been able to make arrangements with the L. & N. Railroad to load at Morris, Alabama, and is thus in substance without a shipping point. However, arrangements have been made to load at Coalburg, Alabama, on the Southern Railroad. Consequently, the proposal of the District Board should be adopted.

Upon the basis of the uncontroverted testimony, I find and conclude that the revision of the seam designation and applicable minimum prices of the coals of the Wilson Mine (Mine Index No. 509),[1] the establishment of an additional loading point for said mine, and the change of the rail shipping point of the McCarty Coal Company Mine (Mine Index No. 115), as set forth above, is necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of section 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and to comply in all respects with the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, commencing fifteen (15) days from the date hereof, § 333.6 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, § 333.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

Dated: February 11, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Acting Director.

[1] The rail prices requested for the Wilson Mine in Size Groups 8 and 11 were $2.95 and $2.70, respectively. These are apparently in error. To carry out the proper relationship these should be $2.85 and $2.80, respectively.

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 15 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 15

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 15; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 335.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I, § 335.8 (Special prices—(a) Oklahoma "smithing coal" from production group No. 12) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-II, and § 335.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

No relief is granted herein for the coals of the Gray Mine (Mine Index No. 1570) of code member James Gray, for the coals of the Hanlin & Lee Mine (Mine Index No. 1571) of the Hanlin & Lee Coal Company nor for the coals of the Floyd Mine (Mine Index No. 1567) of code member C. A. Harbur for the reason set forth in the Order severing that portion of Docket No. A-1267 relating to such coals from the remainder of the docket, designating such portion as Docket No. A-1267 Part II and granting temporary relief therein.

Effective at once, Priorities Regulation No. 3[1] is hereby amended to read as follows:

The following regulation is issued by the Director of Industry Operations to promote the defense of the United States and for the purpose of improving and facilitating the operation of the Priorities System.

§ 944.23 Priorities Regulation No. 3—(a) Adoption of revised forms of Preference Rating Certificates. On and after February 2, 1942, preference ratings to be assigned by Preference Rating Certificates may be assigned, and on and after March 15, 1942, shall be assigned, in the manner and subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth, by revised forms of preference rating certificates hereby designated as Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A and Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A, which are hereby adopted in place of the Preference Rating Certificates Forms PD–1, PD–2, PD–3, PD–4, and PD–5: Provided, That all Preference Rating Certificates Forms PD–1, PD–2, PD–3, PD–4, and PD–5 duly issued prior to March 15, 1942, are valid and shall continue valid and in effect until termination or expiration by the terms thereof or by the circumstances or conditions of their application, or until hereafter canceled, modified, changed, or amended by the Director of Industry Operations, and any rating assigned by Forms PD–3, PD–4, or PD–5 must on or after, but not before, March 15, 1942 be extended in accordance with the terms of paragraph (c) (4) of this section and on or after said date, all the provisions of this Regulation applicable to Preference Rating Certificates PD–3A and the ratings assigned thereby, shall be equally applicable to said Forms and the ratings assigned thereby.

(b) Categories for use of prescribed Preference Rating Certificates. (1) Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A shall be used to assign preference ratings, where appropriate, to deliveries under contracts or purchase orders of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Panama Canal, National Advisory Committee on Aeronautics, Civil Aeronautics Authority, Office of Scientific Research and Development, Selective Service System; and may be used, where appropriate, to assign preference ratings to deliveries under Lend-Lease contracts or purchase orders of the Procurement Division of the Department of the Treasury and of the Surplus Marketing Administration of the Department of Agriculture, contracts or purchase orders of, or for the account of, foreign governments, and other contracts or purchase orders as may be prescribed from time to time in Division Administrative Orders issued by the Director of Industry Operations.

(2) Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A shall be used to assign, where appropriate, preference ratings to deliveries under all other contracts and purchase orders; including, where appropriate, Lend-Lease contracts or purchase orders and contracts or purchase orders of, or for the account of, foreign governments.

(c) Extension of preference ratings to deliveries under contracts and purchase orders and subcontracts and suborders. (1) Preference ratings assigned by Preferncе Rating Certificates PD–1A and PD–3A may be extended to deliveries under contracts and purchase orders and subcontracts and suborders by endorsing on the purchase order or other equivalent document furnished to the supplier or subsupplier a certification in the form prescribed by the appropriate certificate, filled in and manually signed by an official of the purchasing company duly authorized for such purpose.

(2) In cases where Preference Rating Certificates PD–3A issue under letters of intent and therefore no contract number can be inserted in the space provided in the certification form, reference to a footnote addition shall be inserted and in such footnote the Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy or other government agency issuing the letter of intent and the date of such letter, together with any identificaton symbol on such letter, shall be stated.

(3) A supplier or subsupplier who has received two or more contracts or purchase orders bearing ratings of the same grade originally assigned by Preference Rating Certificates PD–1A and PD–3A, may include in a single contract or purchase order, and (within the limitations of paragraph (e) of this section) may extend such rating to, any or all of the material which he in turn requires to make delivery in accordance with such contracts or purchase orders or to replace in inventory material so delivered, but must specify in the certification endorsed on such single purchase order or equivalent document all of the Preference Rating Certificate Form Numbers and corresponding Serial Numbers of the ratings which have been so received by him and pursuant to which he is extending the rating. All spaces must be filled in where applicable.

(4) Preference Ratings assigned by Preference Rating Certificates Forms PD–3, PD–4, and PD–5 must, on or after, but not before, March 15, 1942 be extended by endorsing on the purchase order or other equivalent document furnished to the supplier or subsupplier a certification in the form prescribed by Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A provided that the following conditions are complied with:

[1] 7 F.R. 250.

(i) The rating at the time of its extension is assigned by a valid Preference Rating Certificate Form PD–3, PD–4, or PD–5, which has not terminated or expired by its terms or by the circumstances or conditions of its application or has not been canceled, modified, changed or amended in such a way as to invalidate such extension:

(ii) The extension of the rating assigned by a Form PD–3, PD–4 or PD–5 is made subject to all the restrictions and conditions applicable to the extension of a rating assigned by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A;

(iii) In the certification form prescribed by Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A the words "applied pursuant to Certificate PD–3A" are eliminated and the words "is hereby applied pursuant to Certificate Form PD–3 (PD–4 or PD–5)" are substituted therefor.

(d) False statements. The execution and transmission of the Certification above set forth to a supplier or subsupplier shall be deemed a representation to the War Production Board for the purpose of section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80), which makes it a criminal offense to make a false statement or representation to any Department or Agency of the United States as to any matter within its jurisdiction.

(e) Restrictions on extension of ratings assigned by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A or PD–3A. (1) A supplier or subsupplier may extend the preference rating only to:

(i) Deliveries of material which will itself be ultimately delivered by him or by another supplier pursuant to the original preference rating, or which will be physically incorporated into material to be so delivered, or which will be used within the limitations of paragraphs (e) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section to replace in inventory material so delivered;

(ii) Material which is neither greater in quantity nor to be delivered on dates earlier than required to make on schedule a rated delivery or, within the limitations of (2) and (3) below, to replace in inventory material so delivered. Material shall not be deemed to be so required if the rated delivery may be made and a practicable working minimum inventory thereof still retained; and if, in making such delivery, the inventory is reduced below such minimum, the rating may be extended only to the extent necessary to restore the inventory to such minimum.

(2) A supplier or subsupplier who supplies material which he has in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed, may not extend the rating to restore his inventory to a practicable working minimum unless he extends the rating before completing the rated delivery which reduces his inventory below such minimum.

(3) A supplier or subsupplier who supplies material which he has not in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may, in restoring his inventory to a practicable working minimum, defer extensions of the rating originally assigned by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A or PD–3A for such material until he can place a purchase order or contract for the minimum quantity procurable on his customary terms; Provided, That he shall not defer the extension of any rating for more than three months after he becomes entitled to apply it.

(4) Any supplier or subsupplier who receives a contract or purchase order bearing an AA preference rating and who can fill the same out of inventory or goods in process may not extend the AA rating, but may within the limitations of paragraphs (e) (1), (2) and (3) of this section extend an A–1–a rating.

(5) The extension of preference ratings assigned by Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A may be made subject to such additional provisions and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the appropriate Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy, with the approval of the Army and Navy Munitions Board and of the Director of Industry Operations.

(6) Any supplier or subsupplier who extends the preference rating shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of this section.

(f) Records, audit and inspection, and reports. Any person who applies for or extends a preference rating or to whom a preference rating certificate is issued, and any supplier or subsupplier who receives a contract or purchase order bearing a rating, shall maintain such records and shall be subject to such audit and inspection as are provided by Priorities Regulation No. 1 as the same may be amended or supplemented from time to time; and shall make such reports as may be required by the Director of Industry Operations from time to time hereafter.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Regulation or of Preference Rating Certificates PD–1A or PD–3A or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(h) Reproduction of forms. Preference Rating Certificate Form PD–1A may be reproduced in blank by or for the user thereof, but Preference Rating Certificate Form PD–3A may not be reproduced. Preference Rating Certificate Form PD–1A may be procured from the Division of Industry Operations of the War Production Board or any of the field offices thereof; Preference Rating Certificate Form PD–3A may be procured from the duly authorized contracting and procurement officers and inspectors of the Army and Navy.

(i) Effective date. This section shall take effect at once. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. PART 960—CHLORINE AND PRODUCTS CONTAINING AVAILABLE CHLORINE

General Preference Order No. M–19 as Amended February 25, 1942—To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Chlorine and Products Containing Available Chlorine

Section 960.1 (General Preference Order No. M–19,[1] as amended) is hereby amended to read as follows:

Whereas national defense requirements have created a shortage of chlorine and products containing available chlorine, as hereinafter defined, for the combined needs of defense, private account and export, and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 960.1 General Preference Order M–19—(a) Definitions. (1) "Chlorine" means gaseous and liquid chlorine;

(2) "Products containing available chlorine" means any product which readily releases chlorine; such products include, but are not limited to, all combinations of chlorine with caustic soda, soda ash, or lime, such combinations being commonly known by one or more of the following names: sodium hypochlorite, liquid bleach, true or high-test calcium hypochlorite, chlorinated lime, chloride of lime, bleaching powder, or sodium chlorite; and also includes solutions of any such products or any mixture containing one percent (1%) or more of any such products;

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of chlorine or products containing available chlorine, and includes any person who has such materials produced for him pursuant to toll agreement;

(4) "Distributor" means any person who purchases chlorine or products containing available chlorine for resale;

(5) "Supplier" means any producer, distributor or other person who sells or offers for sale chlorine or products containing available chlorine.

(6) "Base period" means the period July 1, 1940, to June 30, 1941.

(b) Restrictions on use—(1) Curtailment in certain uses. Hereafter the use or consumption by any person of chlorine and products containing available chlorine shall be, in terms of chlorine or available chlorine content, curtailed or restricted in the following processes to the following quantities:

(i) In the manufacture of pulp and paper, to such quantity of such materials as are or may be required to comply with General Limitations Order No. L–11, or any supplement or amendment thereto,

(ii) In textile bleaching or processing, in any one calendar month commencing with March 1942 to not more than 50% of one-twelfth of such materials consumed by him during the base period.

(iii) In shellac bleaching and processing, in any one calendar month commencing with March 1942 to not more than 75% of one-twelfth of such materials consumed by him during the base period.

(iv) In linen-supply, hotel and commercial laundry operations, in any one calendar month commencing with March 1942 to not more than 10% of one-twelfth of such materials consumed by him during such period.

(v) In the manufacture of sodium hypochlorite solutions for retail sale in containers of one-gallon capacity or less, in any one calendar month commencing with March 1942 to not more than 60% of one-twelfth of such materials consumed by him during the base period.

(vi) In sanitation of swimming pools, other than public and institutional swimming pools, in any one calendar month commencing with March 1942 to not more than 25% of one-twelfth of such materials consumed by him during the base period.

(vii) In the case of any person acquiring chlorine or products containing available chlorine for any use specified in this paragraph (b) (1), but who was not a consumer in the base period, his permitted consumption shall be in the same relative proportions hereinabove indicated but shall be based on his consumption during the month of September 1941 or such other period as may be directed by the Director of Industry Operations.

(2) Prohibited uses. Hereafter, the use or consumption by any person of chlorine or of products containing available chlorine is prohibited for any one or more of the following purposes: bleaching of foodstuffs, bleaching of wiping rags and waste, and manufacture of cosmetics and toilet preparations.

(c) Placing orders. Anything in Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended to the contrary notwithstanding:

(1) No producer of chlorine shall, except as the Director of Industry Operations may otherwise direct, accept an order, whether it be that of a distributor, another producer, or a consumer, for delivery of chlorine unless such order has been placed with him on or before the 10th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery is sought, and unless such order is accompanied by Form PD–190 (in duplicate) properly executed by the person placing such an order. The Form PD–190 submitted by a distributor must be accompanied by the original and one copy of each Form PD–190 submitted to him in accordance with paragraph (c) (2) of this section in connection with orders accepted by him.

(2) No distributor of chlorine shall, except as the Director of Industry Operations may otherwise direct, accept an order for delivery of chlorine unless such order has been placed with him on or before the 5th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery is sought and unless such order is accompanied by Form PD–190 (in triplicate) properly executed by the person placing such order.

(3) No producer or distributor of chlorine shall make, and no person shall accept, delivery of chlorine unless and until such Form PD–190 has been properly executed and timely filed in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) Each pulp and paper manufacturer requiring chlorine, either purchased or his own production, in addition to filing Form PD–190 with his supplier as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this section, shall on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery is sought on said Form PD–190 file with the Pulp and Paper Branch of the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Form PD–190A (in duplicate) properly executed, which shall list among other things the quantity of chlorine ordered from each supplier, the amount of his requirements to be supplied from his own production, if any, and his estimated distribution by use in pulp and paper manufacture of the total quantity of chlorine ordered from others and produced by himself.

(5) No supplier of products containing available chlorine shall, commencing with March 1, 1942, except as the Director of Industry Operations may otherwise direct, accept an order, whether it be that of a distributor, producer or a consumer, for delivery of such products unless such order is accompanied by Form PD–277, properly executed by the person placing such order. Such order, accompanied by the properly executed Form PD–277, may be placed with supplier at the times and in the manner usually followed by such person in placing orders.

(6) Anything in paragraph (c) to the contrary notwithstanding, no Form PD–190 nor Form PD–277 need accompany any order for chlorine or for products containing available chlorine placed with a supplier for use for potable water treatment and sewage treatment; however, in lieu of such Forms, the following certification, properly executed, should be inscribed on such orders:

It is hereby certified by the undersigned that the chlorine or products containing available chlorine ordered hereon will, upon delivery, be used only for potable water treatment or sewage treatment or both.

Also anything in paragraph (c) to the contrary notwithstanding, no Form PD–277 need accompany any order placed with retail outlets for products containing available chlorine in liquid form in a container of one-gallon capacity or less or in solid form in a quantity of five pounds or less.

(d) Withholdings from scheduled deliveries. (1) Each producer of liquid chlorine in scheduling in each calendar month beginning with February 1942 deliveries of liquid chlorine to be made during the succeeding month shall withhold from scheduling for delivery five percent (5%) of his total estimated production of liquid chlorine for such succeeding month; and except as provided in paragraph (d) (3) of this section no producer shall make commitments for the sale or delivery during such succeeding month with respect to five percent (5%) of such estimated production.

(2) In addition to the chlorine withheld from delivery in accordance with paragraph (d) (1), each producer who normally supplies liquid chlorine for potable water treatment and sewage treatment shall also each month withhold from scheduling for other uses from the succeeding month's production a quantity of liquid chlorine estimated to fulfill requirements for those purposes during such succeeding month. This quantity shall be distributed in such succeeding month for potable water treatment and sewage treatment in accordance with paragraph (e) (3).

(3) No producer shall deliver liquid chlorine as to which commitments may not be made pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) of this section, except upon express instructions of the Director of Industry Operations. If prior to the 15th day of the month in which a producer is required by the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) of this section to withhold deliveries of liquid chlorine, the Director of Industry Operations has issued no instructions with respect to the disposition of such liquid chlorine, or if on such date it appears that any portion of the liquid chlorine estimated to fulfill requirements for potable water treatment and sewage treatment by paragraph (d) (2) of this section will not be required for such purposes in such month, producers may make deliveries of such liquid chlorine without regard to the restrictions contained in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, or otherwise, except that the same shall be subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended.

(e) Delivery schedules. (1) Each producer of chlorine shall, except as the Director of Industry Operations may otherwise direct, on or before the 15th day of each calendar month, file with the Chemicals and Allied Products Branch of the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Form PD–191 (in duplicate) properly executed, which shall list among other things a schedule of deliveries of chlorine which such producer proposes to make in the succeeding month, the preference rating, if any, applicable to each delivery, the orders tendered to him for delivery during the succeeding month which he has not scheduled, his estimated production for the succeeding month and the amount of liquid chlorine to be reserved for the succeeding month in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (d) (1) and (2) of this section. Each original Form PD–191 shall be accompanied by a single copy of each Form PD–190 submitted to the producer and listed on said Form PD–191. After such Forms have been filed with the Chemicals and Allied Products Branch of the War Production Board, any changes of circumstances or matters occurring thereafter affecting the accuracy of the statements contained in such Form PD–191 shall be forthwith reported to the Chemicals Branch of the War Production Board.

(2) On and after February 1, 1942, except as provided in paragraph (e) (3) of this section and except as may be otherwise specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, producers of chlorine shall make no deliveries to any person unless and until the same shall have been authorized to do so by the Director of Industry Operations. Such authorization by the Director of Industry Operations shall be based primarily upon insuring the satisfaction of all defense requirements and providing an adequate supply for essential civilian uses. Each producer of chlorine shall, upon being apprised of the deliveries which have been authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, forthwith notify his customers of the extent of such authorization as the same may affect them. Each distributor shall, upon being apprised by the producer of the extent to which deliveries to such distributor have been authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, forthwith notify his customers of the extent of such authorization as the same may affect them. If, however, by the 25th day of the month preceding the month in which deliveries are to be made, no instructions have been issued by the Director of Industry Operations, producers may make deliveries of chlorine in accordance with, and only in accordance with, the schedules filed by them with the Chemicals and Allied Products Branch of the War Production Board. Nothing in this paragraph contained shall require a Producer as a condition to making delivery of chlorine for a use for potable water treatment or sewage treatment to obtain authorization by the Director of Industry Operations, nor shall a producer or distributor be required to notify his customer to whom delivery is to be made for either such use with respect to any such authorization.

(3) Producers of chlorine shall in their usual manner, and whether directly to the consumer or through their distributors, distribute for potable water treatment and sewage treatment the liquid chlorine withheld in accordance with paragraph (d) (2). In case of distribution through distributors, the distributors must, prior to delivery of chlorine to them for either such purpose, certify that the chlorine so delivered will not be distributed for any use other than potable water treatment or sewage treatment and will not exceed an estimated thirty-day supply for such purposes.

(4) Each distributor of products containing available chlorine, other than a reseller through retail outlets of such products in liquid form in containers of one gallon capacity or less or in solid form in quantities of five pounds or less, shall, on or before the 5th day of each calendar month commencing with April 1942, file with his supplier or suppliers Form PD–278 properly executed, which shall list among other things a schedule of deliveries of such products made by such distributor during the preceding calendar month, the particular product delivered, the use to which such product was devoted, and the inventory of such distributor as of the first day of such calendar month.

(f) Restrictions on sales and deliveries. (1) No producer or distributor shall knowingly sell or, directly or indirectly, deliver or cause to be delivered any chlorine, or products containing available chlorine, for any one or more of the uses specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section in greater quantities than are therein specified or for any prohibited use; and no person shall accept deliveries of such materials for any one or more of the uses specified in paragraph (b) (1) in greater quantities than for permitted consumption and inventory or for any prohibited use.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrict any person to the same product or type of product, be it chlorine or product containing available chlorine, that he has heretofore purchased: Provided, however, That the substitution or replacement of any one such product for or by another shall be made only on an equivalent available chlorine basis.

(g) Assignment of preference ratings. (1) For purposes of scheduling deliveries, defense orders which have not been assigned a higher preference rating are hereby assigned a preference rating of A–10.

(2) Unless a higher preference rating has been specifically assigned by order or the Director of Industry Operations, and subject to Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended, orders for chlorine and for products containing available chlorine for the uses (or for the manufacture of products for such uses) set forth below are hereby assigned the preference rating set opposite each such uses as follows:

Use	Preference rating
Potable water treatment	A–2
Sewage treatment	A–2
Hospital, clinic and sanitoria sanitation	A–6
Dairy and other food processing plant sanitation	A–6
Public eating and drinking establishment sanitation	A–6
Public and institutional swimming-pool sanitation	A–6
Sanitation in surgical and medical supplies manufacture	A–6
Diaper laundry sanitation and bleaching	A–6
Manufacture of products for medicinal, surgical, dental and veterinarian uses	A–6

Packaged products containing available Chlorine for retail sale	B–5
Sanitation of swimming pools not elsewhere classified	B–5
Foodstuff bleaching	Use prohibited
Wiping rag and waste bleaching	Use prohibited
Cosmetics and toilet preparation	Use prohibited

(h) Intra-company transactions. The prohibitions or restrictions contained in this section with respect to acceptances of orders and deliveries in the absence of a contrary direction apply not only to acceptances of orders from and deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to acceptances of orders from and deliveries to one branch, division or section of a single enterprise by or from another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

(i) Inventory restrictions. No producer, or distributor, shall make, and no person shall accept deliveries of chlorine or products containing available chlorine which will effect an increase (or a further increase) in said person's inventory of chlorine or products containing available chlorine beyond a thirty day supply thereof except as may be necessitated for reason of economic delivery.

(j) Reports. Each producer and distributor shall file with the Chemicals and Allied Products Branch of the Materials Division of the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said office shall from time to time specify.

(k) Records. All persons affected by this section shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(l) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this section shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(m) Appeal. Any person affected by this section who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the Division of Industry Operations by addressing a letter to the Division of Industry Operations, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(n) Notification of customers. Producers and distributors shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this section, but failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person from the obligation of complying with the terms of this section.

(o) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This section and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this section shall govern.

(p) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref: M–19.

(q) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this section, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(r) Effective date. This section shall take effect upon the date of issuance thereof and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Industry Operations subject to such amendments or supplements thereto as may be issued from time to time by the Director of Industry Operations. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6580; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 976—MOTOR TRUCKS, TRUCK TRAILERS AND PASSENGER CARRIERS

Amendment No. 6 to Supplementary General Limitation Order L–1–c[1] Restricting Sale and Delivery of Medium and Heavy Motor Trucks and Truck Trailers

Paragraph (a) of § 976.10 (Supplementary General Limitation Order L–1–c) is hereby further amended by adding thereto, immediately following subparagraph (2), the following subparagraph:

(3) Sales of fire apparatus. Nothing in this order shall prevent any person from making a sale, lease, trade, loan, delivery, shipment or transfer, or any person from accepting any such sale, lease, trade, loan, delivery, shipment or transfer of any fire apparatus; Provided: That a preference rating of A–10 or higher has been issued to and names the specific person seeking to purchase or obtain delivery of such fire apparatus, and that such preference rating is assigned specifically to the delivery of such fire apparatus. For the purpose of this order "fire apparatus" means self-propelled motorized fire apparatus and trailer types of fire apparatus. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6580; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

This Amendment shall take effect immediately. Issued this 25th day of February 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

PART 1055—WOOL

Conservation Order No. M–73[2] as Amended and Extended to July 4, 1942 Curtailing the Use of Wool

Whereas the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of wool for the combined needs of defense, private account, and export; and the supply is, and may continue to be, insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements, unless its use is curtailed or prohibited as hereinafter provided; and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense to allocate wool in the manner hereinafter in this Order provided;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1055.1 Conservation Order M–73—(a) Restrictions on use of wool for non-defense orders—(1) Curtailment from April 5, 1942 to July 4, 1942. During the period from April 5, 1942 to July 4, 1942, both dates inclusive:

(i) Curtailment for non-defense use on worsted system. No person shall put into process, or cause to be put into process by others for his account for non-defense orders, on the worsted system, more wool owned by such person than 20 percent of his basic quarterly poundage except as provided in paragraph (a) (1) (iii) of this section.

(ii) Curtailment for non-defense use on woolen, cotton or felt system. No person shall put into process or cause to be put into process by others for his account for non-defense orders, on the woolen, cotton or felt system, more wool owned by such person than 10 percent of his basic quarterly poundage, except as provided in paragraph (a) (1) (iii) of this section.

(iii) Curtailment on use of floor covering. No person shall put into process or cause to be put into process by others for his account for the manufacture of floor covering, or any component part thereof, more carpet wool owned by such person than 25 percent of his basic quarterly poundage or any wool of any other kind.

(iv) Curtailment for non-defense use on methods of manufacture not otherwise covered. No person shall put into process or cause to be put into process by others for his account for non-defense orders for manufacture on any system not covered above, more wool owned by such person than 10 percent of his basic quarterly poundage, except as provided in paragraph (a) (1) (iii) of this section.

(b) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries. No person shall hereafter sell or deliver any wool to any person if he knows, or has reason to believe, such material is to be used in violation of this section.

(c) Limitation of inventories. No person shall receive delivery of wool or products thereof in the form of raw materials, semi-processed wool materials or finished goods containing wool, in quantities which shall result in an inventory of such material in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the use of wool by this section: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to restrict the purchase or delivery of any imported wool to the person importing the same either directly or through an agent or to the person to whom such wool may be sold prior to landing in this country.

(d) Fair distribution of products. In making sales or deliveries of wool yarns, fabrics, styles, or patterns, no person shall make discriminatory cuts in amounts or quantities in acceptance of orders or deliveries between former customers and new customers who meet such person's regularly established prices and terms, or between former customers, new customers and his own consumption of these products, or any of them.

(e) Curtailment of use of wool reprocessed and reused wool in the manufacture of blankets. During the period from April 5, 1942 to July 4, 1942 no person shall manufacture any blanket for non-defense use containing more than 80 percent of wool, wool waste, noils, or reused and reprocessed wool, in the aggregate.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Priorities Regulation No. 1. This section and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this section shall govern.

(2) Assignment of preference rating. Any order for fabric to be used in the manufacture of the following types of uniforms is hereby assigned a preference rating of A–10 and shall, therefore, be included as a defense order for the purposes of paragraph (a) (1):

(i) U. S. Army Officers
(ii) U. S. Navy Officers and Chief Petty Officers
(iii) U. S. Marine Corps Officers
(iv) U. S. Coast Guard Officers and Chief Petty Officers
(v) U. S. Government Military and Naval Academy and Training School Students
(vi) U. S. Coast and Geodetic Officers
(vii) Maritime Commission Employees

Provided, however, That such purchase order is accompanied by a certificate in duplicate signed on behalf of the person placing such purchase order by a person duly authorized thereto which states the following:

> The undersigned hereby represents that the fabric covered by this purchase order will be either re-sold, or used by the undersigned, for and only for the manufacture of one or more of the types of uniforms specified in paragraph (f) (2) of General Conservation Order No. M–73, as amended and extended to July 4, 1942, and this purchase order is therefore entitled to a preference rating of "A–10".

(3) Appeal. Any person affected by this section who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of wool conserved, or that compliance with this section would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board on the form provided therefor setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(4) Applicability of section. The prohibtions and the restrictions contained in this section shall apply to the use of wool in all articles hereafter manufactured. In so far as any other order of the Director of Industry Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of wool in the production of any article, the limitation of such other order shall be observed.

(5) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this section, or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this section, or by the Director of Industry Operations, or who otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Industry Operations or to the War Production Board may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director of Industry Operations from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director of Industry Operations may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80).

(6) Definitions. For the purposes of this section:

(i) "Wool" means the fiber from the fleece of the sheep or lamb, or hair of the Angora or Cashmere goat or camel or the alpaca, llama, or vicuna, and related fibers, including wool known as carpet wool, but, (except for the purposes of paragraph (d)) shall not include noils, waste, reprocessed or reused wool, or yarn or cloth.

(ii) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of or under common control with or available for the use of such person.

(iii) "Manufacture" means any and all processing on any system beyond the scouring operation, excepting only the carding and combing operations on the worsted system.

(iv) "Put into process" means:

(a) On the worsted system, the first process of drawing after combing,

(b) On any other system using tops, the first change in form from tops including dyeing,

(c) On the woolen, felt, or any other system not using tops, the first step after scouring, carbonizing, dusting or similar cleaning process;

Provided, however, That any person, for each pound of grown mohair (not including kid mohair) or wool of grades 44s and lower put into process or caused to be put into process by others for his account after April 5, 1942 within the limits of subparagraphs (a) (1) (i), (ii), and (iv) shall be entitled to put into process or cause to be put into process by others for his account, except for the manufacture of floor covering:

On the worsted system an additional two pounds of grown mohair (not including kid mohair) or wool of grades 44s and lower.

On the woolen, cotton or felt system an additional five pounds of grown mohair (not including kid mohair) or wool of grades 44s and lower.

(v) "Basic quarterly poundage" for any single system of manufacture shall mean one half of the number of pounds of wool put into process on that system by a person or for his account during the period from December 29, 1940 to June 28, 1941, both inclusive, or for the period from January 1, 1941 to June 30, 1941, both inclusive, according to the method of keeping production records maintained by such person during such period. Such poundage shall be determined as follows:

(a) On the worsted system or any other system using tops, the weight of tops put into process at 15 percent moisture regain, 3¼ percent of oil and natural fats,

(b) On the woolen system, scoured wool at 12 percent moisture,

(c) On the felt or any other system, the weight of wool in the stage immediately preceding putting into process.

(vi) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(7) Reports and records. (i) Each person who puts wool into process shall file with the Textile Branch, War Production Board, reports or forms to be prescribed by the Director of Industry Operations.

(ii) All persons who put wool into process shall keep and preserve such records as will clearly and adequately show their methods and amounts of consumption hereunder.

(8) Reports and correspondence. All applications, statements, or other communications filed pursuant to this section or concerning the subject matter hereof should be addressed to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–73.

Schedule II—Pipe Fittings—to Limitation Order No. L–42,[1] Grey Cast Iron, Malleable Iron and Brass and Bronze Pipe Fittings—Simplification

§ 1076.3 Schedule II to Limitation Order L–42—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Schedule:

[1] 7 F.R. 951.

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, processes or fabricates pipe fittings.

(2) "Pipe Fittings" means all pipe fittings made from grey cast iron, malleable iron and brass or bronze, other than those known as "hydraulic" or "high pressure" pipe fittings.

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order No. L-42 the sizes and types set forth in the Appendix hereto are hereby established for grey cast iron, malleable iron and brass or bronze pipe fittings.

(c) Effective date of simplified practices; exceptions. On and after March 1, 1942, no grey cast iron, malleable iron or brass or bronze pipe fittings which do not conform to the sizes and standards established by paragraph (b) hereof (and set forth in the Appendix hereto) shall be produced or delivered by any producer or accepted by any person from any such producer, except with the express permission of the Director of Industry Operations: Provided, however, That the foregoing shall not prohibit the delivery by any producer of such pipe fittings as were in his stock in finished form on March 1, 1942 or which had, on said date, been cast, machined or otherwise processed in such manner that their manufacture in conformity with this Schedule would be impractical, nor the receipt of such pipe fittings from such producer.

(d) Records covering excepted pipe fittings. Each producer shall retain in his files records showing his inventory of excepted pipe fittings (by types and sizes) as of March 1, 1942, and such records shall be kept readily available and open to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. 1st Sess.)

Issued this 25th day of February 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

APPENDIX TO SCHEDULE II, LIMITATION ORDER L-42, PLUMBING AND HEATING BRANCH, WAR PRODUCTION BOARD

NOTE: (1) Abbreviations. SWP stands for steam working pressure; WWP, for water working pressure.

(2) Sizes. The fittings listed herein are designated by the nominal pipe size of the pipe with which the fittings are intended to be used. All dimensions are in inches. Reducing tees, three-way reducing elbows, and reducing Y branches, are designated by size in the following order: (1) largest size on the run, (2) opposite size, (3) size of outlet or inlet. Reducing double Y branches are designated by (1) size of run openings, and (2) size of inlets. The last size given for circulating boiler fittings is the inside opening of the boiler end of the fitting. In the case of fittings with side outlets the size of the outlet is given last. The second dimension given for flanges is the outside diameter of the flange.

(3) Threads. All fittings have right hand threads, except where otherwise specified.

(4) Column Markings. Where columnar spaces are provided, an X in the applicable box indicates that the size specified in the heading is to be retained.

CHAPTER XI—OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

PART 1352—FLOOR COVERINGS

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 3—NOVELTY FLOOR COVERING

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 to establish temporarily as the maximum prices for novelty floor coverings the prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the issuance of this Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 is hereby issued:

§ 1352.101 Maximum prices for novelty floor coverings. On and after March 2, 1942, to and including April 30, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no manufacturer or distributor shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer any unit of novelty floor covering at a price higher than the maximum price. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of novelty floor coverings to a purchaser if, prior to March 2, 1942, such novelty floor coverings have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(a) The maximum price for any unit of novelty floor covering offered for sale by the manufacturer or distributor at any time during the period January 1, 1941–March 1, 1942, inclusive, shall be the net price in effect for such unit on February 20, 1942, to the same general class of purchasers.

(b) If the unit of novelty floor covering is offered for sale by the manufacturer or distributor for the first time on or after March 2, 1942, the maximum price shall be a price in line with the net price in effect on February 20, 1942 for the most comparable unit (upon the basis of price, type, quality and other relevant factors) which was offered for sale by him prior to March 2, 1942; and within five days after he first offers such unit for sale, he shall submit to the Office of Price Administration an application on Form 3T1 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration). If the Office of Price Administration should determine that such maximum price was not arrived at in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price shall be such price as it approves in writing; and no sale, offer to sell, delivery or transfer of such unit shall be made thereafter by him at a higher price than that so approved.

(c) If the maximum price cannot be determined by paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, it shall be such price as is approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration after the submission to it by the manufacturer or distributor of an application on Form 3T2 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration); and no sale, offer to sell, delivery or transfer of such unit shall be made until such approval shall have been given.*

§ 1352.102 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1352.103 Evasion. The limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with the manufacturing of novelty floor coverings by deterioration of quality, or in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale or delivery of novelty floor coverings alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by decreasing cash discounts, or by any other means.*

§ 1352.104 Limitation on changes in basic construction. During the period March 2, 1942–April 30, 1942, inclusive, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation entered into before or during that period, no manufacturer shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer any unit of novelty floor covering, differing in basic construction from:

(a) A unit of novelty floor covering offered for sale by him during the period January 1, 1941–March 1, 1942, inclusive; and

(b) A unit of novelty floor covering in any stage of manufacture by him on March 2, 1942:

Provided, That changes may be made in the basic construction of any unit of novelty floor covering referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this Section, with the written approval of the Office of Price Administration, after the manufacturer has submitted to it an application containing (1) the basic construction and proposed price of such unit, and (2) satisfactory evidence that (i) the material previously used is unavailable or prohibitive in cost, or (ii) its use in novelty floor coverings is so restricted by a priority or allocation order or other regulation of a Federal agency as to require the proposed change, and (iii) the change is one calculated to preserve quality.*

§ 1352.105 Records. Every manufacturer and distributor, making sales of novelty floor coverings on and after March 2, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the name, number or other designation and the price received for each unit of novelty floor covering, the quantity of each unit sold, and discounts and allowances of any nature given.*

§ 1352.106 Reports—(a) To be submitted by manufacturers. (1) On or before March 17, 1942, every manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration (i) a copy of each of his price lists for novelty floor coverings in effect on February 20, 1942, and a statement of any discounts or allowances relating thereto, and (ii) a report on Form 3T3 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration) showing the basic construction and cost details of each unit of novelty floor coverings in each of his price lists in effect on February 20, 1942.

(2) Within fifteen days after first offering for sale (after March 1, 1942) any unit of a novelty floor covering not in his price list in effect on February 20, 1942, but offered for sale by him at any time during the period January 1, 1941–March 1, 1942, inclusive, every manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a report showing the maximum price of each such unit as determined by § 1352.101 (a) and a report on Form 3T4 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration) showing the basic construction and cost details of each such unit.

(b) To be submitted by distributors. (1) On or before March 17, 1942, every distributor shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a copy of each of his price lists for novelty floor coverings in effect on February 20, 1942, and a statement of any discounts or allowances relating thereto.

(2) Within fifteen days after first offering for sale (after March 1, 1942) any unit of novelty floor covering not in his price list in effect on February 20, 1942, but offered for sale by him at any time during the period January 1, 1941–March 1, 1942, inclusive, every distributor shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, a report showing the maximum price for each such unit as determined by § 1352.101 (a).

(c) Other reports. Persons affected by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1352.107 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 will be subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 or of any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest Field or Regional Office or the principal office of the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1352.108 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 or an adjustment or exception not provided for elsewhere therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

(1) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) The term "manufacturer" means a person operating a factory, plant, or mill which manufactures any novelty rugs.

(3) The term "distributor" means a person who resells novelty floor coverings to any person other than the ultimate consumer, whether he resells such novelty floor coverings as a distributor, jobber, agent, broker, or importer, and includes a person who resells both to ultimate consumers and others.

(4) The term "net price in effect" means (i) the price quoted in a price list used by the particular manufacturer or distributor in offering for sale a unit of novelty floor covering (or in case there is no such price list, the price regularly quoted by the particular manufacturer or distributor in any other manner) less all discounts and allowances, except cash discounts; or (ii) in case there is no price list or price regularly quoted in any other manner, the price (less all discounts and allowances, except cash discounts) at which the particular unit of novelty floor covering was sold or contracted to be sold.

(5) The term "floor covering" means a floor covering in a manufactured state used as a rug, mat, carpet, or other floor decoration.

(6) The term "novelty floor covering" means:

(i) Any flat woven floor covering manufactured of cotton, wool, rayon, jute, flax, rags, or coir;

(ii) Any braided floor covering manufactured of cotton, wool, rayon, jute, flax, or rags;

(iii) Any tufted floor covering manufactured of cotton, wool, or rayon;

(iv) Any stitched floor covering manufactured of cotton, wool, rayon, or rags;

(v) Any hooked floor covering manufactured of cotton, wool, rayon, jute, or rags;

(vi) Any felted floor covering manufactured of cotton, wool, or rayon;

(vii) Any woven pile (cut or uncut) floor covering manufactured of cotton, rayon, jute, coir, or rags (other than wool).

(7) The term "unit" means a novelty floor covering offered for sale as a distinct item.

(8) The term "basic construction" means:

(i) In the case of a flat woven floor covering, (a) construction specifications, which include size, weave, warp ends, picks, weight and, (b) material specifications, which include warp yarn, filler material and stuffer, by size, ply, type and weight, and type of dye used;

(ii) In the case of a braided floor covering, (a) construction specifications which include size, type of braid, method of sewing, weight and, (b) material specifications which include filler material and braided material by size, ply, type and weight, and type of dye used;

(iii) In the case of a tufted floor covering, (a) construction specifications which include size, pile weight, stitches per inch, rows per inch, weight and, (b) material specifications which include backing material and pile yarn by size, ply, type, and weight, and type of dye used;

(iv) In the case of a stitched floor covering, (a) construction specifications which include size and weight and, (b) material specifications which include backing material and pile or surface material by size, ply, type and weight, and type of dye used;

(v) In the case of a hooked floor covering, (a) construction specifications which include size, pile height, weight, method of hooking, and, (b) material specifications which include backing material and pile material by size, ply, type and weight;

(vi) In the case of a felted floor covering, (a) construction specifications which include size, method of felting, method of applying design, weight, and (b) material specifications which include component parts by type, and weight;

(vii) In the case of a woven pile floor covering, (a) construction specifications which include size, weave, pitch, rows per inch, shot, frames, pile height and, (b) material specifications which include yarn material by size and ply.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1352.110 Effective period of the Regulation. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 3 (1352.101 to 1352.110, incl.) shall become effective March 2, 1942, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire April 30, 1942.

Issued this 25th day of February 1942.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

CHAPTER II—UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION

[Amendment No. 3]

PART 291 [1]—REGULATIONS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES MARITIME SERVICE

The regulations for the government of the United States Maritime Service, approved by the Commission on September 5, 1939, as amended, are hereby further amended, as follows:

Article I, section 2, paragraph 4 (Establishment of service—§ 291.1 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations), is amended to read:

§ 291.1 Establishment of service. Enrollment and training in the United States Maritime Service shall be voluntary and shall be open to all licensed and unlicensed personnel of the United States merchant marine who comply with the requirements prescribed by the Commission as well as to young American citizens between the ages of 18 and 30 years who desire to train for service in the American Merchant Marine and who qualify for such training under regulations prescribed by the Commission. In the selection of applicants for enrollment no discrimination shall be practiced because of the applicant's race or creed, or because of membership or nonmembership in any organization. Eligibility for enrollment shall be determined by the Commandant of the Coast Guard in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission.

Article III, section 3 (a) (Enrollment; original and regular—§ 291.33 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations) is amended to read:

§ 291.33 Enrollment; original and regular. (a) All original enrollments, except for apprentice seamen, shall be deemed probational for a period not to exceed three months, unless otherwise prescribed by the Commandant.

Article III, section 5 (Disenrollment; voluntary and involuntary—§ 291.35 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations) is amended by adding to paragraph (b) (2) the sentence:

When computing any 36-month period under this subsection, active duty in the military or naval establishments of the United States, or on administrative duty with the Maritime Service, shall be excluded.

so that this subparagraph, as now amended, shall read:

§ 291.35 Disenrollment; voluntary and involuntary.

(b) • • •

(2) For failure to serve 24 months in any period of 36 consecutive months on merchant vessels of the United States, provided that an enrollee shall be disenrolled for failure to serve 15 months in any such period of 36 months on merchant vessels of the United States. When computing any 36-month period under this subsection, active duty in the military or naval establishments of the United States, or on administrative duty with the Maritime Service, shall be excluded.

Article IV, section 1 (a), (Rates of Pay—§ 291.41 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations) is amended by changing the monthly rate of pay of a Chief Warrant Officer from $200.00 to $166.67, other rates remaining unchanged.

Section 1 (b) of the same article is amended to read:

• • • • •

(b) A regular enrollee of the grade of Warrant Officer or above detailed by the Commandant to administrative duty or to duty as an instructor, shall, while so detailed, receive in addition to authorized pay the allowances prescribed for Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Coast Guard Reserve of similar grade or rank. These allowances are as follows:

	Allowances with dependents		Allowances without dependents
	Rental	Subsistence	Rental	Subsistence
Lieutenant commander	$100.00	$54.00	$60.00	$18.00
Lieutenant	80.00	36.00	60.00	18.00
Lieutenant (j. g.)	60.00	36.00	40.00	18.00
Ensign	40.00	18.00	40.00	18.00
Chief warrant officer	60.00	36.00	40.00	18.00
Warrant officer	40.00	18.00	40.00	18.00

A regular enrollee below the grade of Warrant Officer shall, while detailed by the Commandant to administrative duty or to duty as an instructor, receive additional pay not exceeding 40 per cent (40%) of the pay of his grade as prescribed in section 1 (a) of this article.

Article IV, section 5 (b) (Pay periods—§ 291.45 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations), as amended, is further amended by inserting in the last sentence thereof after the word "capacity" and before the word "shall" the following:

with the Maritime Service or on active duty in the military or naval establishments of the United States • • • so that this paragraph, as now amended, shall read:

(b) Each regular enrollee who has served a minimum of eight months within each 12-month regular enrollment period (or 16 months in each regular enrollment period of 24 months, or 24 months in each regular enrollment period of 36 months) of his regular enrollment on merchant vessels of the United States and whose service on active duty in the Maritime Service complies with prescribed standards shall be entitled to one month's pay of his rank or rating in the Maritime Service for each such 12-month period, such retainer pay to be in addition to his pay for active duty, and to become payable only upon the submission to the Commandant of satisfactory proof of the minimum service hereinabove required, provided that in any computation of regular enrollment periods or service for retainer pay purposes, all service on active duty in an administrative capacity with the Maritime Service or on active duty in the military or naval establishments of the United States shall be excluded.

Article IV, section 6 (f) (Transportation and Travel—§ 291.46 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations) is hereby rescinded.

Article IV, section 6 (g) is amended to read:

(g) The Commandant shall prescribe the travel allowances and transportation in kind for probationary enrollees originally enrolled as apprentice seamen in connection with their original enrollment, release from active duty, or disenrollment, and shall have authority to transport them to such place or places as may be determined to be for the interest of the Government, under such instructions as he may prescribe.

Article VI, section 1 (Original Enrollment—§ 291.61 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations) is amended to read:

§ 291.61 Original enrollment. Each original enrollment in a grade above apprentice seaman shall be for a period of three months on active duty unless otherwise prescribed by the Commandant.

[Docket No. A-1298]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 9 FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

[Docket No. A-1298, Part II]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NO. 266 AND FOR A CHANGE IN SHIPPING POINT FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NO. 984, IN DISTRICT NO. 9, FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1298 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1298 AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1298 PART II

The original petition in the above-entitled matter filed with this Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requests the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9.

As was found in a separate Order issued in Docket No. A-1298, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by petitioner except in so far as the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 266 or O. T. Rice & Ben DeJarnette for rail shipments originating at Hawesville, Kentucky, and the establishment of an additional shipping point at Drakesboro, Kentucky, for the coals of Mine Index No. 984 of Paradise Mining Company (W. C. Bates) are concerned.

It appears that no price classifications and minimum prices should be established for the coals of Mine Index No. 266 of O. T. Rice & Ben DeJarnette for rail shipments originating at Hawesville, Kentucky, without a hearing for the reason that no freight rates for coal shipments from this point have been published.

The original petition does not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishment of an additional shipping point at Drakesboro, Kentucky, for the coals of Mine Index No. 984 of Paradise Mining Company (W. C. Bates) and it appears that a hearing should be ordered to determine the necessity of this additional shipping point.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1298 relating to Mine Index No. 266 of O. T. Rice & Ben DeJarnette and to the establishment of an additional shipping point at Drakesboro, Kentucky, for the coals of Mine Index No. 984 of Paradise Mining Company (W. C. Bates) be and the same hereby is severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1298 and designated as Docket No. A-1298 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1298 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 18, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Joseph D. Dermody or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 13, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in Docket No. A-1298 Part II and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 9 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 266 of O. T. Rice & Ben DeJarnette for rail shipments originating at Hawesville, Kentucky, and the establishment of an additional shipping point at Brakesboro, Kentucky, for the coals of Mine Index No. 984 of Paradise Mining Company (W. C. Bates), code members in District No. 9.

VOLUME 7 NUMBER 41

Washington, Saturday, February 28, 1942

The President

EXECUTIVE ORDER

DIRECTING THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY TO TAKE ACTION NECESSARY TO PROTECT VESSELS, HARBORS, PORTS, AND WATERFRONT FACILITIES

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States and as Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Secretary of the Navy shall be primarily responsible for, and shall take such steps, institute such measures, and issue such regulations and orders as shall be necessary for, the safeguarding against destruction, loss or injury from sabotage or other subversive acts, accident, or other causes of a similar nature, of vessels, harbors, ports, and waterfront facilities in the United States and in Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, except such waterfront facilities as may be directly operated by the War Department. Executive Order No. 8972[1] of December 12, 1941, authorizing the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to protect certain national-defense material, premises, and utilities from injury or destruction, is modified accordingly.

2. All agencies and authorities of the Government of the United States shall conform to all regulations and orders issued by the Secretary of the Navy pursuant to Section 1 hereof, and shall give such assistance and support to the Secretary of the Navy as their available facilities and personnel will permit.

3. All state and local authorities and all persons are urged to assist and support the Secretary of the Navy at all times in the enforcement of this order, and to conform to all regulations issued hereunder.

4. Except as provided by Section 1 hereof, nothing herein contained shall be construed as relieving any agency or authority of the United States from the performance of any duties now imposed by law upon it; and nothing herein shall limit or modify the duty and responsibility of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, with respect to the investigation of alleged acts of sabotage, espionage, or other types of subversive activities, or require it to furnish facilities or personnel under Section 2 of this order.

5. The Secretary of the Navy may delegate to such officers under his direction as he may deem necessary any of the powers and duties conferred upon him by any of the provisions of this order.

CHAPTER III—FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION

PART 302—REGULATIONS GOVERNING FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION NOTES, BONDS, DEBENTURES, AND OTHER SUCH OBLIGATIONS

ISSUANCE OF SECURITIES BY THE CORPORATION

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation) by section 402, subsection (d), and section 405, subsection (b) of Title IV of the National Housing Act, as amended, (U.S.C., title 12, section 1724, subsection (d) and section 1728, subsection (b)), the following regulations governing the issuance of Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation notes, bonds, debentures and other such obligations and interim certificates (hereinafter referred to as securities); the payment of interest thereon; the granting of relief on account of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement of the securities; and other transactions and operations therein, are hereby promulgated.

Sec.
302.1 Form of securities
302.2 Transactions and operations.
302.3 Relief on account of lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced securities.
302.4 Administration.
302.5 Amendments.

§ 302.1 Form of securities. The securities shall be in such forms and denominations, shall have such maturities, shall bear such rates of interest, shall be subject to such terms and conditions, shall be issued in such manner and amount, and sold at such prices, as may be prescribed by the board of trustees of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the authorizing Act. The Corporation may from time to time issue interim certificates temporarily in lieu of definitive securities, in such form and in such manner as the Corporation may determine. The securities shall be executed in the name of the Corporation and authenticated by the facsimile signature of its Chairman and Secretary, and the seal of the Corporation shall be affixed. The principal and interest shall be payable, when due, at the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., or at any Federal Reserve Bank or at such other agency or agencies as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time designate for that purpose. A coupon security shall be payable to bearer and shall have attached interest coupons likewise payable to bearer representing interest payable thereon, such coupons being signed by the Corporation by the facsimile signature of its Chairman. A registered security and interest thereon shall be payable to the registered owner whose name is inscribed thereon or registered assigns. Definitive securities will be fully transferable, and those of the same class and series will be freely interchangeable as between the various authorized denominations. Unless otherwise provided by specific reference or plain context, the term "security" as used herein will be deemed to include interim certificates.*

§ 302.2 Transactions and operations. The United States Treasury Department will act as agent for the Corporation in connection with the transactions and operations hereunder. The general regulations of the United States Treasury Department now or hereafter in force governing transactions and operations in United States securities and the payment of interest thereon, are hereby adopted, so far as applicable, as the regulations of the Corporation for similar transactions and operations in its securities and the payment of interest thereon.*

§ 302.3 Relief on account of lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced securities. The statutes of the United States and the regulations of the United States Treasury Department now or hereafter in force, governing relief on account of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement of United States securities and coupons, so far as applicable, and as necessarily modified to relate to securities of the Corporation, are hereby adopted as the regulations of the Corporation for the issuance of substitute securities or the payment of lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced securities and coupons.*

§ 302.4 Administration. The Secretary of the Treasury or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered, on behalf of the Corporation, to administer the regulations governing any transactions and operations in securities, to do all things necessary to conduct such transactions and operations, and to delegate such authority at his discretion to other officers, employees, and agents of the United States Treasury Department. Any such regulations may be waived on behalf of the Corporation by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury or by any officer of the Treasury Department authorized to waive similar regulations with respect to United States securities, but only in any particular case in which a similar regulation of the United States Treasury Department with respect to United States bonds or interest thereon would be waived.*

§ 302.5 Amendments. The Corporation reserves the right at any time or from time to time, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to revoke or amend these regulations or to prescribe and issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing securities or interest thereon.*

Effective February 26th, 1942.

A petition, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 7, requesting that the effective price classifications and minimum prices established for the coal in Size Group 1 produced at the Semoco Mine (Mine Index No. 164) of the Shockley Creek Coal Company, a code member in District 7, be reduced from "B" to "D" for all shipments except truck;

Temporary relief having been granted herein by Order of the Acting Director, dated December 1, 1941, 6 F.R. 6248;

Pursuant to an Order of the Director, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held on November 24, 1941, before a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C., at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard;

The Examiner, Joseph A. Huston, having made and filed his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation in this matter, dated January 10, 1942;

An opportunity having been afforded to all parties to file exceptions thereto and supporting briefs and no such exceptions and supporting briefs having been filed;

The undersigned having determined that the Proposed Findings of Fact and

Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That § 327.11 (Low Volatile coals: Alphabetical list of code members) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 7 for all Shipments Except Truck be, and it hereby is, amended by reducing the effective classification and corresponding minimum prices established for the Size Group 1 coal produced at the Semoco Mine (Mine Index No. 164) of the Shockley Creek Coal Company from "B" to "D".

Dated: February 21, 1942.

PART 331—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 11

ORDER GRANTING PERMANENT RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF THE BIG BEND COLLIERIES, INC., ET AL., FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR SUBSTANDARD COALS PRODUCED FROM THE BRAZIL BLOCK VEIN, IN DISTRICT NO. 11

An original petition having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on July 3, 1941, by the Big Bend Collieries, Inc., the Maumee Collieries Company, the Birch Creek Coal Co., Inc., the Mariah Hill Super Block Coal Company, Ray Morgan (F. C. Morgan Coal Company), the Dixon Block Co., Inc., and the G. & F. Coal Corporation, code member producers in District 11, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting the establishment of effective minimum prices for all code member producers in Price Groups Nos. 15, 16, and 17 for substandard coals mined from the Brazil Block Vein in District 11;

Petitions of intervention having been filed by District Boards 9 and 10; and

A hearing having been held in this matter pursuant to an Order of the Director, on September 18, 1941, before a duly designated Examiner of the Bituminous Coal Division, at a hearing room of the Division, Washington, D. C., at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard; and

Temporary relief pending final disposition of the original petition having been granted by Order of the Acting Director dated November 29, 1941, 6 F.R. 6191; and

The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner having been waived and the matter thereupon having been submitted to the undersigned; and

The undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter which are filed herewith;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 331.1 (Price instructions and exceptions—(b) Price exceptions) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11 for All Shipments Except Truck be, and it hereby is, amended by adding to the price exceptions in said Schedule, a new price exception to read as follows:

The effective minimum prices established for Brazil Block Vein coals produced at mines in Price Groups Nos. 15, 16, and 17 may be reduced by not more than the following amounts, where such coals are substandard, that is, soft or shelly:

Size group Nos.:	Maximum reduction, cents per ton
1 and 2	50
4 to 7, inclusive	25

Provided, however, That (1) the determination of the substandard classification of said coals shall be under the direct supervision of District Board 11, (2) the classification of the coals shall be made by a representative of District Board 11 at the mine, (3) said representative shall issue a certificate or notice of substandard classification which certificate or notice shall be filed with the Field Office of the Division for District 11, and (4) District Board 11 shall approve and certify all orders, acknowledgments, and invoices involving substandard coals. Certificates or notices filed with the Field Office pursuant to this Order shall contain an indication to that effect: And provided further, That coals sold as substandard pursuant to this Order shall not be subject to the allowances for substandard coals permitted by § 318.10 (a) in Part 318, Marketing Rules and Regulations.

It is further ordered, That relief should be granted to the extent set forth above, and in all other respects, be, and it hereby is, denied.

Dated: February 18, 1942.

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

ORDER AMENDING ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF DATED JANUARY 21, 1942, IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 13 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 13

In an Order Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief dated January 21, 1942, 7 F.R. 743, price classifications and minimum prices were established for certain mines in District No. 13 among which is the Mammoth Mine (Mine Index No. 1417) of the Mammoth Coal Mining Co. (Amos Reid). The shipping point designated therein for the coals of this mine is Mammoth, Alabama, on the Southern Railway.

On February 9, 1942, the original petitioner in the above-entitled matter filed a motion requesting a change in shipping point for the coals of Mine Index No. 1417 from Mammoth, Alabama, to Saragossa, Alabama, also on the Southern Railway, and 1½ miles further from the mine. This change is requested because of the inability of the Mammoth Coal Mining Co. (Amos Reid) to arrange for the loading of their coals from Mine Index No. 1417 at Mammoth, Alabama. Petitioner alleges that unless this change be established it will be unable to ship any coals for rail shipment.

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the motion of original petitioner for additional relief, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, Supplement R–I, § 333.6 (General prices) in the Order Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief in the above-entitled proceeding, dated January 21, 1942, is amended and the shipping point shown therein for the coals of Mine Index No. 1417 is changed from Mammoth, Alabama, on the Southern Railway, to Saragossa, Alabama, on the Southern Railway.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the motion of original petitioner for further relief in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects the Order of January 21, 1942, in the above-entitled matter shall continue in full force and effect unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

PART 336—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 16

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 16 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE MARSHALL MINE, OPERATED BY CODE MEMBER TED YORK, IN DISTRICT NO. 16

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Marshall Mine, operated by Code Member Ted York, and located in Subdistrict 5 in District No. 16, for shipment by truck; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 336.21 (General prices) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 16 For Truck Shipments is amended to include for the coals for shipment by truck, produced from the Marshall Mine (Mine Index No. 153), of Code Member Ted York, located in Boulder County, Colorado, in Subdistrict No. 5 in District No. 16, the following effective minimum prices in cents per net ton f. o. b. the transportation facilities at the mine:

Size groups	1	2	3	4	5	6	8	9	10	11	12	13
Prices	465	415	415	440	415	395	340	290	215	205	185	355

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

PART 339—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 19

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS BOARD FOR DISTRICT NO. 19, FOR PRELIMINARY AND PERMANENT RELIEF REGARDING A CHANGE IN THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR RAIL SHIPMENTS INTO MARKET AREA 247 (WASHINGTON) IN SIZE GROUPS 1, 2, 3, 4, AND 5

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 19, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests reductions in effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices of the coals produced in Subdistricts 1 to 9, inclusive, of District 19 when for shipment by rail to Market Area 247, as follows: 25 cents per net ton in Size Groups 1 and 2, and 20 cents per net ton in Size Groups 3, 4, and 5.

In accordance with an Order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on November 17 and 22, 1941, before Scott A. Dahlquist, a duly designated Examiner of the Bituminous Coal Division, at a hearing room of the Division in Thermopolis, Wyoming, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The Petitioner and the Sheridan-Wyoming Coal Company, Inc., a code member in District 19, appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner were waived and the matter was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

The evidence shows that in General Docket No. 15 coordination of minimum prices of the coals produced in Districts 19 and 20 was effected in Market Area 247 and minimum f. o. b. mine prices established pursuant thereto.

Thereafter District Board 20, in a proceeding under section 4 II (d) of the Act (Docket No. A-277) requested and obtained reductions in the minimum f. o. b. mine prices of coals in Size Groups Nos. 2, 3, and 5 produced in Subdistrict 1 of District 20 for shipment by rail to Market Area 247.[1] The reductions thus established for District 20 coals were granted primarily to enable those coals to compete with Canadian coals in that market area (Seattle, Washington). The result was to upset the existing coordination between Districts 19 and 20.[2]

[1] The reduction in that proceeding was said to be necessary in order to permit the producers in Subdistrict 1 of District 20 to meet the competition of Canadian producers.

[2] In Docket No. A-277, District Board 20 stated that it had no objection to the granting of a reduction in the prices of District 19 coals in the same amount as that granted District 20 coals. However, since District Board 19 made no such request there no relief to District 19 was granted District Board 20 has not intervened in this proceeding.

Size Groups 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 in District 19 cover the range of actual sizes contained in Size Groups 2, 3, and 5 in District 20. Only small quantities of these sizes have in the past been shipped into Market Area 247 by District 19 producers. However, some coal has moved to this market from District 19 and unless relief is here granted that market is likely to be lost. No one objected to the granting of relief here.

The evidence shows and I find and conclude that reductions in the minimum f. o. b. mine prices in Size Groups 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 in District 19 corresponding with the reductions in Subdistrict 1 of District 20, are necessary to restore the proper coordination, and that reductions of 25 cents per net ton in Size Groups 1 and 2, and 20 cents per net ton in Size Groups 3, 4, and 5 in Subdistricts 1 to 9, inclusive, in District 19 in the effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices for shipments by rail to Market Area 247, will reflect the relative market value of such coals, preserve existing fair competitive opportunities of District 19 code members, and will restore the proper coordination in Market Area 247 with coals produced in District 20.

There was no intervention and no opposition to the relief requested expressed at the hearing.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 339.1 (Price instructions and exceptions) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 19 For All Shipments Except Truck be, and the same hereby is, amended by the addition of a Price Instruction and Exception, as follows:

§ 339.1 Price instructions and exceptions.

(r) The minimum f. o. b. mine prices in cents per net ton for shipment via rail transportation, as the same now appear in § 339.5 (General prices; minimum prices for shipment via rail transportation) for shipment from Subdistricts 1 to 9, inclusive, to Market Area 247, are reduced 25 cents per net ton for Size Groups 1 and 2, and 20 cents per net ton for Size Groups 3, 4, and 5.

Dated: February 26, 1942.

PART 340—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 20

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 20 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 20

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 20, for shipment by truck; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 340.4 (Code member price index) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 340.21 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: February 18, 1942.

PART 1002—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION, MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, AND SUPPLIES

Amendment No. 2 and Extension No. 1 of Preference Rating Order P-68

Preference Rating Order P-68 (§ 1002.1) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1002.1 Preference Rating Order P-68. For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material for operating supplies and for the maintenance and repair of property and equipment used in the production of iron, steel, blast furnace coke, ferroalloys, and detinned iron and steel scrap, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of such material on the terms hereinafter set forth. Such terms shall control until such time as the War Production Board certifies specific quantities of such material to which the preference ratings herein assigned may be applied.

(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person operating a plant physically situated within the limits of the United States, its territories and possessions, or the Dominion of Canada, and actually engaged in the production of any one or more of the materials or products listed in Schedule A hereto.

(3) "Material" means any commodities, equipment, accessories, parts, assemblies, or products of any kind.

(4) "Maintenance" means upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of essential operating equipment used by a producer at its then current rate of production.

(5) "Repair" means the restoration of property and equipment used by a producer to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, have made such property or equipment unfit or unsafe for service.

(6) "Operating supplies" means any material which is essential to the operation of property and equipment used by a producer and which is generally carried as producer's stores and charged to operating expense accounts. The term does not include raw materials which enter into or form part of the finished product.

(7) "Supplier" means any person with whom a purchase order or contract has been placed by a producer or by another supplier for material:

(i) Directly required by a producer for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, or

(ii) To be physically incorporated in other material so required by a producer.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the terms of this section, the following preference ratings are hereby assigned, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which any person may be entitled by reason of any other preference rating certificate or order:

(1) A-1-a to deliveries to a producer of material for repair of property or equipment used in and essential to the production of any one or more of the materials or products listed in Schedule A hereto, when and only when there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations because of damage, wear and tear, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, and the essential repair parts are not otherwise available.

(2) A-1-c to deliveries to a producer of material, described in paragraph (b) (1), up to the minimum required to make reasonable advance provision to avert an actual breakdown of existing facilities or suspension.

(3) A-3 to deliveries to a producer of material for other repairs to, for maintenance of, and for operating supplies for, property and equipment used in and essential to the production of any one or more of the materials or products listed in Schedule A hereto.

(4) A-3 to deliveries to a supplier of material for delivery to a producer pursuant to paragraph (b) (1), (2), or (3), or to be physically incorporated in such material.

(5) A-10 to deliveries to a producer of material for all other repairs, maintenance, and operating supplies.

(6) A-10 to deliveries to a supplier of material for delivery to a producer pursuant to paragraph (b) (5), or to be physically incorporated in such material.

(c) Persons entitled to apply preference ratings. The preference ratings hereby assigned may, in the manner and to the extent hereby authorized, be applied by:

(1) A producer;

(2) Any supplier of material to the delivery of which a preference rating has been applied as provided in paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Application of preference rating. (1) No producer shall apply any preference rating assigned by paragraph (b) until:

(i) It shall have filed with the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, a statement in the form prescribed by the Director of Industry Operations, setting forth amounts of material used for repair, maintenance and operating supplies for the preceding calendar half-year and inventories of such material at the beginning and end of such period and further stating that it accepts the terms and conditions of this section.

(ii) It shall have received from the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, a serial number which shall thereafter be endorsed on all purchase orders or contracts for material by it or for its account which are rated pursuant to this section.

(2) A producer, in order to apply the A-1-a preference rating assigned by paragraph (b) (1) or the A-1-c preference rating assigned by paragraph (b) (2), must communicate with the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, describing the material needed for emergency repair and the nature of the emergency, or the reasons why advance provision is necessary to avert breakdown, or suspension. The Director of Industry Operations will notify such producer whether, and to what extent, its application is approved, and a copy of such notification shall be furnished by the producer to its supplier to evidence the A-1-a or A-1-c rating.

(3) A producer or a supplier, in order to apply any preference rating assigned by paragraph (b) must endorse the following statement on the original and all copies of the purchase order or contract for such material, signed by a responsible official duly designated for such purpose by such producer or supplier:

Material for Repair, Maintenance, or Operating Supplies of an Iron, Steel, Blast Furnace Coke, or Ferroalloys Plant. Rating A-_____ under Preference Rating Order P-68, Serial No. _____ and in compliance therewith.

(Name of Producer or Supplier)
By_____
(Authorized Signature)

Such purchase order or contract so endorsed shall be delivered to the seller of such material. Such endorsement shall constitute a certification to the War Production Board that the terms of the Preference Rating Order are accepted and that such material is required for the purposes stated therein. Such purchase order or contract must be in writing and shall be restricted to material the delivery of which is rated in accordance herewith. With respect to any purchase order or contract for such material placed before October 31, 1941, such preference rating may be applied by delivering to the seller a duplicate copy of such purchase order or contract so endorsed.

(4) A producer or supplier placing any such rated purchase order or contract and the seller of the material covered thereby must each retain endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts for a period of two years from the date thereof, for inspection by authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(e) Restrictions on use of rating—(1) Restrictions on producer. The producer may not apply any rating hereby assigned to obtain delivery of material on earlier dates than required for the operation, maintenance or repair of its property or equipment.

(2) Restrictions on supplier. (i) No supplier may apply the rating to obtain material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to make on schedule a delivery rated hereunder or, within the limitations of (ii) and (iii) below, to replace in his inventory material so delivered. He shall not be deemed to require such material if he can make his rated delivery and still retain a practicable working minimum inventory thereof; and if, in making such delivery, he reduced his inventory below such minimum, he may apply the rating only to the extent necessary to restore his inventory to such minimum.

(ii) A supplier who supplies material which he has in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may not apply the rating to restore his inventory to a practicable working minimum unless he applies the rating before completing the rated delivery which reduces his inventory below such minimum.

(iii) A supplier who supplies material which he has not in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may defer applications of the rating hereunder to purchase orders or contracts for such material to be placed by him until he can place a purchase order or contract for the minimum quantity procurable on his customary terms: Provided, That he shall not defer the application of any rating for more than three months after he becomes entitled to apply it.

(f) Restrictions of inventory. (1) A producer shall not, during any calendar quarter, accept, and a supplier shall not knowingly make to a producer, deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this section) of any material to be used as operating supplies or for maintenance or repair the aggregate dollar volume of which shall exceed 55 percent of the aggregate dollar volume of the withdrawals for such purposes by the producer from stores or inventory during the preceding calendar half-year unless such deliveries shall be specifically authorized in advance by the War Production Board on the producer's application therefor.

(2) A producer shall not at any time accept deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this section) of any material to be used as operating supplies or for maintenance or repair until the producer's inventory and stores of such material have been reduced to a reasonable minimum, unless such delivery shall be specifically authorized in advance by the War Production Board on the producer's application therefor. Such reasonable minimum shall in no case exceed 125 percent of the aggregate dollar volume of such material in inventory and stores on the last day of the preceding calendar half-year.

(3) A producer shall not, during any calendar quarter, make withdrawals from stores or inventory of any material to be used as operating supplies or for maintenance or repair the aggregate dollar volume of which shall exceed 55 percent of the aggregate dollar volume of the withdrawals of such material during the preceding calendar half-year, unless such withdrawals shall be specifically authorized in advance by the War Production Board on the producer's application therefor.

(g) Relief. If the sound working condition of a producer is adversely affected by any provision or application of this section or by inability to obtain material essential for repair, maintenance or operating supplies, the producer may apply for relief to the Director of Industry Operations. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Resale of material prohibited. Except with specific permission of the Director of Industry Operations, a producer shall not resell any material acquired for repair, maintenance or operating supplies (whether or not obtained pursuant to rating assigned by this section): Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit sale by the producer of used material acquired prior to October 31, 1941.

(i) Conservation and standardization. Every person affected by this Order shall use his best efforts to effectuate conservation of materials by elimination, simplification or standardization of types, sizes or forms or otherwise, and shall cooperate in any program developed for such purpose by the War Production Board. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue specific directions as to conservation, elimination, and standardization.

(j) Records, audits and reports. Each producer and each supplier shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all transactions affected by this section and shall submit from time to time to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. Each producer and each supplier shall execute and file with the War Production Board or other designated agency such reports and in such form as the War Production Board shall from time to time require. Until further direction, on March 31, 1942, and semi-annually thereafter, each producer shall file on Form PD–228 a report for the preceding calendar half-year.

(k) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this Order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(l) Revocation or modification. This section may be revoked or modified by the Director of Industry Operations at any time as to any producer or supplier. In the event of revocation or modification, or upon expiration of this Order, deliveries already rated pursuant to this section shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless said rating has been specifically revoked or modified with respect thereto. No additional application of said rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by any producer or supplier affected by such revocation, modification or expiration.

(m) Amendment of prior orders. The provisions of Preference Rating Orders P–22 and P–100 shall not apply to deliveries to which a preference rating is assigned by this section.

(n) Effective date. This section shall take effect immediately and shall continue in effect until revoked.

This amendment and extension shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 229; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Public Law 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

Issued this 27th day of February 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

Schedule A to Preference Rating Order P–68

1. Pig iron and ferroalloys.

2. The following iron and steel products, including alloys: Ingots, blooms (including forged), billets (including forged), slabs (including forged), tube rounds, sheet and tin bars, structural shapes, piling, plates (universal and sheared), rails, tie plates, track spikes, splice bars, rail joints, hot rolled bars (including hoops and bands and concrete reinforcing bars), cold finished bars, pipe and tubes (except conduit), wire rods, wire as drawn (not including further fabrications therefrom), black plate, tin and terne plate, sheets, strip, tool steel bars (including high speed), steel wheels and axles (for railroad use only), railroad locomotive tires, armor plate, ordnance forgings, steel castings (rough as cast), skelp, rolling mill rolls, ingot molds.

3. Coke for use in the production of pig iron and ferroalloys.

4. Detinned scrap iron and steel, and tin produced in the detinning process.

PART 1051—JUTE AND JUTE PRODUCTS

General Conservation Order M–70—to Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Jute and Jute Products

Whereas, the uncertainty of future shipments of Raw Jute and Jute Products from abroad and the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States have resulted in a shortage in the supply of raw jute and both domestic and imported jute products for defense, for private account and for export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of raw jute and jute products, and to allocate the supply thereof in the manner hereinafter in this Order provided:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1051.1 General Conservation Order M–70—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This section and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions and definitions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this section shall govern.

(b) Additional definitions. For the purpose of this section: (1) "Raw jute" means unprocessed jute, including Meshta and butts, imported from India, in the original shipping bales, and does not include jute processed into yarn, roving or other fabricated product.

(2) "Jute product" means any product processed from raw jute, either alone or in combination with other fibres, and including, but not limited to, yarn, letter mail twine, roving, twine, scrim, webbing, brattice cloth, linoleum burlap, burlap other than of the Hessian cloth type, sacking, interlinings, and new or rewoven bale covering for covering raw cotton, but the term shall not include burlap of the Hessian cloth type imported from India, as defined in Order M–47, as amended or supplemented from time to time, or sugar sacking imported into continental United States for reexport to, and which is in fact reexported to, sugar producing areas in the Western Hemisphere.

(3) "Domestic jute product" means any jute product processed in continental United States.

(4) "Imported jute product" means any jute product processed abroad and imported from India into continental United States in the processed form.

(5) "Scrim" means a woven jute fabric composed of single jute yarns, not exceeding 10 threads per inch, counting the warp and filling, and weighing not more than 3.6 ounces per yard, forty inches in width.

(6) "Webbing" means a woven jute fabric, with fast edges, not exceeding 12 inches in width.

(7) "Burlap other than of the Hessian cloth type" means a woven jute fabric weighing not less than 3.6 nor more than 6 ounces per yard, forty inches in width.

(8) "Processor" means any person who processes raw jute in the continental United States by performing any operation up to or through the manufacture of yarn or roving, and the term shall not include any person in his manufacturing capacity beyond the production of yarn or roving.

(9) "Put into process" means the removal of jute from original shipping bales and the placing thereof upon processing machines, and shall also include the placing upon processing machines of any jute received by a processor not in original shipping bales, other than reclaimed or reworked jute.

(c) Restrictions on use of subsequently imported jute and import quotas for importers of raw jute. (1) Unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall hereafter sell or use any raw jute hereafter arriving in the continental United States except to fill defense orders.

(2) No processor or importer shall import from India to continental United States in any single cargo an amount of raw jute in excess of the amount which bears the same ratio to the total amount of raw jute to be imported in such cargo that his "quota percentage" (determined as hereinafter provided) bears to the total of the "quota percentages" of all processors or importers loading jute in such cargo. Except as adjusted in accordance with paragraph (c) (3), the "quota percentage" of each processor of raw jute shall be determined by dividing the total receipts of raw jute from India of such processor in the period 1939 to 1941 both inclusive by the total receipts of all processors in the same period: Provided, however, That nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the importation of raw jute for its own account by Defense Supplies Corporation.

(3) The Director of Industry Operations may make appropriate adjustments in the quotas of all processors where the application of the formula in paragraph (c) (2) of this section would result in an exceptional or unreasonable reduction in raw jute available to a processor on the basis of the amount of raw jute put into process by said processor in the period from 1939 to 1941, as compared with the total amount of raw jute put into process by all processors during such period.

(d) Restrictions on transactions in raw jute. Unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall hereafter sell, transfer his title to, or deliver any raw jute, except to a processor, or a person importing such raw jute. No person, except a processor or a person importing such raw jute, shall hereafter purchase or accept delivery of, or a transfer of title to, any raw jute, unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(e) Restrictions on opening bales of raw jute. No person other than a processor shall hereafter open any bale of raw jute, except to the extent necessary to permit examination of damaged jute by an insurance company, or to the extent necessary to prevent deterioration of damaged jute. Every such bale of jute opened by any person other than a processor shall, despite such action, continue subject to the restrictions of paragraph (d).

(f) Restrictions on processing of raw jute and disposition of domestic jute products. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (i), no processor shall hereafter, unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, sell, transfer title to or deliver, and no person shall purchase, accept delivery of, or title to, or use the following domestic jute products, except for the following purposes:

(i) Single or plied yarn or roving for use in:

(a) The manufacture of fuses;

(b) The manufacture of electric cable or electric appliances, whether such yarn or roving is treated or untreated.

(c) The manufacture of caulking or for braiding into packing material to fill Defense Orders.

(d) The manufacture of letter-mail twine for the United States Post Office Department.

(e) The manufacture of new or rewoven bale covering for covering raw cotton: Provided, however, That no raw jute, except butts, shall be used in the manufacture of such yarn or roving.

(ii) Single yarn or scrim for use in the manufacture of reinforced paper.

(iii) Oakum or twisted jute packing rope for use for shipbuilding or other marine purposes or to fill defense orders: Provided, however, That no raw jute except butts shall be used in the manufacture of such oakum or twisted jute packing rope.

(iv) Carded jute or jute sliver for use in the manufacture of insulating materials to fill defense orders bearing a preference rating better than A–2; and Provided, however, That no raw jute, except butts, shall be used in the manufacture of such carded jute or jute sliver.

(2) No processor shall hereafter in any calendar month put into process for the manufacture of any domestic jute product any raw jute except:

(i) As to each of the domestic jute products listed in paragraph (f) (1), the minimum amounts necessary to meet his required deliveries of each such domestic jute product and to maintain a practicable minimum working inventory of his domestic jute products as measured by the monthly average of his deliveries of each such product in the preceding three calendar months. The term "practicable minimum working inventory" is to be strictly construed as meaning the minimum inventory which will permit of economical operation of plant, and will depend, in each case, upon the ease with which machines can be adjusted to the manufacture of products made thereon.

(ii) As to each of the following domestic jute products, in each calendar month listed below, an amount of single or plied yarn or roving in pounds (based on raw jute fiber content) for the total of his defense and non-defense business for each use specified below equal to the amount represented by the following percentages of his average monthly shipments of each such product during the calendar year 1941:

Year 1942	Manufacture of twine and rope (excluding letter mail twine)	Manufacture of carpet yarns	Manufacture of webbing	Manufacture of weaving and miscellaneous yarns, N. S. P.
	Percent	Percent	Percent	Percent
March	80	50	70	75
April	80	40	60	75

(3) In making sales or deliveries of jute products listed in paragraph (f) (2) (ii) no person shall make discriminatory cuts in amounts or quantities in acceptance of orders or deliveries between former customers and new customers who meet such person's regularly established prices and terms, or between former customers, new customers and his own consumption of these products.

(g) Restrictions on disposition of imported jute products. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (i) no person now or hereafter importing, owning, possessing or controlling any of the following imported jute products in the continental United States, shall, unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, sell, transfer title to or deliver, and no person shall hereafter purchase, accept title to or delivery of any such imported jute product except:

(i) To fill orders for the following imported jute products:

(a) Brattice cloth, provided such orders are placed by mine operators as defined in Preference Rating Order No. P–56, as amended from time to time;

(b) Bale covering for use only in covering raw cotton;

(c) Scrim for use only in the manufacture of reinforced paper (provided, however, such reinforced paper shall be delivered to fill defense orders therefor).

(ii) To fill orders, within the limits of deliveries hereafter prescribed for the following imported jute products:

(a) Linoleum burlap;

(b) Burlap, other than of the Hessian cloth type;

(c) Webbing;

Provided, however, That no person shall deliver in any of the following calendar months a quantity of each such imported jute product in excess of the quantity represented by the following percentages of average monthly shipments in the calendar year 1941:

	Percent
March 1942	70

(2) Nothing in this paragraph (g) contained shall limit the right of any person to import any jute product into the continental United States.

(h) Restrictions on use and acquisition of both domestic and imported jute products. (1) No person shall use, in manufacturing any product, any of the following domestic and/or imported jute products at a rate per month in excess of the following percentages of his average monthly use of such jute product during the calendar year 1941:

Year 1942	Carpet yarns	Webbing (both domestic and imported)	Linoleum burlap	Burlap other than of the hessian cloth type	Weaving and miscellaneous yarns N. S. P.
	Pct.	Pct.	Pct.	Pct.	Pct
March	50	70	70	70	75
April	40	60	60	60	75

(2) Unless expressly authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, no person other than a processor or the United States Post Office Department shall acquire, receive, or accept delivery of any domestic and/or imported jute products of any type (other than bale covering and twine or rope) which will at any time in any calendar month result in an inventory thereof in excess of one month's inventory of such type of product based upon current rate of operations determined as follows:

(i) In the case of single or plied yarn or roving to be used in the manufacture of fuses, electric cable or electrical appliances, caulking or braided packing material; single yarn or scrim to be used in the manufacture of reinforced paper; oakum, or jute butts for the manufacture of oakum; carded jute or jute sliver to be used in the manufacture of insulating materials; and brattice cloth; such current rate shall not exceed the rate required to fill orders which at the beginning of any calendar month are scheduled to be delivered during the said calendar month for the purposes specified in paragraphs (f) (2) and (g) (1) (ii) of this section.

(ii) In the case of single or plied yarn or roving to be used in the manufacture of carpets, webbing, weaving and miscellaneous yarns, n. s. p.; domestic and imported webbing; linoleum burlap; and wide burlap, such current rate shall not exceed the rate specified in paragraph (h) (1) of this section for the particular month or months.

(iii) In the case of new or rewoven bale covering for covering raw cotton, no purchaser or user shall, between the effective date of this section and September 15, 1942, acquire an amount of such bale covering which in the aggregate (together with his inventory on the effective date of this section) is greater than the amount which such persons sold or used during the cotton crop year 1940–1941.

(i) Certification. No processor or manufacturer of domestic jute products or person importing, owning, possessing or controlling stocks of Imported jute products shall deliver, and no purchaser or user (except the United States Post Office Department or a distributor or user of twine and rope) of such products shall accept delivery of any such products unless such purchaser or user has certified to the processor or manufacturer or other such person from whom he receives delivery, the following on the purchase order for such products manually signed by a person authorized to sign for such purchaser.

The undersigned hereby certifies that the total receipts of Domestic and/or Imported Jute Products by the undersigned from all sources, including the Jute Products hereby ordered, will not bring the stocks of the undersigned, of the kind herein ordered, over a one month's inventory based on current rate of operations determined as provided in General Preference Order M–70 (or in the case of new or rewoven bale covering will not result in the acquisition by the undersigned in the period from the effective date of General Preference Order M–70 to September 15, 1942, of an amount of new or rewoven bale covering which in the aggregate is greater than the amount thereof sold or used by the undersigned in the cotton crop year 1940–1941), and that the undersigned will not use such Jute Products except to fill orders of the types specified in paragraphs (f) and (g) of Order M–70, with the terms of which he is familiar. These Jute Products are to be used to produce or to fill orders for Such certification shall constitute a certification to the War Production Board that such jute products are required for the purposes stated and in the quantities permitted by this section.

(j) Reports. (1) Every processor shall on or before March 10, 1942, file with the War Production Board, on Form PD–318, a report showing receipts of raw jute and the amounts put into process by such processor during each of the calendar years 1939–1941; his total shipments in each month in 1941 of the domestic jute products specified in paragraph (f) (2); and his total deliveries for each month in 1941 of the imported jute products specified in paragraph (g) (1) (ii).

(2) Every processor and every person importing, possessing, owning or controlling any jute product shall:

(i) File such monthly and other reports with the War Production Board as shall from time to time be required by said Board.

(ii) Submit from time to time to an audit and inspection by representatives of the War Production Board concerning all records required to be kept by this section.

(3) Every person using any single or plied jute yarn or roving in the manufacture of any other product shall:

(i) File such monthly and other reports with the War Production Board as shall from time to time be required by said office.

(ii) Submit from time to time to an audit and inspection by representatives of the War Production Board concerning all records required to be kept by this section.

(k) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this section, shall unless otherwise directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M–70.

(l) Appeals. Any person affected by this section who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of jute conserved, or that compliance with this section would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board on Form PD–319, Ref.: M–70, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(m) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this section, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(n) Effective date. This section shall take effect immediately, and shall continue in effect until April 30, 1942, subject to such amendments or supplements thereof as may be issued from time to time: Provided, however, That the provisions of paragraph (c) shall take effect with the loading for a port in continental United States, of the first cargo of raw jute in a vessel departing from any point of shipment in India on or after April 1, 1942, and the provision of paragraphs (f) (2), (g) (1) and (h) (2) shall take effect on March 1, 1942. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 1066—MOTORIZED FIRE APPARATUS

General Limitation Order No. L–43 To Prevent Unnecessary Consumption of Scarce Materials in the Production of Motorized Fire Apparatus

Whereas fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States have created a shortage of the materials hereinafter set forth for defense and private account; and the present supply of these materials will be insufficient for war and civilian requirements unless restrictions on the manufacture of Motorized Fire Apparatus are instituted

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1066.1 General Limitation Order No. L–43—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Motorized fire apparatus" means self-propelled motorized fire apparatus and trailer types of fire apparatus and parts and accessories therefor.

(2) "Sedan" means motorized fire apparatus of which more than 50 percent of the area behind the windshield is enclosed, excluding, however, "cab type" apparatus in which the canopy covers not more than 9 persons, seated.

(3) "Service ladder truck" means motorized fire apparatus on which the equipment carried consists of service or ground ladders, miscellaneous equipment, and tools.

(4) "Squad car" means motorized fire apparatus designed primarily to carry men.

(5) "Salvage car" means motorized fire apparatus designed to carry canvas covers, life nets, etc.

(6) "Rescue car" means motorized fire apparatus designed to carry first aid equipment.

(7) "Pumper" means motorized fire apparatus designed to carry a water tank, a pump, and hose.

(8) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy in the composition of which the weight of copper equals or exceeds 40 percent of the weight of all metal in the alloy.

(b) Restrictions on products. Except upon specific authorization of the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall, on or after the effective date of this section, take any action to commence or complete the manufacture of:

(1) Any piece of self-propelled motorized fire apparatus or parts or accessories therefor, except to fill a defense order received by such person before taking such action;

(2) Any sedan, service ladder truck, squad car, salvage car, or rescue car;

(3) Any pumper except one which shall:

(i) Carry a pump of one of the following capacities as rated by the National Board of Fire Underwriters;

(a) 500 to 600 g. p. m.
(b) 750 g. p. m.
(c) 1,000 to 1,250 g. p. m.

(ii) Carry a water tank of content capacity from 100 to 200 gallons; and

(iii) Be designed to carry not more than 1,000 feet of 2½-inch cotton, rubber-lined hose;

(4) Any piece of Motorized Fire Apparatus on which is combined both a pump of a capacity of 500 g. p. m. or more, and an aerial ladder.

(c) Restrictions on use of materials and parts. (1) No person shall include a bell on any motorized fire apparatus manufactured or delivered on or after the effective date of this section.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, or upon specific authorization of the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall on or after the effective date of this section, incorporate in the manufacture of any motorized fire apparatus, or of component parts thereof, any aluminum, copper, copper base alloy, nickel, chromium, cadmium, tin, zinc, steel, neoprene, or other synthetic rubber, except to the extent permitted by Appendix A.

(d) General exceptions. Parts which were finished and ready for assembly on the effective date of this section, the incorporation of which in the manufacture of motorized fire apparatus is prohibited by the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, may, nevertheless, be assembled by the person owning such parts on said date to fill contracts or orders for Motorized Fire Apparatus bearing a preference rating of A–2 or higher.

(e) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This section and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this section shall govern.

(f) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this section, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(g) Appeal. Any person affected by this section who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, or communications concerning this section shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Safety and Technical Equipment Branch, Fire Equipment Section, Washington, D. C. Reference: L–43.

(i) Effect on other orders. With respect to the use of the materials named herein for incorporation in the products named herein or in component parts thereof, this section shall prevail so far as in permitting any specific use it is deemed to conflict with provisions curtailing or prohibiting such use in the following Conservation Orders, as amended to the effective date of this section.

M–1–a (Aluminum).
M–18–a (Chromium).
M–9–c (Copper and Copper Base Alloys).
M–6–b (Nickel).
M–21–a (Steel Alloys).
M–43 (Tin).
M–11 (Zinc).
M–79 (Asbestos).
M–13 (Synthetic Rubber).
M–15–b (Rubber).

The use of such materials is, however, subject to Orders providing for a preference rating in deliveries or for allocation which are now or hereafter may be in force.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

Appendix "A"

Pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of the above Order, the following materials may be incorporated in the manufacture of motorized fire apparatus, or of component parts thereof, to the extent indicated;

(i) Secondary aluminum in pistons and oil pans; and in zinc die castings up to 2 percent by weight, or up to 4 percent upon specific authorization of the Director of Industry Operations;

(ii) Copper, in radiator cores, electrical equipment, sirens, horns, gauge lines, and inner coolers and fittings;

(iii) Copper Base Alloys, in section tube caps, discharge valve caps, sirens, horns, engine bearings, valves (not including the handles), relief valves, pump bodies, impellers, rotors, bushings, governors and swivels; in rollers in section hose couplings, and in pumps if iron cannot be effectively substituted;

(iv) Nickel, in piston pins for engines over 125 horsepower; in engine exhaust valves; in cylinder iron if not in excess of 1½ percent; in heavy duty gears; and in plating to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts plated;

(v) Chromium, in relief valves and seats and highly stressed steel parts; including axles, shafts, gears, springs and motor valves; and in plating to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts plated;

(vi) Cadmium, in plating to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts plated;

(vii) Tin, in Copper Base Alloys the use of which is permitted by subparagraph (iii) above, but only where no tin-free alloy can be used and only to the extent essential to efficient functioning; and in solder up to 30 percent by weight, or up to 50 percent upon specific authorization of the Director of Industry Operations.

(viii) Zinc, in carburetors, fuel pumps, and speedometers; and in windshield wipers and in plating to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the windshield wipers or of the parts plated;

(ix) Steel, to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts;

(x) Synthetic rubbers other than neoprene, in valve packing, pump packing, hydraulic hose lines and fuel pump lines.

PART 1073—FIRE PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

General Limitation Order No. L–39 To Prevent Unnecessary Consumption of Scarce Materials in the Production of Fire Protective Equipment

Whereas, fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States have created a shortage of the materials hereinafter set forth for defense and private account; and the present supply of these materials will be insufficient for war and essential civil'an requirements unless restrictions on the manufacture of fire protective equipment are instituted:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1073.1 General Limitation Order L–39—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this section:

(1) Fire protective equipment means installed or portable equipment of the following types for preventing or extinguishing fires:

Couplings, playpipes and allied fittings.
Fire Hydrants.
Hose Dryers.
Hose Racks.
Indicator Posts.
Lightning Rods.
Portable Fire Extinguishers, including Back Pack Types and Stirrup Pumps.
Water Spray Nozzles.
Automatic Sprinkler Systems.
Automatic Fire Alarm Systems.
Portable Generators or Piped Extinguisher Systems.

(2) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy in the composition of which the weight of copper equals or exceeds 40 percent of the weight of all metal in the alloy.

(b) Restrictions on use of scarce materials. Except as provided in paragraph (c) below, or upon specific authorization of the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall incorporate in the manufacture of fire protective equipment, or of component parts thereof, aluminum, bismuth, cadmium, chromium, copper, copper base alloy, lead, mercury, monel metal, nickel, tin, stainless steel, zinc, asbestos, rubber, or neoprene or other synthetic rubber, except to the extent permitted by Appendix A.

(c) General exceptions. Parts which were finished and ready for assembly on the effective date of this section, the incorporation of which in the manufacture of fire protective equipment is prohibited by the provision of paragraph (b) of this section, may, nevertheless, be assembled by the person owning such parts on said date to fill contracts or orders for fire protective equipment bearing a preference rating of A–2 or higher.

(d) General restrictions. (1) No person shall, in any quarter, beginning with the quarter ending March 31, 1942, complete the manufacture of a quantity of any type of foam extinguishers or anti-freezing extinguishers in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the total quantity of such type of foam extinguishers or anti-freezing extinguishers respectively, manufactured by him during the twelve-month period ending November 30, 1941. In determining the quantity permitted under this restriction, amounts manufactured to fill contracts with any of the following shall be excluded:

(i) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development;

(ii) The government of any of the following countries: the United Kingdom, Canada, and other dominions, Crown Colonies and protectorates of the British Empire, Belgium, China, Greece, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, and Yugoslavia;

(iii) Any agency of the United States Government for materials, supplies, or equipment to be delivered to or for the account of any country listed above, or any other country including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." Lend-Lease Act)

(2) No person shall purchase or accept delivery of any foam extinguishers:

(i) To replace in his inventory or supplies any other type extinguishers in general use; or

(ii) Except for use in the protection of hazardous liquids.

(3) No person shall hereafter sell or deliver any foam extinguisher which he knows or has reason to believe is being purchased or accepted or will be used in violation of this section.

(e) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This section and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this section shall govern.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this section, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(g) Appeal. Any person affected by this section who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, or communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Safety and Technical Equipment Branch, Fire Equipment Section, Washington, D. C. Reference: L–39.

(i) Effect on other Orders. With respect to the use of the materials named herein for incorporation in the products named herein or in component parts thereof, this section shall prevail so far as in permitting any specific use it is deemed to conflict with provisions curtailing or prohibiting such use in the following Conservation Orders, as amended to the effective date of this section:

M–1–c (Aluminum).
M–18–a (Chromium).
M–9–c (Copper and Copper Base Alloys).
M–6–h (Nickel).
M–21–a (Steel Alloys).
M–43 (Tin).
M–11 (Zinc).
M–79 (Asbestos).
M–13 (Synthetic Rubber).
M–15–h (Rubber).

The use of such materials is, however, subject to orders providing for a preference rating in deliveries or for allocation which are now or hereafter may be in force.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

Appendix A

Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (f) of the above Order, the following materials may be incorporated in the manufacture of fire protective equipment, or of component parts thereof, to the extent indicated:

(1) Aluminum, primary or secondary:

(i) In extinguishers for use in airplanes;

(ii) As foil in electric condensers for automatic fire alarm systems, approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., or Factory Mutual Laboratories, to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of such condensers; or

(iii) (Secondary aluminum only) in zinc die castings not in excess of 2 percent by weight; or up to 4 percent upon specific authorization of the Director of Industry Operations;

(2) Bismuth, as a component of fusible link alloy:

(3) Cadmium:

(i) As a component of fusible link alloy or solder;

(ii) For plating parts of automatic fire alarm systems to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of such systems; or

(iii) In protective anti-corrosion coatings up to 10 percent of the coating alloy by weight;

(4) Chromium:

(i) For plating of parts of automatic fire alarm systems and sprinkler heads to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of such systems or heads; or

(ii) As a component of stainless steel the use of which is permitted by paragraph (ii) hereof;

(5) Copper or copper base alloys, in:

(i) Fire extinguisher pumps of all types, not including, however, pumps such as (A) stirrup pumps which are not incorporated in extinguishers or (B) back pack pumps, except those used by the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture;

(ii) Lock nuts on removable hose connections:

(iii) Bodies, ends, inner chambers, valves and their component parts for vaporizing liquid, or 2½ gallon foam or anti-freezing extinguishers requiring carbon dioxide or a chemical reaction as a propellant;

(iv) Fittings, strainers, syphon tubes and valves for carbon dioxide and gas operated dry powder extinguishers;

(v) Twin and special nozzles of pump type extinguishers;

(vi) Snap clamps, clamp pins and expansion rings on "Jones" type fire hose couplings;

(vii) Latch assembly and expansion rings of British type fire hose couplings to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts;

(viii) Swivels, wires and expansion rings on screw type fire hose couplings;

(ix) Swivels, wires, rollers and expansion rings of suction hose couplings;

(x) Hose and hydrant adaptors;

(xi) Swivels, wires, clappers and seats of Siamese connections;

(xii) Playpipes made only from drawn or brazed sheet brass, no more than 2½ inches in diameter at the base, and no more than 15 inches long;

(xiii) Ball type and cylinder type shut-off nozzles;

(xiv) Nozzle tips;

(xv) Portable deluge nozzles, not including tips and handles;

(xvi) The following hydrant fittings to the extent essential to their efficient functioning: valve seat discs, guides, operating valve stems, stuffing boxes, nuts and bolts;

(xvii) The following indicator post fittings to the extent essential to their efficient functioning: valve stems, seats, discs, packing glands and glands of bonnet openings;

(xviii) The following parts of portable generators and fixed pipe systems, to the extent essential to their efficient functioning: generator bodies with the exception of bases; shut-off valves with the exception of handles; screens and check valves;

(xix) Water spray nozzles with orifice openings in head of ⅛-inch diameter and smaller;

(xx) Lightning rods for electrical power stations and industrial plant stacks;

(xxi) Valve seats, discs, stems and guides;

(xxii) The following parts of automatic sprinkler systems and automatic fire alarm systems, approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., or Factory Mutual Laboratories:

(6) Lead:

(i) As a component of fusible link alloy or solder;

(ii) In underground pipe connections to the extent essential to efficient functioning of such connections;

(iii) In copper Base alloys, the use of which is permitted by paragraph (5) hereof;

(iv) As required for extinguisher nozzles;

(7) Mercury, as required in check valves for automatic alarm systems;

(8) Nickel, as a component of stainless steel the use of which is permitted by subparagraph (10) hereof;

(9) Tin:

(i) As a component of fusible link alloy;

(ii) In copper base alloys the use of which is permitted by paragraph (5) hereof, but only where no tin-free alloy can be used and only to the extent essential to efficient functioning;

(iii) In condenser parts for automatic fire alarms;

(iv) Up to 30 percent by weight, in metals used in the coating of copper or of copper alloys for anti-corrosion protection;

(v) Up to 5 percent by weight in metal for coating steel shells or malleable iron couplings;

(vi) In terne plate where metal protected steel is required and galvanized iron cannot be used; or

(vii) In solder up to 30 percent by weight; or up to 50 percent upon specific authorization by the Director of Priorities;

(10) Stainless steel:

(i) In hinge pins; or

(ii) In the construction of mercury check valves.

(11) Zinc:

(i) In automatic fire alarm systems, to the extent essential to efficient functioning;

(ii) In copper alloys, the use of which is permitted by paragraph (5) hereof;

(iii) In die cast parts;

(iv) As protection of iron or steel parts against corrosion; or

(v) As sheet to the extent that corrosion-resistant metal is essential to efficient functioning.

(12) Asbestos in gaskets on fixed foam applicator pipes;

(13) Crude rubber for diaphragms or gaskets for dry valves on sprinkler systems and reclaimed rubber for hose for fire extinguishers.

(14) Synthetic rubber other than neoprene, to the extent essential to efficient functioning.

PART 1302—ALUMINUM

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO REVISED PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 2—ALUMINUM SCRAP AND SECONDARY ALUMINUM INGOT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.[1]

Sections 1302.1 and 1302.8 (b) are hereby amended to read as set forth below, and § 1302.9a is added:

§ 1302.1 Maximum prices of aluminum scrap and secondary aluminum ingot. (a) On and after November 1, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer, aluminum scrap or secondary aluminum ingot, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of, aluminum scrap or secondary aluminum ingot, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in §§ 1302.10 and 1302.11, Appendices A and B hereof, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) On and after February 26, 1942, any person may sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer, to the Metals Reserve Company, or its duly authorized agent or agents, aluminum scrap, pursuant to the program with respect to idle or excessive inventories of aluminum materials adopted and announced by the War Production Board, Division of Industry Operations, on February 24, 1942, and the Metals Reserve Company, or its duly authorized agent or agents, may buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of, aluminum scrap, pursuant to such program, without regard to the provisions of Price Schedule No. 2: Provided, however, That the provisions of Price Schedule No. 2 shall apply to all sales, deliveries or transfers, of such aluminum scrap by the Metals Reserve Company or its duly authorized agent or agents.

(b) "Aluminum scrap" means the grades of aluminum scrap set forth in § 1302.10, Appendix A, of this Revised Price Schedule No. 2. These grades include all aluminum materials which are the waste or by-product of any kind of metal working, as well as materials which have been discarded from inventory or use because of obsolescence, failure or other reason, and which are to be remelted for further use.

• • • • •

PART 1339—BURLAP AND BURLAP PRODUCTS

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO REVISED PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 18[1]—BURLAP

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment No. 1 to Revised Price Schedule No. 18 has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.[2]

Section 1339.11 is hereby amended by designating the provisions thereof as paragraph (a) and by adding thereto two new paragraphs (b) and (c), and a new § 1339.10a is added, as set forth below:

(b) Charges for war risk insurance in excess of 2½% actually paid with respect to the burlap sold, may be added to the maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if any such excess war risk insurance charges are added to the applicable maximum prices, an invoice or similar document shall be delivered to the purchaser showing the amount of such charges.

(c) Charges for ocean freight, from India to port of discharge, in excess of $25.00 per 40 cubic feet, or $25.00 per 16 cwt., actually paid with respect to the burlap sold, may be added to the maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if any such excess ocean freight charges are added to the applicable maximum prices, an invoice or similar document shall be delivered to the purchaser showing the amount of such charges.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.)

Issued this 26th day of February 1942.

PART 1347—PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO REVISED PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 30—WASTEPAPER[1]

Section 1347.10, (a), footnote 4 (a), thereof, is amended to be footnote 4 (b); a new footnote 4 (a) is added, and paragraph (b) of § 1347.10 is amended to read as follows; and a new § 1347.9a is added:

[4a] If, in any sale of wastepaper, the point of shipment is the premises of the seller, then, if there is no rail siding or barge dock at or upon such premises, and if the wastepaper is transported to and loaded on a freight car or barge at a team track or public dock for transportation to the buyer by or at the expense of the seller, the seller may add to the price, which in no event may exceed the maximum price provided by the Schedule, an amount not in excess of $1.00 per short ton. If the point of shipment is at premises other than those of the seller, and there is no rail siding or barge dock at or upon such premises, the aforesaid allowance may be added for transportation to and loading at a public team track or public barge dock by the seller for transportation to the buyer, in the manner aforesaid, provided the wastepaper so transported and loaded was not sorted, packed, baled or accumulated by the seller. This allowance, whenever added, must be shown as a separate item in the invoice, and may only be added under the circumstances hereinbefore described. No such allowance may be added if either the point of shipment or the team track or barge dock at which the wastepaper is loaded is within the limits of the railway switching district of Chicago, Illinois.

• • • • •

(b) The maximum delivered price for waste paper shall not exceed the established point of shipment price set forth in (a) hereof, plus such of the following transportation allowances as are shown as separate items in the billing or invoice:

(1) When transportation to the buyer is by public (common or contract) carrier, the lowest established transportation rate for an identical shipment;

(2) When transportation to the buyer is by vehicle owned or controlled by the seller other than a common or contract carrier;

(i) An amount not in excess of $1.00 per short ton, plus actual toll charges, when the point of shipment and the buyer's premises are located in the same city, town or municipality, or at a distance of ten miles or less from each other by the shortest available public highway route.

(ii) An amount per short ton not in excess of the charge at the lowest published rail rate for full carload shipments of waste paper, when the point of shipment and the buyer's premises are not located in the same city, town or municipality and are at a distance of more than ten miles from each other by the shortest available public highway route.

All sales of wastepaper to a consumer shall be invoiced. The invoice shall state as separate items the origin and destination of the wastepaper, and if delivered in a vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, the mileage and the charge for such service.

§ 1347.9a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§ 1347.10 (a), § 1347.10 (b) and § 1347.9a) to Revised Price Schedule No. 30 shall become effective February 27, 1942. (Pub. No. 421, 77th Cong. 2d Sess.)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. B-216]

IN THE MATTER OF R. H. LUTZ & WALTER CONDON, A PARTNERSHIP, DOING BUSINESS AS LUTZ & CONDON, CODE MEMBERS, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 4, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 10, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder:

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on March 30, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Community Room, City Hall, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given, that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified, that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That the defendant, whose address is Shawville, Pennsylvania, willfully violated section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code by selling and delivering to R. S. Walker, doing business as Bradford Coal Company, Bigler, Pennsylvania, during the period April 15 through May 1941 approximately 88 tons of run of mine coal produced by the defendants at their Lutz and Condon Mine, Mine Index No. 2885, located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict 8 of District No. 1 at a price of $2.00 per net ton delivered by truck to the Bradford No. 4 siding, Surveyor, Pennsylvania, the applicable minimum price established for such coal for truck shipment being $2.20 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, as contained in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments; or the defendants wilfully violated the provisions of the Director's Order dated October 9, 1940, entered in General Docket No. 19, by selling to R. S. IN THE MATTER OF H. R. KIRKBRIDE, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated November 21, 1941, and amended complaint dated January 29, 1942, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on December 31, 1941, and on February 2, 1942, respectively, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division, alleging wilful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code and the rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such amended complaint be held on March 30, 1942, at 10 a. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Community Room, City Hall, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under Section 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the amended complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the amended complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the amended complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the amended complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the amended complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the amended complaint, filed by said complainant, alleging wilful violation by the above named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That the said defendant whose address is R. D. 1, Kittanning, Pennsylvania, and who operates the Kirkbride Mine, Mine Index No. 1610, located in Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, in District No. 1, wilfully violated section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code by selling to various purchasers during the period from April 2, 1941 to August 12, 1941, both dates inclusive, at 5¢ per bushel (equivalent to approximately $1.25 per ton) f. o. b. the said mine, approximately 55 tons of run of mine and modified run of mine coal produced by said defendant at said mine, whereas said coal was classified as Size Group 3 and priced at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine as shown in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for Truck Shipments for District No. 1. Therefore, said sales were made at a price of approximately 90¢ below the minimum established therefor by the Division; and

By selling to various purchasers during the period from August 12, 1941, to August 22, 1941, both dates inclusive, at 8¢ per bushel (equivalent to approximately $2.00 per ton) f. o. b. said mine, approximately 7 tons of run of mine and modified run of mine coal produced by said defendant at said mine, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group 3 and priced at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the said mine as shown in the said schedule. Therefore, said sales were made at a price which was approximately 15¢ below the minimum established therefor by the Division.

That the said defendant wilfully violated Orders Nos. 308 and 312, dated January 14, 1941, and February 24, 1941, respectively, by failing to comply with the provisions of the said orders during the period from August 1, 1941 to August 25, 1941, in that the said defendant failed to maintain and keep proper records and to file with the Division reports of all coal sold and shipped, by truck or wagon within the time and in the manner prescribed in said order.

That the said defendant also wilfully violated Rule 2 of section XII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

Dated: February 26, 1942.

PETITION OF GLENN SMALL, A CODE MEMBER IN DISTRICT NO. 15, FOR REVISION IN THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF THE SMALL MINE (MINE INDEX NO. 962) IN DISTRICT NO. 15 FOR SHIPMENT BY TRUCK INTO ALL MARKET AREAS

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 23, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, at Room 536, Dwight Building, Kansas City, Missouri.

It is further ordered, That Scott A. Dahlquist or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 18, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of Glenn Small, a code member in Production Group No. 6 in District No. 15, for reductions in the effective minimum prices applicable to the coals of the Small Mine (Mine Index No. 962) in Size Groups 2 and 9, for shipment by truck into all market areas.

Dated: February 26, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF RAYMOND BILLOTTE, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated November 20, 1941, and amended complaint dated January 29, 1942, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on December 31, 1941, and on February February 2, 1942, respectively, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging wilful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code and the rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such amended complaint be held on March 27, 1942, at 10 a. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Community Room, City Hall, Altoona, Pennsylvania;

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under Section 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the amended complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the amended complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the amended complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the amended complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the amended complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the amended complaint, filed by said complainant, alleging wilful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That the said defendant whose address is Surveyor, Pennsylvania, and who operates the Goshen Mine, Mine Index No. 131, located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in District No. 1, wilfully violated section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code by selling to the Bradford Coal Company, Bigler, Pennsylvania, during the period from October 4, 1940 to May 16, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 2,246 tons of run of mine coal produced at the said mine at prices ranging from $1.40 to $2.10 per net ton dumped in railroad cars at the Bradford No. 4 siding in Surveyor, Pennsylvania, whereas said coal was classified in Size Group 3 and priced at $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. the said railroad loading facility, as set forth in temporary schedule "A", annexed to and made a part of the order granting temporary relief dated October 3, 1940, in Docket No. A–57, supplementing the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for All Shipments Except Truck.

PETITION OF L. O. RYALS, A CODE MEMBER PRODUCER IN DISTRICT NO. 15 FOR A REDUCTION IN THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICE FOR MINE RUN COAL PRODUCED FROM THE RYALS MINE (MINE INDEX NO. 935) FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS TO ALL MARKET AREAS

ORDER REOPENING AND CHANGING PLACE OF HEARING

A hearing upon the original petition and an amendment thereto of L. O. Ryals, filed in the above-entitled matter, convened at Washington, D. C., on January 27, 1942, pursuant to a Notice of and Order for Hearing entered in that matter on December 4, 1941.

The original petitioner was not represented and offered no evidence in support of his petition at that hearing. Upon the original petitioner's failure in that respect, District Board No. 15, an intervening petitioner in the matter and represented at the hearing, moved that the original petition be dismissed without prejudice. The hearing was thereupon closed by the Examiner and the motion for dismissal referred to the Acting Director for determination.

It appears that the failure of the original petitioner to present evidence in support of his petition on the occasion of the hearing held in Washington, D. C., was due to the amount of the expense attendant the necessary travel between his residence at Mendota, Missouri, and Washington, D. C.; also that a hearing on his petition may now be scheduled at the time and place hereinafter designated at no undue expense to the Division or to any of the parties to the matter and that such rescheduling of the hearing will tend to promote the best interests of all such parties.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be reopened and that the reopened hearing be held on March 23, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, at Room 536, Dwight Building, 10th and Baltimore, in Kansas City, Missouri, before the officers heretofore designated to preside at such hearings.

Determination of the motion of the intervening petitioner, District Board No. 15, for the dismissal, without prejudice, of the original petition is deferred pending the holding of the reopened hearing herein scheduled for March 23, 1942.

Dated: February 26, 1942.

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

The above-entitled matter having been heretofore scheduled for hearing on March 10, 1942, at 10:00 a. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the State Capitol Building, Des Moines, Iowa; and

It appearing to the Acting Director that it is advisable to postpone said hearing;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be, and the same is hereby postponed to a date and at a hearing room to be hereafter designated by an appropriate Order.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION NO. 8

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1942.

The Commission having directed, by an order entered in this proceeding on March 20, 1941, pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, that The United Light and Power Company be liquidated and dissolved and that said company make application to the Commission for the entry of any further orders necessary or appropriate for such purpose;

Said order having further provided that said company might submit to the Commission for its approval a plan proposing a method for complying with said order, on a basis which should be fair and equitable to its security holders, and providing for a determination of the relative rights and interests of its security holders in connection therewith;

The Commission having expressly reserved in said order jurisdiction to enter such further orders in this proceeding as may be necessary or appropriate for the purpose of carrying out the steps required by said order;

The United Light and Power Company having filed an application herein designated as Application No. 8, proposing a plan for the immediate payment of its long-term debt represented by three series of debentures maturing according to their terms on January 1, 1973, May 1, 1974, and November 1, 1975, respectively;

A hearing having been held, and the Commission being fully advised in the premises and having this day issued and filed its findings and opinion herein; now therefore, on the basis of said findings and opinion, and pursuant to the applicable provisions of said Act, the applicable rules thereunder, and the Commission's said order of March 20, 1941, it is

Ordered, That the plan proposed by Application No. 8 be and it hereby is approved as submitted, and that said application be and it hereby is granted subject to the terms and conditions specified in Rule U-24;

Further ordered, That the outstanding debentures of each series issued by The United Light and Power Company shall become due and payable, in accordance with the provisions of said plan, on May 1, 1942, at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest at that date, and that interest shall cease to accrue on said debentures on and after May 1, 1942;

Further ordered, That The United Light and Power Company be and it hereby is authorized and directed to consummate said plan according to its terms, and as soon as practicable to submit to the Commission for its approval such further plan or plans as may be necessary or appropriate for compliance with section 11 (b) (2) of said Act and with the Commission's aforesaid order of March 20, 1941.

JOINT MEXICAN-UNITED STATES DEFENSE COMMISSION

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and as President of the United States, and acting jointly and in full accord with His Excellency, the President of the Republic of Mexico, I hereby authorize, on the part of the Government of the United States, the creation of a joint commission to be known as the Joint Mexican-United States Defense Commission.

The purposes of the Commission shall be to study problems relating to the common defence of the United States and Mexico, to consider broad plans for the defense of Mexico and adjacent areas of the United States, and to propose to the respective governments the cooperative measures which, in its opinion, should be adopted.

As United States members of the Commission I hereby appoint the following:

Lieutenant General Stanley D. Embick, United States Army, Retired, Chairman,

Vice Admiral Alfred W. Johnson, United States Navy, Retired.

The Commission will convene initially at a time and place agreeable to both governments, and may thereafter proceed at any time with its professional and clerical assistants to such place or places in Mexico, with the approval of the Government of Mexico, or in the Unites States as it may consider desirable or necessary to visit for the accomplishment of its purposes.

The United States members of the Commission, in agreement with their Mexican colleagues, may prescribe their own procedure. They are also empowered to employ such professional and clerical assistants as may be deemed necessary, and to incur such expenses for travel, services, supplies, and other purposes as may be required for the accomplishment of their mission.

Each of the United States members of the Commission and each of their professional assistants, including civilian advisers and any United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps officers so employed, detailed, or assigned, shall receive, in lieu of subsistence while outside of the continental limits of the United States in connection with the business of the Commission, a per diem allowance of ten dollars.

All expenses incurred by the United States Section of the Commission shall be paid by Army disbursing officers from allocations to be made to the War Department for that purpose from the Emergency Fund for the President.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

ESTABLISHING THE ARMY SPECIALIST CORPS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1753 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (U.S.C., title 5, sec. 631), by the Civil Service Act (22 Stat. 403), as amended, and as President of the United States, and for the purpose of obtaining the temporary services of certain qualified civilian employees for the War Department, it is ordered as follows:

1. There is hereby established in the War Department, under the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War, a corps of uniformed civilian employees to be known as the Army Specialist Corps, hereinafter referred to as the Corps. The Corps shall consist of such number of qualified persons, whether or not theretofore upon any civil-service register, as may be appointed to positions therein from time to time by the Secretary of War: Provided, that no position shall be included in the Corps which ranks below Grade P&S-2 or Grade CAF-7 established by the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, except by agreement between

2. The appointment, assignment, supervision, promotion, regulation, and discharge of members of the Corps shall be in accordance with regulations to be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of War.

3. The pay rates of persons appointed to positions in the Corps shall be fixed under the pay scales set forth in section 13 of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, and in accordance with the provisions of other existing law.

4. Payment of expenses authorized by an act entitled, "An act to provide for uniformity of allowances for the transportation of household goods of civilian officers and employees when transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty", approved October 10, 1940 (54 Stat. 1105), shall be allowed and paid for persons appointed or employed under the provisions of this order when such payment is specifically authorized or approved by such administrative official of the War Department as the Secretary of War may designate to perform such function in his stead and behalf.

5. The responsibility of recruiting persons for the Corps is hereby vested in the Civil Service Commission, which is authorized to exercise such function in conformity with the provisions of this Order without regard to the Civil Service Act and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder. Persons appointed to positions in the Corps shall not thereby acquire a classified civil-service status.

6. Any person occupying a position, other than a temporary position, in the government of the United States, its territories or possessions, or the District of Columbia, may, with the consent of the head of the department or establishment in which he is employed, be transferred or appointed to a position in the Corps, and shall during the period of employment therein be deemed to be on leave of absence without pay from such position, but shall, upon application within forty days after termination of employment in the Corps, be restored to such position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay without loss of seniority, retirement benefits, or other benefits.

This order shall remain in force during the continuance of the present war and for six months after the termination thereof.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

MAKING CERTAIN PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE HOSPITALS AVAILABLE FOR THE CARE AND TREATMENT OF INSANE PERSONS

WHEREAS, on account of the increase in the armed forces of the United States, the number of insane persons now admitted and entitled to admission to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, at Washington, D. C., is greater than that hospital can accommodate properly; and

WHEREAS the United States Public Health Service Hospitals at Lexington, Kentucky, and Fort Worth, Texas, have adequate facilities and personnel for the care and treatment of insane persons without impairing the efficiency of the service for the purposes for which such hospitals were created and are maintained; and

WHEREAS the use of such hospitals for the care and treatment of insane persons will promote the public interest and aid in the successful prosecution of the war:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 4 of the act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 713, as modified by section 1 of the act of August 14, 1912, 37 Stat. 309 (U.S.C., title 42, sec. 8), and by Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941, approved December 18, 1941 (Public Law 354, 77th Congress), it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Federal Security Administrator is authorized to admit, to the extent that he may deem desirable, insane persons (except those from the District of Columbia) to the Public Health Service Hospitals at Lexington, Kentucky, and Fort Worth, Texas, for care and treatment upon the same terms and conditions as such persons may be entitled to admission to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, at Washington, D. C.

2. The Federal Security Administrator is authorized to transfer, to the extent that he may deem desirable, insane persons (except those from the District of Columbia) from St. Elizabeth's Hospital to the said Public Health Service Hospitals for care and treatment.

3. The agency of the Government responsible for the care and treatment of any insane person admitted or transferred to either of the said Public Health Service Hospitals under authority of this order shall pay the Superintendent of St. Elizabeth's Hospital for the care and treatment of such person in the same manner and amount as it would be required to pay if the patient were in St. Elizabeth's Hospital. All sums so paid shall be deposited in the United States Treasury to the credit of the appropriation made for the care and maintenance of patients at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

4. To the extent deemed necessary and proper by the Federal Security Administrator, and under his direction, the appropriation for the operation and maintenance of said Public Health Service Hospitals shall be reimbursed from time to time from the appropriation for the care and maintenance of patients at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

5. This order shall remain in force during the continuance of the present war and for six months after the termination thereof.

WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LANDS FOR USE OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT FOR AVIATION PURPOSES

ARIZONA

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, it is ordered that, subject to valid existing rights, the following-described public lands be, and they are hereby, withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining laws, and reserved for the use of the War Department for aviation purposes:

Gila and Salt River Meridian

T. 17 S., R. 15 E., secs. 18, 19, and 30; containing 2,062.72 acres.

This order shall take precedence over, but shall not rescind or revoke, Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended, so far as such order affects any of the above-described lands.

It is intended that the lands described herein shall be returned to the administration of the Department of the Interior when they are no longer needed for the purpose for which they are reserved.

REORGANIZATION OF THE ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES AND TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS WITHIN THE WAR DEPARTMENT

Under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941, approved December 18, 1941 (Public Law 354, 77th Congress), and as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy and as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Army of the United States is reorganized to provide under the Chief of Staff a ground force, under a Commanding General, Army Ground Forces; an air force, under a Commanding General, Army Air Forces; and a service of supply command, under a Commanding General, Services of Supply; and such overseas departments, task forces, base commands, defense commands, commands in theaters of operations, and other commands as the Secretary of War may find to be necessary for the national security.

2. The functions, duties, and powers of the chiefs of the following-named branches of the Army of the United States are transfered to the Commanding General, Army Ground Forces: Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, and Coast Artillery Corps (except those relating to procurement, storage, and issue).

3. The functions, duties, and powers of the Commanding General, General Headquarters Air Force (Air Force Combat Command) and of the Chief of the Air Corps are transferred to the Commanding General, Army Air Forces.

4. The functions, duties, and powers of the Chief of Coast Artillery relating to procurement, storage, and issue are transferred to the Commanding General, Services of Supply.

5. Any officers holding offices the functions, duties, and powers of which are transferred by this order shall be reassigned to suitable duties but shall continue to hold their respective offices until vacated.

6. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to prescribe such functions, duties, and powers of the commanders of the various forces and commands of the Army of the United States and the agencies of the War Department and to issue from time to time such detailed instructions regarding personnel, funds, records, property, routing of correspondence, and other matters as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this order. Such duties by the Secretary of War are to be performed subject always to the exercise by the President directly through the Chief of Staff of his functions as Commander-in-Chief in relation to strategy, tactics, and operations.

7. This order shall become effective on March 9, 1942, and shall remain in force during the continuance of the present war and for six months after the termination thereof.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

REDISTRIBUTION OF MARITIME FUNCTIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941, approved December 18, 1941, and in order to expedite the prosecution of the war effort, it is hereby ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. Transfer of Functions of Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation

As provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this order, there are transferred to the Bureau of Customs and the United States Coast Guard all functions of: the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, the office of the director thereof, the offices of supervising inspectors, principal traveling inspectors, traveling inspectors, local inspectors, assistant inspectors, shipping commissioners, deputy shipping commissioners, and the Board of Supervising Inspectors, the Boards of Local Inspectors, the Marine Casualty Investigation Board, the Marine Boards, and those functions of the Secretary of Commerce which pertain thereto.

SECTION 2. Functions Transferred to Bureau of Customs

Those functions of the Bureau, Offices and Boards specified in Section 1, and of the Secretary of Commerce, pertaining to registry, enrollment, and licensing of vessels, including the issuance of commissions to yachts, the assignment of signal letters, and the preparation of all reports and publications in connection therewith; measurement of vessels, administration of tonnage duties, and collection of tolls; entrance and clearance of vessels and aircraft, regulation of vessels in the coasting and fishing trades, and limitation of the use of foreign vessels in waters under the jurisdiction of the United States; recording of sales, conveyances, and mortgages of vessels; protection of steerage passengers; all other functions of such Bureau, Offices and Boards which are now performed by the Bureau of Customs on behalf thereof; and the power to remit and mitigate fines, penalties and forfeitures incurred under the laws governing these functions, are transferred to the Commissioner of Customs, to be exercised by him under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury.

SECTION 3. Functions Transferred to U. S. Coast Guard

Those functions of the Bureau, Offices and Boards specified in Section 1, and of the Secretary of Commerce, pertaining to approval of plans for the construction, repair, and alteration of vessels; approval of materials, equipment, and appliances; classification of vessels; inspection of vessels and their equipment and appliances; issuance of certificates of inspection, and of permits indicating the approval of vessels for operations which may be hazardous to life or property; administration of load line requirements; enforcement of other provisions for the safety of life and property on vessels; licensing and certificating of officers, pilots, and seamen; suspension and revocation of licenses and certificates; investigation of marine casualties; enforcement of manning requirements, citizenship requirements, and requirements for the mustering and drilling of crews; control of log books; shipment, discharge, protection, and welfare of merchant seamen; enforcement of duties of shipowners and officers after accidents; promulgation and enforcement of rules for lights, signals, speed, steering, sailing, passing, anchorage, movement, and towlines of vessels and lights and signals on bridges; numbering of undocumented vessels; prescription and enforcement of regulations for outfitting and operation of motorboats; licensing of motorboat operators; regulation of regattas and marine parades; all other functions of such Bureau, Offices and Boards which are not specified in Section 2; and all other functions of the Secretary of Commerce pertaining to shipping which are not specified in Section 2, including the remission and mitigation of fines, penalties and forfeitures incurred under the laws governing these functions and those incurred under Public Law 351 of the 77th Congress, are transferred to the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard, to be exercised by him under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Navy.

SECTION 4. Transfer of Functions from Bureau of Customs

Those functions relating to the award of numbers to undocumented vessels, now vested in the Collectors of Customs, are transferred to the Commandant of the Coast Guard to be exercised by him under the direction and supervison of the Secretary of the Navy.

SECTION 5. Transfer of Training Functions from Maritime Commission

Those functions of the United States Maritime Commission pertaining to establishing, developing, and operating the United States Maritime Service and the cadet and cadet officer training program; the prescribing of extension and correspondence courses, including the printing, publishing, and purchasing of textbooks, equipment and supplies required for such courses; the examination, inspection, rating, and certification of civilian nautical schools; the furnishing, maintaining, and repairing of vessels for the State Marine or Nautical Schools and administering grants of funds for the support of such schools and the jurisdiction over vessels, apparel, charts, books, and instruments loaned to such schools, are transferred to the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard, to be exercised by him under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Navy.

SECTION 6. Authority to Waive Navigation and Vessel Inspection Laws

The authority vested in the Secretary of Commerce by Executive Order No. 8976,[1] December 12, 1941, to waive compliance with the navigation and vessel inspection laws is transferred to the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall exercise such authority with respect to the functions transferred to the United States Coast Guard and the Bureau of Customs, respectively.

SECTION 7. Transfer of Records, Property and Personnel

All records and property (including office equipment and floating equipment) of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, the Department of Commerce, the Collectors of Customs, and the United States Maritime Commission used primarily in the administration of functions transferred by this order, and all personnel used primarily by these agencies in the administration of such functions are transferred to the respective agencies concerned, for use in the administration of the functions transferred by this order.

SECTION 8. Transfer of Funds

So much of the unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, or other funds available or to be made available for the use of any agency in the exercise of any function transferred by this order, or for the use of the head of any agency in the exercise of any function so transferred, as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget with the approval of the President shall determine, shall be transferred to the agency concerned for use in connection with the exercise of the function so transferred. In determining the amount to be transferred the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may include an amount to provide for the liquidation of obligations incurred against such appropriations, allocations, or other funds prior to the transfer: Provided, That the use of the unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, or other funds transfered by this order shall be restricted to the purposes for which such monies were appropriated.

SECTION 9. Effective and Termination Dates

This order shall become effective on March 1, 1942 and remain in force until the termination of Title I of the First War Powers Act, 1941.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Docket No. 4266]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

IN THE MATTER OF SOUTHERN CANDY COMPANY

§ 3.99 (b) Using or selling lottery devices—In merchandising. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of candy, or any other merchandise, (1) selling, etc., any merchandise so packed and assembled that sales of such candy or other merchandise are to be made, or may be made, by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme; (2) supplying, etc., others with push or pull cards, punch boards or other lottery devices, either with assortments of candy or with other merchandise, or separately, which said push or pull cards, punch boards or other lottery devices are to be used, or may be used, in selling or distributing such candy or other merchandise; and (3) selling, etc., any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Sup. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Southern Candy Company, Docket 4266, February 24, 1942]

In the Matter of Hugh C. Mitchum and Carl B. Tucker, Individually and Trading as Southern Candy Company

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1942.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and a stipulation as to the facts entered into by counsel for the respondents in behalf of the respondents and W. T. Kelley, Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides, among other things, that without adducing further evidence or without other intervening procedure the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondents its findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That Hugh C. Mitchum and Carl B. Tucker, individually and trading as Southern Candy Company, or trading under any other name, their representatives, agents and employees directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of candy or any other merchandise in commerce as "commerce" is defined by the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Selling or distributing candy or any merchandise so packed and assembled that sales of such candy or other merchandise are to be made, or may be made, by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme;

(2) Supplying to or placing in the hands of others push or pull cards, punch boards or other lottery devices, either with assortments of candy or with other merchandise, or separately, which said push or pull cards, punch boards or other lottery devices are to be used, or may be used, in selling or distributing such candy or other merchandise;

3. Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

IN THE MATTER OF STATISTICAL RESEARCH BUREAU, ETC.

§ 3.6 (a 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Comparative data or merits: § 3.6 (b) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Competitors and their products—competitors' products: § 3.48 (b) Disparaging competitors and their products—Goods—Qualities or properties: § 3.48 (b) Disparaging competitors and their products—Goods—Value. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's "The Mining Manual", or other similar publications, and among other things, as in order set forth, (1) making, or causing to be made, in any form or manner, any false or disparaging statements with reference to the authenticity, reliability, or present value of the publication known as "The Mines Register", published by the Atlas Publishing Company, Inc., or any other competitive publication furnishing similar information or service; and (2) representing, directly or indirectly, that the information contained in respondent's publication "The Mining Manual" is more authentic or reliable, or has greater present value, than the publication "The Mines Register," or any other competitive publication furnishing similar information or service; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Sup. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Statistical Research Bureau, etc., Docket 3572, February 24, 1942]

§ 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—History: § 3.6 (a) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Business status, advantages or connections of advertiser—Qualifications: § 3.6 (n) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Nature—Product: § 3.6 (dd 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Success, use or standing: § 3.6 (ff 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Unique nature or advantages: § 3.6 (gg) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Value. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's "The Mining Manual", or other similar publications, and among other things, as in order set forth, (1) representing, directly or indirectly, that respondent can furnish authentic, reliable, and up-to-date information through and by means of his publication "The Mining Manual," or any other similar publication, when the facilities for the issuance of such publication are not immediately available to the respondent; (2) misrepresenting, in any manner, the nature, extent, or value of respondent's publication "The Mining Manual," or any other publication, or the length of time in which said respondent has been engaged in business; and (3) representing, directly or indirectly, that respondent's publication "The Mining Manual," or any similar publication is a standard reference work on mines and mining companies in the United States, or that it supplies the only up-to-date information service on mines published; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Sup. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Statistical Research Bureau, etc., Docket 3572, February 24, 1942]

In the Matter of Clarence B. Council, Individually, and Trading as Statistical Research Bureau, and Metals and Minerals Research Bureau

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1942.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the amended complaint of the Commission, testimony and other evidence taken before trial examiners of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said amended complaint and in opposition thereto, report of the trial examiners upon the evidence, and brief filed in support of the amended complaint; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Clarence B. Council, an individual trading as Statistical Research Bureau and as Metals and Minerals Research Bureau, or under any other trade name, his representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of his publication known as "The Mining Manual," or any other similar publication known as "The Mining Manual," or any other similar publication, in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commisison Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Making, or causing to be made, in any form or manner, any false or disparaging statements with reference to the authenticity, reliability, or present value of the publication known as "The Mines Register," published by the Atlas Publishing Company, Inc., or any other competitive publication furnishing similar information or service;

(2) Representing, directly or indirectly, that the information contained in respondent's publication "The Mining Manual" is more authentic or reliable, or has greater present value, than the publication "The Mines Register," or any other competitive publication furnishing similar information or service;

(3) Representing, directly or indirectly, that respondent can furnish authentic, reliable, and up-to-date information through and by means of his publication "The Mining Manual," or any other similar publication, when the facilities for the issuance of such publication are not immediately available to the respondent;

(4) Misrepresenting, in any manner, the nature, extent, or value of respondent's publication "The Mining Manual," or any other publication, or the length of time in which said respondent has been engaged in business;

(5) Representing, directly or indirectly, that respondent's publication "The Mining Manual," or any similar publication, is a standard reference work on mines and mining companies in the United States, or that it supplies the only up-to-date information service on mines published.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

CHAPTER II—SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

PART 250—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

AMENDMENT TO RULE U-70 (A) (7) PROVIDING EXEMPTIONS FROM SECTION 17 (C) OF THE ACT

Acting pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 12 (f), 17 (c) and 20 (a) thereof, and finding that such action is in the public interest and necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends § 250.70 (a) (7) [Rule U-70 (a) (7)] so that the exemption provided by the same shall expire March 1, 1943, instead of March 1, 1942.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

CHAPTER I—FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

[Docket No. FDC-23]

PART 27—REGULATIONS FIXING AND ESTABLISHING DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY FOR CANNED APRICOTS, CANNED CHERRIES, CANNED PEACHES, AND CANNED PEARS

ORDER PROMULGATING AMENDED REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C., 341; and sec. 701 (e), 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C., 371 (e); the Reorganization Act of 1939 (53 Stat. 561 ff.; 5 U.S.C., 133 ff.); Reorganization Plan No. 1, Part 2 (53 Stat. 1423, 5 U.S.C., 82); and Reorganization Plan No. IV (54 Stat. 1234, 5 U.S.C., 97); and on the basis of evidence of record at the above-entitled hearing duly held pursuant to notice thereof issued by the Administrator on August 16, 1940,[1] and the evidence of record at the hearings duly held pursuant to notice thereof issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on March 4, 1932,[2] the following order is hereby promulgated:

Findings of Fact

Finding 1. One of the factors on the basis of which the different kinds of each of the canned fruits is differentiated is the packing medium used.

Finding 2. Until comparatively recently the sweetened packing media used in canned fruits have been water solutions of sugar within four different density ranges. Each density range of sugar solution was designed to contribute a particular degree of sweetness. The density range in which each such solution falls has, therefore, become the basis on which consumers identify such solutions as to sweetness.

Finding 3. The density of any such packing medium is usually changed when it is mixed with the fruit by reason of its commingling with the fruit juice present. If the density of the medium is greater than that of the juice, the density becomes less; if the density of the medium is less than that of the juice, the density becomes greater. It is customary to refer to the liquid drained from the finished canned fruit as the "cut-out" liquid and to the liquid before canning as "ingoing" liquid.

Finding 4. Such a change in the density of the packing medium in the sealed and heat-processed can progresses until the density reaches an equilibrium which is normally reached within about fifteen days from the date of canning.

Finding 5. In the existing regulations fixing definitions and standards of identity for canned fruits the densities of the various sweetened packing media are specified for the ingoing liquid; but it has been the commercial practice over a long period to buy and sell canned fruits on the basis of the density of the cut-out liquid. Consumers generally are acquainted with the density of such packing media only at the time of opening the can.

Finding 6. By following accepted commercial practices in preparing sweetened liquid packing media, the desired degree of density of the cut-out liquid can be obtained with a reasonable degree of certainty.

Finding 7. The degree of sweetness of different kinds of canned fruits packed in sweetened packing media of a like density sometimes varies because of the difference in the acidity and other characteristics of the kind or variety of fruit used. However, consumers and the trade desire a substantially equivalent degree of sweetness in different kinds of canned fruits packed in sweetened packing media. Therefore it is the practice of canners to vary the densities of such packing media on the basis of the kind and variety of fruit being canned. (See finding 10.) For example, the cut-out density of heavy sirup from canned peaches is not less than 19° Brix and such density of heavy sirup from red sour cherries is not less than 22° Brix and that from sweet cherries not less than 20° Brix.

Finding 8. The term "sirup", as applied to packing media for canned fruits and irrespective of qualifying terms, connotes to consumers a liquid that is characterized primarily by a certain minimum degree of density and sweetness.

Finding 9. The optional packing media specified in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of each of the existing definitions and standards of identity for canned fruit and therein designated as "light sirup" are not of sufficient density so that the cut-out liquid will have a density and sweetness normally associated with the word "sirup", and they are, therefore, not sirups but slightly sweetened water, or slightly sweetened fruit juice, as the case may be. The packing media therein designated as "medium sirup" are of the lightest density and sweetness of the sugar solutions regarded by consumers as sirups and they are, therefore, in fact light sirups or light fruit juice sirups, as the case may be, and not medium sirups.

Finding 10. The sweetened packing media which are suitable for use and are used in canned fruits are the aqueous solutions of saccharine substances, slightly sweetened water, light sirup, heavy sirup, extra heavy sirup, and the corresponding fruit juice solutions of saccharine substances in the juice of the fruit being canned, such solutions having the same densities as the water solutions. The respective densities of such packing media are such that fifteen days or more after canning the density of each, as measured by the Brix hydrometer, is within the range specified after its name, as follows:

In case of peaches. Slightly sweetened water, or slightly sweetened peach juice, as the case may be: Less than 14°.

Light sirup, or light peach juice sirup, as the case may be: 14° or more, but less than 19°.

Heavy sirup, or heavy peach juice sirup, as the case may be: 19° or more, but less than 24°.

Extra heavy sirup, or extra heavy peach juice sirup, as the case may be: 24° or more, but not more than 35°.

In case of apricots. Slightly sweetened water, or slightly sweetened apricot juice, as the case may be: Less than 16°.

Light syrup, or light apricot juice sirup, as the case may be: 16° or more, but less than 21°.

Heavy sirup, or heavy apricot juice sirup, as the case may be: 21° or more, but less than 25°.

Extra heavy sirup, or extra heavy apricot juice sirup, as the case may be: 25° or more, but not more than 40°.

In case of pears. Slightly sweetened water, or slightly sweetened pear juice, as the case may be: Less than 14°.

[1] 5 F.R. 2879.

[2] 4 F.R. 1143.

Light sirup, or light pear juice sirup, as the case may be: 14° or more, but less than 18°.

Heavy sirup, or heavy pear juice sirup, as the case may be: 18° or more, but less than 22°.

Extra heavy sirup, or extra heavy pear juice sirup, as the case may be: 22° or more, but not more than 35°.

In case of sweet cherries. Slightly sweetened water, or slightly sweetened sweet cherry juice, as the case may be: Less than 16°.

Light sirup, or light sweet cherry juice sirup, as the case may be: 16° or more, but less than 20°.

Heavy sirup, or heavy sweet cherry juice sirup, as the case may be: 20° or more, but less than 25°.

Extra heavy sirup, or extra heavy sweet cherry juice sirup, as the case may be: 25° or more, but not more than 35°.

In case of red sour cherries. Slightly sweetened water, or slightly sweetened red sour (or red tart) cherry juice, as the case may be: Less than 18°.

Light sirup, or light red sour (or red tart) cherry juice sirup, as the case may be: 18° or more, but less than 22°.

Heavy sirup, or heavy red sour (or red tart) cherry juice sirup, as the case may be: 22° or more, but less than 28°.

Extra heavy sirup, or extra heavy red sour (or red tart) cherry juice sirup, as the case may be: 28° or more, but not more than 45°.

Each of such packing media is an optional ingredient in canned fruits and, when relating to the kind of canned fruit indicated, the term whereby each is designated above is its common name.

Finding 11. Since about 1937 certain additional packing media (findings 12 and 13) have been used in relatively small portions of the annual pack of canned fruit.

Finding 12. Sometimes fruit juice, and sometimes fruit juice mixed with water, is used in preparing a packing medium, but whenever any quantity of water is introduced into fruit juice, directly or indirectly, the entire liquid of the packing medium is considered to be water and not fruit juice when used as a packing medium in canned fruit, because of the inherent opportunity for fraud in introducing water into fruit juices.

Finding 13. On the basis of recent limited commercial and experimental packing of canned fruits, water solutions or fruit juice solutions of sugar and dextrose, or corn sirup, or dried corn sirup, or any mixture of these, in which the quantity of dextrose, corn sirup, and dried corn sirup is limited, are regarded as suitable packing media for canned fruits.

Finding 14. Sugar is the refined product in crystallized form commonly obtained from sugar cane or sugar beet; it is chemically known as sucrose.

Finding 15. When sugar in solution is subjected to certain treatments with the enzyme invertase or certain acids, it is wholly or partly converted into levulose and dextrose, the quantities of levulose and dextrose produced being equal. This chemical reaction is commonly known as the inversion of sugar.

Finding 16. Invert sugar sirup is an aqueous solution of refined or partly refined sugar which has been wholly or in large part inverted with the enzyme invertase or with hydrochloric or other acid, and which, if acid is used, has been neutralized with a carbonate.

Finding 17. The quantity of ash present in invert sugar sirup is in general indicative of the degree of refinement of such sirup.

Finding 18. An invert sugar sirup which is insufficiently refined and which has an abnormally high ash content contributes a characteristic flavor, odor, and color which render it unsuitable for use as a saccharine substance in preparing packing media for canned fruit.

Finding 19. An invert sugar sirup which is sufficiently refined to be suitable for use as a saccharine substance in preparing a packing medium for canned fruit contains not more than 0.3 percent of ash in its solids, and is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

Finding 20. Dextrose is the refined anhydrous or hydrated monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

Finding 21. Corn sirup is the product prepared by incompletely hydrolizing cornstarch and is a concentrated aqueous solution of the resulting reducing sugars and the non-sugar substance dextrin. When suitably refined for use as a saccharine substance in a packing medium for canned fruits, its solids contain not less than 58 percent of reducing sugars.

Finding 22. Dried corn sirup differs from corn sirup only in that water has been removed from it by drying. When suitably refined for use as a saccharine substance in a packing medium for canned fruit, its solids contain not less than 58 percent of reducing sugars.

Finding 23. Important factors on the basis of which packing media of canned fruits are differentiated from each other are their density, flavor, food value, and sweetness; each of such factors is a significant element in the production cost and sale price of canned fruits, and in consumers' preference.

Finding 24. The density, and hence the degree of sweetness, of a sweetened packing medium is not fixed precisely but only within a specified range. Therefore the same kind of packing medium may vary in density and sweetness within its own range to a noticeable degree irrespective of the saccharine substance from which it is made.

Finding 25. Different varieties of the same fruit, and fruits of the same variety of different degrees of maturity, and fruits of the same variety and substantially the same degree of maturity but obtained from different localities or from different parts of the same tree, frequently differ in acidity, sugar content, and other properties, and such differences affect the sweetness of the sweetened packing media in which fruits are packed, so that even though a packing medium of a fixed density made from the same saccharine substance is used for each of such fruits there is some detectable difference in sweetness between such finished canned fruits.

Finding 26. One of the differences, among others, between the saccharine substances used in the preparation of the packing media for canned fruits is a difference in their degree of sweetness, sugar being the sweetest, dextrose being about two-thirds as sweet as sugar, and corn sirup being about one-half as sweet as sugar.

Finding 27. When equal weights of the solids of sugar (whether inverted or not), of dextrose, and of corn sirup (whether added as corn sirup or as dried corn sirup), are each dissolved in water to make solutions of the same volume, the densities and calorific food values of such solutions are not materially different from each other.

Finding 28. There are slight differences in the cost of the different saccharine substances from which sweetened packing media are made, but such differences are not of material significance to consumers.

Finding 29. By reason of their lesser sweetening properties, dextrose or corn sirup, or any mixture of these, are always used in combination with sugar when used in preparing sweetened packing media for canned fruits, and the quantity of dextrose or corn sirup used is always limited to such amounts that the packing medium in the finished canned fruits is substantially of the same degree of sweetness as one of like density prepared from sugar alone.

Finding 30. The degree of sweetness of any packing medium in which dextrose or corn sirup, or any mixture of these, is used in combination with sugar becomes progressively less in relation to the density of such packing medium as the quantity of dextrose or corn sirup, or any mixture of these, is increased, so that, in the absence of a limitation of such quantity, the density within the range specified for any given packing medium would cease to provide a basis for identifying such packing medium as to sweetness.

Finding 31. On the basis of weights of the solids of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup, a sweetened packing medium prepared from a mixture of sugar and dextrose in a proportion of two parts of sugar and one part of dextrose, or from a mixture of sugar and corn sirup in a proportion of three parts of sugar and one part of corn sirup, or from a mixture of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in such proportion that the weight of the dextrose multiplied by two plus the weight of the corn sirup multiplied by three equals the weight of the sugar, is substantially as sweet as a finished packing medium of like density prepared from sugar alone.

Finding 32. There is no substantial difference in the degree of sweetness between a fruit packed in any one of the packing media specified in finding 31 and the same kind of fruit packed in any one of the other packing media therein specified. Such difference as may exist between such packing media is ordinarily not noticeable to consumers in the finished canned fruits unless they make comparative tasting tests and some consumers cannot distinguish between them upon making such tests.

Finding 33. When sugar is replaced with dextrose or corn sirup, or any mixture of these, in proportions greater than those specified in finding 31, so as to produce a packing medium equivalent in sweetness to one prepared from sugar alone, as is provided in the existing regulations, the relationship between density and sweetness normally expected in sweetened packing media is destroyed.

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact it is found and concluded—

(a) That the regulations fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for canned peaches,[4] canned apricots,[5] canned cherries,[6] and canned pears,[7] respectively, should be amended in the following respects:

(1) By repealing paragraph (a) (2) of each of said regulations and promulgating in lieu thereof a new paragraph (c) as contained in each of the amended regulations hereinafter set forth;

(2) By promulgating a new paragraph (d) as contained in each of the amended regulations hereinafter set forth;

(3) By repealing paragraph (b) of each of said regulations and promulgating in lieu thereof a new paragraph (e) as contained in each of the amended regulations hereinafter set forth; and

(4) By making certain editorial revisions in each of said regulations.

(b) That promulgation of regulations so amending and revising said existing regulations will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers and that said regulations as so amended and revised are reasonable definitions and standards of identity for such foods.

Each of the said regulations, therefore, is hereby amended and revised to read, respectively, as follows:

Regulations

Sec.

27.000 Canned peaches, identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
27.010 Canned apricots, identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
27.020 Canned pears, identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
27.030 Canned cherries, identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

§ 27.000 Canned peaches, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned peaches is the food prepared from one of the optional peach ingredients specified in paragraph (b) and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c). Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) spice;
(2) flavoring, other than artificial flavoring;
(3) a vinegar;
(4) peach pits, except in the cases of peeled whole peaches and unpeeled whole peaches, in a quantity not more than 1 peach pit to each 8 ounces of finished canned peaches; and
(5) peach kernels, except in the cases of peeled whole peaches and unpeeled whole peaches, and except when optional ingredient (4) is used.

Such food is sealed in a container and is so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional peach ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature peaches of the yellow clingstone, yellow freestone, white clingstone, or white freestone varietal group, and are in the following forms of units: peeled whole, unpeeled whole, peeled halves, peeled quarters, peeled slices, peeled dice, peeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes. Each such form of units prepared from each such varietal group is an optional peach ingredient. Each such ingredient, except in the case of peeled whole peaches and unpeeled whole peaches, is pitted. For the purpose of paragraph (e) of this section, the names of such optional peach ingredients are the words "Yellow Cling" or "Yellow Clingstone", "White Cling" or "White Clingstone", "Yellow Free" or "Yellow Freestone" or "White Free" or "White Freestone", as the case may be, preceded or followed by the word or words "Whole", "Unpeeled Whole", "Halves" or "Halved", "Unpeeled Halves", or "Unpeeled Halved", "Quarters" or "Quartered", "Slices" or "Sliced", "Dice" or "Diced", or "Mixed Pieces of Irregular Sizes and Shapes", as the case may be.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) water,
(2) peach juice,
(3) slightly sweetened water,
(4) light sirup,
(5) heavy sirup,
(6) extra heavy sirup,
(7) slightly sweetened peach juice,
(8) light peach juice sirup,
(9) heavy peach juice sirup, and
(10) extra heavy peach juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and peach juice; and the term "peach juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature peaches, of any varietal group specified in paragraph (b) of this section, to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and peach juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with peach juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the peaches are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)	Less than 14°.
(4) and (8)	14° or more but less than 19°.
(5) and (9)	19° or more but less than 24°.
(6) and (10)	24° or more but not more 35°.

(d) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional peach ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in". When any of the optional ingredients permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;
(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;
(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with ---------- Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used;
(4) "Seasoned with Peach Pits";
(5) "Seasoned with Peach Kernels".

When two or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4) or (5) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, Cinnamon Oil, and Peach Kernels".

Wherever the name "peaches" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the peaches may so intervene.[1]

§ 27.010 Canned apricots, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned apricots is the food prepared from one of the optional apricot ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) spice;
(2) flavoring, other than artificial flavoring;
(3) a vinegar;
(4) apricot pits, except in the cases of unpeeled whole apricots and peeled whole apricots, in a quantity not more than 1 apricot pit to each 8 ounces of finished canned apricots;
(5) apricot kernels, except in the cases of unpeeled whole apricots and peeled whole apricots, and except when optional ingredient (4) is used.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional apricot ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature apricots and are in the following forms of units: unpeeled whole, peeled whole, unpeeled halves, peeled halves, unpeeled quarters, peeled quarters, unpeeled slices, peeled slices, unpeeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes, peeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes. Each such form of units is an optional apricot ingredient. Each such ingredient, except in the cases of unpeeled whole apricots and peeled whole apricots, is pitted. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section, the names of such optional apricot ingredients are "Whole", "Halves" or "Halved", "Quarters" or "Quartered", "Slices" or "Sliced", "Mixed Pieces of Irregular Sizes and Shapes", as the case may be, preceded or followed by "Unpeeled" or "Peeled", as the case may be.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) water,
(2) apricot juice,
(3) slightly sweetened water,
(4) light sirup,
(5) heavy sirup,
(6) extra heavy sirup,
(7) slightly sweetened apricot juice,
(8) light apricot juice sirup,
(9) heavy apricot juice sirup, and
(10) extra heavy apricot juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and apricot juice; and the term "apricot juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature apricots to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and apricot juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with apricot juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the apricots are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)	Less than 16°.
(4) and (8)	16° or more but less than 21°.
(5) and (9)	21° or more but less than 25°.
(6) and (10)	25° or more but not more than 40°.

(d) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more that 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional apricot ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in". When any optional ingredient permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) is used, the labels shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;
(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;
(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with ---------- Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used;
(4) "Seasoned with Apricot Pits";
(5) "Seasoned with Apricot Kernels".

When two or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4) or (5) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, Cinnamon Oil, and Apricot Kernels".

Wherever the name "apricots" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the apricots may so intervene.[2]

§ 27.020 Canned pears, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned pears is the food prepared from one of the optional pear ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) spice;
(2) flavoring, other than artificial flavoring; and
(3) a vinegar.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional pear ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature pears and are in the following forms of units: peeled whole, unpeeled whole, peeled halves, unpeeled halves, peeled quarters, peeled slices, peeled dice, peeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes. Each such form of units is an optional pear ingredient. Each such ingredient, except in the cases of peeled whole pears and unpeeled whole pears, is cored. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section, the respective names of such optional pear ingredients are "Whole", "Halves" or "Halved", "Quarters" or "Quartered", "Slices" or "Sliced", "Dice" or "Diced", "Mixed Pieces of Irregular Sizes and Shapes", preceded or followed, in case the units are whole or halves and are unpeeled, by the word "Unpeeled".

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) water,
(2) pear juice,
(3) slightly sweetened water,
(4) light sirup,
(5) heavy sirup,
(6) extra heavy sirup,
(7) slightly sweetened pear juice,
(8) light pear juice sirup,
(9) heavy pear juice sirup, and
(10) extra heavy pear juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and pear juice; and the term "pear juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature pears to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and pear juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with pear juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the pears are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)	Less than 14°.
(4) and (8)	14° or more but less than 18°.
(5) and (9)	18° or more but less than 22°.
(6) and (10)	22° or more but not more than 35°.

(d) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional pear ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in." When any optional ingredient permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;

(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;

(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with _____ Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used.

When two or all of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, and Cinnamon Oil."

Wherever the name "pears" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the pears may so intervene.*

§ 27.030 Canned cherries, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned cherries is the food prepared from one of the optional cherry-ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) spice;
(2) flavoring, other than artificial flavoring;
(3) a vinegar.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional cherry ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature cherries of the red sour, light sweet, or dark sweet varietal group. Pitted cherries of each such group and unpitted cherries of each such group are an optional cherry ingredient. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section, the names of such optional cherry ingredients are the words "Red Sour" or "Red Tart", "Light Sweet" or "Dark Sweet", as the case may be, preceded or followed by the word "Pitted" in case such ingredients are pitted.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) water,
(2) cherry juice,
(3) slightly sweetened water,
(4) light sirup,
(5) heavy sirup,
(6) extra heavy sirup,
(7) slightly sweetened cherry juice,
(8) light cherry juice sirup,
(9) heavy cherry juice sirup, and
(10) extra heavy cherry juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and cherry juice; and the term "cherry juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature cherries, of any varietal group specified in paragraph (b) of this section, to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and cherry juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with cherry juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the cherries are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
In case of sweet cherries:
(3) and (7)	Less than 16°.
(4) and (8)	16° or more but less than 20°.
(5) and (9)	20° or more but less than 25°.
(6) and (10)	25° or more but not more than 35°.
In case of red sour cherries:
(3) and (7)	Less than 18°.
(4) and (8)	18° or more but less than 22°.
(5) and (9)	22° or more but less than 28°.
(6) and (10)	28° or more but not more than 45°.

(d) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional cherry ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in". When any optional ingredient permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;

(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;

(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with _____ Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used.

When two or all of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, and Cinnamon Oil".

Wherever the name "cherries" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the cherries may so intervene.*

The regulations hereby promulgated shall become effective on the ninetieth day following the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except that, in so far as it relates to any of the optional packing media numbered 3 to 10, inclusive, the provision of each regulation that the label shall bear the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in said regulations shall become effective one year from the date hereof.

CHAPTER III—BITUMINOUS COAL DIVISION

[Docket No. A-1051]

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

ORDER GRANTING PERMANENT RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ADDITIONAL LOADING POINTS FOR THE COALS PRODUCED AT THE MINES OF CERTAIN CODE MEMBERS IN DISTRICT NO. 9, FOR SHIPMENT BY RAIL

An original petition having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on September 6, 1941, by District Board 9, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 requesting that temporary and permanent relief be granted by the establishment of additional railroad loading points for the coals of certain code members in District 9;

Pursuant to Orders duly issued, and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held before Floyd McGown, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, in Washington, D. C., at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard;

A petition of intervention having been filed on November 21, 1941, by District Board 10;

Appearances having been entered at the hearing by District Boards 9 and 10;

The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner having been waived and the record in the proceeding having thereupon been submitted to the undersigned;

The undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter which are filed herewith;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That effective fifteen (15) days from the date hereof § 329.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That the prayers of the original petition and the petition of intervention are granted to the extent set forth above and in all other respects are denied.

Dated: February 21, 1942.

CHAPTER VIII—EXPORT CONTROL

SUBCHAPTER B—PROCLAIMED LIST OF CERTAIN BLOCKED NATIONALS

SUPPLEMENT 1, FEBRUARY 28, 1942, TO REVISION I OF FEBRUARY 7, 1942[1]

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of State, acting in conjunction with the Secretary of the Treasury, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Commerce, the Board of Economic Warfare, and the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, by Proclamation 2497 of the President of July 17, 1941 (6 F.R. 3555), the following Supplement 1 containing certain additions to, deletions from, and amendments to The Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals, Revision I of February 7, 1942 (7 F.R. 855), is hereby promulgated.

By direction of the President:

SUMNER WELLES,
Acting Secretary of State.
HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.
FRANCIS BIDDLE,
Attorney General.
JESSE H. JONES,
Secretary of Commerce.
MILO PERKINS,
Executive Director, Board of Economic Warfare.
NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER,
Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs.

FEBRUARY 28, 1942.

[1] 7 F.R. 855.

GENERAL NOTES: The Proclaimed List is divided into two parts: part I relates to listings in the American republics; part II relates to listings outside the American republics.

In part I titles are listed in their letter-address form, word for word as written in that form, with the following exceptions:

If the title includes a full personal name, that is, a given name or initial and the surname, the title is listed under the surname.

Personal name prefixes such as de, la, von etc., are considered as part of the surname and are the basis for listing.

The listing is made under the next word of the title when the initial word or phrase, or abbreviation thereof, is one of the following Spanish forms or similar equivalent forms in other languages:

Compañía; Cía.; Comp.
Compañía Anónima; C. A.; Comp. Anón.
Sociedad; Soc.
Sociedad Anónima; S. A.; Soc. Anón.

The indication of an address for a name on the list is not intended to exclude other addresses of the same firm or individual. A listed name refers to all branches of the business in the country.

PART 962—STEEL

Amendment No. 3 to Supplementary Order M-21-b[1] Relating to Steel Warehouses

Supplementary Order M-21-b (§ 962.3), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 962.3 Supplementary Order M-21-b—(a) Additional definitions. For the purpose of this Supplementary Order:

(1) "Warehouse" means any person who receives physical delivery of iron or steel from a producer for sale or resale in the form received.

(2) "Deliveries" includes deliveries on consignment.

(b) Schedule A products. With respect to the iron and steel products listed in Schedule A hereto:

(1) Quota restriction. No warehouse shall accept from any person during any calendar quarter deliveries except within the limits of the quota established for such warehouse by the Director of Industry Operations. Application for such quota shall be made on Form PD-83-a. Such quota shall be computed on the base tonnage herein described. The base tonnage of any Schedule A product classification is the tonnage of such product classification shipped by the warehouse from stock during the first calendar quarter of 1941. The quota of the warehouse in each calendar quarter is the percentage of such base tonnage shown in column 2 of Schedule A. The base tonnage or the quota may be changed from time to time by the Director of Industry Operations.

(2) Preference rating. The Director of Industry Operations will issue to each warehouse for which a quota is established pursuant to paragraph (b) (1), a certificate assigning a preference rating of A-9 to deliveries of iron or steel to such warehouse, within the limits of such quota. Such preference rating may be changed from time to time by the Director of Industry Operations.

(3) Reports. Each warehouse shall file with the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., on or before the 15th day of each month a report on Form PD-83, or in such other form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Schedule B products. With respect to the iron and steel products listed in Schedule B hereto:

(1) Quota restriction. No producer shall make to a warehouse, and no warehouse shall accept from any producer during any calendar quarter, deliveries except within the limits of the quota which such warehouse is entitled to receive from such producer. Such quota shall be computed on the base tonnage herein described. The base tonnage of any Schedule B product classification is the tonnage of such product classification shipped by the producer to the warehouse during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1940. By written notice delivered to the producer on or before February 1, 1942, the warehouse may change the base tonnage of any product classification to one-fourth of the tonnage of such product classification shipped by the producer to the warehouse during the year 1940; but the base tonnage cannot thereafter be changed for any subsequent calendar quarter. The quota which each producer may deliver to each warehouse in each calendar quarter is the percentage of such base tonnage shown in column 3 of Schedule B. The base tonnage or the quota may be changed from time to time by the Director of Industry Operations. Any warehouse whose base tonnage of all Schedule B products with any producer for the calendar year is 120,000 pounds or less may accept his total quota from such producer at any time during the calendar year, provided that not more than two minimum carloads are accepted in any calendar quarter. After approval by the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, on Form PD-83-e, the base tonnage and quota of a warehouse may be transferred from one producer to another.

(2) Preference rating. A preference rating of A-9 is assigned to deliveries of each product classification from a producer to a warehouse up to the percentage of the base tonnage shown in column 2 of Schedule B. The tonnage of each product classification which a producer may deliver to a warehouse under the A-9 rating shall be reduced in each calendar quarter by the tonnage of such product classification delivered by the producer to the warehouse during such calendar quarter under any higher rating. Where the amount of Schedule B products assigned the A-9 rating in any calendar quarter is less than one minimum carload for the territory in question, but more than 26,000 pounds, such rating may be applied up to one minimum carload.

(3) Reports. Each producer making deliveries of Schedule B products to a warehouse shall file with the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, on or before April 15, 1942, and quarterly thereafter a report on Form PD-83-f.

(d) Limitation of deliveries by warehouses. No warehouse shall make deliveries in whole or in part of alloy or carbon steel plates over 90 inches wide in any thickness, or over 48 inches wide and heavier than ¾-inch except on a preference rating higher than A-2. Except as permitted by paragraph (e), no warehouse shall make deliveries of other sizes of steel plates or of other types of alloy steel from its stock, except on a preference rating of A-10 or higher. After making provision for such rated orders and subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and of paragraph (h), a warehouse may make deliveries of other iron and steel products from its stock to other customers. In addition to the foregoing, deliveries of any alloy or carbon iron or steel product by a warehouse shall be subject to the same restrictions as those imposed by any Order of the Director of Industry Operations on deliveries of such product by a producer.

(e) Exemption of certain sales by warehouses. A warehouse may make deliveries of carbon steel plates in dimensions other than those restricted in paragraph (d) above, alloy tool steel, and other alloy steel on unrated orders only when such orders are certified by the purchaser to be for necessary repair or maintenance purposes; Provided, That the total amount of each such material delivered to all customers in this manner during any calendar month shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the average monthly deliveries of such material by the warehouse to all customers during the first calendar quarter of 1941; And further provided, That nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to excuse any person from complying with the applicable provisions of General Preference Order M-14, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution and use of tungsten in high-speed steel.

(f) Special instructions. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue specific directions to warehouses requiring them to earmark stocks or to make deliveries during specified periods in fulfillment of contracts, commitments, or purchase orders for particular purposes or to particular persons. Such directions will be made primarily to insure satisfaction of all defense requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made, in the discretion of the Director of Industry Operations, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts, commitments, or purchase orders, and without regard to any quota established under paragraphs (b) or (c).

(g) Foreign warehouses. The Director of Industry Operations may establish quotas for warehouses located outside the United States, its territories and possessions (including the Commonwealth of the Philippines), and may assign ratings to deliveries to such warehouses.

(h) Application of higher ratings. The provisions of any Preference Rating Certificate or Order heretofore or hereafter issued to the contrary notwithstanding, no rating higher than A-9 shall be applied by a warehouse for deliveries to stock except in accordance with the following:

(1) For the purposes of extension, the ratings received by the warehouse for each product classification and type of steel as shown in Schedule C shall be separately accumulated.

(2) Extension of a rating higher than A-9 for any product classification and type shall be made only when the warehouse has, within 90 days prior to such extension, shipped from stock on ratings higher than A-9 an accumulated total weight of such product classification and type not less than the minimum shown in Schedule C.

(3) The rating to be extended to the delivery of any product classification and type shall be the lowest rating received on the shipment of such product classification and type within the accumulated total.

(4) An amount of each product classification equal to the amount obtained through the use of preference ratings higher than A-2 shall be reserved for a period of 90 days following date of receipt by the warehouse for delivery on orders rated higher than A-2, except when otherwise specifically ordered by the Director of Industry Operations. If such material is not sold at the end of 90 days on ratings higher than A-2, it may then be sold on other orders, subject to the provisions of this or other Orders.

(5) Consolidated ratings established pursuant to this paragraph (h) must be based solely on deliveries from one location, and deliveries pursuant to such consolidated ratings must be made to the same location.

(i) Extension of preference rating. The A-9 preference rating assigned by this Order, or any higher rating applied by a warehouse pursuant thereto, may be applied by a producer to deliveries of material to be physically incorporated into material to be delivered by the producer to a warehouse under the rating assigned above, or to be used within the limitations of this paragraph to replace in the producer's inventory material so delivered. Such application of the rating shall be subject to the following:

(1) No producer may apply the rating to obtain material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to make on schedule a delivery rated hereunder, or to replace in his inventory material so delivered. He shall not be deemed to require such material if he can make his rated delivery and still retain a practicable working minimum inventory thereof; and if, in making such delivery, he reduces his inventory below such minimum, he may apply the rating only to the extent necessary to restore his inventory to such minimum.

(2) To extend such rating a producer must endorse on each purchase order or contract to be covered by a rating assigned hereunder a statement in the following form, manually signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

> The undersigned hereby certifies that the iron and steel products herein ordered are required to complete purchase order Nos. ——— received from a steel warehouse, Preference Rating ———.
> ———————————
> (Name of producer)
> By———————————
> (Duly authorized official)

Such endorsement shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and to the person with whom the purchase order or contract is placed that such purchase order or contract is duly rated in accordance herewith. The seller shall be entitled to rely on such representation unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Any such purchase order or contract shall be restricted to material the delivery of which is rated in accordance herewith.

(3) Each producer extending any rating in accordance with this paragraph (i) shall file such reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board, and until further notice shall file form PD–81, (or, at his election, form PD–81–a accompanied by copies of all endorsed purchase orders or contracts for material to which the preference rating has been applied by him during the preceding month) on or before the 15th day of each month.

(j) Effective dates. This Supplementary Order shall take effect immediately and, unless sooner terminated by direction of the Director of Industry Operations, shall expire on the expiration date of § 962.1 (General Preference Order M–21).

This amendment shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 989—DOMESTIC MECHANICAL REFRIGERATORS

Amendment No. 1 to Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–c

Section 989.4 (Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–c[2]) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph (g) as follows:

(g) Restrictions on inventories. (1) Until otherwise ordered by the Director of Industry Operations, no manufacturer shall sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer any part of the inventory of raw materials, semi-processed parts or finished parts which he holds for use in the production of domestic mechanical refrigerators to any other person, or to any other department, division, or section of his not engaged in the production of domestic mechanical refrigerators, except on the following conditions:

(i) Raw materials, semi-processed parts and finished parts may be sold, delivered or otherwise transferred to other manufacturers of domestic mechanical refrigerators for their use in the production of such refrigerators pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b); and

(ii) Raw materials, semi-processed parts, and finished parts may be sold, delivered or otherwise transferred in connection with the manufacture and sale of repair and maintenance parts for domestic mechanical refrigerators.

(2) Each manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board on or before March 15, 1942, an estimate of the inventory of raw materials, semi-processed parts, and finished parts which will remain in his hands pursuant to this paragraph after he has completed his production of domestic mechanical refrigerators pursuant to paragraph (b). (P.D. Reg. 1 Amended, Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942; 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a) Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

This amendment shall take effect immediately. Issued this 27th day of February 1942.

PART 1023—JEWEL BEARINGS

Amendment No. 1 of Conservation Order No. M–50[1] To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Jewel Bearings and Jewel Bearing Material

Section 1023.1 (Conservation Order M–50) is hereby amended to read as follows:

Whereas, National Defense requirements have created a shortage of jewel bearings (as hereafter defined) for the combined needs of defense and private account, and the supply of jewel bearings now is and will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements, unless the supply of jewel bearings and jewel bearing material (as hereinafter defined) is conserved and their use in certain products manufactured for civilian use is curtailed; and it is necessary in the public interest to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution and use thereof.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1023.1 Conservation Order M–50—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Order:

(1) "Jewel bearing material" means any natural or synthetic sapphire or ruby of industrial quality or any other material of similar chemical composition and physical properties.

(2) "Jewel bearing" means any jewel bearing material which has been processed in any manner for use where friction occurs.

(3) "Large ring jewel bearing" means any round disk made from jewel bearing material and which has a diameter greater than .050 inch, and a thickness greater than .012 inch, and which has a hole pierced through it of a diameter greater than .006 inch.

(4) "Vee jewel bearing" means any round disk made from jewel bearing material and which has a conically shaped cavity cut into one of the flat surfaces.

(5) "Supplier" means any person who engages in the importation, manufacture or processing of jewel bearings or jewel bearing material.

(6) "Manufactured" means fabricated or processed in any manner.

(b) Restrictions on the sale, purchase and use of jewel bearings and jewel bearing material after March 1, 1942. (1) On and after March 1, 1942, each supplier is hereby directed to set aside his entire stock of jewel bearings and his entire stock of jewel bearing material as a reserve for the fulfillment of present and future defense orders and uses as may be authorized from time to time by the Director of Industry Operations. No deliveries or withdrawals shall be made from this reserve either for customers of such supplier or for purposes of manufacture or process by such supplier except pursuant to specific directions hereafter by the Director of Industry Operations. Not later than March 1, for the month of March, 1942, and thereafter prior to the first day of each subsequent calendar month, the Director of Industry Operations will issue to each supplier a monthly allocation schedule covering the use of jewel bearings by such supplier and deliveries of jewel bearings which may be made by such supplier to his customers during such month, and further directing the kinds and quantities of jewel bearing material which may be delivered, manufactured or processed by such supplier. The use, process to final product and delivery by such supplier of jewel bearings and jewel bearing material shall be made as directed in such monthly allocation schedules.

(2) Unless otherwise specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, after the effective date of this Order no person shall use large ring jewel bearings in the manufacture of any article other than articles to be delivered under a defense order bearing a preference rating of A–9 or higher.

(3) Unless otherwise specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, after the effective date of this Order no person shall use vee jewel bearings in the manufacture of any article other than articles to be delivered under a defense order bearing a preference rating of A–9 or higher.

(c) General exception. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this Order shall not apply to any jewel bearing which on January 14, 1942 had been physically incorporated in a device in which it was subjected to friction.

(d) Reports. (1) Each supplier shall file with the War Production Board, Ref: M–50, on or before the fifteenth day of February, 1942, and on or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month thereafter all the information required by Form PD–235.

(2) Any person using jewel bearings in the manufacture of any article shall file with the War Production Board, Ref: M–50, on or before the fifteenth day of February, 1942, and on or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month thereafter all the information required by Form PD–236.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(2) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M–50.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

Issued this 28th day of February 1942.

PART 1064—ASBESTOS

Amendment No. 1 of Conservation Order No. M–79[1] Curtailing the Use of Certain Types of Asbestos

Paragraph (a) (3) of § 1064.1 (Conservation Order M–79) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Restrictions on the use of certain types of asbestos.

* * * * *

(3) In addition to the above limitations, unless otherwise specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, after February 1, 1942 no person shall install eighty-five percent magnesia or other high temperature pipe covering except (i) in installations where temperatures of 200° F. or over occur, or (ii) in installations on ships. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

This amendment shall take effect immediately. Issued this 28th day of February 1942.

PART 1081—ELECTRIC POWER

Limitation Order No. L–46 To Provide for the Curtailment of Electric Power in the Niagara Frontier Area

Whereas, shortages of electric power for war, essential civilian, and other uses in the Niagara Frontier Area have already occurred in the year 1942, and further shortages will occur in the event of unfavorable ice conditions, low water in the Niagara River, emergency breakdown, or other unfavorable conditions; and

Whereas, the limitations upon deliveries and consumption of electric power and the integration of power systems hereinafter ordered are necessary in order to conserve electric power for war production during periods of power shortage;

Now, therefore, it is ordered that:

§ 1081.1 General Limitation Order L–46—(a) Definitions for the purposes of this section. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental agency or corporation, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Utility" means any person who generates, transmits, or distributes electric power directly or indirectly for general use by the public.

(3) "Consumer" means any person who is an ultimate user of electric power, purchased or otherwise acquired from any Utility.

(4) "Base power demand" for any consumer means the maximum measured demand for electric power of such consumer during the month of January, 1942, or such other month as the Director of Industry Operations may designate.

(5) "Power demand quota" for any consumer subject to curtailment under the provisions of paragraph (c) (2) of this section, means whichever is the greater of the following amounts:

(i) 200 kilowatts, or

(ii) Consumer's base power demand multiplied by fifty percent (50%) or such other percentage as may be established from time to time by direction of the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) Integration of power system operation. (1) The Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, Rochester Gas & Electric Corporation, and New York State Electric & Gas Corporation shall, during any period of power shortage on the twenty-five cycle system of the aforementioned utilities, so operate their generating plants, frequency changers, substations, transmission lines, and other facilities, and shall interchange power in such a manner as to make available to the twenty-five cycle power system of said utilities the maximum energy and capacity of such facilities. Such operations during periods of power shortage shall include, in particular, the following:

(i) Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation shall operate its twenty-five cycle generators at the Huntley No. 1 Station in such a manner as to make available to the twenty-five cycle system the maximum power output from such generators.

(ii) In the event that sufficient water is not available for full-capacity operation of all twenty-five cycle generators in the Schoellkopf Station of the Niagara Falls Power Company, said utility shall reduce, so far as practicable, the operation of the sixty cycle generators in the Schoellkopf Station, so that the water, which would otherwise be used for sixty cycle generation, will be made available for the maximum production of twenty-five cycle power.

(iii) The Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, and the Rochester Gas & Electric Corporation shall so operate their facilities as to transfer from the sixty cycle system through frequency changers the maximum amount of power to the twenty-five cycle system.

(2) Whenever a shortage of power occurs on the twenty-five cycle system of the Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, or Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, said utilities shall give notice thereof to all other interconnected utilities in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, or New England, and thereupon said interconnected utilities shall make available the maximum amount of sixty cycle power for conversion to twenty-five cycle power for the purpose of relieving such shortage.

(3) If a shortage of electric power occurs on the sixty cycle system of any of the utilities affected by this paragraph (b), immediate telegraphic notice thereof shall be given to the Power Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., and thereupon the Director of Industry Operations will issue specific directions for curtailment of electric power deliveries to consumers receiving sixty cycle power.

(4) Where necessary for the purposes herein set forth, the Director of Industry Operations will issue further specific directions as to the operation of the power facilities of such utilities and as to deliveries of power.

(c) Limitation on consumption and deliveries of electric power. In the event that the supply of twenty-five cycle power available in the area served by the Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, and New York State Electric & Gas Corporation is insufficient to meet the demand therefor, after full operation and integration of facilities as provided in paragraph (b) above, said utilities shall reduce deliveries to their consumers in the following manner:

(1) First, the Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, and New York State Electric & Gas Corporation shall reduce deliveries to consumers who have electric power generating facilities, the increased operation of which can directly or indirectly reduce the requirements of such consumers for purchased twenty-five cycle power. Said utilities shall notify each such consumer of the reduction in deliveries required, and no consumer shall thereupon accept deliveries of twenty-five cycle power unless his electric power generating facilities are being operated at maximum capability.

(2) Second, said utilities shall not make, and no consumer shall accept, deliveries of twenty-five cycle power at a rate in excess of such consumer's power demand quota. The provisions of this paragraph (c) (2) shall not apply to:

(i) Consumers of the Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation who are served from that portion of the twenty-five cycle system located on the Huntley Station side of Terminal Station C and whose curtailed use of electric power will not increase the power supply available for the rest of the twenty-five cycle system of the Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, and Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation; or

(ii) Consumers listed in Exhibit "B" annexed hereto; or

(iii) Consumers included in the classifications listed in Exhibit "A" annexed hereto, as the same may be amended or modified from time to time by the Director of Industry Operations.

The Director of Industry Operations shall determine which consumers are included in the classes specified in said Exhibit "A" and no consumer is entitled to the exemption provided for herein until he shall have received notice of such determination. Any other consumer who considers that his uncurtailed operations are necessary to the War Production Program or to essential civilian services may apply for such exemption to the Director of Industry Operations.

Each utility shall from time to time notify each of its consumers to be curtailed hereunder of his power demand quota.

(3) Third, in the event that after full compliance with the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c) (1), and (c) (2) of this section, further reduction in deliveries to consumers becomes necessary, the Niagara Falls Power Company and Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company shall, to the extent necessary to meet the shortage, reduce on a pro-rata basis deliveries to the consumers listed in Exhibit "B". In making such reductions, an equal percentage shall, as far as practicable, be applied to the base power demand of each consumer, provided that no consumer shall be reduced below his minimum power demand therein set forth. Whenever it becomes necessary to make such reduction in power deliveries, said utilities shall notify each of their consumers of the required reduction in power deliveries; and no consumer shall, upon receiving such notice, accept deliveries of power at a rate in excess of the amount specified. Whenever the power supply requires further reduction or permits partial restoration of power deliveries, said Utilities shall notify their consumers of the change in power deliveries; and no consumer, upon receiving notice of such change, shall use power at a rate in excess of the amount then specified. Whenever the power supply permits full restoration of service, said utilities shall so notify each consumer affected thereby.

(4) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1), (2), and (3), the Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, or New York State Electric and Gas Corporation may, within the limits of their contractual rights, reduce deliveries to any consumer for the time and to the extent necessary to meet emergency operating conditions: Provided, however, That the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1), (2), and (3) shall be observed as soon as safe operating practices permit.

(d) Limitations on increases in deliveries of electric power. (1) The Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, and Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation shall not, after the effective date of this section, increase the rate of deliveries of twenty-five cycle power (except for swings in demand of less than one hour's duration) to any consumer over the maximum demand of such consumer during the month of January, 1942, and no consumer shall accept such increased deliveries of power unless:

(i) The amount of such increase in deliveries for any consumer is less than 100 kilowatts; or

(ii) Such increase has been specifically authorized in advance by the Director of Industry Operations.

(2) The provisions of this paragraph (d) shall not apply to allotments by the Federal Power Commission of the power generated from the 5,000 c. f. s. emergency diversion made available to the United States by special agreement with Canada, dated May 20, 1941, and approved by the Senate on June 12, 1941.

(3) The Niagara Falls Power Company shall not be relieved, by reason of any of the provisions of this section, from compliance with the requirements heretofore or hereafter prescribed pursuant to the Federal Power Act of 1935 by the Federal Power Commission with respect to the diversion of water from the Niagara River, including the 5,000 c. f. s. and 7,500 c. f. s. made available to the United States by the special agreements with Canada, dated May 20, 1941, and October 27, 1941, and approved by the Senate on June 12, 1941, and November 27, 1941, respectively.

(e) Appeal. Any person affected by this section who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal for relief to the Director of the Industry Operations who may grant such specific exemptions or take such other action as he shall deem appropriate for and consistent with the purposes of this section.

(f) Reports and information. (1) The Niagara Falls Power Company, Niagara Lockport & Ontario Power Company, and Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning deliveries of electric power to consumers. Such records shall be subject to inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(2) Whenever it is necessary for any utility herein named to reduce deliveries of twenty-five cycle power to any consumer, such utility shall immediately give telegraphic notice thereof to the Power Branch of the War Production Board and shall prepare and file daily reports showing the time or times when reduction in power deliveries was made, the duration thereof, and the extent to which each consumer was curtailed.

(3) All persons affected by this section shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board may from time to time request.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–46.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this section, or any other order, direction, or regulation, issued pursuant hereto, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, may be prohibited from delivering or receiving electric power or any other material subject to allocation by the Director of Industry Operations, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This section and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this section shall govern.

(j) Effective date. This section shall take effect immediately and unless sooner terminated by the Director of Industry Operations shall expire on the 31st of December 1942. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 1111—RATIONING OF NEW COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES

General Conservation Order M-100—Rationing of Light, Medium and Heavy Trucks, Truck-Tractors and Trailers

Whereas the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has resulted in a shortage in the supply of new commercial motor vehicles for defense, for private use and for export, and it has now become necessary in the public interest, and to promote the national defense, to ration or allocate such vehicles in the manner hereinafter provided:

It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1111.1 General Conservation Order M-100—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "New commercial motor vehicle" means any light, medium or heavy truck, truck-tractor or trailer manufactured otherwise than under specifications of the United States Army or Navy, propelled or drawn by mechanical power for use on the highways for transportation of property or persons, which was manufactured subsequently to July 31, 1941 and either (i) has been driven less than 1,000 miles or (ii) irrespective of mileage driven, has not been transferred except to a sales agency for the purpose of resale.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures commercial motor vehicles.

(4) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of offering commercial motor vehicles for sale at retail to the public.

(5) "Distributor" means any person other than the manufacturer regularly engaged in the business of selling commercial motor vehicles to dealers.

(6) "Sales agency" means any distributor or dealer, and includes any agency or branch of a manufacturer which sells commercial motor vehicles.

(7) "Transfer" means to sell, lease, trade, lend, give, deliver, ship or physically transfer in any other way which involves the use of the commercial motor vehicle after the transfer by a person other than the transferor; or to convert to use a commercial motor vehicle held by a manufacturer, distributor or dealer; or to change the designation of the registered owner. Transfer does not include delivery to a carrier for shipment, nor delivery by a carrier to a consignee; nor does it include a lease or loan made in good faith by any person other than a dealer, distributor or other sales agency; nor does it include a technical transfer of title for security purposes to a person financing a conditional sale or similar transaction made simultaneously with the transfer of the vehicle itself to the purchaser.

(8) "Application" means a written application, in prescribed form, for authorization to acquire by transfer a new commercial motor vehicle.

(9) "Certificate of transfer" means a non-transferable certificate in prescribed form, issued by the Director of Industry Operations, authorizing the transfer of a new commercial motor vehicle.

(10) "Government Exemption Permit" means a non-transferable permit in prescribed form, issued by the Director of Industry Operations, authorizing a transfer of a new commercial motor vehicle to or for the account of: the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics or the Office of Scientific Research and Development; or for export.

(11) "Usage Classification List" means the list attached hereto as Schedule A, as the same may be amended from time to time, classifying commercial motor vehicles upon the basis of the relative importance of the use to which such vehicles will be put in respect to the prosecution of the war and esssential civilian requirements.

(b) Restrictions on transfers of new commercial motor vehicles. On and after March 9, 1942, irrespective of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or of any other commitment, no person shall transfer or accept transfer of any new commercial motor vehicle, except pursuant to a Certificate of Transfer or as provided in paragraph (c) of this Order, or as otherwise expressly ordered.

(c) Persons authorized to acquire new commercial motor vehicles without Certificate of Transfer. Nothing in paragraph (b) of this Order shall prevent the following persons from acquiring by transfer a new commercial motor vehicle, but thereafter no transfer of such vehicle shall be made except as provided in said paragraph (b):

(1) Any person holding a Government Exemption Permit.

(2) A person acquiring title to a new commercial motor vehicle through or under the terms of a will, or by intestacy under any State Law, or through bankruptcy or receivership proceedings.

(3) A manufacturer, distributor, or dealer, in respect only of new commercial motor vehicles which are acquired for the purpose of resale.

(4) A person who in good faith lends money on the security of, or finances the sale of, a commercial motor vehicle.

(5) A person distraining upon the new commercial motor vehicle levying by execution, attachment, or similar form of judicial process, or any person repossessing on default.

Provided, however, That any person acquiring a new commercial motor vehicle pursuant to Clause (3), (4) or (5) above may acquire the same only for resale and not for use.

(d) Transfer of new commercial motor vehicles by Certificate of Transfer. Except as provided in paragraph (c) hereinabove, a new commercial motor vehicle may be transferred only pursuant to a Certificate of Transfer. Such Certificate will be issued by the Director of Industry Operations in his discretion, pursuant to an Application filed with the Office of Defense Transportation and upon recommendation by the Office of Defense Transportation based upon its determination that the transfer of the vehicle for a specified use included in the Usage Classification List is required for the maximum utilization of domestic transportation facilities for the prosecution of the war or essential civilian requirements.

(e) Transfers required. Any manufacturer or sales agency to whom a Certificate of Transfer or Government Exemption Permit is presented and who has in stock a new commercial vehicle of the type specified shall transfer such vehicle to the person named therein, irrespective of the terms of any contract of sale or any other commitment with any other person.

(f) Local Appeal Boards. The Office of Defense Transportation is hereby authorized to establish such Local Appeal Boards as it may require to hear and determine Appeals from its determination in respect to the transfer of new commercial motor vehicles, and to prescribe procedure for the same.

(g) Instructions and forms. The Office of Defense Transportation is hereby authorized to issue jointly with the War Production Board such Instructions and Forms as may be required from time to time to carry out the provisions of this Order.

(h) Records. All persons affected by this Order shall preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories and transfers of new commercial motor vehicles, which records shall be available for audit and inspection by authorized representatives of the War Production Board and the Office of Defense Transportation.

(i) Reports. All persons affected by this Order shall submit such reports to the Office of Defense Transportation and to the War Production Board as may be, from time to time, required.

(j) Violations. Any person who violates any provisions of this Order, or who, by any act or omission, knowingly falsifies an application, certificate, or any record required to be kept by him pursuant to this Order, or who otherwise knowingly furnishes false information to the War Production Board, the Office of Defense Transportation or to any of their agents, shall be subject to the penalties therefor, including a recommendation to the Attorney General for prosecution pursuant to section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code of the United States (Title 18, U.S.C. sec. 80). In addition, the Director of Industry Operations and the Office of Defense Transportation may deny such person the right to receive any commercial motor vehicle, and the War Production Board may deny such person the right to receive any other material which now or hereafter may be subject to allocation.

(k) Inapplicability of preference ratings. No preference rating heretofore or hereafter assigned by any preference rating certificate or preference rating order shall entitle any person to receive any new commercial motor vehicle.

(l) Effective date of this Order. This Order shall take effect on Monday, March 9, 1942, and may be amended or revoked by the Director of Industry Operations at any time. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong. 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. 1st Sess.)

Issued this 28th day of February 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

SCHEDULE A TO GENERAL CONSERVATION ORDER M-100—Usage Classification List for Commercial Motor Vehicles

The following classification of commercial motor vehicles on the basis of use applies to light, medium and heavy trucks, truck-tractors, trailers, and chassis thereof. It will serve as a broad general basis for the preferential allocation of the supply of such new vehicles. The various classes are arranged in the order of their importance from the standpoint of the national war effort. Individual groups within a given class are shown as illustrations of the coverage of the class and do not indicate preference groups within the class.

All vehicles are to be classified according to their predominant or principal use into five classes arranged in the order in which preference is to be granted. As a general rule, predominant or principal use means 50 per cent or more of the applicant's operations.

The Usage Classification List is as follows: [1]

CLASS I

Vehicles principally used in connection with military forces (in action or on maneuvers), public health or safety, or with essential channels of communication, such as—

In connection with military forces in the field (in action or on maneuvers).

To maintain public police services; fire-fighting services; services essential to protection of public health and safety, including the regulation of highway traffic and prevention of highway accidents.

To construct and maintain mail, telegraph, telephone and organized radio communication services.

To furnish and maintain water supply, sewage and garbage disposal and other sanitation services.

CLASS II

Vehicles principally used directly in connection with the war effort, such as—

In connection with fixed military and naval posts and establishments.

In the transportation of all materials, supplies and equipment of industry and business directly connected with the war effort, including farm and forest products, and food.

In service operations connected with the construction, maintenance and supply of essential rail, highway, water, pipe line, and air transportation facilities.

In the transportation of material and equipment for the construction of defense housing facilities.

In the transportation of material and equipment for the construction and maintenance of public utilities other than those specified in Class I above.

In the transportation of persons engaged in business, industry, etc., directly connected with the war effort.

CLASS III

Vehicles principally used in connection with essential functions indirectly connected with the war effort, such as—

In the transportation of all materials, supplies and equipment of industry and business indirectly connected with the war effort, including farm and forest products, and food.

For the transportation of ice, and fuel for heating and power to the ultimate consumer for personal, family or household use.

For the rendering of essential roofing, plumbing, heating, electrical, building and vehicle repair services.

For the collection of waste and scrap material other than services performed in connection with Class I.

In the transportation of persons in business, industry, etc., indirectly connected with the war effort.

In the service of public and private schools and educational institutions.

CLASS IV

Vehicles used for the transportation of persons or goods, except as above classified, not connected with the war effort, and which are used in the less essential activities.

This includes all essential forms of retail delivery, except that of ice and fuel (see Class III).

CLASS V

Vehicles used in connection with non-essential functions or so-called "luxury" uses and not connected with the war effort.

[1] This classification covers civilian transportation only. Vehicles owned and operated by the armed forces and other governmental services directly concerned with the prosecution of the war are not included, since they are not subject to the allocation procedure.

PART 1121—PISTOLS, RIFLES AND SHOTGUNS

Limitation Order No. L-60

Whereas national defense requirements have created a shortage of pistols, rifles and shotguns for use in police work, plant patrol and other local guard duties, and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1121.1 General Limitation Order L-60—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this Order, "manufacturer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of pistols, rifles, and/or shotguns.

(b) Prohibition of sales. Until June 1, 1942, no person other than a manufacturer shall sell, lease, trade, lend, deliver, ship, transfer or otherwise dispose of any new pistol, rifle or shotgun using an explosive cartridge to propel a metal bullet or metal shot, except:

(1) Pursuant to a specific order of the Director of Industry Operations;

(2) For Government use only to any Agency, Department, Office, or Officer of the Federal Government or of any state or local government; or pursuant to orders placed by the government of the United Kingdom, Canada, and other Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates of the British Empire, Belgium, China, Greece, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia and Yugoslavia; or for the account of any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act);

(3) That any Pistol, Rifle or Shotgun actually in transit on the effective date of this Order may be delivered to its immediate destination;

(4) That where, as of the effective date of this Order, a person has received a purchase order for or has contracted for the sale or delivery of any Pistol, Rifle and/or Shotgun, to which purchase order or contract a preference rating of A-1-i, or higher, has been applied, then that person may sell or deliver the said Pistol, Rifle and/or Shotgun in accordance with the terms of such purchase order or contract, and

(5) That the limitations of this paragraph do not apply to any sales or deliveries to or by the Defense Supplies Corporation.

(d) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this Order shall keep and preserve for not less than 2 years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

(f) Reports. All persons affected by this Order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require. All dealers, jobbers, wholesalers, and distributors having in their possession Pistols, Rifles, and/or Shotguns shall file a complete inventory, stating make and model, of such items with the War Production Board within forty-five days after the date of the issuance of this Order.

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this Order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representative of the War Production Board.

(h) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this Order or who willfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this Order, or otherwise willfully furnishes false information to the War Production Board may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the War Production Board from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The War Production Board may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Appeal. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action, if any, as it deems appropriate by the amendment of this Order or otherwise.

(j) Communications. All communications concerning this Order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-60.

(k) Effective date. This Order shall take effect at 9:00 A. M. Eastern War Time of the date of its issuance. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

Issued this 27th day of February 1942.

PART 940—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

Amendment No. 5 to Supplementary Order No. M-15-b, to Restrict the Use and Sale of Rubber

Supplementary Order No. M-15-b[1] is hereby amended by substituting the attached lists designated A, B, C and D for lists A, B, C and D, respectively, now attached to such Order.

This Order shall take effect on March 1, 1942.

Issued this 28th day of February 1942.

PART 955—MATERIAL ENTERING INTO THE CONSTRUCTION OF DEFENSE PROJECTS

Preference Rating Order No. P–55 Amended—Material Entering Into the Construction of Defense Housing Projects

§ 955.4 Preference rating order P–55. For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of Material for the construction of the Defense Housing Project hereinafter described, a preference rating is hereby assigned to deliveries to the above named Builder and to deliveries to his Subcontractors and Suppliers upon the following terms:

(a) Definitions. (1) "Builder" means the specific person to whom this Order is addressed above.

(2) "Defense housing project" means the housing project described in the Builder's Application on Form PD–105, No. --------, dated ----------, comprising ------ units, as finally approved (hereinafter referred to as the "Application").

(3) "Subcontractor" means any person with whom the Builder has placed a contract pursuant to which the Subcontractor has agreed to furnish both labor on, and Defense Housing Material to be incorporated in, the Defense Housing Project.

(4) "Supplier" means any person (i) who supplies Defense Housing Material which he has not in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or the form of which he has not otherwise substantially changed, and

(ii) with whom a contract or purchase order has been placed for delivery, to the Builder, to a Subcontractor or to another Supplier, of Defense Housing Material which will enter into the construction of the Defense Housing Project.

(5) "Defense housing material" means any material included in the Defense Housing Critical List, and only such Material. Copies of this List may be obtained from any local office of the Federal Housing Administration, from any priority field office of the Bureau of Field Operations, War Production Board, or from the Housing Branch, Division of Industry Operations, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

(b) Assignment of preference rating. Preference Rating ------ is hereby assigned (1) to deliveries to the Builder of those quantities and kinds of Defense Housing Material which may be specifically authorized for such rating by the Director of Industry Operations on the copy of the Application returned to the Builder.

(2) to deliveries to a Subcontractor of Defense Housing Material which will ultimately be delivered by him to the Builder under the rating hereby assigned or will be physically incorporated into Defense Housing Material which will be so delivered or which will be used, within the limitation of paragraph (d) (2) hereof, to replace in such Subcontractor's inventory Defense Housing Material so delivered.

(3) to deliveries to a Supplier of Defense Housing Material, which will ultimately be delivered to the Builder under the rating hereby assigned, or which will be physically incorporated into Defense Housing Material to be so delivered, or which will be used, within the limitations of paragraph (d) (2) hereof, to replace in such Supplier's inventory Defense Housing Material so delivered.

(c) Persons entitled to apply preference rating. The preference rating hereby assigned may, within the limitations of paragraph (d) hereof, be applied by: (1) The Builder;

(2) Any Subcontractor or Supplier who supplies Defense Housing Material to the delivery of which a rating has been applied as provided in paragraph (e) hereof.

(d) Restrictions on use of preference rating—(1) Restrictions on the builder:

(i) The Builder may apply the preference rating hereby assigned only to those quantities and kinds of Defense Housing Material specifically authorized for such rating by the Director of Industry Operations on the copy of the Application returned to the Builder. This Order will be cancelled immediately if the Builder is found to have applied the rating to deliveries in excess of his specific authorization.

(ii) The Builder may not apply said preference rating to obtain delivery of Defense Housing Material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to maintain his construction schedule on the Defense Housing Project.

(2) Restrictions on subcontractor and supplier. (i) No Subcontractor or Supplier may apply the preference rating hereby assigned to obtain Defense Housing Material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to make on schedule a delivery rated hereunder or, within the limitations of paragraph (d) (2) (ii) below, to replace in his inventory Defense Housing Material so delivered. He shall not be deemed to require such Defense Housing Material if he can make his rated delivery and still retain a practicable working minimum inventory thereof; and if in making such delivery he reduces his inventory below such minimum, he may apply the rating only to the extent necessary to restore his inventory to such minimum;

(ii) Any Subcontractor or Supplier entitled to apply the preference rating hereby assigned may defer applications of such ratings to purchase or contracts to be placed by him for Defense Housing Material until he can place a purchase order or contract for the minimum quantity procurable on his customary terms: Provided, That he shall not defer the application of any rating for more than three months after he becomes entitled to apply it;

(iii) A Supplier may only apply the preference rating hereby assigned to deliveries of Defense Housing Material which he will resell without substantial change in form to fill a specific purchase order or contract rated hereunder or which he will use within the limitations of paragraph (d) (2) (ii) above to replace in his inventory Defense Housing Material so resold.

(e) Application of preference rating. (1) The Builder or any Subcontractor or Supplier in order to apply the preference rating hereby assigned to deliveries of Defense Housing Material to him must:

(i) Serve a copy of this Order upon each Subcontractor or Supplier with whom he has placed a contract or purchase order for Defense Housing Material to the delivery of which he elects to apply the preference rating. After he has furnished one such copy to a particular Subcontractor or Supplier, he need furnish no additional copies to that Subcontractor or Supplier to cover any subsequent deliveries of Defense Housing Material; and

(ii) Endorse on each purchase order or contract rated hereunder a statement in the following form manually signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

Preference Rating ------ is applied hereto under Preference Rating Order No. P–55 Amended, Serial No.(s). --------, with the terms of which Order the undersigned Builder (Subcontractor, Supplier) is familiar.

(Name of builder, subcontractor or supplier)

(Duly authorized official)

Such endorsement shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and the person with whom the purchase order or contract is placed that such purchase order or contract is duly rated in accordance herewith. Such person shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Any such purchase order or contract shall be restricted to Defense Housing Material, the delivery of which is rated in accordance herewith.

(2) The Builder and each Subcontractor (but not a Supplier) must, in addition to the requirements set forth in paragraphs (e) (1) (i) and (e) (1) (ii) above, submit in triplicate to the same local office of the Federal Housing Administration, with which the Builder filed his Application, each purchase order or contract which is to be rated hereunder for the countersignature of an authorized agent of the Federal Housing Administrator. No purchase order or contract placed by the Builder or any Subcontractor can validly apply the rating hereby assigned without such countersignature.

(3) Any Subcontractor or Supplier, who has received two or more endorsed purchase orders or contracts for Defense Housing Material bearing the same rating under this or any other Preference Rating Order or Orders No. P–55, Amended, may (within the limitations of paragraph (d) hereof) include in a single purchase order or contract any or all of the Defense Housing Material to which he is entitled to apply the rating assigned by such Order or Orders, but must specify in the endorsement on such single purchase order or contract all of the Serial Numbers contained in the purchase orders or contracts which have been so received by him.

(f) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, the Builder and each Subcontractor and Supplier placing or receiving any purchase order or contract rated hereunder, shall retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such a manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to:

War Production Board
Washington, D. C.
Ref.: P–55

(h) Violations. Any Person who willfully violates any provisions of this Order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order may be prohibited from receiving further delivery of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate including a recommendation for prosecution under Section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Revocation or amendment. This Order may be revoked or amended by the Director of Industry Operations at any time as to the Builder, or any Subcontractor or Supplier.

(j) In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this Order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the Builder or any Subcontractor or Supplier affected by such revocation.

(2) Upon expiration of this Order, deliveries already rated pursuant thereto shall be completed in accordance with said rating. No additional applications of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the Builder but a Subcontractor or Supplier may continue to apply the rating to deliveries of Defense Housing Material required by him to fill purchase orders or contracts duly rated hereunder or, within the limitations of paragraph (d) (2) hereof, to replace in his inventory Defense Housing Material so delivered.

(j) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(k) Effective date. This Order shall take effect when countersigned by a District Manager, Bureau of Field Operations, War Production Board, and unless sooner revoked, shall expire on the ---- day of ----------.

Issued this 2d day of March 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

This order is not valid unless countersigned by a District Manager, Bureau of Field Operations, War Production Board.

PART 982—MINES

Preference Rating Order P–56 (as Amended to March 2, 1942)

Section 982.1 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 982.1 Preference Rating Order P–56. For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material for continued and expanded operation of Mining Enterprises in the public interest and to promote the national defense, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of such material upon the terms hereinafter set forth:

(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Mining Enterprise" means (i) Any plant actually engaged in the extraction by surface, open-pit, or underground methods, or in the beneficiation, concentration, or preparation for shipment of the products of mining activity, but not including any plant more than 30 percent of the production of which in dollar value consists of gold and/or silver;

(ii) Any plant wholly engaged in the processing and burning of refractories;

(iii) Any prospecting enterprise for the discovery or exploration of new or additional mining projects.

(3) "Operator" means any person operating a Mining Enterprise, who holds a Serial Number issued in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b).

(4) "Supplier" means any person with whom a purchase order or contract has been placed for delivery of material to an Operator or to another Supplier.

(5) "Material" means any commodities, equipment, accessories, parts, assemblies, or products of any kind.

(6) "Maintenance" means minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of equipment used by an Operator in the operation of a Mining Enterprise at its then current rate of production or operation.

(7) "Repair" means the restoration of property or equipment used by an Operator in the operation of a Mining Enterprise to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction, or failure of parts or the like have made the property or equipment unfit or unsafe for service.

(8) "Operating Supplies" means material which is essential to and consumed in the operation of property and equipment used by an Operator in the operation of a Mining Enterprise and which is generally carried as Operator's stores and charged to operating expense account. The term does not include raw materials which enter into or form part of the finished product.

(b) Certification of mining enterprises. (1) Domestic Mining Enterprises. The agency designated by the Governor or other chief executive officer of each State, territory, or possession of the United States, including the Commonwealth of the Philippines, shall furnish to the War Production Board a certificate setting forth the names of the persons operating Mining Enterprises within such State, territory, or possession. The War Production Board will thereupon issue a Serial Number or Numbers to each such person who may be approved by the Director of Industry Operations. Any person aggrieved by failure or refusal of a State agency to certify him as an Operator may apply in writing to the Director of Industry Operations for issuance of a Serial Number. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate. Serial Numbers may be cancelled by the Director of Industry Operations in appropriate cases.

(2) Foreign mining enterprises. The Director of Industry Operations may, in his discretion, issue a Serial Number or Numbers to a person operating a Mining Enterprise outside the limits of the United States, its territories, and possessions and may cancel any such Serial Number.

(3) Standards. In issuing, denying, or cancelling Serial Numbers, the Director of Industry Operations will consider the importance to National defense of the present and prospective output of materials to be produced, the consumption of essential materials by the Mining Enterprise in its operations, the necessity to the Mining Enterprise of obtaining priorities assistance, and the available alternative methods of obtaining such assistance.

(c) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the terms of this Order, the following preference ratings are hereby assigned; provided, that no preference rating is assigned to the delivery of any machinery or equipment, or repair parts therefor, unless such machinery and equipment are used primarily to maintain or to increase the existing production of the Mining Enterprise, and not primarily to reduce operating costs. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which any person may be entitled by reason of any other Preference Rating Certificate or Order.

(1) As to deliveries to an operator. (i) A–1–a to deliveries of material for repair of property and equipment used in and essential to the operation of a Mining Enterprise, when and only when there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations because of damage, wear and tear, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, and the essential material is not otherwise available.

(ii) A–1–c to deliveries of repair parts for machinery and equipment of the types listed in Schedule A hereto; provided, that such repair parts are for use in a Mining Enterprise less than 30 percent of the production of which in dollar value for the previous calendar quarter was derived from any one or more of the following:

Sand (except foundry sand), gravel, crushed stone, and slag, including all commercially recognized forms of these products;

Clay of all types, except those used for refractories and ceramics for electrical use;

Building and ornamental stone of all types;

Gypsum, talc, soapstone, slate (except for electrical use), and all raw material for the manufacture of lime and calcareous cements.

Such rating shall be applied by any Operator only to deliveries in any calendar quarter of a quota consisting of such dollar value of repair parts as may be expressly authorized by the Director of Industry Operations after application by such Operator in form prescribed by the Director of Industry Operations. For the first calendar quarter of 1942 such quota shall be the dollar value of repair parts which bears the same ratio to the dollar value of repair parts delivered to the Operator in the last calendar quarter of 1941 as the dollar value of the Operator's production in the first calendar quarter of 1942 bears to the dollar value of the Operator's production in the last calendar quarter of 1941.

(iii) A–1–c to deliveries of repair parts for essential productive facilities to other Mining Enterprises and/or for other types of machinery and equipment up to the minimum required to make reasonable advance provision to avert an actual breakdown or suspension as described in paragraph (c) (1) (i).

(iv) A–8 to deliveries of material for other repairs to, for maintenance of, and for operating supplies for, property and equipment used in and essential to the operation of a Mining Enterprise.

(v) to deliveries of essential machinery and equipment, whether or not included in Schedule A, such preference ratings as the Director of Industry Operations may from time to time assign to particular orders for such equipment submitted to him for approval in the manner described in paragraph (e) (2) below.

(vi) A–10 to deliveries of material for all other repairs, maintenance and operating supplies.

(2) As to deliveries to a supplier. Deliveries of material which will be delivered (or physically incorporated into material which will be delivered) to an Operator under any preference rating assigned by or pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) are assigned the same preference rating as that assigned to the delivery to the Operator.

(d) Persons entitled to apply preference ratings. The preference ratings hereby assigned may be applied by (1) An Operator, or (2) A Supplier to enable it to make to an Operator or to another Supplier deliveries on purchase orders or contracts endorsed or otherwise identified pursuant to paragraph (e).

(e) Application of preference ratings—(1) Application of A–1–a or A–1–c rating by operator. An Operator, in order to apply the A–1–a preference rating assigned by paragraph (c) (1) (i) or the A–1–c preference rating assigned by paragraph (c) (1) (iii) must communicate with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: P–56, describing the material needed for emergency repair and the nature of the emergency, or the reasons why advance provision is necessary to avert breakdown or suspension, and such other information as may be required. The Director of Industry Operations will notify such Operator, whether, and to what extent, its application is approved, and a copy of such notification shall be furnished by the Operator to its Supplier to evidence the A–1–a or A–1–c rating.

(2) Application of ratings by an operator to deliveries of machinery or equipment. An Operator, in order to apply the ratings assignable under paragraph (c) (1) (v), must communicate with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–56, describing the machinery or equipment needed and the reasons why such machinery or equipment is essential for the proper operation of the Mining Enterprise. The Director of Industry Operations will notify such Operator whether its application is approved, and if approved, shall assign a Preference Rating thereto; a copy of such notification and assignment of rating shall be furnished by the Operator to his Supplier.

(3) Standards. In acting on any application pursuant to paragraph (e) (1) or (2), the Director shall consider the importance to national defense of the material to be produced by the machinery, equipment, or other material for which rating is requested, and the consumption of scarce materials in the construction thereof.

(4) Application of other ratings by operator or supplier. An Operator in order to apply the A–1–c preference rating assigned by paragraph (c) (1) (ii), the A–8 preference rating assigned by paragraph (c) (1) (iv), or the A–10 rating assigned by paragraph (c) (1) (vi), or a Supplier in order to apply any preference rating assigned by paragraph (c) (2), must endorse the following statement on the original and all copies of the purchase order or contract for such material, signed by a responsible official duly designated for such purpose by such Operator or Supplier:

Materials for a Mining Enterprise, Rating A-------- under Preference Rating Order P–56, Serial No. -------- and in compliance therewith.

(Name of operator or supplier)

By----------
(Authorized signature)

If the material is for export outside the limits of the United States, its territories and possessions, the Commonwealth of the Philippines, or the Dominion of Canada, such endorsement shall also contain the sentence:

This material is for export and is covered by Export License No. ----------, dated ----------.

Such purchase order or contract so endorsed shall be delivered to the Supplier of such material. Such endorsement shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and the Supplier with whom the purchase order or contract is placed that such purchase order or contract is duly and properly rated in accordance herewith. Such Supplier shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Any such purchase order or contract shall be restricted to material the delivery of which is rated in accordance herewith. With respect to any purchase order or contract for such material placed before the effective date of this Order, such preference rating may be applied by delivering to the seller a duplicate copy of such purchase order or contract so endorsed.

(5) An Operator or Supplier placing any such rated purchase order or contract, and the Supplier of the material covered thereby, must each retain endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, and certificates and notifications made or received pursuant to this paragraph (e), for a period of two years from the date thereof, for inspection by authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(6) Restrictions on deliveries by supplier. No Supplier shall deliver machinery, equipment, or repair parts to an Operator or another Supplier under any rating:

(i) Unless such Supplier has received from such Operator or such other Supplier all certificates and notifications required by paragraph (e).

(ii) If such Supplier knows or has reason to believe that such material is not properly rated under the terms of this Order.

A Supplier must report forthwith to the War Production Board the details of any such attempt to apply any rating in violation of the terms of this Order.

(f) Restrictions on application of rating. (1) The preference ratings hereby assigned shall not be applied:

(i) Unless the material to be delivered cannot be secured when required without such rating;

(ii) To obtain deliveries greater in quantity or on dates earlier than required for the operation, maintenance, or repair of the property or equipment used by an Operator in and essential to the operation of a Mining Enterprise;

(iii) By a Supplier to obtain material in excess of the amount necessary to make rated deliveries.

(g) Restrictions on inventory. No Operator shall accept deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this Order) of operating supplies or other material which will increase such Operator's inventory of such operating supplies or other material to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for the efficient operation of his business, and the ratio of inventory to current production shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average production for the years 1938, 1939, and 1940.

(h) Resale of operating supplies and other material prohibited. Except with specific permission of the Director of Industry Operations, no Operator shall resell any operating supplies or other materials (whether or not obtained pursuant to rating assigned by this Order) except to another Operator.

(i) Conservation and standardization. Every person affected by this Order shall use his best efforts to effectuate conservation of materials by elimination, simplification, or standardization of types, sizes, or forms, or otherwise, and to cooperate in any program developed for such purpose by the War Production Board. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue specific directions as to conservation, elimination, and standardization.

(j) Relief. In case the productivity or sound working condition of any Mining Enterprise is adversely affected by any provision or application of this Order or by inability to obtain essential operating supplies or other materials, the person operating such Mining Enterprise may apply for relief to the Director of Industry Operations. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(k) Records, audit, and reports. Each Operator and each Supplier shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all transactions affected by this Order and shall submit from time to time to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. Each Operator and each Supplier shall execute and file with the War Production Board or other designated agency, such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time require. Until otherwise directed, each Operator shall file with the designated State Agency on or before the 10th day of each month a report on form PD–119 of purchases made during the preceding month pursuant to the ratings granted by this Order.

(l) Violations. Any person affected by this Order who violates any of its provisions, or a provision of any other Order, regulation, or other directive of the War Production Board may be deprived of priorities assistance, or subjected to such other or further action as the Director of Industry Operations may deem appropriate.

(m) Revocation or modification. This Order may be revoked or modified by the Director of Industry Operations at any time as to any Operator or Supplier. In the event of revocation, or upon expiration of this Order, deliveries already rated pursuant to this Order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of this rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the Operator or Supplier affected by said revocation or expiration.

(n) Amendment of prior order. The provisions of Preference Rating Orders P–22 or P–100 shall not apply to deliveries to which a preference rating is assigned by this Order.

Issued this 2d day of March 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

SCHEDULE A

As to all machines listed below, the rating provided herein likewise applies to equipment items, accessories, and tools customarily sold with such machines.

Aerial tramway equipment
Air compressors for mine use
Air distribution equipment
Assaying and testing laboratory equipment at the mine
Ball-casting machines
Boxcar loaders
Cages and skips
Car dumpers—rotary or end
Equipment for Cleaning plants
Equipment for concentrating plants
Conveyors—shaking, belt, chain, or gravity type, including duckbills and other self-loading heads
Cutting machines—cable reel and self-propelling transportation trucks therefor
Diamond core drilling machines
Dragline dredges, excavators, and scraper units
Dredges—continuous bucket, including pumps
Drills and drilling machines, power driven, and reconditioning equipment therefor
Dust control equipment
Electrical equipment for mine transportation and power
Hoists—including room hoists and car pullers
Hydraulic monitors, with feed pipe and fittings
Jacks for lifting and roof support
Lamps—mine, miners', safety, and ore-exploration types
Locomotives for mine use
Loaders, mobile, including mucking machines
Equipment for Milling plants
Mine cars, track or trackless
Pit-car loaders and elevating conveyors
Equipment for Preparation plants
Pumps, pipe and fittings for mine drainage or material transport
Rock dusting equipment
Safety and defense equipment
Sand dryers
Scraper loaders
Sheaves and sheave blocks
Shovels, power
Shuttle cars, track or trackless
Slusher hoists and scrapers
Steel sections for support of mine openings
Storage batteries for mine use
Tanks and bins for storage of mine products
Tipples and head frames
Track and track accessories for mine transportation
Equipment for Treating plants

Trucks, tractors, and trailers for mine use
Ventilation equipment
Waste disposal equipment
Weighing equipment, including automatic devices
Wire rope for haulage and hoisting

PART 1026—PRODUCTION OF CHEMICALS, MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES

Preference Rating Order P-89, Amended

Section 1026.1 (Preference Rating Order No. P-89) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1026.1 Preference Rating Order P-89. For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of Materials, in the public interest and to promote the national defense, for the Maintenance, Repair and Operation of plants and equipment used by Producers of chemicals, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of such Materials on the terms hereinafter set forth.

(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Producer" means any person (provided he shall have received a serial number from the War Production Board in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) hereof) operating a plant physically situated within the limits of the United States, its territories and possessions, or the Dominion of Canada, and actually engaged in the production of chemicals.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) "Supplier" means any person with whom a contract or purchase order has been placed for delivery, to the Producer or to another Supplier, of Material for Repair, Maintenance or Operating Supplies.

(4) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of the Producer's plant at its then current rate of production.

(5) "Repair" means the restoration of the Producer's plant to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, have made it unfit or unsafe for service.

(6) "Operating Supplies" means any Material which is essential to the operation of the Producer's plant including, but not limited to, lubricants, fuels, catalysts, and small perishable tools; provided, however, it shall not include:

(i) Any Material which is physically or chemically incorporated, at any stage of production, in whole or in part, into any Material which the Producer manufactures.

(ii) Any Material which, at any stage of production, enters into the chemical reaction necessary to the manufacture, or is used in the purification (including, among other things, washes, solvents, extractants and the like) of any Material which the Producer manufactures.

(7) Material for Repair or Maintenance and Operating Supplies shall include:

(i) Material which would be carried on the Producer's books as Maintenance, Repair, Operating Supplies or the equivalent in the Producer's established method of bookkeeping.

(ii) Material for the improvement of the Producer's plant through the replacement of Material in the existing installation, but only when such equipment is beyond economical repair.

but shall not include

(iii) Material for additions to, or expansions of, the Producer's plant.

(b) Assignment of preference rating. Subject to the terms of this Order, the following preference ratings are hereby assigned, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which any person shall be entitled by reason of any other preference rating certificate or Order:

(1) A-1-s to deliveries to the Producer of Material for Repair when, and only when, there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations in the plant;

(2) A-1-c to deliveries to the Producer of Material for Repair up to the minimum required to make reasonable advance provision to avert an immediately threatened breakdown or suspension of operations in the plant;

(3) A-3 to deliveries to the Producer, of other Material for Repair, Maintenance or Operating Supplies;

(4) A-3 to deliveries, to a Supplier, of any Material for Repair, Maintenance or Operating Supplies which is to be delivered by him or by another Supplier to the Producer under a rating assigned above, or which will be used within the limitations of paragraph (e) to replace in a Supplier's inventory Material so delivered.

(c) Persons entitled to apply preference rating. The preference ratings hereby assigned may, in the manner and to the extent hereby authorized, be applied by:

(1) The Producer;

(2) Any Supplier of Material to the delivery of which a preference rating has been applied as provided in paragraph (f).

(d) Restrictions upon application of ratings by the producer. (1) A Producer shall not apply any preference rating assigned by paragraph (b) until

(i) he shall have filed with the Chemicals Branch, War Production Board, a statement (in triplicate) properly executed, on Form PD-315.

(ii) he shall have received from the War Production Board, a Serial Number which shall thereafter be endorsed on all purchase orders or contracts for Material by him or for his account which are rated pursuant to this Order.

(2) The Producer shall not apply any preference rating assigned by subparagraphs (b) (1) or (2) above to deliveries of Material to replace other Material withdrawn from his inventory or stores for Maintenance, Repair or Operating Supplies.

(3) The Producer shall not apply any preference rating assigned by subparagraph (b) (3) above if, in view of the current rate of consumption of his inventory and stores for Repair and Maintenance or Operating Supplies, the delivery of the Material to be rated would increase such inventory or stores above the minimum permitted as provided in paragraph (g) below.

(4) The Producer shall not apply any preference rating hereunder unless the Material to be delivered cannot be secured when required without such rating.

(5) The Producer shall not apply any preference rating hereunder to obtain scarce Material, the use of which can be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by the substitution of less scarce Material or by simplification of design.

(e) Restrictions upon application of ratings by the supplier. (1) No Supplier shall extend any preference rating hereunder assigned by subparagraphs (b) (1), (2) or (3) above. A supplier may extend the preference rating hereunder assigned by subparagraph (b) (4) above under the following conditions:

(i) No Supplier may apply the rating to obtain Material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to make on schedule a delivery rated hereunder, or, within the limitations of (ii) and (iii) below, to replace in his inventory Material so delivered. He shall not be deemed to require such Material if he can make his rated delivery and still retain a practicable working minimum inventory thereof; and if, in making such delivery, he reduces his inventory below such minimum, he may apply the rating only to the extent necessary to restore his inventory to such minimum.

(ii) A Supplier who supplies Material which he has in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may not apply the rating to restore his inventory to a practicable working minimum unless he applies the rating before completing the rated delivery which reduces his inventory below such minimum.

(iii) A Supplier who supplies Material which he has not in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may, in restoring his inventory to a practicable working minimum, defer applications of the rating hereunder to purchase orders or contracts for such Material to be placed by him until he can place a purchase order or contract for the minimum quantity procurable on his customary terms: Provided, That he shall not defer the application of any rating for more than three months after he becomes entitled to apply it.

(f) Application of preference rating. (1) The Producer or any Supplier, in order to apply a preference rating assigned hereunder to deliveries to him must:

(i) Furnish one copy of Preference Rating Order No. P-89 with the attached form of acceptance thereof unsigned, to each of his Suppliers with whom he places a contract or purchase order for Material to the delivery of which he elects to apply the preference rating. After one such copy, regardless of Serial Number, has been furnished to a particular Supplier, no additional copy need be furnished to that Supplier to cover any subsequent application of any preference rating assigned hereunder; and

(ii) Endorse on each purchase order or contract which is covered by the rating assigned hereunder, a statement in the following form, signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose, specifying the rating assigned and the appropriate Serial Number or Numbers:

Preference Rating A -------- is applied hereto under Preference Rating Order No. P-89, amended, Serial No.(s). ---------, with the terms of which Order the undersigned is familiar.

(Name of producer or supplier)

By ---
(Duly authorized official)

(2) A Supplier who has received from two or more Producers or Suppliers endorsed purchase orders or contracts for Material to the delivery of which the same rating has been applied in accordance with this Order, may (within the limitations of paragraph (e) hereof) include in a single purchase order or contract any or all of the Material which he in turn requires to make such rated deliveries, but must specify in the endorsement on such single purchase order or contract all of the Serial Numbers contained in the purchase orders or contracts which have been so received by him and to fill which he is applying the preference rating.

(3) In addition to the foregoing requirements, the Producer shall not apply any preference rating assigned by subparagraphs (b) (1) or (2) above unless he shall have communicated with the War Production Board, Ref: P-89, describing the Material needed for Repair, the value of the same, the facilities involved, the nature of the emergency, the name and address of the Supplier (if known), the percentage effect that a breakdown will have on production, and shall have received from the Director of Industry Operations a specific authorization to apply such rating. Such application for authorization may be made by telegram.

(4) In addition to the foregoing requirements, a Supplier (but not a Producer), before he first applies the preference rating assigned hereunder to deliveries to him, must accept Preference Rating Order No. P-89, amended, by executing the form of acceptance attached at the end hereof, and file it with the War Production Board. No additional acceptance need be filed for any subsequent application of Preference Rating Order No. P-89, amended, regardless of the Serial Number under which, or of the name of the Producer to whom, it is issued.

(g) Inventory provisions. The Producer shall not accept deliveries (whether rated hereunder or not) of Material for Repair and Maintenance or Operating Supplies which will increase the inventory or stores available to the Producer for such purpose to an amount greater than the minimum necessary for Repair and Maintenance and to sustain the current level of operations of the Producer, and the ratio of such inventory and stores to current operations shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average operation for the years 1938, 1939 and 1940.

(h) Resale of material prohibited. Except with specific permission of the War Production Board, a Producer shall not resell any Material acquired for Repair, Maintenance or Operating Supplies (whether or not obtained pursuant to rating assigned by this Order), provided that nothing herein contained shall prohibit sale by the Producer of used Material acquired prior to the effective date of this Order.

(i) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation No. 1, the Producer and each Supplier, placing or receiving any purchase order or contract rated hereunder, shall each retain, for a period of two years, for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(j) Reports. The Producer and each Supplier, who in any month applies a preference rating assigned hereunder, shall file on forms to be prescribed hereafter such reports as may be required by the War Production Board.

(k) Communications to War Production Board. Acceptances of this Order, all reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to:

War Production Board
Washington, D. C. Ref.: P-89

(l) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(m) Revocation or amendment. This Order may be revoked or amended at any time as to the Producer or any Supplier. In the event of revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this Order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of the rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the Producer or Supplier affected by such revocation.

(n) Conservation and standarization. Every person affected by this Order shall use his best efforts to effectuate conservation of Materials by elimination, simplification or standarization of types, sizes or forms or otherwise, and shall cooperate in any program developed for such purpose by the War Production Board. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue specific directions as to conservation, elimination and standardization.

(o) Relief. If the sound or efficient working condition of a Producer is adversely affected by any provision or application of this Order or by inability to obtain Material essential for Maintenance and Repair or Operating Supplies, the Producer may apply for relief to the Director of Industry Operations. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(p) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case, the provisions of this Order shall govern.

PART 1095—COMMUNICATIONS

General Conservation Order L–50—To Limit the Use of Scarce and Critical Materials by the Wire Telephone Industry

Whereas the requirements of war have created a shortage of copper, brass, aluminum, nickel, and other materials used by persons engaged in wire telephone service; action has already been taken to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of such materials to assure deliveries for war and essential civilian requirements; the measures hereinafter set forth have been recommended by the Defense Communications Board; and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States to take such measures;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1095.1 General Conservation Order No. L–50—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order: "Telephone Company" means any individual partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, receiver, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, engaged in wire telephone service in the United States, its territories or possessions.

(b) Limitations on changes in equipment and facilities. Unless expressly authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, all Telephone Companies shall:

(1) In submitting to the War Production Board, directly or indirectly, applications for material requirements for installations of new facilities or equipment or expansion of existing facilities or equipment, limit the margins for expected growth of service requirements to a maximum of three years, but not to exceed one-half the period for which provision normally is made: Provided, however, That this requirement shall not require the limitation of the margin of growth to a period less than one year: And provided further, That conductors in cables designed or suitable for use in carrier current systems may be provided (but not equipped) in such numbers that when fully utilized by present or immediately contemplated carrier current system technique they will provide for a margin of expected growth of one-half the normal provision for such growth, even though such provision exceeds a three-year period.

(2) Discontinue the conversion of manual offices to dial offices, or the conversion of one type of manual office to another type.

(3) Discontinue the replacement of manual private branch exchanges by dial exchanges.

(4) Discontinue the replacement of existing wall and desk types of subscribers' instruments with hand sets, except in any instance where any such subscriber's instrument is beyond repair.

(5) Discontinue the installation of extension telephones in residences except when such extensions are necessary for the use of those who are charged with responsibilities for the public health, welfare or security.

(6) Employ party-line service in those instances where party-line installation will conserve scarce and critical materials.

(7) Discontinue replacements or additions to existing plant for the betterment or relocation of such plant, except to replacements essential to the maintenance or protection of service.

(8) Conserve or re-use existing telephone equipment and facilities, whenever such conservation or reuse will reduce the use of scarce and critical materials.

(c) Non-applicability to changes under construction. The terms of paragraph (b) hereof shall not apply to changes in equipment or facilities actually in the course of physical installation.

(d) Exemption of armed services. The provisions of paragraph (b), except (b) (4), above shall not apply to installations for the official use of the armed services of the United States.

(e) Appeals. Any person affected by the Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–50, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Industry Operations. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 1338—SILK AND SILK PRODUCTS

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 7—SILK WASTE

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 to establish temporarily as the maximum prices for silk waste the prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the issuance of this Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 7 is hereby issued.

§ 1338.55 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a purchase or sale of silk waste in the course of trade or business, or otherwise dealing therein, after February 28, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of two years complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale showing the date thereof, the name and the address of the buyer or seller, the price paid or received, and the quantity of each type and grade of silk waste purchased or sold.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 7 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1338.57 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 7 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1338.58 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 7, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successors or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Silk waste" means the types and grades of silk waste set forth in § 1338.60, Appendix A, hereof.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

§ 1338.59 Effective date. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 7 (§§ 1338.51 to 1338.60, inclusive) shall become effective on February 28, 1942 and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire at midnight of April 28, 1942.*

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NUMBER 6—CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, to establish temporarily as the maximum prices for canned fruits and vegetables the prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the date of issuance of this Regulation.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodities from which canned fruits and vegetables are manufactured, a price for their products equal to the highest of any of the following prices therefor determined and published by the Secretary of Agriculture: (1) 110 percentum of the parity price for such commodity, adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location, and seasonal differentials; (2) the market prices prevailing for such commodity on October 1, 1941; (3) the market prices prevailing for such commodity on December 15, 1941; or (4) the average prices for such commodity during the period July 1, 1919, to June 30, 1929.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 is hereby issued.

§ 1341.1 Maximum prices for canned fruits and vegetables. (a) From March 2, 1942 to April 30, 1942, inclusive, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, or offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to sell or deliver any canned fruits and vegetables at a price higher than the maximum price therefor. The provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of canned fruits or vegetables to a purchaser if prior to March 2, 1942 such canned fruits or vegetables have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(b) (1) The maximum price for each kind, grade, brand, and container size of the following canned fruits and vegetables shall be the highest price at which the seller sold, contracted to be sold for delivery within sixty days delivered, or transferred such kind of canned fruits and vegetables of the same grade, brand, container size, and in a similar amount to a similar purchaser in the locality of the delivery point during the period February 23, 1942 to February 27, 1942, inclusive:

Beans, Snap (green and wax)
Beets
Carrots
Corn
Peas
Pumpkin
Sauerkraut
Spinach
Sweet Potatoes
Tomatoes
Tomato Catsup
Tomato Juice

[1] 7 F.R. 971.

(b) (2) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraph (b) (1), the maximum price shall be the highest price at which the seller sold, contracted to be sold for delivery within sxty days, delivered or transferred such kind of canned fruits or vegetables during the period February 23, 1942 to February 27, 1942, inclusive, making a price adjustment for differences in grade, brand, container size, type of purchaser, and locality of delivery point, equivalent to the differences customarily charged by the seller during a period of ninety days preceding March 2, 1942.

(b) (3) If the maximum price cannot be determined under either paragraphs (b) (1) or (b) (2), the maximum price shall be the highest market price in the locality of the delivery point during the period February 23, 1942 to February 27, 1942, inclusive, for the same kind of canned fruits and vegetables of the same brand, grade, and container size sold to a similar purchaser in a similar amount and in case of differences in any of the above respects, making adjustments in accordance with the customary price differentials.*

*§§ 1341.1 to 1341.12, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1341.2 Maximum price adjustments for increased or decreased inventory replacement costs. (a) If a person has sold all of the inventory the cost of which was the basis for the selling prices that became his maximum prices under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), or (b) (3) of § 1341.1 and there remains in his inventory canned fruits and vegetables purchased at a higher net purchase cost than such inventory cost, or if he purchases canned fruits or vegetables at such higher net purchase cost, he may add to the maximum prices determined under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), or (b) (3) of § 1341.1 the difference between such net purchase cost and such inventory cost: Provided, That in all cases the quantity equivalent to the canned fruits and vegetables first purchased shall be sold first.

(b) If a person sells canned fruits and vegetables purchased at a lower net purchase cost than the cost which was the basis for the selling prices that became his maximum prices under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), or (b) (3) of § 1341.1, he shall substract from the maximum prices determined under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), or (b) (3) of § 1341.1 the difference between such lower net purchase cost and the cost which was the basis for the selling prices that became his maximum prices.*

§ 1341.3 Conditional agreements. No seller of canned fruits and vegetables shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1341.1, in the event that this temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that an exception would be in the public interest pending such consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment. Requests for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment.*

§ 1341.4 Exempt sales. The provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 shall not apply to sales at retail.*

§ 1341.5 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1341.1 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.*

§ 1341.6 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to canned fruits and vegetables, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.*

§ 1341.7 Records and reports. (a) Every person, except persons who make sales at retail, making any sale of any kind, grade, brand, and container size of canned fruits or vegetables on and after March 2, 1942, in the course of trade or business or otherwise dealing therein, shall make and preserve for a period of not less than one year a complete and accurate record of the actual inventory and purchase cost of each kind, grade, brand, and container size of canned fruits and vegetables on hand as of February 23, 1942, and for each purchase of canned fruits and vegetables subsequent to March 2, 1942, showing the inventory on hand as of the date of the receipt of such canned fruits and vegetables, the date of the purchase, the quantity purchased, and the actual price paid therefor; and every person who makes sales as aforesaid, except persons who make sales at retail, on and after March 2, 1942, shall make and preserve for a period of not less than one year a complete and accurate record of the highest price at which he sold such kind, grade, brand, and container size of canned fruits and vegetables during the period February 23, 1942, to February 27, 1942, inclusive, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and seller, the price paid or received, the kind, grade, and container size, and the quantity purchased or sold.

(b) Persons affected by paragraph (a) of this section shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1341.8 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 are subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1341.9 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any modification of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1341.10 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6, the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other Government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing;

(2) "Canned fruits and vegetables" means the fruits and vegetables processed and packed in hermetically sealed containers of metal or glass, set forth in paragraph (b) (1) of § 1341.1;

(3) "Locality of the delivery point" means all points at which the same kind, grade, brand and container size of canned fruits and vegetables were or would have been delivered in a similar amount to a similar purchaser at the same price;

(4) "Similar", when in the phrase "similar amount to a similar purchaser", shall refer to the amount of the purchase and type of purchaser with respect to which the same price applied or would have applied during the period February 23, 1942 to February 27, 1942, inclusive;

(5) "Sales at retail" means sales to the ultimate consumer: Provided, That no canner, packer, purchaser for resale, or other commercial user shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

§ 1341.11 Replacement of regulation. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 may be replaced by a permanent Maximum Price Regulation or Order issued under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

§ 1341.12 Effective period. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 6 shall become effective on March 2, 1942 and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire at 12 o'clock midnight, April 30, 1942.*

Issued this 28th day of February 1942.

PART 1359—BATTING, PADDING, WADDING, AND UPHOLSTERY FILLING

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 4—SISAL PADS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 to establish temporarily as the maximum prices for sisal pads the prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the issuance of this Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 is hereby issued:

§ 1359.51 Maximum prices for sisal pads. On and after March 4, 1942, to and including May 2, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no manufacturer shall sell or deliver any sisal pad at a price higher than the maximum price. The provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of sisal pads to a purchaser if, prior to March 4, 1942, such sisal pads had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(a) The maximum price per pound for any sisal pad shall be the net price per pound in effect on February 23, 1942 (or in case there was no net price per pound in effect on that date, the net price per pound in effect on the nearest preceding date) for an identical or substantially identical sisal pad to the same general class of purchasers.*

*§§ 1359.51 to 1359.59, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1359.52 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1359.53 Evasion. The limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with the manufacturing of sisal pads by deterioration of quality, or in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale or delivery of sisal pads alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by any other means.*

§ 1359.54 Records. Every manufacturer making sales of sisal pads on and after March 4, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the name or other designation of the sisal pads, the price per pound, and the number of pounds sold, and discounts and allowances of any nature given.*

§ 1359.55 Reports. (a) On or before March 20, 1942, every manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a report on Form 4T1 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration) showing the maximum price per pound, as determined by § 1359.51, and the specifications of each sisal pad, which he is currently offering for sale or intends to offer for sale during the period March 4–May 2, 1942, inclusive.

(b) Persons affected by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1353.56 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 will be subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 or of any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1359.57 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1359.58 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a factory, plant, or mill which manufactures sisal pads.

(3) "Net price per pound in effect" means (i) the price per pound quoted in the manufacturer's price list (or in case there is no such price list, the price per pound regularly quoted by the manufacturer in any other manner) less all discounts and allowances, or (ii) in case there is no price list or price per pound regularly quoted in any other manner, the price per pound (less all discounts and allowances) at which the particular sisal pad is sold or contracted to be sold by the manufacturer.

(4) "Sisal pad" means any pad composed in whole or in part of sisal, henequen, cantala, maguey, ixtle or other related fibers (including waste and tow) or a combination of any of these, used as a component part of mattresses, box springs, studio couches or any other upholstered article.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

§ 1359.59 Effective period of the Regulation. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 4 (§§ 1359.51 to 1359.59 inclusive) shall become effective March 4, 1942, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire May 2, 1942.*

Issued this 27th day of February 1942.

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO RATIONING ORDER NO. 2A[1]—NEW PASSENGER AUTOMOBILE RATIONING REGULATIONS

The footnote to the title—Rationing Order No. 2a—New Passenger Automobile Rational Regulations—is amended to read as follows; and a new § 1360.442 is added:

[1] These regulations apply to all new passenger automobiles and supplement Rationing Order No. 2 and Amendments No. 1 and 2 thereto. In all cases of conflict between Rationing Order No. 2 and the amendments thereto, and these regulations, these regulations shall prevail, except that Sections 1360.201–1360.203 inclusive, of Rationing Order No. 2, governing the transfer of new passenger automobiles by persons serving with the armed forces; persons receiving an order for induction into, or called for active duty with, the armed forces; or persons who have volunteered for, and have taken oaths of service for, the armed forces of the United States; are in full force and effect until March 9, 1942. "Pool cars" as designed in these regulations are not within the scope of these regulations except where specifically mentioned.

§ 1360.442 Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (footnote 1 to the title and § 1360.442) to Rationing Order No. 2a shall become effective March 2, 1942. (Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess., W.P.B. Directive No. 1, Supp. Dir. No. 1A, 7 F.R. 562, 698)

PART 1365—HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 5—MATTRESSES, SPRINGS, STUDIO COUCHES AND METAL BEDS AND COTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 to establish temporarily as the maximum prices for mattresses, springs, studio couches and metal beds and cots the prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the issuance of this Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 is hereby issued:

§ 1365.1 Maximum prices for bedding. On and after March 4, 1942, to and including May 2, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no manufacturer shall sell or deliver any article of bedding at a price higher than the maximum price. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of articles of bedding to a purchaser if, prior to March 4, 1942, such articles have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(a) The maximum price for any article of bedding shall be the net price in effect for such article on February 23, 1942 (or in case there was no net price in effect on that date, the net price in effect on the nearest preceding date) to the same general class of purchasers.

(b) If the article of bedding is offered for sale by the manufacturer for the first time on or after March 4, 1942, the maximum price shall be a price in line with the maximum price, as determined by paragraph (a) of this section, of the most comparable article (upon the basis of price, type, quality and other relevant factors) which was offered for sale by him prior to March 4, 1942; and within five days after he first offers such article for sale, he shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a report on Form 5T1, copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration. If the Office of Price Administration should determine that such maximum price was not arrived at in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price shall be such price as it approves in writing; and no sale, offer to sell, delivery or transfer of such article shall be made thereafter by him at a higher price than that so approved.

(c) The maximum price for any article of bedding in which an alternate material is substituted for sisal, subsequent to February 12, 1942, may be adjusted by adding to such maximum price an amount equal to the actual increase in cost, if any, of such alternate material, but not to exceed $1.30: Provided, That within five days after first offering such article of bedding for sale, the manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a report on Form 5T2 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration) showing the alternate material used, the actual increase in cost, the method used in computing such increase, and the maximum price as adjusted.*

§ 1365.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1365.3 Evasion. The limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with the manufacturing of articles of bedding by deterioration of quality, or in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale or delivery of articles of bedding alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by any other means.*

§ 1365.4 Records. Every manufacturer making sales of articles of bedding on and after March 4, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the name, number or other designation and the price received for each article of bedding, the quantity sold, and discounts and allowances of any nature given.*

§ 1365.5 Reports. (a) On or before March 20, 1942, every manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration the maximum price and general sales specifications of every article of bedding whose maximum price is determined by § 1365.1 (a), and which he is currently offering for sale or intends to offer for sale during the period March 4–May 2, 1942, inclusive.

(b) Persons affected by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1365.6 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 will be subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 or of any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1365.7 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1365.8 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a factory, plant, or mill which manufactures articles of bedding.

(3) "Net price in effect" means (i) the price quoted in the manufacturer's price list (or in case there is no such price list, the price regularly quoted by the manufacturer in any other manner) less all discounts and allowances, or (ii) in case there is no price list or price regularly quoted in any other manner, the price (less all discounts and allowances) at which the particular article of bedding is sold or contracted to be sold by the manufacturer.

(4) "Bedding" means (i) mattresses of all types, including innerspring mattresses but excluding latex mattresses, (ii) bed springs of all types including upholstered box springs (with or without legs), metal coil springs (with or without legs) and metal flat springs (with or without legs), (iii) studio couches, (iv) metal beds and (v) metal cots of all types including folding end cots, sandwich folding cots, roll-a-way cots and sliding couches.

(5) "Article" means any unit of bedding offered for sale as a distinct item.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

§ 1365.9 Effective period of the Regulation. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 5 shall become effective March 4, 1942, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire May 2, 1942.*

Issued this 27th day of February 1942.

PART 1410—WOOL

MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 106—DOMESTIC SHORN WOOL

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of domestic shorn wool have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of domestic shorn wool prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability, and has established prices which are not below the highest of any of the following prices for domestic shorn wool, as determined and published by the Secretary of Agriculture: (1) 110 per centum of the parity price adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location, seasonal differentials; (2) the market price prevailing on October 1, 1941; (3) the market price prevailing on December 15, 1941; or (4) the average price during the period July 1, 1919 to June 30, 1929. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. The issuance of this Regulation has been heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.[1]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 is hereby issued.

§ 1410.1 Maximum prices for domestic shorn wool. On and after February 28, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver domestic shorn wool, and no person shall buy or receive domestic shorn wool in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1410.10; and no person shall agree, whether on condition that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 is thereafter amended or is thereafter determined by any court to be invalid or on any other condition or otherwise to do any of the foregoing; and no person shall offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of domestic shorn wool to a purchaser if prior to February 28, 1942 such wool has been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.*

* §§ 1410.1 to 1410.10, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1410.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A (§ 1410.10) may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1410.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of domestic shorn wool, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by upgrading or by any collusive, reckless or deliberate false estimate of shrinkage, or otherwise.*

§ 1410.4 Records and reports. Every person making purchases or sales of domestic shorn wool on a clean basis after February 28, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than two years, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and seller, the price contracted for or received, and the quantity of each kind, condition and grade of domestic shorn wool so purchased or sold.

Persons affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1410.5 Enforcement. (a) Any person who willfully violates any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106, and any person who makes any statement or entry false in any material respect in any document or report required to be kept or filed pursuant to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 or any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration under Section 2 or Section 202 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, shall be subject to all civil and criminal penalties provided for by said Act and the United States Criminal Code.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 or any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1410.6 Petitions for amendment, adjustment or exception. Petitions for amendment of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 or for adjustment or exception may be filed in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1410.7 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 106:

(1) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) The term "domestic shorn wool" means wool shorn from sheep or lambs in the continental United States.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in Section 202 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.*

§ 1410.8 Amendment of Price Schedule No. 58—Wool and wool tops and yarns.[1] This Maximum Price Regulation No. 106 amends paragraph (b) (1) of § 1354.1 of Revised Price Schedule No. 58—Wool and Wool Tops and Yarns, by inserting the word "scoured" before the words "domestic shorn wool" wherever these words appear in said paragraph so that paragraph (b) (1) of § 1354.1 shall read as follows:

(b) (1) The maximum price for scoured domestic shorn wool shall be the market price prevailing on October 1, 1941, or on December 15, 1941, for the same class, kind, type, condition and grade of scoured domestic shorn wool: Provided, That, if there were no such market price, the maximum price shall be the highest price contracted for or received by the seller for the sale or delivery during the period between October 1, 1941 and December 15, 1941, inclusive of scoured domestic shorn wool of the same class, kind, type, condition and grade, to a purchaser of the same general class. If during said period no such sale or delivery were made, the maximum price shall be a price in line with the maximum prices for related kinds, types, conditions and grades, determined in accordance with this subparagraph (b) (1), to a purchaser of the same general class.

Provided, That contracts entered into prior to February 28, 1942 for the sale of domestic shorn wool at prices in compliance with Revised Price Schedule No. 58 may be completed at contract prices.*

§ 1410.10 Appendix A: Maximum prices for domestic shorn wool. The prices set forth below are maximum prices for domestic shorn wools of average to good character. The maximum prices for wools of choice character, for inferior wools and for wools sold in lots containing mixed grades or lengths shall be determined in accordance with paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this section.

All maximum prices are prices per pound clean basis and shall include all commissions and other charges except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

The maximum price on any sale of domestic shorn wool shall be the applicable price set forth above; where wool is shipped, such maximum price must be computed in accordance with subparagraphs (1), (2) or (3) below. Where such maximum is a shipping point price, the total delivered price may not exceed the shipping point price plus actual cost of transportation from shipping point to destination. Where such maximum is a delivered price, the shipping point price may not exceed such delivered price less actual cost of transportation from shipping point to destination.

Whenever delivery is made in the seller's conveyance, the transportation charge shall not exceed the charge which would be applicable on an identical shipment from the same shipping point to the same destination at the lowest available commercial rate. In such cases, the transportation charge must be separately shown in the invoice or similar document delivered to the purchaser.

(1) Shipments from Boston to other points. On shipments from Boston to other points, the maximum price shall be a shipping point price no higher than the applicable price set forth above ex warehouse at Boston.

(2) Shipments to Boston from other points. On shipments to Boston from other points, the maximum price shall be a delivered price no higher than the applicable price set forth above f. o. b. at destination in Boston.

(3) Other shipments. On other shipments, the maximum price shall be a delivered price no higher than the applicable price: Provided, That (i) if the transportation charge per pound from shipping point to the railroad siding nearest the point of destination at the lowest railroad carload rate applicable to shipments of greasy wool is more than such charge from shipping point to Boston, then the amount of such excess may be added; and (ii) on resales of wool where the point of shipment is in the same locality as the point of destination, the cost of local cartage and loading may be added.

(b) Wools of choice character. The maximum prices for wools of choice character shall be the maximum prices set forth above plus the following amounts:

	Cents per pound
(1) Grades 70s to 58s, inclusive	3
(2) Grades 56s to 48s, inclusive	5
(3) Grades 46s and coarser	8

(c) Inferior wools. The maximum prices for inferior wools shall be determined by deducting from the applicable maximum price for wools of average to good character, set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the following amounts:

(1) Slightly stained wools, 2¢ per lb.

(2) Yellow or heavily stained wools, 5¢ per lb.

(3) Seedy or burry wools not requiring carbonizing,[1] and cotts, 3¢ per lb., after adjustment has been made for color in accordance with (1) or (2) above.

(4) Seedy or burry wools requiring carbonizing,[1] 10¢ per lb. after adjustment has been made in accordance with (1) or (2) above: Provided, That where such wools are sold in a caronized state the actual carbonizing charges plus an allowance for actual shrinkage may be added to the maximum price so long as such charges and shrinkage allowance are set forth in the invoice or similar document delivered to the purchaser.

(5) Black or grey wools, 20¢ per lb.

(6) Dead wools, 25¢ per lb.

(7) Karrakul wools, 35¢ per lb.

(8) Wools tied with sisal or loom-spun jute twine, 10¢ per lb.

(9) Improved navajo wools, 5¢ per lb.

(10) Unimproved navajo wools, 10¢ per lb.

(d) Wools sold in lots containing mixed grades or lengths. When wools are sold in original bags or in lots containing different grades or lengths, the amounts of each grade and length included shall be determined by grading a sample portion of the lot or by an estimate made in accordance with established trade practices, and the maximum price for the quantity sold shall be based upon the applicable maximum price for each grade or length included.

(e) Brokers' commissions. In cases where a purchaser or a seller of domestic shorn wool employs a broker or other agent to make a purchase or sale on his behalf, a commission of not to exceed 1% of the applicable maximum price may be charged for such services and added to the applicable maximum price. A commission may not be charged to both buyer and seller on the same lot of wool. Such commission shall be payable only if (1) the wool is purchased at a price not exceeding the maximum price established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 106, (2) it is shown as a separate charge on the invoice or similar document delivered to the purchaser and (3) the commission is not split or divided with the seller or with an agent or an employee of the seller.*

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

CHAPTER I—FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

PART 1—REGULATIONS AND ORDERS RELATING TO MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

KILLING CERTAIN INJURIOUS MIGRATORY BIRDS

Under authority and direction of section 3 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), as amended by the act of June 20, 1936 (49 Stat. 1555), the administration of which act was transferred to the Secretary of the Interior on July 1, 1939, by Reorganization Plan No. II (53 Stat. 1431), and in accordance with regulation 10 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act Regulations approved by Proclamation No. 2345[1] of August 11, 1939, as amended by Proclamation No. 2367[2] of September 28, 1939, and Proclamation No. 2420[3] of August 9, 1940, I, Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, having determined that serious injury is being done to agriculture and other interests by certain migratory birds, and having determined that the most practical means of safeguarding against such injury is to reduce the numbers of said birds, it is ordered as follows:

§ 1.41 Order permitting the killing of certain depredating migratory birds. The Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, United States Department of the Interior, or, when authorized by said Director, the regional directors of said Service, in their respective regions, upon ascertainment of any serious injury in any particular community may issue permits to kill loons, grebes, herons, bitterns, waterfowl, sandhill cranes, coots, gulls, terns, pigeons, doves, martins, woodpeckers, larks, mockingbirds, catbirds, waxwings, shrikes, meadowlarks, orioles, blackbirds, grackles, bobolinks, robins, and sparrows, which may be found, under extraordinary conditions, to be committing or about to commit injury to agricultural crops or other interests in any community, such permits to be effective during the period therein specified and subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements, and such others as the issuing officer may deem necessary to include in the permit to guard against abuses thereof:

(a) No permit authorizing the killing of any species of birds shall be effective unless such permit is countersigned by the chief game official, or by his authorized representative, of the State in which the permit is operative, or unless the applicant is in possession of a permit from such chief game official, or his authorized representative, permitting such killing.

(b) The permission conferred by any permit is nontransferable and may be exercised solely by those named in the permit and on the premises specified.

(c) Birds authorized to be killed under any permit shall not be shot at or killed by shooting (1) from any blind, sink, pit, or any other device or means of concealment, whether natural or artificial, movable or stationary, or on laid or water; (2) by means of any gun larger than No. 10 gage, or of any gun to which a silencer has been attached or otherwise affixed; or, (3) by the use of decoys of any description or of traps or nests of any kind.

(d) Every bird killed pursuant to a permit, and every part thereof, shall be totally destroyed as promptly as possible and shall not be sold or offered for sale or be shipped, transported, or carried in any manner except for the purpose of destruction in the immediate vicinity where killed, but such birds or parts thereof may be shipped or transported as a gift, but not for sale, to public, scientific, or educational institutions for scientific purposes; the birds may be requisitioned for scientific purposes by the officer issuing the permit; and, when specifically authorized by the permit, game birds so killed may be donated to charitable institutions for food. All packages containing such birds or parts thereof when shipped or transported as authorized by the permit shall be plainly and clearly marked to show the names and addresses of the shipper and consignee, the number of the permit, and the species and number of each species contained therein.

(e) The permittee shall keep a record of the species and number of birds of each species killed by him, and whenever requested by the Director of the Service or by the regional director, shall submit promptly a report thereof, and in any event shall submit such report to the regional director on or before January 10 of each year.

(f) The permittee shall at all reasonable times, and particularly during any operations authorized by the permit, allow any Federal or State game or deputy game agent, warden, protector, or other game-law enforcement officer free and unrestricted access to the premises on which such operations have been or are being conducted and shall promptly furnish such officer all information regarding his operations as such officer shall require.

(g) A permit is revocable at any time in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior or the officer who issued it and when revoked shall be surrendered by the permittee promptly upon demand of said Secretary or of such officer or his authorized representative.

It is further ordered that this section shall in no way affect or supersede the order of the Secretary of the Interior dated February 13, 1942, authorizing the killing of red-winged, yellow-headed, and Brewer's blackbirds; meadowlarks; horned larks; Gambel's Nuttall's, golden-crowned, white-crowned, and other crowned sparrows; goldfinches; and juncos in California when necessary to protect crops from their depradations, and the order of February 13, 1942, authorizing the killing of yellow-headed, red-winged, bicolored red-winged, tricolored red-winged, and Brewer's blackbirds and boat-tailed grackles by the owner or custodian of any agricultural crop or of ornamental or shade trees.

PART 1—REGULATIONS AND ORDERS RELATING TO MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

KILLING OF CERTAIN INJURIOUS MIGRATORY BIRDS

Under authority and direction of section 3 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), as amended by the act of June 20, 1936 (49 Stat. 1555), the administration of which act was transferred to the Secretary of the Interior on July 1, 1939, by Reorganization Plan No. II (53 Stat. 1431), and in accordance with regulation 10 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act Regulations approved by Proclamation No. 2345[1] of August 11, 1939, as amended by Proclamation No. 2367[2] of September 28, 1939, and Proclamation No. 2420[3] of August 9, 1940, I, Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, having determined that serious injury is being done to agriculture and other interests by certain migratory birds, and having determined that the most practical means of safeguarding against such injury is to reduce the numbers of said birds, it is ordered as follows:

§ 1.51 Order permitting and governing the shooting of certain blackbirds and boat-tailed grackles when found seriously injurious to agricultural crops or other interests. The owner or custodian of any agricultural crop or of ornamental or shade trees is hereby authorized to shoot yellow-headed, red-winger, bronze-colored, red-winged, tri-colored red-winged, and Brewer's blackbirds and boat-tailed grackles, under the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements, when found committing or about to commit serious depredations upon such crop or trees owned by him or in his custody:

(a) No birds killed pursuant to this section shall be shipped or transported or sold or offered for sale except that they may be transported to such place within the vicinity as may be necessary to bury or otherwise destroy their carcasses, but the State agricultural departments, colleges, or other public institutions and the United States Department of the Interior may requisition such number of birds so killed as they may need for scientific purposes.

(b) Every person availing himself of the privileges of this section shall permit at all reasonable times, and particularly during any operations thereunder, any Federal or State game or deputy game agent, warden, protector, or other game-law enforcement officer free and unrestricted access to the premises on which such operations have been or are being conducted and shall furnish promptly such officer all such information touching his operations as such officer may require.

(c) This section does not permit the killing of any of the aforesaid birds in violation of any State law or regulation, and if a State permit to kill the birds is required, such permit must be procured before exercising the privileges conferred by this section.

(d) On or before January 1 of each year during the continuance of this order every person who kills any of the aforesaid birds under the authority hereby conferred shall submit to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, United States Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., a report of his operations.

(e) This section is not effective in California, provision having been otherwise made for the abatement of depredations by the county agricultural commissioners.

The order of the Acting Secretary of Agriculture of November 17, 1937, is hereby revoked. (Sec. 3, 40 Stat. 755; 49 Stat. 755; 49 Stat. 1555; 16 U.S.C. 704)

PART 1—REGULATIONS AND ORDERS RELATING TO MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

KILLING CERTAIN INJURIOUS MIGRATORY BIRDS

Under authority and direction of section 3 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), as amended by the act of June 20, 1936 (49 Stat. 1555), the administration of which act was transferred to the Secretary of the Interior on July 1, 1939, by Reorganization Plan No. II (53 Stat. 1431), and in accordance with regulation 10 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act Regulations approved by Proclamation No. 2345[1] of August 11, 1939, as amended by Proclamation No. 2367[2] of September 28, 1939, and Proclamation No. 2420[3] of August 9, 1940, I, Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, having determined that serious injury is being done to agriculture and other interests by certain migratory birds, and having determined that the most practical means of safeguarding against such injury is to reduce the numbers of said birds, it is ordered as follows:

§ 1.53 Order permitting and governing the killing of certain blackbirds, sparrows, and other birds in California when found to be economically injurious. In any county in California in which red-winged, yellow-headed, and Brewer's blackbirds; meadowlarks; horned larks; Gambel's Nuttall's, golden-crowned, white-crowned, and other crowned sparrows; goldfinches; and California woodpeckers, Lewis woodpeckers, and flickers are, under extraordinary conditions, seriously injurious to agricultural or other interests, the agricultural commissioner is hereby authorized to kill, or to have killed under his general supervision and direction, such of the aforesaid migratory birds as may be necessary to safeguard from their depredations any agricultural or horticultural crop in such county, subject to the following conditions, restrictions and requirements:

(a) Any commissioner exercising the privileges conferred by this order shall keep a record of the persons authorized by him to kill such birds and of the number of birds killed by each person so authorized, as well as by himself, and shall make a report thereof to the Secretary of the Interior when requested so to do and in any event on or before January 1 of each year during the continuance of this section.

(b) No birds shall be killed except when necessary to protect crops from their depredations, and no birds killed pursuant to this section, or the plumage or any other part thereof, shall be sold or removed from the area upon which they may have been killed, but such birds shall be totally destroyed on said area, except that such specimens as may be needed for scientific purposes may be salvaged by the agricultural commissioner or on the order of the State Department of Agriculture or the United States Department of the Interior.

(c) No gun or other implement employed in killing the birds shall be equipped with any silencer or other device to minimize the report of such gun or implement.

The order of the Secretary of Agriculture of June 5, 1937, is hereby revoked. (Sec. 3, 40 Stat. 755; 49 Stat. 1555; 16 U.S.C. 704)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. A-1277]

PETITION OF H. S. SCRANTON, ET AL., CODE MEMBERS, FOR REVISION OF THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS IN SIZE GROUP 15 PRODUCED IN SUBDIVISIONS 2 AND 3 IN DISTRICT NO. 17, PURSUANT TO SECTION 4 II (d) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

ORDER POSTPONING AND CHANGING PLACE OF HEARING

A hearing upon the petition of H. S. Scranton, et al, filed with this Division in the above-entitled matter, having been scheduled to be held at Washington, D. C., on March 4, 1942, pursuant to a Notice of and Order for Hearing issued January 30, 1942; and

The petitioners having requested that said hearing be postponed and that the place thereof be changed from Washington, D. C. to some place within the vicinity of Florence, Colorado; and

No oppostion to such request having been interposed, and good cause for the granting thereof having been shown;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in this matter be postponed from March 4, 1942 until 10 o'clock in the forenoon of April 1, 1942 and that the place of hearing be changed from Washington, D. C. to a hearing room of the Division at Room 244, Pueblo County Court Room, in Pueblo, Colorado.

It is further ordered, That the time within which petitions of intervention may be filed in this matter be, and it hereby is, extended from February 27, 1942 to March 27, 1942.

In all other respects, the Notice of and Order for Hearing issued in this matter on January 30, 1942, shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: February 28, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1294]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 23 FOR PERMISSION TO CODE MEMBERS TO GRANT MOISTURE ALLOWANCES FROM THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN WASHED OR WET SCREENED COALS, FOR SHIPMENT BY TRUCK, PRODUCED IN DISTRICT NO. 23, PURSUANT TO SECTION 4 II (d) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

ORDER POSTPONING AND CHANGING PLACE OF HEARING

A Notice of and Order for Hearing, issued in the above matter on February 10, 1942, schedules such hearing at Washington, D. C., on March 6, 1942.

It appearing, however, that the best interests of the persons concerned in the matter will be served by postponing such hearing and changing the place thereof to the time and place hereinafter designated.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be postponed from March 6, 1942 until 10 o'clock in the forenoon of April 7, 1942 and the place of such hearing be changed from Washington, D. C. to a hearing room of the Division at Room 220, United States Post Office Building, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

It is further ordered, That the time for filing of petitions of intervention in this matter be, and it hereby is, extended from February 28, 1942 to April 1, 1942.

In all other respects the Notice of and Order for Hearing entered in this matter on February 10, 1942 shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: February 28, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF THE ASSOCIATED PRODUCERS COAL COMPANY FOR PERMISSION TO RECEIVE SALES AGENTS' COMMISSIONS AND DISTRIBUTORS' DISCOUNTS ON COAL SOLD TO ASSOCIATED SALES COMPANY.

ORDER CHANGING PLACE OF HEARING

The above entitled matter having been set for hearing in Washington, D. C., at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of March 24, 1942, pursuant to a Notice of and Order for Hearing entered therein on January 19, 1942; and

The applicant, Associated Producers Coal Company, having requested that such hearing be held within the confines of District No. 15; and

Good cause having been shown for the granting of such request and no opposition thereto having been interposed; and

It now appearing to be administratively convenient to hold such hearing at Kansas City, Missouri, in compliance with the request of the applicant;

It is ordered, That the place of the hearing in the above entitled matter be, and it hereby is, changed from Washington, D. C. to a hearing room of the Division at Room 536, Dwight Building, in Kansas City, Missouri.

In all other respects the Notice of and Order for Hearing entered in this matter on January 19, 1942 shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: February 28, 1942.

[Docket No. A-1272]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 6 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF RIVERCOAL MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 29, OF RIVERCOAL, INC., IN DISTRICT NO. 6

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on April 21, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before April 16, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Rivercoal Mine, Mine Index No. 29, of Rivercoal, Inc., for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments.

For the coals of the Rivercoal Mine, petitioner requested the establishment of temporary minimum prices for rail shipments which are lower than those heretofore permanently established for other coals in District No. 6 for such shipments. As the freight rates applicable to rail shipments from this mine to certain destinations are lower than those applicable to such shipments from other District No. 6 mines, it appears that the proposed minimum prices would give the Rivercoal Mine a competitive advantage over other mines in District No. 6 for such shipments. The petition does not allege any facts in support of such a differential. Accordingly, it appears that temporary price classifications and minimum prices should be established to permit all such coals to compete on an equal basis.

It is, therefore, ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 6, For All Shipments Except Truck, and For Truck Shipments are supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the Schedules marked "Supplement R" and "Supplement T," annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that application to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated February 28, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF B. A. HOWARD (DEER CREEK COAL COMPANY), DEFENDANT

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

A complaint having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 16, 1941, by District Board 20, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, alleging wilful violation by B. A. Howard (Deer Creek Coal Company), a code member in District 20, of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder, as follows:

That the defendant, B. A. Howard, with full knowledge of the requirements contained in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 20 For Truck Shipments and in violation thereof, after October 1, 1940, gave to Neil Howard a large quantity of 1" x 0 slack, produced by the defendant at his mine (Mine Index No. 131) located in Emery County, Utah, at the price of $1.05 below the effective minimum price for such coal;

The defendant having filed an answer denying material allegations of the complaint;

Pursuant to an order of the Acting Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held on September 2, 1941, before D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof in Price, Utah, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard, and at which appearances were entered for the complainant and the defendant.

The matter having thereupon been submitted to the undersigned, and the undersigned having made Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and rendered an opinion, which are filed herewith;[1]

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the complaint herein against the defendant, B. A. Howard (Deer Creek Coal Company) be, and it hereby is, dismissed, without prejudice however to the taking of appropriate disciplinary action in any other proceeding which may be now pending or which may hereafter be instituted against this defendant.

Dated: February 28, 1942.

[Docket No. 1813-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF ALSTON COAL COMPANY, DEFENDANT

ORDER APPROVING AND ADOPTING THE PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT, PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE EXAMINER, AND CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

A complaint, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on July 21, 1941, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 15, alleging that Alston Coal Company, a code member in District No. 15, has violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder, and praying that the Division either cancel and revoke the defendant's code membership or, in its discretion, direct the defendant to cease and desist from violations of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder;

A hearing having been held before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Kansas City, Missouri, on October 20, 1941;

The Examiner having made and entered his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation in this matter, dated January 20, 1942, in which it was recommended that an order be entered directing the defendant to cease and desist from violating the Act, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck, the Code and rules and regulations thereunder;

An opportunity having been afforded to all parties to file exceptions thereto and supporting briefs, and no such exceptons or supporting briefs having been filed;

The undersigned having determined after consideration of the record that the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be and the same are hereby approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That the defendant, Alston Coal Company, its representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and successors or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act in its behalf or interest, cease and desist, and they are hereby permanently enjoined and restrained from selling or offering to sell coal below the prescribed minimum price therefor and from violating the Bituminous Coal Act, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck, the Bituminous Coal Code, and rules and regulations thereunder;

It is further ordered, That the Division may, upon failure of the defendant herein to comply with this order, forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States within any circuit where the defendant carries on business, for the enforcement thereof or take any other appropriate action.

Dated: February 27, 1942.

[Docket No. 1852-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF ROBERT L. SCOTT, TRADING AS ROBERT L. SCOTT COAL COMPANY, DEFENDANT

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

A complaint having been filed on August 9, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 15, complainant, alleging that Robert L. Scott, trading as Robert L. Scott Coal Company, a code member in District 15, has wilfully violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code and the Effective Minimum Prices for District 15 for Truck Shipments as follows:

That on various occasions between September 30, 1940 and April 7, 1941, inclusive, the defendant sold and delivered various amounts of lump coal produced at the defendant's mine (Mine Index No. 946) to the Board of Education at Vinita, Oklahoma, at prices below the effective minimum price established for such coal;

Pursuant to orders of the Director and after due notice to interested persons, the hearing in this matter having been held before Scott A. Dahlquist, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, at Vinita, Oklahoma, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard;

The complainant and the defendant having appeared at the hearing, the preparation of a report by the Examiner having been waived, and the record in the proceedings having thereupon been submitted to the undersigned;

The undersigned having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and having rendered an Opinion in this matter which are filed herewith;[1]

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the defendant, his officers, representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and successors or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act in his behalf or interest, cease and desist, and they hereby are permanently enjoined and restrained from selling or offering to sell coal produced by the defendant at less than the applicable effective minimum prices established therefor, contrary to the Bituminous Coal Act or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder; the Bituminous Coal Code; the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 15 for Truck Shipments; and the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

It is further ordered, That if the defendant fails or neglects to obey this order the Division may in its discretion forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States within any Circuit where such defendant carries on business for the enforcement hereof or take any other appropriate action.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Division of Public Contracts.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES FOR THE BOLT, NUT, AND RIVET MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF HEARING

All interested parties are hereby notified that a hearing will be held before the Public Contracts Board in Room 3229, Department of Labor Building, Washington, D. C., commencing at 10 a. m. on Tuesday, March 10, 1942, to take testimony and receive evidence upon what findings of fact and recommendations shall be made by the Board to assist the Secretary of Labor in determining the prevailing minimum wages in the Bolt, Nut, and Rivet Manufacturing Industry pursuant to the provisions of section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35), otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act.

The Bolt, Nut, and Rivet Manufacturing Industry, for the purpose of this notice, is that industry which manufactures bolts (including, among other types of bolts, toggle and eye bolts), nuts, rivets, studs, clevis pins, quilting pins, silo rods, and turnbuckles. Specifically excluded are: stove bolts; connecting rod bolts; stripper bolts; machine screw nuts; and tabular, split, and outside pronged rivets.

A tabulation of wage schedules voluntarily submitted by members of the industry through the American Institute of Bolt, Nut, and Rivet Manufacturers and collated by the Research Section of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor will be submitted in evidence at the hearing. Copies of this wage tabulation may be had on application to the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts, Washington, D. C.

Evidence will also be received for the purpose of determining (1) what, if any, provision should be made in the prevailing minimum wage determination for the employment of apprentices and learners, and (2) whether the Screw Manufacturing Industry and the Bolt, Nut, and Rivet Manufacturing Industry should be considered as one industry for the purposes of determining the prevailing minimum wages under the Public Contracts Act or whether a separate wage determination should be issued for each industry.

At the hearing an opportunity to be heard, either in person or by duly appointed representatives, will be given to persons engaged in the above named industries, either as employers or as employees, to groups of such persons, and to others within the discretion of the Board. Briefs or telegraphic communications may be filed with the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, and they should be received on or before the hearing date. No form for the brief is prescribed, but an original and four copies must be submitted.

The entire record will be considered by the Secretary of Labor before the wage determination is made.

Dated: February 27, 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE SCREW MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF HEARING

All interested parties are hereby notified that a hearing will be held before the Public Contracts Board in Room 3229, Department of Labor Building, Washington, D. C., commencing at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, March 11, 1942, to take testimony and receive evidence upon what findings of fact and recommendations shall be made by the Board to assist the Secretary of Labor in determining the prevailing minimum wages in the Screw Manufacturing Industry pursuant to the provisions of section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U. S. C. Sup. III 35), otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act.

The Screw Manufacturing Industry, for the purpose of this notice, is that industry which manufactures screws, machine screw nuts, stove bolts, connecting rod bolts, stripper bolts, and socket screw wrenches.

A tabulation of wage schedule voluntarily submitted by members of the industry, at the request of the Industry Service Bureaus, and collected by the Research Section of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor will be submitted in evidence at the hearing. Copies of this wage tabulation may be had on application to the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts, Washington, D. C. Evidence will also be received for the purpose of determining (1) what, if any, provision should be made in the prevailing minimum wage determination for the employment of apprentices and learners, and (2) whether the Screw Manufacturing Industry and the Bolt, Nut, and Rivet Manufacturing Industry should be considered as one industry for the purposes of determining the prevailing minimum wages under the Public Contracts Act or whether a separate wage determination should be issued for each industry.

At the hearing an opportunity to be heard, either in person or by duly appointed representatives, will be given to persons engaged in the above named industries, either as employers or as employees, to groups of such persons, and to others within the discretion of the Board. Briefs or telegraphic communications may be filed with the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, and they should be received on or before the hearing date. No form for the brief is prescribed, but an original and four copies must be submitted.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

INFORMATION TO BE FILED BY COMPANIES OPERATING CABLES

[Order No. 92]

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held in its office in Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of February, 1942.

Pursuant to section 218 of the Communications Act, as amended, for the purpose of obtaining information necessary to enable the Commission to perform its duties and carry out the objects for which it was created.

It is ordered, That each common carrier operating international submarine cable telegraph circuits and land line telegraph circuits forming part of respondent's cable system shall file with the Commission on or before April 20, 1942, in triplicate, under oath, the following information:

1. A list of all respondent's cables showing the percentage of original cable in circuit and the average age of each cable as of December 31, 1941.

2. A list of all interruptions to the above cables during the year 1941 showing the date of interruption, the location of the interruption, the cause of the interruption, and the date of restoration of service. In the event that the interruption required the rerouting of respondent's traffic show the rerouting during such periods.

3. A list of all cable circuit channels available for operation by the respondent in each direction on March 25, 1942, giving the following information for each channel in accordance with Form 1, attached hereto:

(a) The channel designator.

(b) The land line or cable sections used to establish each through circuit.

(c) The sending and receiving terminals.

(d) The actual times (Local Standard Time) at which each channel was opened and closed for traffic and the total time in minutes during which the circuit was open.

(e) The capacity in words per minute at which the channel was operated (6 characters—5 characters and a space—per word).

(f) Method of operation of the channel (i. e. Morse, Recorder Code, 5 Unit Printer, Cable Code Printer, etc.).

(g) The number of paid messages and paid words handled on each channel with each terminal and the estimated ratio of total words transmitted to paid words.

(h) A statement under "Remarks" of any differences between the operation of each channel on March 25, 1942 and its normal present day operation.

It is further ordered, That each common carrier operating international and/or domestic radiotelegraph circuits shall file with the Commission, at the same time and in the same manner, the following information:

1. A list of radiotelegraph circuits operated by respondent between the Continental United States and foreign countries and territories and possessions of the United States with which direct radiotelegraph circuits are established and between points within the United States, in each direction, on March 25, 1942, giving the following information for each circuit in accordance with Form 2 attached hereto:

(a) The transmitting and receiving control terminals.

(b) The transmitting and receiving radiotelegraph stations in the United States.

(c) A list of frequencies used for establishing each circuit to and from each terminal.

(d) The actual times (Local Standard Time) each frequency was used (start and end) to establish each radio circuit and the total minutes each frequency was so used. In the event a circuit is operated on a "Schedule" basis, give the schedule and the total minutes of actual operation on each frequency.

(e) The actual capacity in words per minute at which the circuit was operated (6 characters—5 characters and a space—per word).

(f) Method of operation at each terminal (automatic transmitting heads, hand signalling keys, multiplex, tape recorder reception, ear phones, printer reception, etc.).

(g) Number of paid messages and paid words handled on each circuit with each terminal and the estimated ratio of total words transmitted to paid words.

(h) A statement under "Remarks" of any differences between the operation of each circuit on March 25, 1942, and its normal present day operation.

2. Information similar to that specified in 1 above with respect to radiotelegraph facilities operated by respondent between each territory and possession of the United States and each foreign country and other territory and possession of the United States with which direct radiotelegraph circuits are established.

It is further ordered, That each common carrier engaged in international telegraph communication shall file with the Commission, at the same time and in the same manner, the number of messages transferred during the year 1941 to other American carriers operating international telegraph circuits, because of service interruptions to respondent's circuits, giving the date and point of transfer, the carriers to which the messages were transferred and the reasons therefor. Messages transferred to other carriers because of changes in normal routing caused by lasting interruptions of former normal routing due to the war, shall not be reported.

It is further ordered, That each common carrier operating international radiotelephone circuits shall file with the Commission, at the same time and in the same manner, the following information:

1. A list of radiotelephone circuits operated by the respondent between the United States and foreign countries and territories and possessions of the United States with which direct radiotelephone circuits are established on March 25, 1942 giving the following information for each circuit in accordance with Form 3, attached hereto:

(a) The transmitting and receiving control terminals.

(b) The transmitting and receiving radiotelephone stations in the United States.

(c) A list of frequencies used for establishing each circuit to and from each terminal.

(d) The actual times (Local Standard Time) each frequency was used (start and end) to establish each radio circuit and the total minutes each frequency was so used. In the event a circuit is operated on a "Schedule" basis, give the schedule and the total minutes of actual operation on each frequency.

(e) The number of messages handled on each circuit with each terminal, the total holding time and the total "charged" time.

(f) A statement under "Remarks" of any difference between the operation of each circuit on March 25, 1942, and its normal present day operation.

2. Information similar to that specified in 1 above with respect to radiotelephone facilities operated by respondent between each territory and possession of the United States and each foreign country and other territory and possession of the United States with which direct radiotelephone circuits are established.

It is further ordered, That each common carrier operating land-line telegraph circuits between the United States and Canada and Mexico (not reported in response to this Order under ocean cable facilities) shall file with the Commission at the same time and in the same manner:

1. The following information for each circuit in each direction operated on March 25, 1942, in accordance with Form 4 attached hereto:

(a) The transmitting and receiving terminals.

(b) The point at which each circuit crosses the border of the United States.

(c) The name of the agency operating the foreign terminals.

(d) The actual capacity in words per minute at which each circuit was operated (6 characters—5 characters and a space—per word).

(e) Method of operation at each terminal (Morse, printer, ------ channel multiplex, etc.).

(f) If any of the above facilities are leased for private use, give the names and addresses of the customers in the United States and in foreign countries.

2. The total number of paid messages and paid words of international telegraph classifications handled in each direction between the United States and:

(a) Europe, Africa and the Near East.

(b) The West Indies, Central and South America.

(c) Asia and Oceania.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 70-262, 59-11, 59-17, 54-25]

IN THE MATTERS OF COMMUNITY POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY, THE KANSAS UTILITIES COMPANY, ET AL.; AND THE UNITED LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY, CONTINENTAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION, AND EASTERN KANSAS UTILITIES, INC., ET AL.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS FOR PURPOSES OF HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that declarations and applications have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Community Power and Light Company and The Kansas Utilities Company in the form of amendments to applications and declarations heretofore filed by Community Power and Light Company and others in connection with a comprehensive plan of corporate simplification and integration (File No. 70-282) which amendments relate specifically to the following proposed transactions:

The Kansas Utilities Company proposes to sell all of its properties and assets to Eastern Kansas Utilities, Inc., a subsidiary to be acquired by Continental Gas & Electric Corporation, for the sum of $2,300,000 in cash, plus such further sum as shall represent net current assets of The Kansas Utilities Company. The proceeds of such sale will be used by The Kansas Utilities Company to make payment in full to the holders of the Preferred Stock of The Kansas Utilities Company and the remainder thereof will be paid to Community Power and Light Company as and for a liquidating dividend;

The sum so received by Community Power and Light Company will be used to retire First Mortgage 5% Collateral Bonds, due March 1, 1957, of Community Power and Light Company; and

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said declarations shall not become effective nor said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission; and

Continental Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company and a subsidiary of The United Light and Power Company, and Eastern Kansas Utilities, Inc., a newly organized Kansas corporation, having filed an application designated as Application No. 9, regarding the proposed acquisition by Eastern Kansas Utilities, Inc. of the utility assets and other property of The Kansas Utilities Company, aforesaid; and

The Commission having ordered that a hearing be held at its office at 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., at 10:00 a. m., on March 10, 1942, for the purpose of considering said Application No. 9; and

It further appearing that the matters herein concerned are related and involve common questions of law or fact and that evidence offered in respect of each of the matters will have a bearing on the other; and substantial savings in time, effort, and expense may result if the hearings on said matters are consolidated so that they may be heard as one matter and so that the evidence adduced in each matter may stand as evidence in the other for all purposes; and

It further appearing that it is appropriate that the hearing with respect to Application No. 9 aforesaid be postponed from the time and place aforesaid to such time as shall hereinafter be designated for the hearing with respect to the declarations and applications by Community Power and Light Company and The Kansas Utilities Company;

It is hereby ordered, That the proceedings herein involved be consolidated for hearing and that a hearing be held thereon at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing-room clerk at 10:00 a. m. on the 17th day of March, 1942. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice on or before March 12, 1942.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of the Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarants and applicants and to any other person whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the entry of this order by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to the respondents, applicants and declarants, and that notice shall be given to all other persons by publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF F. W. DYER, DOING BUSINESS AS EMPIRE SERVICE COMPANY, 1835 CHAMPA STREET, DENVER, COLORADO

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS INVESTMENT ADVISER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of February, A. D. 1942.

1. F. W. Dyer, doing business as Empire Service Company, is registered with this Commission as an investment adviser under section 203 (c) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. We instituted this proceeding to determine whether his registration as such should be suspended or revoked pursuant to section 203 (d) of the Act.

2. Respondent has admitted that he is permanently enjoined by an order of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, entered on January 3, 1942, from engaging in certain conduct and practices in connection with the purchase and sale of securities and in connection with his business as an investment adviser. He further admitted that in the conduct of his business as an investment adviser he:

(a) Has misrepresented the nature of his advisory service:

(b) Has offered to make good any losses sustained by his clients, when he was unable to carry out such an offer;

(c) Has accepted clients' funds for the purchase of securities and has represented that the securities had been purchased when he had not so purchased the securities;

(d) Has converted to his own use and benefit the money sent him by clients for the purchase of securities;

(e) Has represented that clients' funds were used in purchasing securities and paying charges and failed to account for remaining balances;

(f) Has purchased securities contrary to the authority of his clients and converted remaining balances to his own use and benefit.

Respondent has consented to the revocation of his registration as an investment adviser.

3. We find that respondent is permanently enjoined by an order of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, entered on January 3, 1942, from engaging in certain conduct and practices in connection with his business as an investment adviser and in connection with the purchase and sale of securities, and that revocation of his registration as an investment adviser is in the public interest.

Accordingly, It is ordered, That the registration as an investment adviser of F. W. Dyer, doing business as Empire Service Company, be, and it hereby is, revoked.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell, Commissioners Healy, Pike, and O'Brien), Commissioner Burke being absent and not participating.

IN THE MATTER OF MANUFACTURERS TRUST COMPANY

ORDER MODIFYING PREVIOUS ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Manufacturers Trust Company, the owner of all of the capital stock of Utility Service Company, a registered holding company, and of more than ten per centum of the voting securities of New England Public Service Company, also a registered holding company, having filed an application for an order extending for a period of one year from February 17, 1942 the exemption granted it pursuant to Section 3 (a) (4) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by our orders in the above styled and numbered cause dated April 20, 1939 and May 17, 1941 with respect to its indirect ownership of the voting securities of The Marion-Reserve Power Company, Eastern Minnesota Power Corporation and Wisconsin Hydro Electric Company, each a subsidiary of Utility Service Company; and representatives of the applicant having represented that the applicant would take immediate steps to recapitalize Eastern Minnesota Power Corporation and Wisconsin Hydro Electric Company and would cause Utility Service Company to dispose of its interest in The Marion-Reserve Power Company and in Eastern Minnesota Power Corporation or in any company which might be formed pursuant to the recapitalization of the latter within the requested extended period and would during said period do all things possible to improve the operating and financial condition of The Marion-Reserve Power Company; and the Commission having considered said application and all of the reasons in support thereof and finding that the same should be granted subject, however, to the conditions hereinafter set forth;

It is therefore ordered, That the fourth paragraph of our order dated May 17, 1941 in the above styled and numbered cause (Holding Company Act Release No. 2755) be and the same is hereby changed and modified by the following paragraph;

It is hereby ordered, That Manufacturers Trust Company be and it is hereby exempted from all of the provisions of said Act applicable to a holding company with respect to its direct and indirect ownership of the voting securities of Utility Service Company, The Marion-Reserve Power Company, Eastern Minnesota Power Corporation and Wisconsin Hydro Electric Company for a period of one year from the date hereof at which time such exemption shall terminate: Provided, however, That such exemption shall terminate forthwith (1) unless within forty-five days from the date hereof Eastern Minnesota Power Corporation and Wisconsin Hydro Electric Company file recapitalization plans with the Commission, and (2) if during the extension of the exemption period hereby granted The Marion-Reserve Power Company declares dividends on its common stock in an amount aggregating in excess of $100,000.

It is further ordered, That all other provisions of our order of May 17, 1941 in this matter remain in full force and effect until the further order of this Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF CENTRAL NEW YORK POWER CORPORATION

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of February, A. D. 1942.

Central New York Power Corporation, a subsidiary of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, in turn a subsidiary of The United Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 6 (b) thereof, for an exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) thereof, regarding the issue and sale to Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of $1,000,000 aggregate principal amount of General Mortgage Bonds, 2⅞% Series due 1965, at a price of 97.90% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest from January 1, 1942 to the closing date, the proceeds to be used, together with other funds of the company, to pay at maturity a like principal amount of Five Per Cent Forty-Year Gold Bonds due April 1, 1942; and

Said application having been filed on January 26, 1942, and amendment thereto having been filed on February 14, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application within the period specified by said notice or otherwise and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the proposed issue and sale has been expressly authorized by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York, the State Commission of the State in which applicant is organized and does business, and that the proceeds of said issue and sale are solely for the purpose of financing the business of applicant, and finding that said application, as amended, furnishes no basis for imposing terms and conditions, other than the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and that applicant is entitled to an exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) of said Act with respect to said issue and sale;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid application, as amended, be and it hereby is granted forthwith.

By the Commission (Commissioner Healy dissenting for the reasons set forth in his memorandum of April 1, 1940).

IN THE MATTER OF THE ALBION GAS LIGHT COMPANY

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE AND GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of February, A. D. 1942.

The Albion Gas Light Company, a subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed an application under section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for an exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) (1) of said Act, and a declaration under Rules U-42 and U-43 promulgated under the Act, with respect to a proposal to extend to March 1, 1943 the maturity date on applicant's First Mortgage Seven Per cent Twenty-Year Gold Bonds, due March 1, 1942, and the solicitation of the consents of holders of said bonds to such extension in maturity date.

The Middle West Corporation, and its subsidiary Michigan Public Service Company, have joined in such application and declaration as holders of $29,900 and $36,700 principal amounts, respectively, of said bonds, requesting approval under section 10 of the Act of their assents to such proposed extension of maturity.

A public hearing on such application and declaration having been held after appropriate notice; the Commission having examined the record and having made and filed its findings herein:

It is ordered, That, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-23, said application be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, and that said declaration be, and it hereby is, permitted to become effective, subject further to the following particular conditions:

1. No payments in cash, property or services shall be made by Albion on the principal or interest (accrued or to become due) on the demand notes presently held by The Middle West Corporation except pursuant to a further order or orders of the Commission.

2. A copy of the Findings and Opinion of the Commission filed herein shall be enclosed with each initial letter of solicitation sent to bondholders of Albion requesting assents to the proposed extension of maturity.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and it hereby is, reserved—

1. To require the Albion Gas Light Company to take such steps as may be required under Section 11 (b) (2) of the Act for the purpose of fairly and equitably distributing voting power among the company's security holders and as may be necessary and appropriate to simplify its capital structure.

2. To require that The Middle West Corporation and Michigan Gas and Electric Company shall take such action with respect to their continued ownership of securities of the Albion Gas Light Company, as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of section 11 (b) (1) of the Act.

3. To determine, in appropriate proceedings, the validity and relative priority, among all security holders and claimants, of the claims of The Middle West Corporation and Michigan Gas and Electric Company against The Albion Gas Light Company.

By the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER GRANTING DECLARANT'S REQUESTS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1942.

The Commission, by its order issued December 23, 1941, as modified January 31, 1942, having permitted Central States Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company in the Ogden Corporation holding company system, to utilize approximately $2,835,015 for the purchase of its First Mortgage and First Lien Gold Bonds, 5½% Series, due January 1, 1953, pursuant to the solicitation of tenders at 100 and accrued interest up to and including February 28, 1942; and

Declarant having filed an amendment herein requesting that the period within which such tenders may be accepted be extended to and including March 31, 1942, and also requesting that, during such period, it be permitted to purchase its first mortgage bonds in the open market at 100 and accrued interest; and

It appearing to the Commission that Declarant's requests should be granted

It is ordered, that such requests be granted, subject, however, to the following terms and conditions:

1. The terms and conditions set forth in Rule U-24 and the requirements as to post-amendments and supplementary solicitations set forth in paragraphs (d) and (f) of Rule U-62, which requirement as to post-amendments shall be deemed applicable in the event that any person shall be directly or indirectly employed to solicit bondholders in connection with the proposed transactions.

2. That on or before April 10, 1942, the declarant file with the Commission a statement showing the names and addresses of the holders of bonds who tendered their bonds and the principal amount of bonds tendered by each during the period commencing March 1, 1942 and ending March 31, 1942, and showing also the aggregate principal amount of bonds purchased in the open market during said period.

3. That no fees incurred in connection with the purchase of bonds as herein proposed be paid until the same have been approved by further order of this Commission.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COMPANY

FINDINGS AND ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C. on the 28th day of February, A. D. 1942.

The North American Company, a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 12 (d) thereof and Rule U-44 thereunder regarding a proposed distribution on or about April 1, 1942, in payment of a dividend on its common stock, of not more than 155,000 shares of the Capital Stock of The Detroit Edison Company; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice thereof, and the Commission after examining the record finding that the declarant will charge earned surplus with the cost of said shares, and intends "to dispose of the balance of its holdings of common stock of The Detroit Edison Company, when practicable, either by sale or other disposition;" and finding further that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the declaration be permitted to become effective;

It is ordered, That subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, said declaration be and the same is hereby permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

CHAPTER I—FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

PART 27—FEDERAL LAND BANK OF SAINT PAUL

Correction

Paragraphs (c) and (d) of F. R. Doc. 42-1475, appearing in the issue of February 20, 1942 at page 1101, are corrected to read as follows:

(c) Where sales of gravel, timber, or other material constituting security, are hereafter made, there shall be charged a fee, as set out in paragraph numbered (a), above, based upon the aggregate consideration paid during the 12 months' period commencing with the date the first payment from such sale(s) is received by the Bank, or the date other disposition thereof is ordered by the Bank.

(d) Where sales of lots or other parcels of land, constituting security, are made hereafter, there shall be charged a fee, as set out in paragraph numbered (a), above, based upon the aggregate consideration paid during the 12 months' period commencing with the date the first payment from such sale(s) is received by the Bank, or the date other disposition thereof is ordered by the Bank.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

CHAPTER VII—AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

PART 721—CORN

REVISED PROCLAMATION OF ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS FOR COMMERCIAL CORN-PRODUCING AREA, 1942

Whereas section 328 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as Amended, provides in part as follows:

The acreage allotment of corn for any calendar year shall be that acreage in the commercial corn-producing area which, on the basis of the average yield for corn in such area during the ten calendar years immediately preceding such calendar year, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and trends in yield, will produce an amount of corn in such area which the Secretary determines will, together with corn produced in the United States outside the commercial corn-producing area, make available a supply for the marketing year beginning in such calendar year, equal to the reserve supply level. The Secretary shall proclaim such acreage allotment not later than February 1 of the calendar year for which such acreage allotment was determined * * *

Whereas subsection (c) of section 301 of said Act provides as follows:

The latest available statistics of the Federal Government shall be used by the Secretary in making the determinations required to be made by the Secretary under this Act.

Whereas the proclamation of the acreage allotment of corn issued by Mr. Grover B. Hill, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, on September 18, 1941,[1] which was based upon the latest statistics of the Federal Government then available, does not now properly reflect current trends in domestic consumption and exports of corn and would likely result in an inadequate supply of corn for the 1942-43 marketing year to meet consumption and reserve requirements in view of the profound changes in conditions which have occurred since September 18, 1941, and

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress known as the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as Amended, upon the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, do hereby ascertain, determine, and proclaim under section 328 of said Act, thereby superseding the proclamation of the acreage allotment of corn issued September 18, 1941:

§ 721.402 Corn acreage allotment for the commercial corn-producing area for

In the Matter of Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc., a Corporation; Asia Mohi Company, Ltd., a Corporation, and C. James Garofalo, Individually and as President of Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc., and Asia Mohi Company, Ltd.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1942.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondents, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondents and Richard P. Whiteley, Assistant Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides that without further evidence or other intervening procedure the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondents herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon, and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondents, Asia Mohi Company, Ltd., a corporation, Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc., a corporation, their officers, and C. James Garofalo, individually and as an officer of said corporations, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondents' rugs in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the names "Chatham", "Dixie" or "New Cape Colony", or any other distinctively American name, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the United States;

2. Using the words "Weavers" as a part of the corporate or trade name of respondent Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc., or otherwise representing that respondent Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc. manufactures the rugs sold by respondents.

It is further ordered, That respondents Asia Mohi Company, Ltd., its officers, and C. James Garofalo, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and said respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondents' rugs in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the words "Hong Kong" or "Canton", or any other word indicative of Chinese origin, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in China and which do not possess all of the essential characteristics of Chinese Oriental rugs;

2. Using the words "Mahah", "Numda", "Kirma", "Oriental", "Orienta" or "Bagdad", or any other word indicative of the Orient, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all of the essential characteristics of Oriental rugs;

3. Using the word "reproduction", or any other word of similar import, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact reproductions in all respects of the type named, including material;

4. Using the term "Wool-Tex", or any other term of similar import, to designate or describe rugs which are not composed wholly of wool;

5. Representing that respondents' rugs have been "approved" or "accepted" by the "American Bureau of Home Standards"; or representing that respondents' rugs have been approved or accepted by any agency or organization unless such is the fact, and unless the purported agency or organization is a disinterested, independent body qualified to pass judgment on such matters.

It is further ordered, That respondents Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc., its officers, and C. James Garofalo, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and said respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondents' rugs in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Using the word "Guild", or any other word of similar import, as a part of the corporate or trade name of respondent Masterkraft Guild Weavers, Inc., or otherwise representing that said respondent is a guild.

It is further ordered, That all of the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, answer of the respondent, stipulation as to the facts entered into by and between counsel for the Commission and counsel for the respondent upon the record, and briefs filed in support of the complaint and in opposition thereto; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Little Rock Tent & Awning Company, a corporation, trading under the name of Tuf-Nut Garment Manufacturing Company, or under any other name, its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of work garments, or any other merchandise, in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Supplying to, or placing in the hands of, retail dealers or others, display posters or any other sales plans or devices which are to be used, or may be used, in the sale or distribution of work garments or any other merchandise to the public by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme;

(2) Selling, or otherwise disposing of, any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

SUBCHAPTER A—INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAXES

[T.D. 5122]

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

Computation of Limitation Upon the Credit for Foreign Taxes in Relation to Excess Profits Tax

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.], relating to the income tax under the Internal Revenue Code, to the Revenue Act of 1941 (Public Law 250, Seventy-seventh Congress), approved September 20, 1941, such regulations are amended as follows:

Section 19.131–8 [1] is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

§ 19.131–8 Limitations on credit for foreign taxes. • • •

Under the provisions of section 202, Revenue Act of 1941, amending section 23 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the excess profits tax imposed by Subchapter E of Chapter 2 is, for years beginning after December 31, 1940, allowed as a deduction in the computation of net income for the purposes of Chapter 1. An aliquot part of such excess profits tax shall be attributable to the net income from sources within each foreign country. The amount so attributable is that proportion of the total excess profits tax which the excess profits net income from sources within such country bears to the total excess profits net income. In the determination of the limitation provided in section 131 (b) (1), relating to the amount of credit against the normal tax, the numerator of the limitation fraction shall reflect reduction for the amount of the excess profits tax thus attributed to the net income from sources within the foreign country.

The operation of this method of computing the limitation fraction may be illustrated by the following example relating to a domestic corporation for the calendar year 1941:

Excess profits credit		$100,000
Net income for taxable year (before deducting excess profits tax):
From sources in Country A	$50,000
From sources in United States	80,000
Total net income		130,000
Less: Credit for dividends received (85 percent of $10,000 dividends from a domestic corporation)		8,500
		121,500
Normal tax net income (before deducting excess profits tax)
Excess profits tax net income:
Net income from sources in Country A	$50,000
Net income from sources in United States	None
Less: Adjustments under section 711
		50,000
Excess profits net income from sources in Country A	$50,000
Net income from sources in United States	8,500
Less: Dividends from domestic corporations as above
	71,500
Less: Adjustments under section 711	None
		71,500
Excess profits net income		121,500
Less: Excess profits credit plus specific exemption of $5,000		105,000
Adjusted excess profits net income		16,500
Excess profits tax		5,775
Normal tax net income (before deducting excess profits tax)		121,500
Less: Excess profits tax		5,775
		115,725
Normal tax net income		35,624.75
Normal tax and surtax (before foreign tax credit)

COMPUTATION OF FOREIGN TAX CREDIT FOR PURPOSES OF NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX

Foreign Tax paid on Country A income	$16,000
Net income from Country A adjusted for ratable part of excess profits tax deduction
$50,000 (net income from sources in Country A before deducting excess profits tax) × $50,000 (excess profits net income from Country A) / $121,500 (total excess profits net income) × $5,775 (total excess profits tax) =	$47,623.46
	$115,725.00
Normal tax net income
Limitation on credit (section 131 (b) (1)):
$47,623.46 / $115,725.00 × $35,624.75	14,660.39
Amount allowable as credit	14,660.39

COMPUTATION OF CREDIT FOR THE PURPOSES OF EXCESS PROFITS TAX

Foreign tax paid on Country A income	$16,000.00
Amount allowed as credit with respect to tax imposed by Chapter 1	14,660.39
Balance available as a credit for purposes of the excess profits tax	1,339.61
Limitation on credit (sections 131 (b) (1) and 729 (d) ()):
$50,000 (excess profits net income from Country A) / $121,500 (entire excess profits net income) × $5,775 = $2,376.54
Amount allowable as credit	$1,339.61

Similarly under section 131 (b) (2), the taxpayer's net income from sources without the United States shall be reduced by that portion of the total excess profits tax which is attributable to the net income from sources without the United States.

(This Treasury decision is issued under the authority contained in section 131 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 59, 26 U.S.C. 1940 Ed. 131) and section 202 of the Revenue Act of 1941 (Public Law 250—77th Congress).)

[SEAL] NORMAN D. CANN,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: March 2, 1942.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

SUBCHAPTER C—MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES

[T.D. 5121]

PART 171—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS RELATED TO LIQUOR

Subpart H—Transportation of Distilled Spirits, Alcohol and Specially Denatured Alcohol by Tank Trucks

By virtue of sections 3108 (a), 3124 (a) (6), and 3176, Internal Revenue Code, and the Act of January 24, 1942 (Public Law 412—77th Congress), the following regulations are prescribed:

§171.40 General. Subject to the conditions prescribed hereinafter, distilled spirits, alcohol, and specially denatured alcohol described below may be transported in tank trucks owned and operated by the consignor or the consignee, or by a motor carrier. The term "motor carrier" shall mean a motor carrier licensed under the Motor Carrier Act of 1935, or an applicable state law.

(a) Distilled spirits of 160 degrees or more of proof:

(1) Withdrawn from a registered distillery, fruit distillery, or an internal revenue bonded warehouse, pursuant to withdrawal permits on Form 1444 (Distilled Spirits) issued to the United States or any governmental agency thereof, for use at arsenals, munitions plants, ordnance depots, and similar places; or

(2) Transferred in bond from a registered distillery, fruit distillery, or an internal revenue bonded warehouse to a denaturing plant.

(b) Alcohol produced under the provisions of Part II, Subchapter C, Chapter 26, Internal Revenue Code:

(1) Withdrawn from an industrial alcohol plant, or an alcohol bonded warehouse, pursuant to withdrawal permits on Form 1444 issued to the United States or any governmental agency thereof, for use at arsenals, munitions plants, ordnance depots, and similar places; or

(2) Transferred in bond between industrial alcohol plants, alcohol bonded warehouses, and denaturing plants pursuant to withdrawal permits, Forms 1436, 1438, 1464, or 1465.

(c) Specially denatured alcohol withdrawn from denaturing plants pursuant to withdrawal permits, Forms 1477, 1485, or 1486, for use at powder plants, arsenals, munitions plants, and similar places. (Secs. 3108 (a), 3124 (a) (6), 3176, I.R.C., Act of January 24, 1942)

§ 171.41 Permits and bonds—(a) New carriers. Motor carriers, in order to transport specially denatured alcohol, tax-free alcohol, and tax-free distilled spirits, or any one of such products, by tank trucks, must procure permits so to do, in accordance with section 3114, Internal Revenue Code, and Regulations 3 (26 CFR, Part 182), and file bond, Form 49. The terms of the bond shall be modified to cover distilled spirits of 160 degrees or more of proof withdrawn for tax-free purposes, in addition to tax-free and denatured alcohol, and shall be in the penal sum of $50,000 for each tank truck used, and not more than $200,000 for the total of all tank trucks used. Where such permit is obtained and bond is filed, the permit will also authorize transportation of such products in barrels or drums without additional bond requirement.
